THE HISTORY OF PRINCE HALL MASONRY

Edited by P.G.M. Sterling Taylor*

• American patriot, biblical student, abolitionist, educator and craftsman, Prince Hall was the founder and first African American Master of an American Freemasons Lodge. He was the first of a long line of revered black political and social organizers to have a lasting impact on American society and its' history.'

• Prince Hall was bon on "September 14, 1735," and lived until December 4, 1807. Surprisingly, other supporting documentation or evidence of proof about the personal life of this remarkable man are sketchy. Even Past Grand Master William H. Grimshaws' account of Halls' parentage, place of birth and other personal history has now been discounted as being more imaginary than factual.

•It is probable that Prince Hall was reared somewhere within the British Empire and migrated to America. His reference to "home" in a letter to the Countess of Huntington and his friendship with other British Nobility would suggest that he had strong roots among the English upper class. Yet some Masonic historians disagree insisting that he was a slave, as evidenced by a manumission paper filed for a "Prince Hall" by slave owner William Hall on April 9, 1770, one month after the first shot of the American Revolution killed Michael Johnson (Crispus Attucks).

•Fortunately, the Masonic credentials of Prince Hall and the regularity of the Black Masonic Lodges which affiliated themselves by his name are beyond dispute. On March 6, 1775, over a year before the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Prince Hall and fourteen other free black men were made Master Masons in Army Lodge No. 441 by Worshipful Master John Batt working under the authority and Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Ireland. When the British regiments left Boston on March 17, 1776, a permit (dispensation) was issued by Worshipful Master Batt authorizing Prince Hall and his brethren to meet as a lodge under restrictions. Under this permit African Lodge No. 1 was formed on July 3, 1776.

•Official acknowledgment of the legitimacy of African Lodge No. 1 was almost immediately made by John Rowe of Boston, a Caucasian Provincial Grand Master of North America, holding authority from the premier Grand Lodge of Freemasons, the Modern Grand Lodge of London and Westminster. He too, issued a permit authorizing African Lodge No.1 to appear publicly in procession as a Masonic body for the purpose of celebrating the Feast of Saints' John and to bury its dead.

•For eleven years these brethren with other free black men, who had received their degrees in Europe and Great Britain, assembled together and enjoyed their limited privileges as segregated Masons, distressed that Prince Halls' attempts to formally associate African Lodge No.1 with Caucasian (Provincial) Grand Lodges was frustrated by white bigotry and racism. It was an ironic period in American History when the colonists embraced the doctrine of independence, liberty, and equality to justify the revolt against the English rule while promoting and condoning the economic and social exploitation of blacks debased by institutionalized slavery.

•Finally, in March 1784, Prince Hall petitioned the Modern Grand Lodge of London and Westminster through Worshipful Master William Moody of Brotherly Love Lodge No. 55 (London, England) for a warrant of constitution. The Charter was prepared and issued on September 1784, although it would be three years before African Lodge No. 1 actually received it. A letter was sent by Worshipful Master Moody to Prince Hall on March 10, 1787, stating that the Charter was delivered to Captain James Scott, of the ship Neptune, a merchant ship owned by John Hancock. John Hancock was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and President of the Continental Congress. Several years after John Hancock died Captain James Scott married his widow. The Charter, signed by the Deputy Grand Master Roland Holt and witnessed by Grand Secretary William White, reconstituted African Lodge No. 1 as African Lodge No. 459, (later renumbered to African Lodge No. 370), and thus began the parallel lines of Negro and Caucasian Freemasonry which exists in America to this very day.

•Before 1815, exclusive territorial jurisdiction was not an active and recognized doctrine of English Masonic Custom. The African Lodge of Boston exercised its' right to establish other lodges, making itself a mother lodge, its Master Prince Hall having the authority to issue warrants on the same basis as Masters of Lodges in Europe and Great Britain.

•African lodges were constituted in Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and New York. On June 24, 1791, the African Grand Lodge of North America was organized in Boston with Prince Hall as Grandmaster. This was one year before the organization of the United Grand Lodge of Massachusetts (Caucasian). In 1827, thirty-five years after the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts had done so, African Grand Lodge of Boston declared itself independent of the United Grand Lodge of England.

•The original charter of African Lodge of Boston is in the possession of the Prince Hall Affiliated Grand Lodge of Massachusetts and is the only known original Eighteenth Century Charter in existence issued to any American Lodge by the United Grand Lodge of England or its predecessors. It proudly represents the indisputable legitimacy and regularity of the Prince Hall Lodges and Councils and their constituent and affiliated bodies.

THE ORIGIN OF PRINCE HALL MASONRY IN ALASKA

Edited by P.G.M. Richard Watts, Sr.

In 1959, two clandestine lodges existed in the State of Alaska, Alpha Lodge No. 16 and Anchor Lodge No. 10 that could not trace their origin to the Grand Lodge of England. The Senior Warden of Alpha Lodge No. 16 was an acquaintance MWGM Amos T. Hall, Grand Master of Oklahoma. SW Grice took the steps necessary to inform MWGM Hall that Alpha Lodge No. 16 desired to become a member of the Prince Hall family.

Through SW Grice's initiative, Alpha Lodge No. 16 became the first Prince Hall Lodge in Alaska. Alpha Lodge No. 16 was re-designated Alpha Lodge No. 61 under the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Oklahoma, October 1959. In the years 1960, 1963, 1964, three more Lodges received Prince Hall Charters. They were Unity Lodge No. 65, Midnight Sun Lodge No. 67, and Summit Lodge No. 68. This brought to four the number of Lodges Chartered under the Jurisdiction of Oklahoma.

Encouraged by the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Oklahoma's success at establishing Subordinate Symbolic Lodges in Alaska, a movement began to secure Scottish Rite Bodies under the United Supreme Council, Northern Jurisdiction. MWGM Hall in cooperation with Sovereign Grand Commander George Crawford, made plans to institute the Scottish Rite as well as a Temple of the Mystic Shrine in Alaska. Sovereign Grand Commander Crawford appointed Deputy Booker T. Alexander, and active member of the Supreme Council as Special Deputy to undertake the details of the organization of a Consistory, Rose Croix, and a Lodge of Perfection in Alaska. An organizational meeting was held February 17, 1961 in Anchorage, Alaska. Sovereign Grand Commander Crawford authorized the formation of Northern Lights Consistory No. 72, Cardinal Virtue Chapter of Rose Croix No. 72, and Fidelity Lodge of Perfection No. 72; all in Anchorage.

During May 1965, Alpha, Unity, and Midnight Sun Lodges sought Charters form the Grand Lodge of Washington. Their decision was not made haphazardly and only came about because of great expenses being incurred due to considerable distance between the states of Oklahoma and Alaska. Summit Lodge No. 68 remained under the Jurisdiction of Oklahoma.

With the addition of Arctic Lodge No. 56, there were five Lodges in the State of Alaska but only four were under the Washington Jurisdiction. With their Charters from Washington Jurisdiction, Unity Lodge No. 65 was reconstituted Mt. McKinley Lodge No. 50, Midnight Sun Lodge No. 67 became Midnight Sun Lodge No. 51, and Alpha Lodge No. 61 became Alpha Lodge No. 52. In September 1969, our mother Grand Lodge, The Grand Lodge of the State of Washington organized the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of the State of Alaska. Most Worshipful Louis Solomon, Past Grand Master of Washington's Prince Hall Jurisdiction, presided over the dedication of the Grand Lodge of Alaska and the installation of its Grand Officers.

Edited by P.G.M. Richard Watts, Sr.

The Honorable Richard Watts, Sr. was installed as Grand Master. It was then that Alpha Lodge No. 52 became Alpha Lodge No. 1; Mt. McKinley Lodge No. 50 became Mt. McKinley No. 2; and Midnight Sun Lodge No. 51 became Midnight Sun Lodge No. 3; Arctic Lodge No. 56 chose to remain under Jurisdiction of the State of Washington and Summit Lodge No. 68 was still under the Jurisdiction of the State of Oklahoma. The Grand Lodge for the State of Alaska initially had three lodges under its Jurisdiction.

Grand Master Watts immediately began to facilitate the work that was necessary to bring all Prince Hall Lodges in the State of Alaska under the fold of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Alaska and its Jurisdiction. Grand Master Watts began to realize the initial part of his task was accomplished when , in the year 1971, Castle Rock No. 4 was established. Also, 1971 proved to be a very beautiful year as Pillar Mountain Lodge No. 5 and Summit Lodge No. 68 of Oklahoma came under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Alaska. Summit Lodge No. 68 was redesignated Summit Lodge No. 6 upon its admittance into the Alaska Masonic Family. Continuing to grow the state in 2012 Richard J. Watts Sr. Lodge No.8 was established, 2016 Edward A. Miller Sr. Lodge No. 9 was established, expanding the Jurisdiction in 2017 Sterling R. Taylor Lodge No. 10, was added.

Grand Master Watts continued to formulate his plans for the expansion of Masonry in Alaska. In 1972, the “Brothers” in the Prince Hall Family, while realizing their strength did not come from within, sought out ways to establish a Grand Chapter in Alaska by contacting Oregon’s Grand Matron, Dorothy Vickers, to assist in forming a Grand Chapter in Alaska. Before their terms of office had expired the foundation for establishing a Grand Chapter in Alaska had been laid.

In was on June 10, 1972 the Grand Patron, Felix T. Hall and Grand Matron, Lenora Gaskins, organized the Grand Chapter for the State of Alaska. It was one of the many bright Auroras in the early history of Prince Hall Masonry in the State of Alaska.

Are you an active member, the kind that would be missed, or are you just content that your name is on the list?

Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock; or do you stay home and criticize the knock?

Do you ever go and visit a member that is sick, or leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique?

Come to the meeting often and help with hand and heart, don't just be a member,
but take an active part.

Think this over member, you know right from wrong, are you an active member or do you just belong?
