2027 JOURNEYS

Your next adventure awaits...

Dear Carolina alumni and friends,

We believe the most rewarding journeys are measured not in miles but by the memories, moments of discovery and enduring connections that stay with us long after returning home. We're pleased to present this selection of educational travel opportunities with Orbridge for 2027.

Each tour offers authentic experiences in meaningful places. You won't just pass through; you'll engage, learn and come away with a clearer sense of the world and your place in it.

Thoughtful itineraries and full logistical support take care of the details. Well-paced days, carefully selected accommodations and experienced guides create a setting where you can be present, relax and focus on the destination.

Equally important are the people you travel with. Sharing these experiences with others who are equally interested adds depth to each day. Conversations develop naturally and many bonds continue well beyond the journey itself.

We invite you to explore the following pages and see where you'd like to travel in 2027.
