Advent begins on Sunday, November 30

Advent is a 25-day time of reflection preceding Christmas Day. Why not set aside some time each day, amid the busyness of preparations for the holidays, to prepare your heart for the birth of our Savior? Devotional readings, the lighting of the advent candles and the opening of the little windows on the Advent calendar are a few of the ways to slow down and keep Christ in Christmas.

C. S. Lewis (1898-1963)

C. S. Lewis was a prolific Irish-born writer, professor and author of 40 books. Reading at age 3 and writing imaginative stories at age five, as an adult, he wrote science fiction, fantasy and books on the Christian faith, in addition to his scholarly works. Among his most well-known works are Mere Christianity, a collection of his radio talks during World War II; Screwtape Letters; and perhaps his work of greatest lasting fame: The Chronicles of Narnia.

This fall we celebrate the 75th Anniversary of Narnia, the beloved fantasy series of seven books for children of all ages!
