STEELBAND

Welcome Message

It is with great pride and heartfelt gratitude that we welcome you to celebrate 35 years of music, culture, and community with Panatics Steelband Network.

What began as a shared passion for the vibrant sounds of the steelpan has grown into a lasting legacy—one built on dedication, creativity, and the unifying power of music. For three and a half decades, our band has brought people together, carrying the rich traditions of steelband music while inspiring new generations to embrace its energy and soul.

Tonight, we celebrate not only our journey, but the many hands and hearts that have shaped it—our talented musicians, devoted supporters, and cherished community. Your presence here is a testament to the enduring impact of this art form and the spirit that drives it forward.

As you enjoy this evening of performances and fellowship, we invite you to reflect on the rhythms that connect us, the memories we've created, and the exciting future still to come.

Thank you for being part of our celebration—and for keeping the music alive.

Our Story

Panatics Steelband Network was founded on April 16, 1991, in North York, growing out of a youth steelpan program launched in 1990 at the Flemingdon Park Resource Centre. Created to provide a positive outlet for local youth, the initiative—led by Layne Clarke with community support—quickly gained momentum through local funding and leadership from founding members. As the program expanded, the "Young Panatics" ensemble emerged, developing into a full orchestra that performed at community events and major celebrations, helping establish the band's presence and legacy in the years that followed.

Founding Members

We proudly recognize our founding members, whose vision and dedication built the foundation of our steelband and continue to inspire us today:

Trevor Redhead
Eulinice Clarke
Layne Clarke
Andrew Jackson
Leonard Noel
Richard Pitt
Jamea Zuberi

Our Story

Panatics Today

Panatics is now proudly based in the Malvern community of Scarborough, where weekly rehearsals are held at the Church of the Nativity, whose generous support provides an interim home for the band. Guided by a dedicated board of directors, the organization continues to uphold and advance its founding vision.

Panatics has been enriched by the musical talents of arrangers including Andrew Jackson, Layne Clarke, Winston “Pappy” Frederick, Ian Jones, Dougal Williams, Elton Jones, Trevor Redhead, Taurean Clarke, Kwesi, Hypolite, Shawndel Rodney, Gareth Burgess, and Andre Rousse. With members spanning all ages, the band continues to be a vibrant and active presence across the GTA and Ontario. Panatics regularly performs at a diverse range of public and private events, showcasing its versatility and cultural impact at festivals and celebrations such as Toronto Panorama (Pan Alive), Snowflakes on Steel, Oshawa Fiesta Week, World Steelpan Day, Afro-Carib Fest, Pickering’s Summer Concert Series, the Brampton Carabram Festival, corporate fundraisers and community events.

We extend our sincere thanks to all past and present players, members, and supporters whose continued dedication keeps the spirit of Panatics strong.
