FASHION AND LIVING FOR THE MODERN GENTLEMEN

A WINTER WARDROBE SHOULD FEEL EASY—BUILT FOR LONG DAYS, LATE NIGHTS, AND EVERYTHING BETWEEN. THIS EDIT FOCUSES ON CLEAN LINES, RICH TEXTURE, AND LAYERING THAT LOOKS SHARP WITHOUT TRYING TOO HARD.

ESSENTIALS, STYLED LIKE A RITUAL. TRUST THE FIT. TRUST THE FEEL.

FALL/ WINTER 26

Fall/Winter ’26 is a study in quiet confidence: relaxed silhouettes, refined essentials, and pieces that move seamlessly from street to work.

Think soft structure over denim, knits that sit close to the body, and outer layers that add presence without adding bulk. Neutrals lead the palette—sand, charcoal, ink—so every look feels intentional and interchangeable.

It’s less about trends and more about the uniform you return to: the jacket you grab first, the denim that always fits, the layers that hold their shape all season.

FALL/WINTER ‘26

THE MODERN GENTLEMEN

UTILITY MEETS POLISH. LAYER ON LAYER, CLEANLY DONE—SOFT OUTERWEAR, A CHECKED MID-LAYER, AND DENIM THAT WEARS IN BEAUTIFU+ LLY.

LOOK ONE

SOFT STRUCTURE, SHARP EASE

A light jacket with presen+ ce—roomy enough for layers, clean enough for anywhere. Pair it with a subtle check and grounded denim for a look that reads effortless, not casual.

THE FASTEST WAY TO LOOK PUT-TOGETHER IS TO EDIT THE NOISE. A TONAL SET, A CLEAN ZIP FRONT, AND STRAIGHT TROUSERS CREATE A SILHOUETTE THAT FEELS MODERN AND CONTROLLED—WITHOUT LOSING COMFORT.

MONOCHROME DONE RIGHT: TEXTURE, FIT, AND AURA.

LOOK TWO

THE TONAL UNIFORM

Black-on-black, refined by pro+ portion. A structured zip layer and relaxed trousers keep the line clean while the details do the work—quiet, crisp, and repeatable.

This look is built for movement: easy through the shoulders, clean through the leg, finished with footwear that keeps it grounded. The secret to tonal dressing is contrast in texture—matte against sheen, soft against structured—so the outfit reads intentional from every angle.

LOOK THREE

DENIM, REFINED

A heritage silhouette with a modern finish. Layer a workwear-inspired overshirt over warm mid-layers to create depth—practical, clean, and built for daily wear.

CLASSIC DETAILS, UPDATED FIT. EASY LAYERS THAT FEEL BROKEN-IN FROM DAY ONE.

The best pieces feel personal fast: sturdy buttons, a collar that sits right, and fabric that gains character with time. Keep the base simple—tee, knit, denim—then let the outer layer carry the story.

FALL/WINTER ‘26

THE MODERN GENTLEMEN

TEXTURE MAKES THE LOOK. BRUSHED OUTER LAYERS, WARM KNITS, AND WORN-IN DENIM—TONES THAT STAY CLASSIC, DETAILS THAT STAY CURRENT.

Fall/Winter dressing isn’t about piling on—it’s about choosing the right layers in the right order. Start with a clean base, add warmth through knits, then finish with an outer piece that frames the silhouette. The result feels effortless, but reads considered.

Style is consistency—the pieces you reach for because they always work.

Caps, denim, and clean shoes keep the look grounded, while the jacket adds structure and edge. It’s the kind of outfit that doesn’t need a second thought—and still looks like you meant it.

A MODERN WINTER LAYER: KNITWEAR WITH STRUCTURE, WORN CLOSE OR OPEN—EQUAL PARTS COMFORT AND SHAPE.

LOOK FOUR

KNIT + EDGE

A zip-knit layer brings warmth without bulk and sharpens the outline instantly. Pair it with dark bottoms and minimal accessories for a look that balances softness with attitude—easy to wear, hard to forget.

The best winter wardrobe is modular—
a few trusted layers, endlessly rearranged.

NEUTRALS ALWAYS

READY FOR NIGHT

COLD WEATHER CALLS FOR OUTERWEAR THAT DOESN’T COMPROMISE. THIS SEASON FOCUSES ON WORK-ROOTED JACKETS, EASY DENIM, AND KNIT LAYERS THAT FEEL WARM, CLEAN, AND BUILT TO LAST.

WORKWEAR ENERGY. EVERYDAY REFINEMENT.

Fall/Winter ’26 leans into rugged simplicity: a strong collar, a clean zip, and a fit that sits right from the first wear.

The palette stays grounded—to+ bacco, burgundy, washed indi+ go—so each piece pairs effortlessly with what you already own. It’s the kind of wardrobe you can live in: structured enough for the city, relaxed enough for the weekend.

Wear it hard, style it easy, repeat it often.

05

FALL/WINTER ‘26

THE MODERN GENTLEMEN

A CLEAN JACKET WITH A TOUGHER EDGE—CONTRAST COLLAR, SIMPLE ZIP, AND DENIM THAT GROUNDS THE LOOK.

LOOK FIVE

THE WEEKEND JACKET

A warm-toned outer layer over a rich knit creates instant depth. Finished with classic denim and bright footwear, it’s the kind of outfit that works anywhere—without feeling overdressed.

LOOK SIX

NIGHT SHIFT CHECKS

A statement layer that still feels classic. The check overshirt does the talking—balanced with dark trousers and clean sneakers for a look that stays sharp from late afternoon to last call.

This is where proportion matters: slightly boxy up top, straight through the leg, finished with simple footwear. Keep the base neutral and let the pattern carry the mood. Add one bold detail—like a high collar or strong pocket line—and the look reads intentio+ nal, not styled.

SMART WITHOUT STIFFNESS. CLEAN TAILORING WITH EVERYDAY COMFORT BUILT IN.

LOOK SEVEN

TAILORED, RELAXED

A matching set brings instant polish—made wearable with soft layers underneath. The burgundy knit adds warmth and contrast, while the clean lines keep everything modern.

The easiest way to upgrade your winter rotation is to treat tailoring like a layer, not a rule. Wear the jacket open, keep the base simple, and let the fit do the work. It's a look that photographs sharp—and feels even better in motion.

FALL/WINTER ‘26

THE MODERN GENTLEMEN

DETAILS DEFINE THE PIECE: CLEAN SEAMS, A STRONG COLLAR, AND TEXTURE THAT HOLDS ITS SHAPE. THE KIND OF GARMENT THAT LOOKS BETTER THE CLOSER YOU GET.

Clean lines. Rich texture. No noise.

A great set is about consistency—same tone, same texture, perfect balance. Wear it as a full look for instant impact, or break it apart to elevate denim and basics.

AN EASY FINISH LAYER FOR WINTER NIGHTS—DARK OUTERWEAR, SOFT KNIT, AND DENIM THAT KEEPS IT GROUNDED.
