WELCOME

TO THE SOUTH WEST MOTORHOME & CAMPERVAN SHOW!

WHETHER YOU'RE JOINING us for the first time or returning for another enjoyable weekend, we're delighted to welcome you to the Bath & West Showground.

The show is about so much more than motorhomes and campervans. It's an opportunity to explore a wide range of vehicles and accessories, discover new ideas for future adventures and speak directly with experts who can help you get more from life on the road. Above all, it's a chance to spend time with fellow enthusiasts who share your passion for touring.

There's plenty to enjoy away from the exhibition area too. Visit the Advice Centre for informative talks and demonstrations, pick up practical tips and cooking inspiration from Vanlife Eats, or build your confidence behind the wheel on our free motorhome manoeuvring course.

This year, we're introducing our new Food Court Marquee, bringing together some of our regular caterers, bar and customer favourites in one welcoming space.

It's the perfect place to grab something to eat or drink, relax and enjoy the atmosphere throughout the weekend. Dogs are welcome too, so the whole family can join you.

There'll be entertainment throughout the daytime, plus live entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings, making the Food Court a great place to eat, drink and unwind from day into night.

Whether you're here to shop, learn something new, relax with friends or simply enjoy the atmosphere, we hope you'll make the most of everything the show has to offer.

This showguide has been put together to help you plan your visit, with exhibitor information, entertainment schedules and useful site details all in one place.

On behalf of everyone at Warners Shows, thank you for joining us. We hope you have a wonderful weekend, make lasting memories and leave feeling inspired for your next adventure.

Sally Dodds

Head of Events, Warners Shows
Part of the Out and About Live family

September has to be one of the best months for touring. The roads are a little quieter, the countryside is just starting to turn to autumn colours and, if we're lucky, there's still plenty of sunshine to enjoy.

It's also an exciting time for the motorhome and campervan market, with the latest models on the way, with some even announced already. If you're thinking of buying, upgrading or just curious about what's new, make sure you visit the Advice Centre for our daily buying sessions with expert reviewer, Peter Vaughan. That's not all there is on offer, so check the schedule.

And don't rush home once the show is over. The South West is at its best at this time of year, whether you're heading into the Somerset countryside, exploring Devon or making your way to the coast. Have a great weekend, enjoy the show and, as always, head to outandaboutlive.co.uk for the latest motorhome news, reviews and touring inspiration.

HOW TO SELF BUILD A CAMPERVAN IN A WEEKEND - LIVE DEMO

Can Solar Really Power A Campervan?

Can you really charge an electric campervan using power from the sun? Max McMurdo is putting it to the test live at the show.

Across the weekend, the self-build specialist and TV presenter will be taking on a challenge with his team: using solar power to help keep an electric VW ID. Buzz charged while creating an off-grid campervan setup.

The plan is to fit a 450-watt solar panel to the roof rack, hinge it with gas struts, and use the energy generated to charge a series of portable power packs. Max and the team will then put them to the test, seeing how much solar energy they can generate and store during the show – and how useful that extra power could be when living and travelling off-grid.

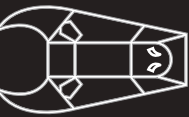

The challenge will unfold across all three days, from fitting the solar setup and connecting the power packs, to monitoring the energy generated and testing just how much the sunshine can contribute to keeping the ID. Buzz powered up.

Will it be the future of off-grid touring, a clever way to make electric campervanning go further, or just a great way to start a debate? Head over to Max's live build area (see siteplan for location), watch the progress and ask the team your questions.

Think you know how many extra miles Max's solar setup could add to the ID. Buzz after a full day in the sun? Enter your prediction at the show and the closest guess will win a free pitch at one of our 2027 traditional motorhome and campervan shows.

Get your guessing in with Max.

WHERE HAS ALL MY ENERGY GONE?

Tom & Amy from bFRANK look at how you can stay healthy and improve your energy levels while on the move.

WHERE INDEED? But by this point that question is so common it's almost rhetorical.

Waking up feeling like you could do a whole night's sleep again. Coffee number 2 or 3 at 11am, something sweet at 3pm, then collapsing onto the sofa in the evening with very little left in the tank. We joke about it, but when you think about it, it's quite strange. Humans are designed to be active, capable and productive throughout the day. Whether you're exploring a new coastline, hiking a trail, driving across the country or working remotely from your motorhome, steady energy is what allows you to get the most from life.

SO WHERE DOES ALL OUR ENERGY GO?

A big part of the answer lies when we turn that question around. Instead of asking "where has all my energy gone?", we must ask: "how can I give myself more energy?"

First it's in how we fuel ourselves. Many modern diets are built around convenience foods that digest incredibly quickly. Breakfast cereals, pastries, toast, biscuits, cereal bars, flavoured yoghurts and many supermarket snacks provide a rapid supply of glucose. Blood sugar rises quickly, insulin rises to manage it, and before long blood sugar drops again. The result is often brain fog, irritability, cravings and that familiar search for another quick pick-me-up. If you think about the most common breakfast foods in this country, it's all of the above. Most of us are setting ourselves up for a day of poor energy from the first thing we consume in the morning.

This rollercoaster creates the illusion that we need constant snacks to function. In reality, humans evolved with something called metabolic flexibility: the ability to switch between burning glucose and burning stored body fat for energy. Historically, food availability changed with the seasons, and our bodies adapted accordingly. Today, with ultra-processed foods available around the clock, many people spend years relying almost entirely on a constant stream of sugar for "energy". Stable energy becomes much harder to achieve.

The good news is that it doesn't take long to begin feeling the benefits of eating for fuel. One of the easiest ways to support steady energy is to build meals around protein, healthy fats and whole-food carbohydrates. Eggs, meat, fish, full-fat dairy, vegetables and fruit provide nutrition alongside energy. They also keep you fuller for longer and reduce the urge to constantly snack.

Hydration deserves more attention too. Even mild dehydration can affect concentration, mood and physical performance. If you regularly experience headaches, fatigue or brain fog, water and a pinch of good quality salt is a sensible place to start.

Light also plays a surprisingly important role in energy production. Your circadian rhythm regulates everything from hormone production to metabolism and sleep quality. Getting outside within the first hour or two of waking exposes your eyes to natural daylight, helping set your internal body clock for the day ahead. It improves alertness during the day and supports better sleep at night, which is where tomorrow's energy is created.

Movement matters as well. When energy feels low, the temptation is often to sit still and conserve it. A brisk walk, a few bodyweight exercises or a short mobility session can increase circulation, improve focus and often create more energy than it uses.

The brain is one of the most energy-hungry organs in the body, so everything that supports energy also supports cognitive performance. Stable blood sugar, quality sleep, movement, hydration and nutrient-dense food all help protect focus, memory and long-term brain health.

When your energy is steady, everything becomes easier. Adventures become more enjoyable, work becomes more productive and daily life feels fuller; you aren't distracted by fatigue or the constant need to snack for some quick energy.

So if you find yourself asking "where has all my energy gone?" pause for a moment and assess. What did you last eat, when did you last move, when was your last drink and did you get outside within an hour of waking? Sometimes it's annoying to know that your actions can be what's causing you dis-ease, but the only way to make meaningful change within your health is to take radical responsibility!

YOUR GUIDE TO BUYING A MOTORHOME OR CAMPERVAN AT A SHOW

Expert advice and essential tips for choosing your first (or next!) leisure vehicle — and why a motorhome exhibition is the best place to buy.

DISCOVER THE Right 'Van for You Whether you're new to motorhomes or ready to upgrade, buying the right vehicle is key to unlocking years of travel and freedom. With so many makes, models and layouts, where do you start? Simple — right where you are, at a motorhome show. Organised by the experienced Out & About Live team, with over 55 years of industry knowledge behind them, these shows bring together a huge range of options, all in one place, making it easier than ever to compare, learn, and make the right decision.

WHY BUY AT A SHOW?

See it, touch it, compare it. You're already in the best place to start your motorhome journey. Nothing compares to stepping inside a vehicle to see if it feels right. While you're here at the show:

- ✓ Walk through hundreds of vehicles
- ✓ Compare layouts side-by-side
- ✓ Test bed access, check storage, and get a real feel for the space

Talk to the experts, take advantage of having manufacturers, dealers and magazine editors all in one place. From base vehicles to bed layouts, these experts are here to answer your questions in person.

Take advantage of show deals, many exhibitors are offering exclusive show-only discounts, finance incentives or bonus extras this weekend. If you're ready to buy, you could make a serious saving.

Learn before you buy as part of your visit, don't miss the free sessions in the Out & About Live Advice Centre — it's all included with your ticket! Experts like Peter Vaughan (MMM magazine) and Motorhome Matt are giving honest guidance on everything from layout choices to insurance and payloads.

Attend the Out & About Live Advice Centre talks with 18 sessions scheduled across the weekend, the advice centre is your one-stop shop for learning.

Sit in on as many talks as you like — each one is free to attend and packed with practical insight.

Highlights include:

- ✓ Motorhome & campervan buying advice
- ✓ Touring Europe in a motorhome
- ✓ Self sufficient Electrical Systems
- ✓ Touring France in a Motorhome, what you need to know in 2026

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

How will you use it? Consider where you'll go, who you'll travel with, and how long you'll stay. Will you:

- ✓ Wild camp off-grid?
 - ✓ Take extended tours across Europe?
 - ✓ Need space for children or pets?
- Your answers shape what type of motorhome you need — a compact campervan, a family-sized coachbuilt, or a luxury A-class.

Key Considerations:

- ✓ Berths & seatbelts: enough sleeping space and safe travel seats?
- ✓ Layout: fixed bed or lounge conversion? Rear washroom or garage?
- ✓ Base vehicle: try different options for driving comfort and reliability
- ✓ Storage: will it fit everything you want to bring?
- ✓ Kitchen & washroom: are they practical for your style of travel?

NEW OR USED?

New

- ✓ Latest tech and comforts
- ✓ Custom specs
- ✓ Full warranty

Used

- ✓ Better value upfront
 - ✓ Proven reliability (with a good service history)
 - ✓ Wider choice of older layouts
- At a show, you'll find both options under one roof, giving you a clearer picture of what your budget can really get.

TALK, TEST AND TAKE NOTES

A motorhome is a big investment — possibly second only to your home. So, take your time:

- ✓ Take photos and use them to confirm your shortlist while you're here at the show
- ✓ Sit in the driver's seat — how does it feel?
- ✓ Lie on the bed, test the shower, check the storage
- ✓ Attend a talk, ask questions, chat to owners on the campsite

BUILD YOUR CONFIDENCE WITH A MANOEUVRING COURSE

If you're nervous about driving a larger vehicle, we've got you covered. As part of your visit to The South-West Motorhome and Campervan Show you can take part in a free manoeuvring taster session.

These sessions are designed for beginners and experienced drivers alike, offering practical tips and the chance to get behind the wheel in a safe, supportive environment. Qualified instructors will guide you through:

- ✓ Turning and reversing techniques
- ✓ Confidence-boosting manoeuvres
- ✓ Parking and spatial awareness in larger vehicles

Taking part in one of these sessions is a fantastic way to break down any barriers to buying — and could be the moment you realise a bigger van is well within your reach.

FINAL THOUGHTS

Buying a motorhome is exciting, but it can also be overwhelming. The best way to make a confident decision is to experience everything a show has to offer — in one weekend, at one venue. Take your time, do your research, and use our checklist to help guide your journey.
