School Spirit

This year the yearbook theme is "School Spirit." As the division heads of our school point out, PCDS is a community where unity shines. Students, faculty, and staff show their spirit every day by being considerate, but one specific day rises above all others in terms of school spirit: Blue and Gold Day. Although the entire PCDS population constantly shows enthusiasm for school-sponsored events, sometimes a reminder of our school song can help get you in the spirit.

Kat Tomalty is full of school spirit this day!

Thunder the Eagle, PCDS's mascot.

We are the Eagles, we are the best
We will forever outshine the rest
With our strength and spirit too Eagles will always come on through!

Hail to the Gold and hail to the Blue

P C D S we're loyal to you
We are Phoenix Country Day
Eagles, let's go! Fight! Win!

The Beginning

Hurray! School has started, and everyone is packed in the gym. The seniors traditionally walk the youngest members of the PCDS community into the gym to promote a sense of school unity. The Lower Schoolers will forever remember this bonding experience with the Class of 2002. Mr. Brewster gave his annual Opening Day speech to the entire student and faculty population, setting the tone for the entire school year.

These happy and excited PCDS Lower Schoolers and Middle Schoolers are hanging out on Opening day, rekindling old friendships, and forging new ones.

We Have Spirit

This year's Blue and Gold Day took place on Friday, September 28. Students and faculty alike dressed up in blue and gold to show their school spirit. Divers, cheerleaders, and jazz bands performed to energize the PCDS community. Thunder the Eagle made a spectacular appearance and galvanized the students. Everyone came together this day. Students never tired despite the wide variety of activities and events. As if demonstrating extraordinary school spirit were not enough, students and their families had the opportunity to attend the annual Blue and Gold Picnic, complete with great food, music from the varsity jazz band, and fireworks. After this gathering ended, students could go to the sophomore-sponsored Fall Ball dance. Regardless of what people did this day, everyone found a way to have a lot of fun!

Ms. Thompson hugs the fashion-savvy Dr. Allison.

3. Alexandra Heuser shows off her unique fashion sense.

Student Life

Jarrid Fish, Emma Lyddon, Kelsey White, Asta Karalis, Laura Bodell, Lauren Mattioni, Mercedes Cain, and Tori Crase read a book in their sixth-grade class.

Bryeson Rodgers, Hunter VanDolah, Daniel Matloff, and Mathew Bohannon play outside.

School Heads

*When heart of spirit is the crowd,
And heroes need the roar,
That's not the game we mostly play,
Where eagles learn to soar.*

-Galen Brewster
Head of School

School spirit brings people to cheer for sports teams. School spirit fills our dances. School spirit helps classmates in need and rejoices in every success. Let the spirit of our school seek justice in all things so that our community may be always a source of compassion and hope.

-Jim Lipovsky Upper School Head

The Lower School is where school pride and spirit begin. Lower School students learn the school song and join in community and class projects. They watch the students in grades ahead and model the enthusiasm and spirit that goes along with being a Phoenix Country Day School student. We love PCDS!

Senior Dedication

The Class of 2002 dedicates this yearbook to you, Mr. Flail. Your classes were intriguing, entertaining, and memorable, and your unique style of teaching inspired us to “seek the best overall answer!” You kindled a passion for knowledge in your students and always reminded us how important true learning really is. You are always readily available for a thoughtful discourse, whether about Nietzsche or the Navajo, and you bring to your classroom an enjoyable atmosphere. We will always remember and treasure the time we had with a teacher, a mentor, and a friend. Thank you for your sense of humor, your stories (from “Steeny” to the flophouse) and “. . . umm, I don’t know, I forgot. Yeah . . .”

Halloween

Each year, the Lower Schoolers take part in a festive Halloween celebration. A few days before Halloween, the Kindergarten class holds their annual "Dad's Pumpkin Carving Day." When the big day finally arrives, the excited children launch into the much-anticipated festivities, giving students a chance to find out what Halloween is all about. Dressed in costumes that are creative, original, scary, comical, or just plain cute, these energetic Lower Schoolers enjoy lots of tricks and treats, ghouls and goblins. Sounds like fun!

Thanks to Tyler Dial and his dad, this pumpkin will soon become a festive jack-o-lantern.

Chess

Performing at a high level of excellence throughout the year, this year's Lower School Passed Pawns chess players placed very well at local, state, and national tournaments. In the All America Cup tournament, the PCDS K-3 Team took first place. Also worthy of note is Greg Adrian's 1st-place finish in the Arizona State Grade Championships. Included in the Lower School's success is the Paradise Valley Regional tournament held at PCDS. The Kindergarten team took first place, and Grant Lillard was first-place kindergartner.

Stenson Hamann and Camille Rucker receive some pointers.

- Phish

In the beginning Man created God; and in the image of Man created he him.

2 And Man gave unto God a multitude of names, that he might be Lord over all the earth when it was suited to Man.

3 And on the seven millionth day Man rested and did lean heavily on his God and saw that it was good.

4 And man formed Aqualung of the dust of the ground, and a host of others likened unto his kind.

-Jethro Tull

5 And these lesser men Man did cast into the void. And some were burned; and some were put apart from their kind.

6 And Man became the God that he had created and with his miracles did rule over all the earth.

7 But as these things did come to pass, the Spirit that did cause man to create his God lived on within all men: even within Aqualung.

8 And man saw it not.

9 But for Christ's sake he'd better start looking.

Foreign Languages

The modern and ancient languages come together in the classrooms of Latin, Spanish, and French at PCDS. These three provide students an opportunity to challenge themselves and explore the bounds of each language, including the fields of writing, listening, speaking, and reading the native tongue. AP courses allow enthusiastic students to challenge themselves and take a national test at the end of study.

Humanities

The "good corner" in Mrs. Thompson's rowdy class

Humanities thrive at PCDS in the rich course selections of the English and History Departments. Ranging from the ancient history of Western Civilization to modern government, from the Greek epics to modern fiction and drama, the broad spectrum of classes gives Upper School students a strong foundation in the liberal arts and preparation for future challenges.

AP English students Nataliya Biskup, Adam Lewkowitz, and Kat Tomalty engage in class discussion.

This year's fall play was the first at PCDS for the new drama teacher, Ms. Keller. For her first play at our school, Ms. Keller chose Lysistrata, an ancient Greek play by Aristophanes, and gave it a decidedly more contemporary flavor. Ms. Keller took the play's theme about women banding together to stop their husbands from going to war in ancient Greece and placed it in 1950's America, against the backdrop of the Korean War. The rest is history . . .

timeless wisdom.

Becky
McLaren and Yuki Kondo listen attentively.

What are Chris Macdonald and Joe Volk up to now?

1. Sophomores ponder the meaning of the term "sophomoric." 2. Lauren Etzkorn works; Jason Platt eats. 3. Lauren Etzkorn's intriguing presentation sparks debate among Eric Daucher, Shreya Patel, and Jason Platt. 4. Jordan Fisher tries to understand the nuances of blah, blah, blah.

Freshman: Meisje-Sable Burton. Sophomores: Cynthia Benin, Kristen Oelze, and Sierra Seip. Juniors: Ashley Becker, Katie Caughlin, and Cherilyn Gain. Seniors: Jamika Byas, Ally Pasulka, and Lindsay Tree.

Ally Pasulka prepares to return the serve.

Dive Team

Michaela Skloven breaks another PCDS record.

Freshman: Tom Foglesong. Sophomores: Alex Brey and Michelle Lisa. Juniors: Rebecca Dalton, Liz Foglesong, and Captain Christian Lorentzen. Senior: Captain Michaela Skloven.

Rebecca Dalton preforms a perfect dive.

Walk like an Egyptian.

Liz Foglesong meditates before the dive.

Martin Naradikian razes the opposition with his new do.

Freshmen: Will Alkhoury, Abby Bodell, Kiel Jeffery, David Krumwiede, [REDACTED] Tony Salvatore, Danielle Skloven, and Callie Thompson. Sophomores: Jason Hung, Adina Hirsch, Jennifer Lewkowitz, Phyllis Lipovsky, Kyle Malhotra, Sarah Spencer, and Stefanie Trompetter. Juniors: Rebecca Allison, Lindsay Bodell, Traci Brinkman, Beau Kenworthey, Martin Naradikian, and Joseph Volk. Seniors: Captains Jason Bodell and Adam Lewkowitz.

Rebecca Allison waits for the rest to catch up.

The chant: 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. PCDS is number one!

Stefanie Trompetter flies through the competition.

Cheer

Katie

field.

Freshmen: Alex Ashby, Chase Bales, Kirk Bansak, John Kester, Sean Kramer, Bryan McLaren, Jason Sanghi, and Soroosh Varahramyan. Sophomores: Chris England, Jon England, Greg McGrath, Sal Pozo, and Ry Schubert. Juniors: Clint Corcoran, Christo Dru, Lance Labun, and Cody Sonntag. Seniors: Gabriel Bruffy-Holmes, Eric Daucher, Hermes Flores, Eric Hirvela, Zach Israel, Jason Platt, David Tiro, Garrett Wieger, and Brian Yee. Coaches: Steve High and Dean Wilkins.

This year's men's varsity soccer players truly worked as a team. Their teamwork was obvious in their spirit both on and off the field, as evidenced by the team's accomplishments: earning second place in the Queen Creek tournament, recapturing first place in the Metro Region, and making a second-round appearance in the state tournament. Led by senior captains Gabriel Bruffy-Holmes, David Tiro, and Brian Yee, the team made a name for PCDS soccer.

Freshman
John Kester
fearlessly, faithfully, and forcefully chases after the bouncing

Juniors: Rebecca Dalton, Laura Garrity, Veronique Millon, and Lauren Perlow. Seniors: Laura Biel, Marina Ivanova, and Kat Tomalty. Coaches: Andy McKean and Shaunna Stefan.

This year's varsity squad compiled a remarkable record throughout this season. Led by captains Kat Tomalty, Laura Garrity, and Tara Wieger, the team went 8-2 in conference play. Utilizing its deep talent, ranging from freshmen to seniors, the women's soccer team demolished all but one other school and took second place in state-championship play. What a great season!

The ever-present senior Laura Biel takes a cornerkick and surely places the ball in front of the goal.

The Upper School women's basketball team had a very good season. Led by captains Sara Fastenberg and Lindsay Tree, the team sported a large group of underclassmen and qualified for the Metro Region Tournament once again. One of the many highlights of the season came from sophomore Sara Fastenberg, who scored a PCDS record of 39 points in a single game.

Freshmen: Kirk Bansak, Danny Curzon, Alex Dru, Sean Kramer, David Krumwiede, Jason Sanghi, and Soroosh Varahramyan. Sophomores: Peter Curzon, Chris England, Jon England, Sal Pozo, Michael Reinbold, and Michael Vrla. Juniors: John Haddock, Bernard Hunt, Martin Naradikian, Cody Sonntag, Josh Stark, and Joseph Yeargan. Seniors: Edwin Barnes, Gabriel Bruffy-Holmes, Eric Hirvela, Zach Israel, Orlando Martinez, Ryan Rosen, and David Tiro. Head Coach: Chip Weber. Assistant Coaches: Paul Scheltino, Bruce Sand.

While the 2002 men's varsity lacrosse team cannot beat last year's championship season, the team worked to develop even further the fundamental skills of this rough, tough sport. The veterans on the team gladly welcomed the incoming talent of the many freshmen, most of whom had some previous lacrosse experience. Good job, team!

The ever-powerful freshmen Soroosh Varahramyan and Alex Dru--watch out, Brophy!

Women's lacrosse is a relatively new sport to PCDS, but it is rapidly becoming a well-loved tradition. This less-violent cousin to men's lacrosse has attracted a significant following. The junior-dominated squad built on last year's successes. This year, with assistance from PCDS graduate Britnee Youngblood ('01), the team kept its winning excellence at PCDS.

Sophomores: Greg McGrath, Sam Mendelson, Ry Schubert, and Sam Thompson. Junior: Christo Dru. Seniors: Eric Daucher, Colin Jeffery, Andy Ko, and Garrett Wieger. Coaches: Brian Ellingson, Steve High, and Jim Judge.

Under the leadership of captains Colin Jeffery and Christo Dru, the men's varsity baseball team had an excellent season. With twelve underclassmen and three upperclassmen, the authority of the elders was constantly challenged. Needless to say, the older players laid the smack down. Never having had a bench quite this big, the team was able to allow most players to play a decent amount. Go team!

Dear Ellie,
When you get the choice to sit it out or dance

...We hope you dance!
Love, Mom, Dad, and Abigail

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder. Get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger.
May you never take one single thing for granted. God forbid love ever leave you empty handed.

Miss Amanda,
the world is just a better place with you in it!
Congratulations!
We love you,
Mommy, Daddy,
& Bubba

I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean.
Whenever one door closes, I hope one more opens. Promise me that you'll give faith a fighting chance. And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance... I hope you dance....

I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance. Don't ever settle for the path of less resistance. Living life means taking chances, but they're worth taking. Loving might be a mistake, but it's worth making.

Don't let some helping heart leave you bitter. When you come close to selling out...Reconsider. Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance. And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance...Dance!

Congratulations Brian

It has been a joy watching you grow up and achieving the highest goals you set for yourself. We are proud of your successes and even more proud of the fine young man you have become.

Love, Mom, Dad, and Justin

Every moment of your life is infinitely creative and the universe is endlessly bountiful.

Just put forth a clear enough request, and everything your heart desires must come to you.

S. Gawain

Lindsay ~

*We are so proud of the person you have become.
You are truly a delight.
Always remember how special you are and how much you are loved.*

Congratulations!

*Love,
Mom, Dad, Lawson and Michael*

Congratulations, Jason!

You have learned well and prepared yourself admirably for your life ahead -- both in college and beyond. Always remember that we love you, we are proud of you, and we are so glad you are our son.

CONGRATULATIONS FOR A GREAT YEAR
FROM YOUR LOYAL FANS

Congratulations
Laura B

May all your goals be realized

Love,
Mom & Dad, Brian, Karen, David

This yearbook would not be possible without the combined efforts of a great many people. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the following:

First, an enormous thanks to the PCDS students who have made this yearbook a reality and especially those who led a very dedicated yearbook staff: Sophie Nye, senior editor; Clint Corcoran and Humberto Duarte, junior editors; Veronique Millon, photo editor; and Lance Labun, technical editor. Without your endless hours of hard work, this yearbook would not have been possible. You did a great job and should be very proud. Thanks to Andy Reese for letting us invade the Upper School Computer Lab until all hours, and for providing his expertise and assistance whenever needed.

Thanks to Debra Kolbet for all her "pointers" as the former Yearbook Advisor.

Thank you to Nancy Crase for volunteering her time and photographic skills to provide us with all those wonderful pictures.

Thank you to Ilene Manna for her unending and cheerful assistance in identifying photographs of Lower School students.

Thanks to Jenny Treadway for letting me interrupt her "one more time" to identify photographs of Middle School students.

Thanks to Alexandra Matloff (future yearbook editor?) for all those great Middle School photographs!

Last but not least, a special thank you to Mary Sverdrup, the Herff-Jones Rep, for her sunny disposition, her quick wit, and for walking me through my first year as Yearbook Advisor.
