REBECCA SCOTT ENGLAND

Rebecca Scott England was founded in 1997 with one simple belief: exceptional furniture should be designed around the people who live with it.

Before launching the company, we worked in our family's interior design business, specifying furniture for residential projects across the UK and internationally. Time and again, we found it difficult to source pieces that combined British craftsmanship, lasting quality and the flexibility to suit each individual project. Rather than compromise, we began designing our own.

That same thinking continues to shape everything we do today. Our British-made bespoke furniture is designed around your project, whether that means adapting one of our made-to-order collections or creating a completely bespoke piece of furniture, upholstery or architectural joinery.

Designed by Scott, every collection balances timeless English design with a contemporary perspective, combining carefully selected materials, refined detailing and enduring British craftsmanship. Alongside our furniture, we curate decorative lighting and luxury outdoor furniture from trusted makers who share the same commitment to quality, craftsmanship and lasting design.

Today, we work with interior designers, architects, private clients and design professionals across London, the UK and internationally on residential, hospitality and marine projects.

More than 28 years on, we're still inspired by helping create spaces that feel personal, distinctive and made to be enjoyed for generations.

Scott & Rebecca

BESPOKE & CUSTOM FURNITURE

From the beginning, Rebecca Scott England has been shaped by the belief that furniture should be designed around the people who live with it.

Over the past 28 years, that belief has led us to work on projects of every scale, from private residences and boutique hotels to yachts and commercial interiors. Whilst many clients choose to adapt one of our made-to-order collections, others come to us with a requirement that simply cannot be met by an existing design.

Our bespoke service exists for those projects. Whether creating a single piece of furniture, a fully upholstered sofa or architectural joinery, we work closely with interior designers, architects and private clients to develop solutions tailored to the way a space will be used and enjoyed.

Working across solid timbers, specialist veneers, metals, natural leathers, glass, carbon fibre and other carefully selected materials, each commission is designed by Scott and made in England using traditional craftsmanship and contemporary techniques.

From the first conversation through to installation, every detail is carefully considered to ensure the finished piece feels as though it has always belonged. The result is furniture that is not only unique to its setting, but designed to be lived with and enjoyed for generations.
