Lindeth Howe Hotel
Wedding Brochure 2028

Your day, your way.

The little book of wedding day dreams

About Us

Our beautiful hotel, with over 30 bedrooms, rests on a gently sloping hillside overlooking Lake Windermere, one of the UK's most breathtaking settings, nestled within a UNESCO World Heritage Site. It's every bit as stunning inside as it is out.
Timeless period features, befitting a property with such rich heritage, blend effortlessly with the striking contemporary design of our lounges and bars.
Think of it as your cinematic stage where you are the star of the show and every moment is framed with beauty and romance.

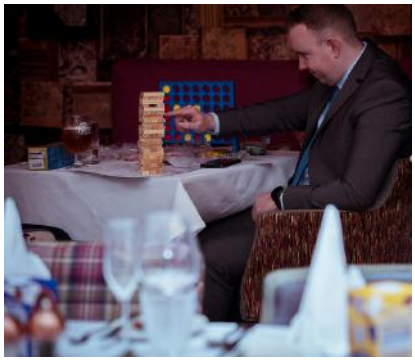

Originally built in 1879 as a summer residence for a wealthy mill owner, Lindeth Howe sits amidst six acres of tranquil beauty. Over the years, it welcomed many notable guests including Beatrix Potter, who illustrated 'Timmy Tiptoes' and 'Pigling Bland' during her stays.
Later, she purchased the property for her mother, adding a deeply personal legacy to its walls. Today, Lindeth Howe honours that story with pride, immortalising Beatrix's handwriting in our logo as a lasting tribute.
We warmly invite you to experience the magic of Lindeth Howe. Whether it's the exquisite cuisine that delights your senses, or the breathtaking backdrop perfect for photographs, every element comes together in harmony to create your ideal celebration. Our dedicated team is here to guide you every step of the way, ensuring your special day is seamless, memorable and shared with the one you love in an unforgettable setting.

This brochure offers just a glimpse of what we can create together, but, it is your wedding, not ours, think of this brochure as a 'pick n mix' of what you can have, keep the package as it is, mix it up, add things in, take things away, we will help you achieve the day you have always wanted with no stress, hassle or fuss.

Every detail is tailored to you, reflecting your unique love story and style.

Come and say "hello"

Why not join us for a cup of tea and a taste of our homemade shortbread?
Take a gentle stroll through our hotel and grounds, and discover how Lindeth Howe can become a cherished chapter in your love story.
Can't make it in person? No problem. Let us do the walking.. We'll happily show you around via Zoom at a time that suits you, we also love a good chat on the phone.

Just give us a ring, we truly want you to have the best day ever, and we're here to help every single step of the way from your first meeting to the day after your weddings, we are with you side by side.

"Our wedding was absolutly the most perfect thing, and everything was wanted. We also wanted to say thanks so much personally to you for organising everything, sorting our beautiful flowers, cake, ceremony music and everything, Thanks to Aaron for just being the nicest, jolliest human and making us feel really special checking in and looking after us and thanks to the staff who were our amazing witnesses. The hotel is just lovely, the grounds are so nice and I will be reccomending it to everyone I meet. All the staff were just great during our stay, the room was so clean and comfortuble and the food just phonominal! Special mention to Mark who served us dinner and breakfast and was jsut really helpful and so nice. Thanks so much again, for everything, we really appriciate it all and are so thankful for the memories you have helped us create"

"How do you put into words a day that was so perfect! We celebrated our wedding at Lindeth Howe in October, and it was everything we dreamed of. After 13 years together, eight of which we were engaged, bought our first house, and had two children, it finally felt time to celebrate us as a couple! Both of us did not know where to start with wedding planning, but from our first visit at Lindeth Howe, we felt completely at ease and knew it was the venue for us. The decor inside and the atmosphere are so welcoming, and it really made us excited to get married there. We had an intimate ceremony with only close family, and they all have said how perfect it was and all have commented on how beautiful the grounds are and how fantastic the food was, especially the wedding cake! The staff are all so kind and friendly, especially John who kept in contact prior with what to expect on the days before and on the day etc. It really put us at ease especially when the nerves were kicking in on the day! Thank you, Lindeth Howe, for the fantastic memories that we will treasure forever, and we would recommend it to anyone looking for the perfect day! "

On behalf of myself and my new bride Jane I would just like to express our total and absolute gratitude with every aspect of our recent wedding at Lindeth Howe Hotel. Right from the initial meeting through the planning conversations we clearly had a warm feeling that we had made totally the right choice with the venue. All of your staff involved with the planning and execution of our very special day could not have gone out of their way any more than they did to deliver above and beyond our expectations. They simply couldn't do enough for us, it was wonderful.

When we were planning our small and intimate family wedding we were conscious that although small we wanted our wedding to be just as important and just as professionally delivered as a large lavish ceremony and that is exactly what we got. The day, the people, the surroundings, the organisation, the food, the hospitality, the layout of the rooms were all faultless not just for us for each and every one of our guests.

We look back on every aspect of our wedding with joy and pride and that is all down to the efforts of everyone at Lindeth Howe. Quite simply put I could not imagine a better venue for a small and intimate wedding. Everything was even better than we imagined it prior to the day.

What can we say about this venue and the team without sounding like that have paid us to do it !!
From our first walk into the hotel we knew this was the venue for us - it's decor and ambience is second to none - it is a mix of classy, quirky ans relaxed and makes you feel like a home from home. We knew it was perfect for our special day.
From our first meeting with Tony the hotel manager, through a cancellation due to covid and all the uncertainty and complications that brought to the last 3am drinking in the bar on our day the team have been fantastic and could not do enough for us.
They let us do exactly what we wanted to do and made sure it happened exactly that way.
The staff team make you feel special all the way through your stay - noting is too much trouble. A special shout out to Liz and Clare who kept bridezilla in order and made sure everyone knew what was to be done and when in a relaxed way.
The food was exceptional and tailored to what we wanted - a gorgeous high tea with the best scones ever and a buffet at night which guest could not get enough of.
We stayed the night before our wedding with some of our guests and it felt like a home from home. Everyone who joined our special day had nothing but positive things to say about the hotel and what it had to offer.
We all wish we could do it all again regularly !!!!
A HUGE THANK YOU TO ALL THE TEAM FROM MR AND MRS HOGGINS

Kian & Tony's Story

In their own words

A Love Story Wedding in May

We first met around 20 years ago at Royal Lancaster Infirmary—Tony was in the Design Team, and Kian worked in Employment Services. Our early interactions were just passing smiles and greetings at the photocopier. Then in 2006, Kian moved on, and we lost touch. A decade later in 2017, Tony added Kian on LinkedIn. Messages turned into meetups, and from that first drink, we've been inseparable. For Kian's birthday, Tony proposed after a 15,000-foot skydive. He jumped first, then waited at the bottom, ring in hand, as Kian landed. The proposal song played as we left our wedding ceremony, perfectly tying the moments together.

The Lake District holds special memories for us, so choosing a venue here felt natural. Lindeth Howe stood out with its quirky charm and stunning décor. It offered an intimate wedding package that fit us perfectly. We knew it was "the one" the moment we visited.
We wanted the celebration to reflect us, intimate, relaxed, and full of personality. The venue's unique style and cozy feel were a brilliant canvas. With a few personal touches, our aim was to make the day feel stylish, heartfelt, and unmistakably "us."

The location in the heart of the Lake District was a highlight. It felt unlike any traditional wedding venue, with whimsical décor and character around every corner. Our favorite detail? The butterfly aisle, it brought a magical, enchanting vibe to our ceremony. Plus, the optional Mountain Goat tour gave us stunning fell-side photo opportunities we'll cherish forever.
Kian stayed over the night before with her matron of honour. The morning unfolded calmly, beginning with breakfast in the room while getting ready, exactly how she had hoped. Tony arrived with our children, feeling a wave of nerves and excitement. As he stepped into the venue, the reality of the moment sank in, it was truly happening.
The day was beautifully intimate and everything we had envisioned. We were thrilled with the choices made, and their suppliers helped bring the vision to life:

The curated menu offered a delightful variety, starters were a choice of Goat's Cheese with Beetroot Textures & Homemade Seed Granola or Plum Tomato & Fresh Basil Soup with Homemade Pesto. For the main courses our guests could choose from Herb Roasted Chicken with rosemary root veg, potato terrine, sage stuffing, and jus or Crispy Duck Confit with sweet potato mash, pak choi, and orange jus, and desserts, Mixed Berry Pavlova with berry gel, Chantilly cream, and strawberry ice cream or Traditional Sticky Toffee Pudding with butterscotch sauce and ice cream. The food was praised across the board, delicious and beautifully presented and the cosy dining setting and exquisite food created a relaxed, intimate atmosphere. Guests felt at ease, and it made the day all the more memorable.

Photography: Mark Battista We bumped into Mark photographing a wedding at Lindeth Howe whilst visiting the venue. It felt like fate! Mark went knee-deep in bogs for the perfect shots! Brilliantly dedicated. Lighting, framing—he nailed it. The evening sneak peeks blew us away.

Flowers: Megs Makes We met Megan at the county show—her arrangements matched exactly what we envisioned. Megan met us in the park with our children and dog before the wedding to talk all things flowers over iced coffee. Her stunning arrangements tied everything together and brought the aesthetic to life.

Hair & Makeup: Lucy Pearson Recommended by Mark. Lucy's website showcased the perfect style for Kian. Lucy helped fasten Kian's wedding dress, stuck a sixpence to her shoe, and pinned her veil. A breath of fresh air—funny, calming, and made the morning feel like getting ready with a friend.

Favours: The Cakeup Artist (Abbie) Our favourite weekend treat! We wanted our guests to enjoy them too. Abbie spent ages finding the perfect boxes for our favours and she found them! She also crafted custom favours and gifts for Lindeth Howe staff and their suppliers. Her cakes were the perfect touch—elegant and delicious Rings: Affinity Jewellers Kian's engagement ring had a unique shape—Affinity Jewellers custom-designed her wedding band for a perfect fit.

Tour: Mountain Goat with Lindeth Howe We got some amazing photos of the Lake District for our wedding photos, really unique

Thank you so very much for making our day just perfect! There's nothing, even after everything's settled, that we look back on and wish was different.

From my initial look at Lindeth Howe online it felt right (so right I bought my dress before actually visiting because I felt the two complimented each other!) through to our special day, everything has been effortlessly perfect!
Now, The Lakes are amazing, the venue is superb but without your laid back approachable way of working it just wouldn't have been the same

I really want to do it all again!!

Real Wedding

Luke & Sally - A June Love Story Wedding

We found Lindeth Howe when we were looking for wedding day ideas that would be unique and memorable.

As soon as we found the 'Love Story' package we knew this would be perfect with the Mountain Goat mini bus tour giving us the opportunity to share amazing Lake District locations with our guests. Clare & Liz took care of everything and made the planning experience so enjoyable. Their communication and guidance was faultless and we loved the design they created for our wedding table stationary. The venue is beautiful and the staff are kind, professional and efficient. We were really impressed by the quality of food and wedding cake which was included in the package. The minibus tour was expertly driven.
We are so happy for the variety of wedding photos we have to look back on.
Thank you, we truly had the perfect day.

Everything was organized to perfection on the day.
We had a small wedding so didn't have exclusive use but it did not feel that way.
The wedding was so personal and perfect for what we wanted with the most beautiful setting (despite the rain).
We opted for an afternoon tea which was absolutely delicious, you had us all fighting over the leftovers.
The staff were attentive and made sure everything was perfect on the day.
We would like to say a massive thankyou to Liz and Claire and the team.
We could not have asked for more on our special day.

Chloe & Paddy

An Elegant & Intimate September Wedding

AS FEATURED IN 'ROCK MY WEDDING' MAGAZINE

Chloe and Paddy's wedding at Lindeth Howe was a relaxed celebration.

Inspired by the venue's cosy, eclectic decor, they opted for a vibrant yet simple style.
A highlight of the day was the spectacular private cruise on Lake Windermere, shared with their 30 guests.

With perfect weather, blue skies and a warm 24 degrees, the group enjoyed breathtaking scenery, champagne, and a soundtrack of Taylor Swift favourites, including the folklore album and a triumphant Love Story as they returned to the pier.

The couple focused on what they loved, familiar surroundings and a laid-back vibe skipping the pressure of evening entertainment for a truly personal day.

Real Wedding

Amanda & Iain, An April Wedding

SUPPLIERS
Photography:Family friend
Hair & Make up: Caren Pricket
Cake: Lindeth Howe

Our first date was on 9th October 2019, after connecting on the dating website Match.com. We had both been in long term marriages before and had decided to give love a second chance. After several successful and entertaining dates, we quickly realised that we had found someone incredibly special. During lockdown, we temporarily lived together, sharing the endless days cementing our relationship and blending our families. In October 2021, we made living together permanent and enjoyed many family events, music gigs and holidays together.

It was on holiday, in August 2023, that Iain proposed. After taking a beautiful walk in the sunshine to Stock Ghyll Force waterfall in Ambleside, Iain got down on one knee and popped the question! Not only did we feel the love for each other that day, we also fell in love with the stunning views of the Lake District.

When planning our wedding, we knew we wanted something small and intimate. Venues at home in Nottingham just didn't fill the brief and the Lake District just felt like the perfect location. We found Lindeth Howe online and after viewing their Instagram, we immediately fell in love with the stunning and unique hotel. After initially having email contact with Liz and without seeing the hotel in person, we booked our registrar and date!

As soon as we saw the hotel, we were completely wowed by its location, stunning décor, intimate feel and beautiful garden. We knew we'd made the right decision and that our guests would love it like we did! The wedding team are simply wonderful and not only gave us fantastic advice, they also answered all our enquires and helped us plan our special day. The team are incredibly experienced and down to earth, which made us feel welcome and relaxed.

On our wedding day, the spring sun shone all day and the hotel looked stunning! The Hilltop room was set up and decorated just as we'd imagined and wowed us and our guests. John was on hand all day to ensure the smooth running of the day and provided us both with reassurance to calm the nerves! He was simply invaluable and a pleasure to get to know!

Our wedding breakfast was delicious (compliments to the chef!) and our cake not only looked beautiful, it tasted wonderful. All of our guests needs were catered for and the mother of the bride still talks about how all of the food during her stay was incredible.

Ultimate Wedding Package

Celebrate surrounded by loved ones with exclusive use of the hotel for up to 80 guests during the day and 120 by evening.

Real Wedding

Charlotte & Charles, An August Exclusive Use Wedding

Charles and I met at university in 2012, living next door to each other in our student accommodation. After a year of friendship, Charles asked me on a date in 2013 (despite me insisting to all our mutual friend that it was 'friends having dinner') and the rest is history.
In 2023 we planned a trip to California for our ten-year anniversary, where we road tripped to different national and state parks. We stayed for three nights near Yosemite National Park and went for a big hike on our anniversary, going past two amazing waterfalls and seeing a black bear in the woods. Having never really discussed marriage, or at least neither of us seeming particularly fussed about it, it was a huge surprise when Charles A: asked if we could use my mini tripod to take a 'coupley' photo together, and B: pulled out my mums engagement ring that travels everywhere with me, that he had stolen out of my backpack that morning! I was so stunned I almost forgot to say yes. It was a moment both of us will remember forever. Charles still jokes that the best thing that happened that day was seeing a bear
As soon as we visited Lindeth Howe we knew this was the venue for us, it was such a welcoming and friendly atmosphere from the moment we walked in.
Location wise, the Lake District was somewhere special to us where we have taken lots of hiking trips over the years. Charles actually went for a local hike on the morning of the wedding. Both of our families are from opposite ends of the country, so it was amazing to have exclusive use of the hotel and to have our guests staying we us on site.
Another selling point for us was the wedding package, with everything included, such as the cake and the DJ. This was something that appealed to us as we wanted the planning to be as low pressure as possible, although this slightly went out the window when we decided to move abroad during the planning process. We called Clare at Lindeth Howe about the move and she completely calmed any worries we had – I think her words were 'we've got this'. Clare immediately came up with a plan to get the things we needed to do in person done before we moved away, like the food tasting. We had a bit of breathing room from wedding planning whilst the big move was happening, and then once we were settled started having video calls for planning with John who was our lovely wedding coordinator. John was amazing and kept us right and on track throughout the whole process.
So, whilst it was definitely strange planning from abroad and on totally different time zones, it actually felt pretty seamless and easy thanks to the organisation and expertise of the team at Lindeth Howe. I could write a book on how great John and Clare are!
Arriving at Lindeth Howe the day before our wedding was a real mix of emotions – we hadn't seen our families and friends for months, so it was a huge excitement to have all our loved ones arriving together. Lindeth Howe kindly put on a barbeque the night before for our guests so we got do all our catching up then and could relax a little more on the wedding day.
The day itself was busy and a bit overwhelming, in a good way, but John made sure we had some little moments to ourselves to chill out, which was definitely needed!
.The interior at Lindeth Howe completely fit our wedding vibe so well that we didn't need to add extra decoration. We did add a few personal touches such as paintings done by Charlotte for the table names/settings, a homemade welcome sign, and a little DIY photobooth area which Lindeth Howe also kindly provided props for.
We had loads of comments about how amazing the food was. We absolutely loved it...I'm a bit of foodie, so it was really important to us to have great food at our wedding – it was incredible!
Lindeth Howe is such a gorgeous, vibrant place, with a mix of old and new. Everywhere you look there is something interesting to look at and this translated into the photos.
Our photographer, Ollie Gyte Photography, really captured the vibe of the day, we wanted colourful, candid and chilled. He even took us down to Lake Windermere for some gorgeous photos, which was so much fun.
Jamie Harper DJ, booked by Lindeth Howe was absolutely fab and a really nice guy – he definitely captured the vibe we wanted on the dancefloor, and it was filled pretty much all night.
Wreay Syke Alpacas were a major focus on the day – we had two gorgeous alpacas, Jura and Braveheart, for guests to interact with, feed and walk. They were hugely popular amongst adults and kids, and particularly to us. Whenever we visited The Lakes we would sneak some time to go to an alpaca farm so they really made the day for us to have them there for our guests to share in their lovely, funny personalities.

My advice for couples planning a wedding would be to make sure you communicate as much as possible with your venue wedding coordinators, updating them with any changes. If you have any ideas, you aren't sure about just ask. If there is stuff you need to do in person and have to travel, try to organise so you can get it all done at once, so you don't have to make multiple trips if you are really far away.
