

IN MY HEAD

PREFACE

Some songs begin with a melody.

Others begin with a question.

In My Head was born somewhere between the two.

These songs explore the thoughts we rarely speak aloud

—the memories that return without warning, the conversations we replay, the dreams that blur with reality, and the quiet search for understanding.

There are no right answers here.

Only moments.

Perhaps, somewhere within these pages and these songs,

you may discover a piece of your own story.

Welcome inside.
