

in a dream

About the author

Hello! My name is 문서현.

I'm first-year middle school student.

I like eating pizza.

I wrote this story because I wanted to share the importance of friendship.

Thank you for reading my book.

I hope you enjoy it.

Raya get's up
from his dream.

There's a cloud village.
It's right in front of me.
It's floating in the sky.

Raya looks around the cloud village out of curiosity.

Look around,
meet friends!

While looking around
the village with friends,
We see a castle

Raya was scared, but followed his friends.

Raya saw a dragon inside
the castle and hid behind a box out of fear.

The friends find Rara, and comfort him.

As Rara is moved and hugs her friends, the dragon disappears

Then, I woke up from my dream. Everything was a dream, but I don't think the friendship I got is a dream.

"Friendship gets rid of scary dragons, too!"
