ALL ORDERS MUST BE PLACED IN THE ABOVE WEEK AND DELIVERED BEFORE FRIDAY 4TH DECEMBER IN FULL

Dear customer...

Welcome to Headlines for November and December. It always astonishes me how quickly this comes around. Broadly speaking, with the sunshine and the World Cup, Summer was good for hospitality, so we're hoping that the same vein continues through to the end of December for all of us.

As has now become customary, we're launching our December offers with a Black Friday week between Monday the 23rd and Friday the 27th of November. Learning lessons as each year goes past, we've reduced the number of offers down significantly and put major funding in place to maximise the effectiveness. For example, you can get Guinness 0.0 cans £12 cheaper than the rest of the year. We will be calling you, it will be on our socials, and we will be emailing you. Please take note and get involved, because we know it will give you a competitive advantage for December onwards.

There are simply too many other things to mention. As is customary at this time of year, our suppliers have gone the extra mile once again. I urge you, as always, to sit down with a member of my sales team and go through these offers with a fine-tooth comb. Whilst it may look daunting, there is no better way than to try and maximise your margin at this time of year. When you're busy, it's important to buy well, and there are lots of things in here that can help progress that.

Finally, I'd like to look forward to 2027. It's going to be a big year for all of us, but at Small Beer, we've got some great things planned. The onset of AI, some new branding, a full e-commerce website, and the potential of going paperless for all of our deliveries are just four of the many things that we're hoping to launch in the first quarter of 2027. Keep your eye out, but I'm sure you'll notice it too.

Wishing you all a happy Christmas and a brilliant New Year.

Cheers.
Rob Eastwood, MD

Focus on COMMUNITY

MAKE YOUR VENUE THE PLACE WHERE PEOPLE FEEL AT HOME

Christmas is all about coming together - catching up with friends, celebrating with colleagues and making time for the people who matter. And your venue can be at the heart of it.

But creating a sense of community shouldn't stop when the decorations come down. From supporting local businesses to giving people a reason to gather, small changes can help turn your venue into a genuine neighbourhood favourite.

Christmas idea

THE 12 DAYS OF COMMUNITY

For the 12 days before Christmas, spotlight a different local person, business, charity, club or community group on your social channels - and invite your customers to nominate someone who deserves a little festive recognition.

5 WAYS TO PUT COMMUNITY AT THE HEART OF YOUR VENUE

THINK LOCAL
Champion the businesses around you. Feature local producers, stock products from nearby suppliers or collaborate with independent businesses. Give customers a reason to discover what's happening on their doorstep.

CREATE A REASON TO GATHER
Quiz nights, live music, book clubs, sports screenings and charity events can turn a quiet night into a regular fixture. Ask your customers what they'd like to see - then give it a go.

GIVE SOMETHING BACK
Partner with a local charity, school, sports team or community group. From fundraising events to donating your venue for a meeting, even small gestures can make a difference.

MAKE PEOPLE FEEL AT HOME
Community starts with hospitality. A warm welcome, remembering a regular's name or simply taking the time to chat can turn a customer into a regular - and a regular into an advocate.

COLLABORATE
Team up with neighbouring businesses to create something bigger. Think local food and drink trails, joint events or Christmas promotions that encourage customers to explore the area.

Here's to a venue your community loves this Christmas

Keeping Spirits Bright

How to Motivate Your Team This Christmas

For On Trade venues, Christmas is the busiest (and often the most demanding) time of the year.

During the festive period, customers stay longer and spend more per visit.

145
minute average dwell time*

£26.37
average spend per customer*

Long shifts, packed venues and high customer expectations can put even the best teams under pressure.

THREE WAYS TO KEEP YOUR TEAM MOTIVATED

LEAD FROM THE FRONT

- Recognise Great Work
  A genuine thank you or small reward can have a big impact.
- Lead By Example
  Get stuck in alongside the team during the busiest periods.
- Celebrate the Wins
  Share positive feedback and recognise achievements.

LOOK AFTER YOUR PEOPLE

- Encourage Proper Breaks
  Make sure everyone gets time to eat, drink and recharge. Small gestures, e.g. providing festive snacks or hot drinks, show their wellbeing matters.
- Create Some Festive Fun
  Staff competitions, Secret Santa, festive dress day or an end-of-season celebration give staff something to look forward to.

PROTECT WORK-LIFE BALANCE

- Communicate Clearly
  Share rotas early and make expectations clear.
- Make Shift Swaps Easy
  Scheduling apps can help staff swap shifts or pick up extra hours with manager approval, giving them more flexibility while keeping rotas covered.

A great team is your biggest asset during the festive season. Here's to a profitable and joyful Christmas!
