"Lucky season2.0 universe!

Name: Abraham Darian Izar

Date of birth: September 6th, 2001

Social Media: seojeongwou

Brief Intro:

Hi! My name is Abraham Darian Izar, but people tend to call me Darian. I am 23 years old as of today, and it's my first time trying to sing and dance. Before auditioning, I acted in some small roles in music videos and an indie short films. But in my meantime doing part time jobs beside acting, I found joy in singing, finding myself enjoying the time alone in the karaoke place. I can say I am quite confident in singing, but not so much on my dancing.

Name:	Ace Daryl
Date of birth:	November 12th, 1998
Social Media:	jiungch

Brief Intro:

Ace Daryl once lived by expectations, silencing the music in his soul. Now under Lucky Universe, he rises as someone reborn, turning buried dreams into fire on stage. Every note and every step reflect his journey from restraint to freedom. This is Lucky Universe, where fortune feels like both a burden and a gift, and Ace dares to transform it into destiny.

Name:	Axel Nathaniel
Date of birth:	October 15th, 2001
Social Media:	heeseuzglee

Brief Intro:

I have spent three years training as an idol, refining both voice and movement, and a year in acting, exploring roles that tested the depths of emotion. In one performance, I became a selfless friend whose sacrifice turned into heartbreak, bound to linger as a kind spirit even after betrayal. These experiences shaped not only my craft, but also the way I bring raw truth to the stage.

Name:	Dominic West
Date of birth:	January 20th, 2005
Social Media:	woochaann

Brief Intro:

My first audition might have been unconventional. I chose "Bet On It" from High School Musical, storming the stage with full Troy Bolton spirit. It was playful, maybe even a little embarrassing, but also deeply personal. Like Troy, I've always lived between worlds, torn between passions that seemed impossible to balance. That's why this path feels right—pursuing both idol and actor, not choosing one over the other. What began as a lighthearted performance was, in truth, me betting everything on the life I want to live.

Name: Edward Rhys Everbrook

Date of birth: June 13th, 2001

Social Media: hanbinsung

Brief Intro:

Edward is more than a performer, he's a storyteller. Once promised a debut, then left behind, he turned to busking and songwriting, crafting melodies out of resilience. Known for blending humor with raw emotion, his stage presence may seem unconventional, but it reflects both his heart and his artistry. Now under the spotlight again, Edward isn't just auditioning as an idol, he's proving that every setback can be rewritten into song.

Name:	Ezra Jaan Vanderbilt
Date of birth:	April 20th, 2002
Social Media:	jongseorngpark

Brief Intro:

Ezra never aimed to stand out with flashy skills—only to be honest. At his audition, he chose "It's Okay" by BTOB, a song that mirrored his own struggles with perfection and self-doubt. Singing it wasn't about technique, but about revealing the parts of himself he had always hidden. For the first time, he wasn't trying to impress. He was simply Ezra, vulnerable yet unafraid to be seen.

Name: Joel Tanaya

Date of birth: June 6th, 2006

Social Media: hanjivn

Brief Intro:

Joel Tanaya steps onto the stage with the charm of a performer and the scars of someone who almost lost it all. Once a promising musical actor, he spent three silent years recovering from damaged vocal cords before daring to return. His audition, "You'll Be Back" from Hamilton, was more than a performance; it was proof of resilience, passion, and a love for the stage that even silence couldn't take away.

Brief Intro:

Auditioning felt like a dream finally coming true. I chose How It Feels by Zayn Malik because music has always been my refuge, and I hoped the judges could hear a piece of me in it. Wanting to show both sides of myself, I also performed Neil Perry from Dead Poets Society, a role that mirrors my own passion and struggles. Supported by my parents yet driven by my own will, I stepped into this audition not because I'm flawless, but because, even with my doubts; I believe I belong here.

Name: Seandika Gabriel

Date of birth: August 17th, 2005

Social Media: parkzseeun

Brief Intro:

I'm Seandika Gabriel, an aspiring actor-model now taking on the challenge of becoming an idol. Modeling taught me to tell stories through visuals, but I wanted more—I wanted to sing, act, and move people through something alive. For this audition, I chose Xdinary Heroes' SAVE ME, a song that once gave me strength when I doubted myself. I may not be perfect, but I bring sincerity, determination, and a heart that doesn't quit. This is my first step as a trainee, but it won't be my last.

Brief Intro:

I've always loved expressing myself through both singing and dancing. Bohemian Rhapsody by Queen was one of the first songs that made me fall in love with performing, while ENHYPEN's Drunk-Dazed challenged me to explore powerful choreography. At one point, I wasn't sure about my future, but watching Red Velvet's performance on a music show changed everything—it showed me how deeply music and stage presence can inspire. From then on, I knew I wanted to follow this path and grow into an idol who could move others the same way.

Brief Intro:

I auditioned as an Idol-Actor trainee, combining my love for singing and acting. With a background in ballet and theater, performing has always been my way of expressing emotion. For my audition, I sang SZA's Open Arms, since R&B is where I feel most at home and chose to portray Maddy Perez from Euphoria, a character whose boldness I admire. It felt natural being back in front of the camera, and I realized just how much I've missed it.

Brief Intro:

Ellie auditioned with Girls' Generation's Into the New World, opening with a clean a cappella before adding light choreo to highlight her airy, steady vocals. Raised by her grandmother, a former musical artist, she grew up surrounded by music and dance. With her family's support, Ellie now pursues idol life, hoping to become an artist who bridges moods and cultures—"like a small poem someone can carry into their own new world."

Brief Intro:

I chose Until I Found You by Stephen Sanchez for my audition because it reflects who I am as a performer—sincere and heartfelt. Music has been my dream since childhood, and it became even more meaningful when my grandmother, during her illness, told me my singing brought her comfort. That experience shaped my purpose: to use my voice to move and heal others. While my focus is on singing, I am open to growing in acting and performance. I approach this journey with sincerity, determination, and the hope to inspire.

Brief Intro:

My name is Genevieve Raine, but you can call me Gennie. I'm an influencer chasing my dream to become an idol, and this was my first audition with Lucky Universe Ent. I prepared three songs—Nobody Gets Me (SZA), Golden (HUNTR/X), and Fine (Taeyeon)—along with a freestyle dance to Havana by Camila Cabello. Though my voice cracked a little during the last song, I gave my best and left the stage feeling proud of my first step toward this dream.

Brief Intro:

I come from a small farming family with no formal training, but I've always believed music could carry me further than circumstances. For my audition, I performed I DO ME, a song that gave me courage since childhood, showing both my rap and vocal skills. At the judges' request, I also played the flute—an instrument tied deeply to my family and the sacrifices they made for me. Those weren't staged tears; they were real. Music is my way of honoring where I come from and proving I belong on this stage.

Brief Intro:

I auditioned as an idol-actor, performing Love is Lonely by NMIXX to show both my vocals and rap, though my voice cracked a little from nerves. I also showcased my acting with Cheong Ah's sign language scene from Twinkling Watermelon, which I've practiced for some time. Though I'm naturally shy, my passion for debut drives me to keep improving.

Brief Intro:

My name is Lucienne Genesis Abrams, or Gene for short. This was my fifth attempt at auditioning, after years of modeling and chasing the dream of becoming an idol. For my performance, I sang and danced to Love Shake by MINX, showing my bright and youthful side, before switching to an acting piece that revealed a more emotional, intense character. Despite the challenges and many failed attempts, I still stand here with determination to debut as an idol actor.

Brief Intro:

I come from a mixed British-Japanese background that shaped my wide taste in music, from J-pop to SZA. I started performing in choir and band, where I learned the joy of creating music together. For this audition, I chose Location by Khalid to show my tone and emotions. I may not be the strongest dancer, but I make up for it with presence and sincerity. My goal is to grow as an idol who can inspire and connect with people's hearts.
