AMERICAN SINKS

At American Sinks, we specialize in the design and manufacturing of thermoformed solid surface sinks, working alongside leading brands such as Corian®, Krion®, and Hi-Macs®.

We use materials that combine durability, elegance, and versatility, offering a wide range of textures, colors, and finishes that fit any type and scale of project.

Thanks to our advanced thermoforming technology, we create seamless, non-porous, hygienic surfaces that are easy to clean... and built to last.

Every American Sinks product is proudly made in the USA, under high standards of quality, precision, and craftsmanship, with standard dimensions that perfectly fit most cabinets and furniture on the market.
