

A pink starburst graphic with a central point and four main rays extending outwards, creating a soft, glowing effect. It is positioned behind the text.

SHINING TOGETHER

About the Author

Hello! My name is Leeseo I'm a first-year middle school student I like listening to music I wrote this story because I wanted to read the book with friends Thank you for reading my book I hope you enjoy it

One summer after school dance culb students gathered in the practice room

The student said they liked their dance better

The more we practice, the more we gather our disagreement

Eventually, the students decided to practice separately, but they didn't get along

“Why did we start dancing,sakuya said

The students recalled the day they first joined the dance club

Sion said”No wonder we are all different “But i think dancing together creates a better stage’

After that day,the students accepted each other's opinions

On the day of the festival, the students shone on the stage

After the stage was over,the students looked at each other and laughed

They found out that this moment of dancing together is the most brilliant time