ABOUT THE COVER

FNU PROSPECTUS 2027

The 2027 Fiji National University Prospectus cover, themed “Crafting Futures Together,” symbolises FNU’s commitment to shaping brighter futures through education, skills development, innovation and collaboration. The father and daughter jumping in celebration represent the joy, pride and shared achievement of graduation, highlighting how education transforms not only individuals but also families and future generations. The diverse faces of students, graduates and professionals reflect the many pathways FNU offers, empowering people from different backgrounds to achieve their aspirations and contribute meaningfully to their communities and the nation. Together, the imagery captures FNU’s role in nurturing talent, creating opportunities and building a skilled, inclusive and prosperous Fiji.

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

Message from the

VICE-CHANCELLOR

FIJI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Bula vinaka and welcome to Fiji National University!

The beginning of a University journey is an exciting time. It is a time to discover new interests, make important decisions and prepare for the opportunities that lie ahead. I am pleased to welcome you as you explore the possibilities of studying at the Fiji National University (FNU). Our theme, "Crafting Futures Together," reflects the value we place on education as a journey shaped by learning, guidance, experience and the people around us. Every student brings unique talents and ambitions, and our responsibility as a University is to provide the environment in which those qualities can develop and flourish.

FNU offers something distinctive. As Fiji's national University and a dual-sector institution, we bring together higher education and Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET), providing pathways for students with different interests, qualifications and career goals. Our programmes combine academic knowledge with practical skills, giving students opportunities to prepare for employment, further study and professional advancement.

The pages of this Prospectus introduce you to our Colleges, campuses, programmes and the many services available to support your studies. I encourage you to explore them carefully, consider your interests and make informed choices about the direction you wish to take.

Beyond the classroom, University life offers experiences that are equally valuable. You will encounter different perspectives, develop lasting friendships, discover new abilities and gain the confidence to take on responsibilities. Through academic activities, research, industry exposure, sports and cultural engagement, we want our students to develop as capable professionals and responsible members of society.

We are also mindful that the opportunity to study is made possible through the efforts and sacrifices of many families. At FNU, we recognise the importance of making education accessible and ensuring that students receive the guidance and assistance they need throughout their studies. Our student support services and financial assistance initiatives are part of this responsibility.

Our identity as a Pacific University is another important part of the education we offer. We draw strength from the diversity of our cultures, languages and communities, while preparing our students to engage confidently with a changing world. We want our graduates to value where they come from, remain connected to their communities and use their knowledge and skills to make a difference wherever their careers may take them.

To every prospective student reading this Prospectus, I encourage you to believe in what you can achieve through dedication, hard work and a willingness to learn. Your university years will present challenges, but they will also provide experiences that shape your character, broaden your understanding and prepare you for life beyond graduation.

At FNU, we believe that a meaningful education prepares you not only to earn a living, but to make a difference in the lives of others.

I invite you to begin this important chapter with us. We look forward to welcoming you to our FNU Vuvale and being part of your journey as we continue "Crafting Futures Together."

ABOUT US

The Fiji National University (FNU) was established in 2010 with a clear set of objectives aimed at advancing knowledge, promoting academic excellence, and contributing to the welfare of the communities in Fiji and the Pacific Region. Through its efforts, in teaching, research, and training, FNU seeks to meet international standards while responding to the diverse needs of the communities it serves.

Objectives of FNU

The Fiji National University (FNU) was established to promote higher education, research, skill development aligned with international standards. Its key objectives include advancing scholarship and research, fostering academic excellence and trade competence, enhancing community welfare through accessible higher (Technical, Vocational Educations and Training) TVET, and maintaining high standards in teaching and research to meet global expectations. FNU places particular emphasis on TVET to equip individuals with practical skills that support employment and contribute to societal development locally and regionally.

Functions of FNU

The Fiji National University (FNU) fulfills its mission by creating, advancing, and disseminating knowledge through research, teaching, and academic study, all adhering to high standards set by the University Council. It offers (Technical, Vocational Educations and Training) TVET, and confers recognised higher education awards to graduates for professional success. FNU provides specialised training and employment support, including apprenticeships, to bridge education and workforce needs, while promoting and assisting with the funding of training programmes to enhance accessibility. The University actively engages with industry, government, and communities to apply research for societal development and contributes to the economic social, and cultural growth of Fiji and the Pacific Region.

STUDENT DISABILITY SERVICES EQUAL ACCESS. LIMITLESS POTENTIAL

Inclusion is not just a value, it is our way of life, and we are proud to say that our policies and actions reflect this. We are dedicated to ensuring that every student, regardless of ability, has equitable access to quality education and a supportive learning environment.

From admission to graduation, we are committed to creating a welcoming supportive and empowering environment where students with special needs can thrive. Our commitment goes beyond providing equal opportunities. We are here to ensure our students have the tools, resources, and encouragement to realise their full potential.

FNU's dedicated student services team works closely with students requiring additional support, offering tailored services and practical assistance every step of the way. Whether it is academic guidance, accessibility support, or personal development, we are passionate about helping our students achieve their dreams.

At FNU, we believe that true inclusion goes beyond opportunity, it's about creating pathways where every student feels valued, respected, and capable of achieving greatness, manageable and rewarding experience.

The Office of Learning and Teaching (OLT)

The Fiji National University provides a wide range of academic support services, including English and Maths Help Hubs, Peer Assisted Learning (PAL), and the First year Experience programme (FYE), all designed to ensure student success. FNU offers more than just academic assistance, its a transformative learning environment. We invite you to join our diverse community and unlock your full potential.

LEARNING SUPPORT

The Centre for Learning and Teaching Excellence (CLTE) offers a robust range of support services designed to ensure all students thrive throughout their academic careers at FNU. It aims to enhance learning and promote student success by providing resources and guidance across various domains. Whether students seek assistance with writing, study strategies, or navigating University processes, the CLTE staff are committed to helping each reach their full potential.

FLEXIBLE AND E- LEARNING SUPPORT

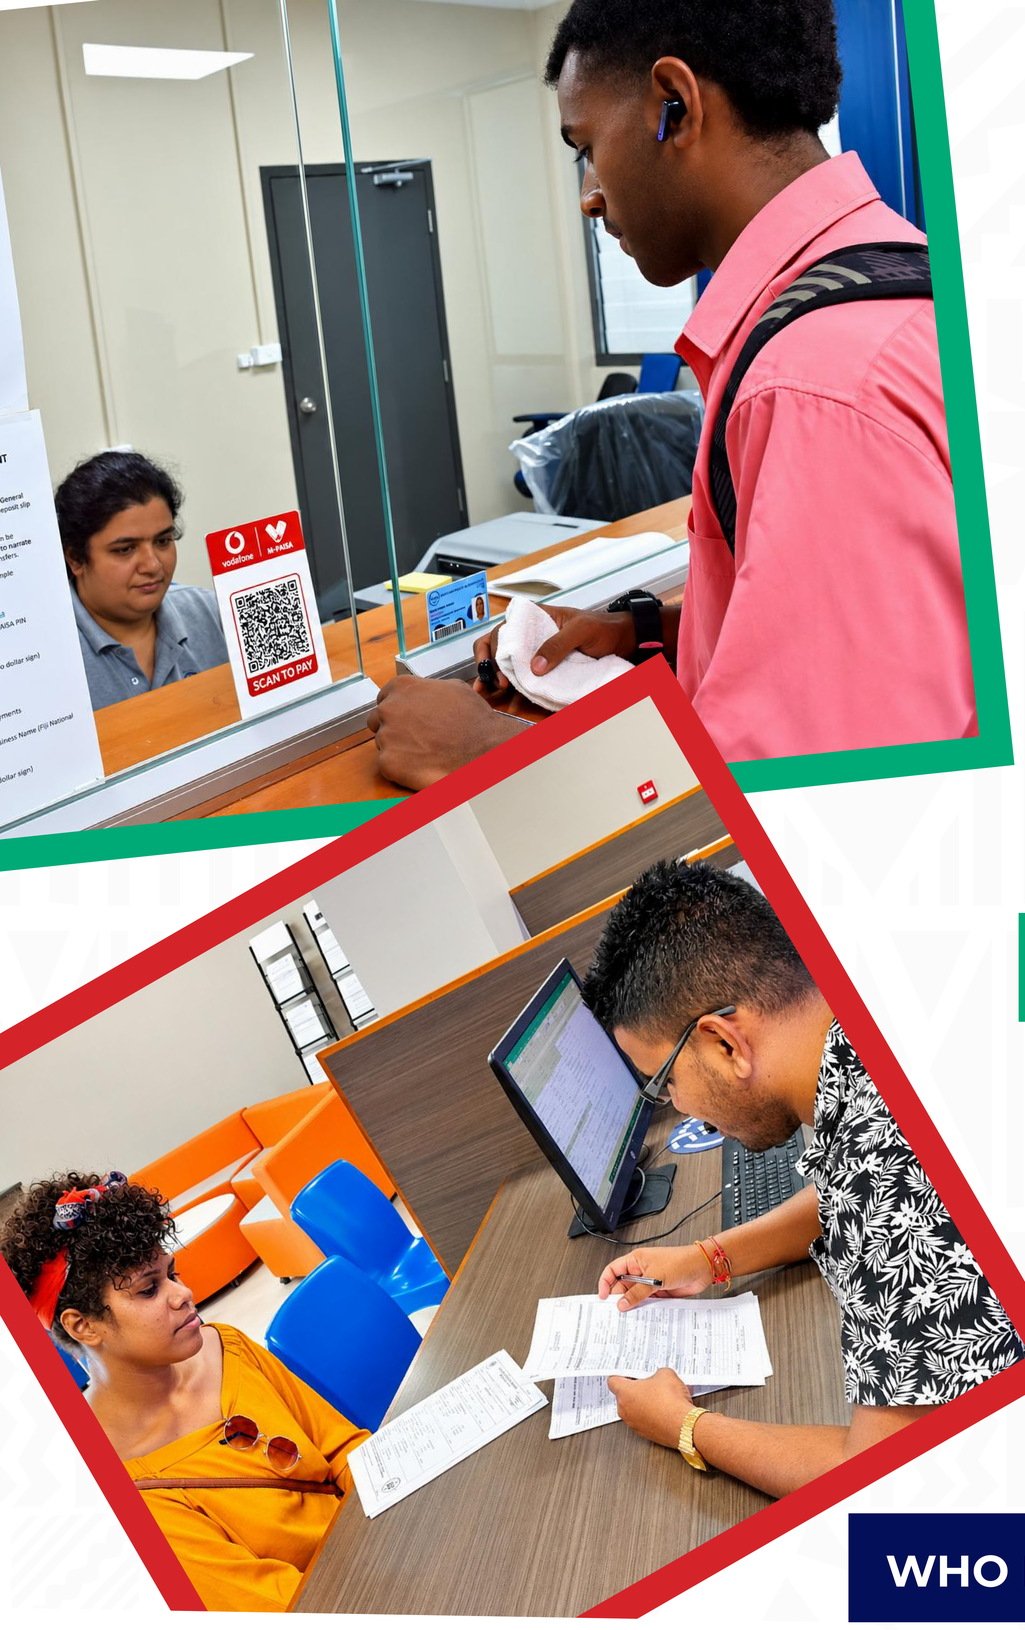

Students at the Fiji National University have the option to pursue their studies at their own pace from any location that suits them, including their home, pace of employment, or other convenient location. This flexible learning and eLearning allows students maximum convenience. The University's Centre for flexible and E-Learning works collaboratively with colleges to offer courses and programmes through both fully online and blended online/in-person modalities using Moodle, the University's learning management system. Students have flexibility in both the types of assessments given and their scheduling for completion. Using Moodle, students can access course materials, participate on online quizzes and exams, engage with instructors and classmates, and submit assignments. Additionally, students may use Mahara to build and submit electronic portfolios for evaluation and Turnitin to check assignments for plagiarism electronically.

Flexible and online learning provides an excellent option for students unable to regularly attend classes on campus or with only limited in-person attendance capacity. For more information, contact cfel@fnu.ac.fj

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

- Math Help Hub (MH2) – is a service that provides mathematical and statistical support and advice to students from all disciplines.
- English Language Hub (ELH) – is flexible tutoring service with workshops, open and free English as a Second Language (ESL) courses, and a range of resources.
- Peer Assisted Learning (PAL) – offers free of charge structured study sessions facilitated by peer students (PAL Leaders) who are students with a strong academic record and have completed the courses themselves.
- Foundation Mathematics Proficiency Assessment – is a self – directed online course to help students assess their mathematical skills.
- One on one consultation – is a private and confidential personalised session with Student Success Specialist. Students can discuss, examine, and develop specific strategies to address their academic concerns.

- Workshops and Webinars – are conducted throughout the semester on a range of significant topics that include Zoom, Mendeley, Active Listening, Word Processing, Proofreading, PowerPoint, Reflective Writing, Literature Review, and Paraphrasing.
- Online enrichment courses – Learning to Learn Online (LTLO) and Learning with Academic Integrity (LAI) are non-credit, self -paced courses to provide students with the necessary skills to succeed in university studies. LTLO develops student's' skills to become competent online learners. LAI helps students better understand academic integrity regulations at FNU.
- Guide to Effective Learning (GEL) – is a series of self help guides to help students get the most out of the studies and time at FNU and beyond. These guides offer valuable strategies for developing academic and personal skills.

STUDENT FINANCIAL SUPPORT

FNU BURSARY SCHEME

Financial assistance is offered through the Fiji National University Student Bursary Scheme to full-time local private students who are enrolled in undergraduate bachelor's degree or postgraduate programmes at FNU.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

The Student Bursary Scheme is open to all students currently enrolled at FNU who have paid the required enrolment fees and are registered in either a bachelor's degree or postgraduate programme, with a full course load of 60 credit points.

To be eligible for consideration, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- The applicant must be a Fiji Citizen.
- The applicant must have passed Year 13 with a minimum of 60% in each subject relevant to their field of study.
- Continuing students must have achieved an average grade of B.
- Postgraduate applicants should have a minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- The applicant must not be receiving any other scholarship at the time of application or during their studies.
- The combined household income must be less than $30,000.
- Applicants must have no disciplinary issues on record.
- Applicants should not have any outstanding fees or fines.

At Fiji National University, we are committed to providing every individual with the opportunity to access high-quality education. To support this goal, FNU offers a wide range of financial aid options, such as scholarships and assistance packages, designed to reduce the financial challenges of pursuing higher education. Additionally, FNU ensures that its tuition fees remain among the most affordable in the country. By combining these efforts, we aim to enable our students to fully concentrate on achieving academic excellence in their chosen disciplines.

STUDENT FINANCIAL AID PROGRAMME

The Fiji National University Student Financial Aid Programme provides employment opportunities for privately enrolled undergraduate students. Through this initiative, eligible students can work with the University during non-instructional periods. Payroll deductions, such as the Fiji National Provident Fund contributions, will be applied to the students' earnings. These funds will be used to offset any outstanding tuition and fees owed to the University.

- Student Financial Aid - https://www.fnu.ac.fj/student/finance-it/student-financial-aid/
- Financial Support - https://www.fnu.ac.fj/study/student-support/financial-support/

MODE OF PAYMENT, OPTIONAL

At Fiji National University, students can settle their tuition and fees through the University's Finance Office. Payment options are available in the form of instalment plans, with specific due dates set at the start of each academic term. Students must adhere to these due dates, as outlined in the University's payment agreement. The entire payment schedule should be completed within a mutually agreed timeframe between the student and the Finance Office. It is the student's responsibility to fulfil all payment obligations, even if they decide to cancel their registration.

For more information on available payment methods and financial support, visit the Fiji National University website at:

https://www.fnu.ac.fj/study/student-support/financial-support/

The scholarship is granted for a period of three years. To continue receiving the scholarship in the second term, the student must maintain full enrolment, carry a full course load, and achieve an average grade of B. The scholarship may be revoked if the student withdraws from the programme, faces disciplinary action, or fails to meet the required criteria.

Testimonial

"I chose FNU because of its strong practical training in hospitality and tourism. That is exactly the kind of learning I need because, tourism is an industry where you learn by doing. Whenever we go out for catering and practical training, I learn so many new things. These experiences allow us to put what we learn in the classroom into practice, and that makes the learning much more meaningful."

Know Before You Apply – Important Entry Info

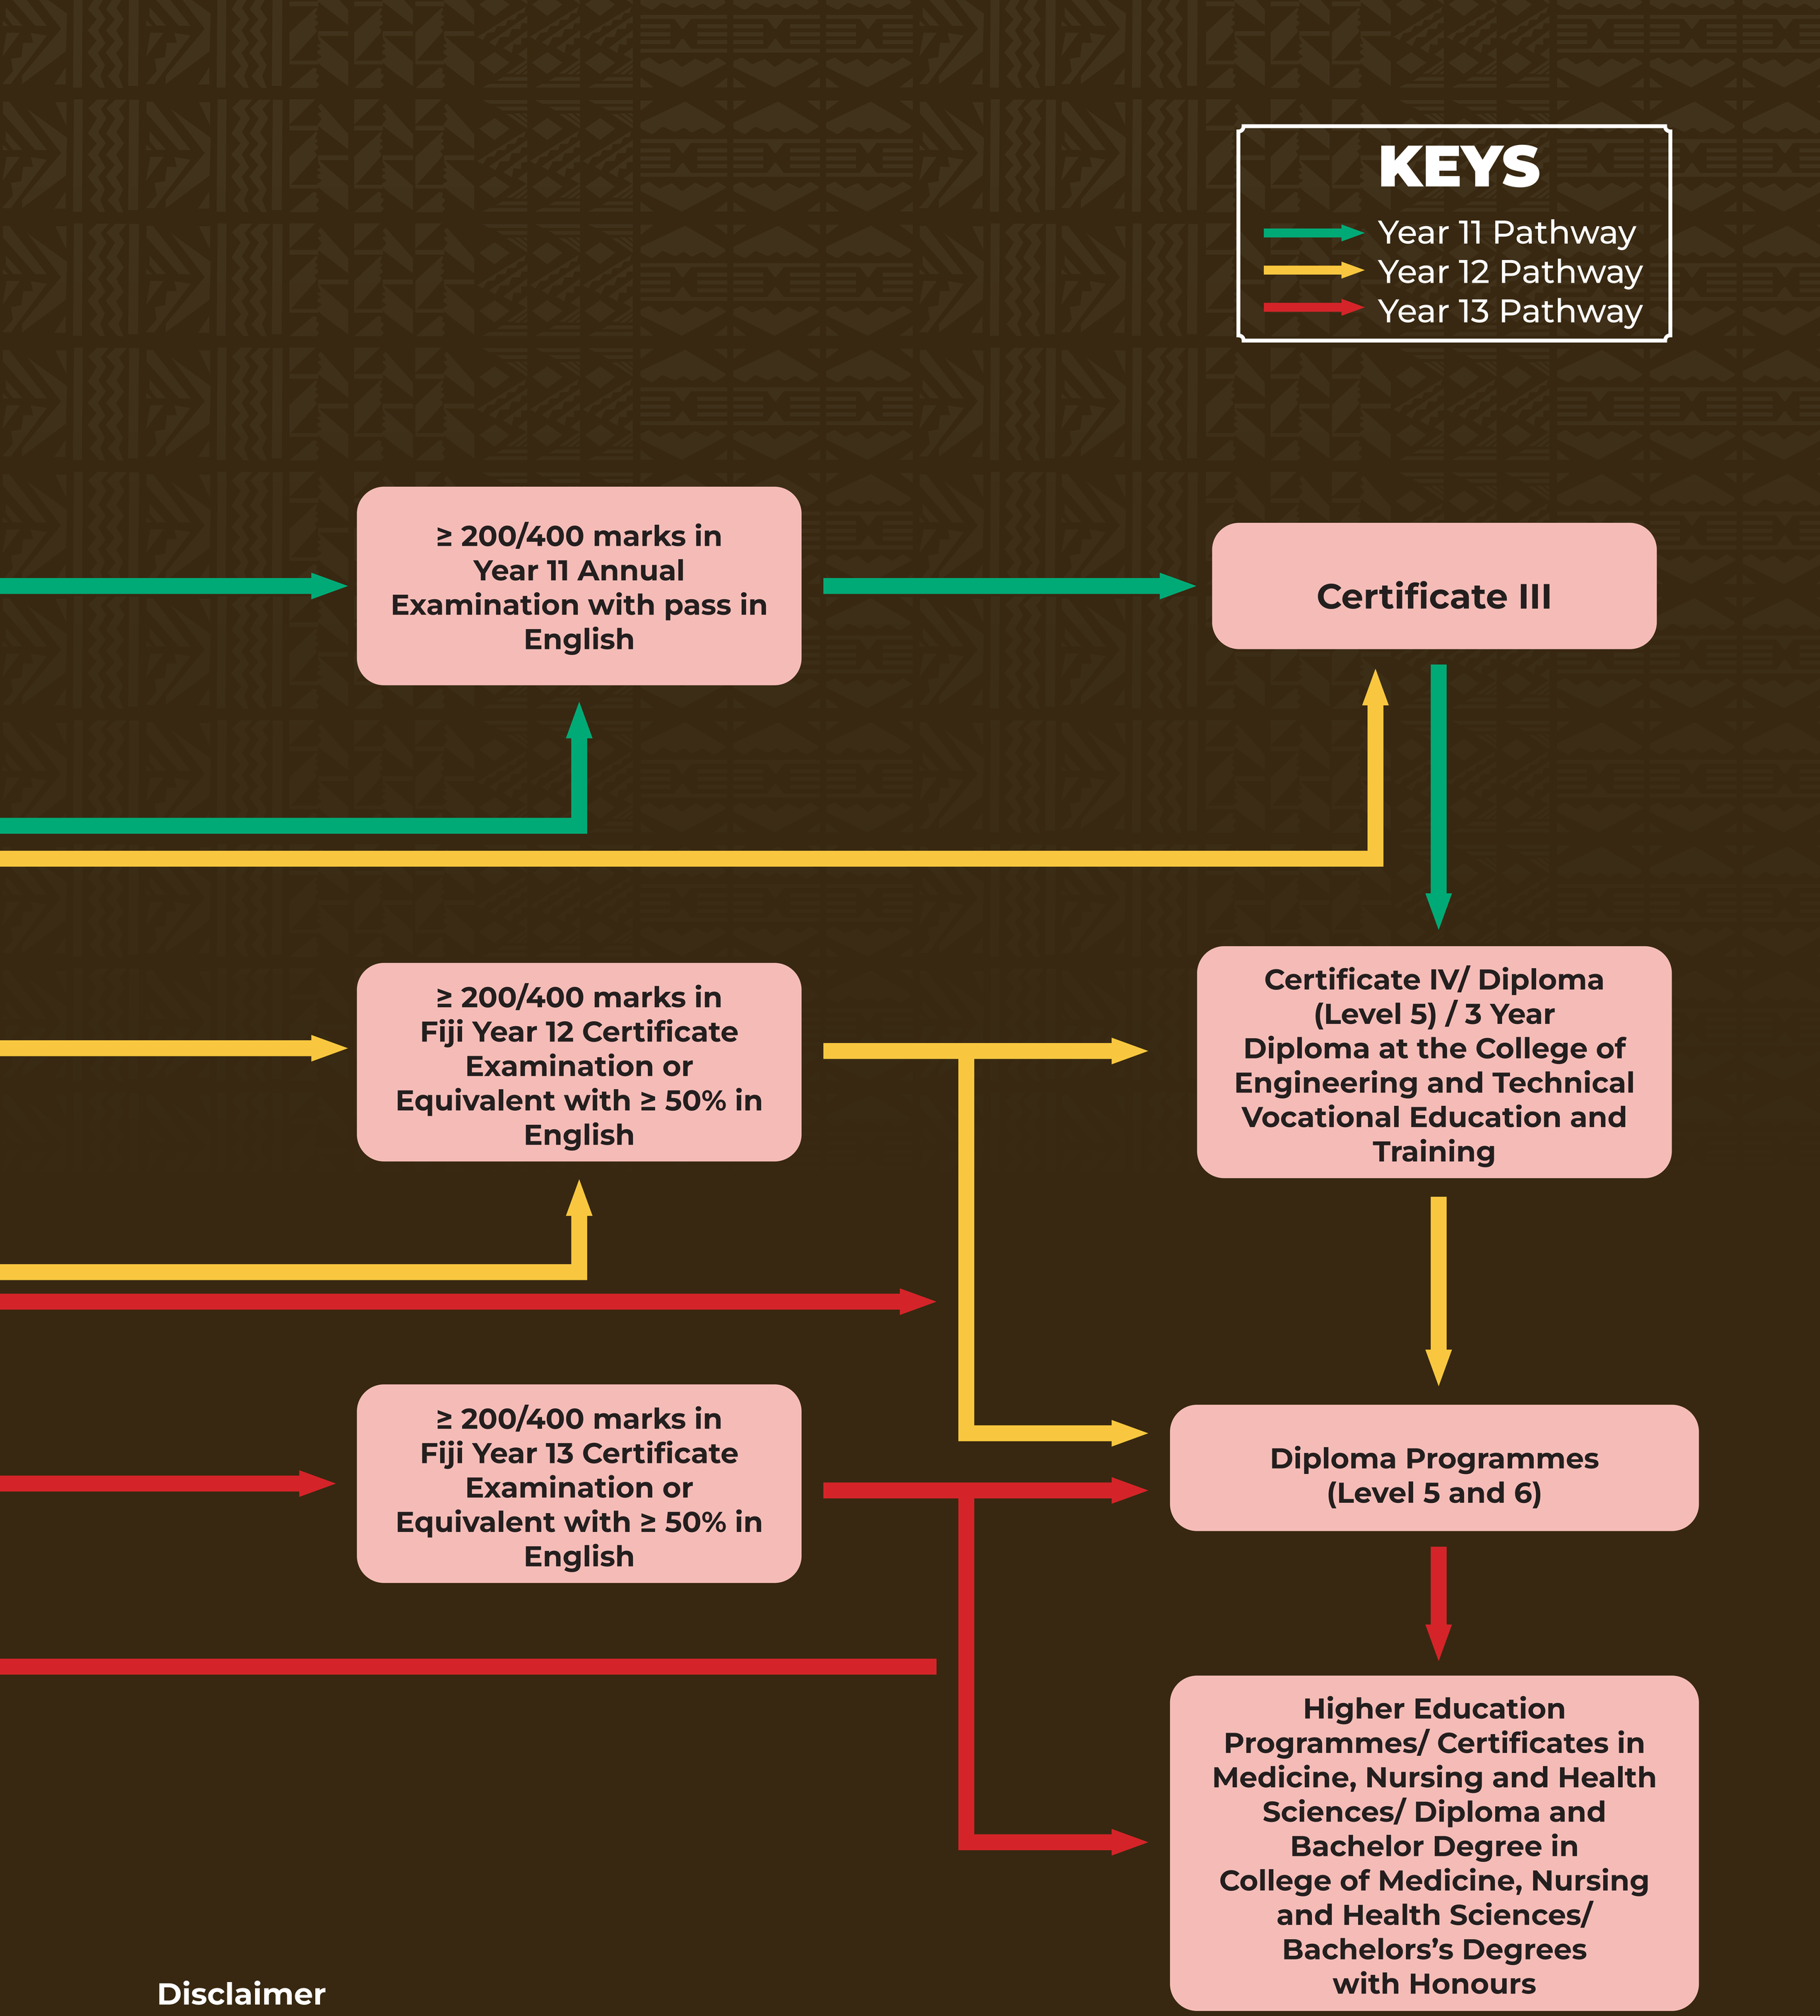

At the Fiji National University, some programmes are in high demand and have limited spaces—that means selection is competitive! These quota-based programmes include specialised fields like:

- ✓ Medicine, Nursing, and Health Sciences
- ✓ Certificate IV in Aircraft Engineering (Avionics & Mechanical)
- ✓ Diploma & Bachelor of Engineering (Civil, Electrical, Mechanical)

Each programme may have minimum entry marks and specific subject requirements. FNU also sets threshold scores to ensure quality across all programmes.

For full details and the latest entry requirements, check with the relevant College, Academic Office, or visit: http://programmes.fnu.ac.fj/programmes/

Plan wisely. Apply early. Spaces fill fast!
