Mid-Autumn Festival

A CELEBRATION LIKE NO OTHER

On 23 September 2026, Kowloon Tong Student Residence welcomed 1,900 students for a Mid-Autumn Festival celebration. The night was filled with a breath-taking fire juggling performance, a confetti cannon celebration, student performances, heart-warming mooncakes and interactive booths. Local and non-local students were invited on stage to experience traditional Chinese culture first-hand. It was a truly unforgettable night where cultures met and friendships were made.

Blood Donation in SR

From 5-9 October 2026, in collaboration with the Hong Kong Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service, the University Blood Donation Marathon was held at the Student Residence, bringing together students, staff, and hall residents to donate blood and give the gift of life. Donors were rewarded with gelato as a token of appreciation – every drop truly made a difference.

A GIFT OF CARE for the Elderly

SRO joined hands with Chan Shui Kau Hall (Hall 5) to recruit 25 residents to visit elderly residents at Pak Tin Estate in Sham Shui Po and deliver gift bags in celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival on 12 September 2026. Through more than 20 family visits, the volunteers brought warmth and joy to the elderly while gaining a deeper understanding of the local community. The programme also provided valuable opportunities, particularly for non-local students, to engage with and give back to the community.

Cantonese Classes for Non-Local Students

During Semester A of 2026/27, SRO organised a series of Cantonese classes for more than 60 non-local students to learn practical language skills and experience Hong Kong culture. Through interactive lessons and a community-based activity, participants gained more confidence in everyday Cantonese, deepened their understanding of local customs, and built friendships with peers from diverse backgrounds, supporting their integration into Hong Kong life.

Orientation Week — Welcome Home! 🏠

Home is where the heart is — and this Orientation Week, Hall 7 opened its doors to its newest residents. From 24 to 30 August, the Ground Floor Lobby became a warm little welcome station, where newcomers collected gift packs of everyday essentials and sweet treats to ease their first days on campus. Seven days, countless hellos, one family.

Mid-Autumn — Moonlit Gathering 🥮

Under the mid-autumn moon, Hall 7 gathered to celebrate a festival as timeless as togetherness itself. Residents assembled wooden rabbit lanterns, cheered through the bean-bag toss, and claimed fluffy plush prizes before the night was over. More than the crafts and games, it was an evening that showed how Hall 7 celebrates as one.

HRB Board Game Night — Game On ♟️

Hall 7's first-ever HRB event turned Multifunction Hall C into an evening of friendly rivalry, strategy and fun. Across tables of Scrabble, Ludo, UNO and more, residents strategised, laughed and cheered each other on — champions walked away with vouchers, and snacks kept the room buzzing all night. More than the games, it was a night that showed how Hall 7 comes together.
