How to Make a Reservation

The Wisconsin Hotel & Lodging Association and the Wisconsin Bureau of Consumer Protection offer the following recommendations to help make your stay in our state enjoyable!

Reservation policies vary by property and travelers are encouraged to reserve in advance whenever possible to ensure space is available. Most properties require a valid credit card to hold a reservation and many require an advance deposit.

Ask about the property's cancellation policy and fee. Should you need to cancel, contact the property and ask for a cancellation number and record the time of the call and the name of the person with whom you spoke.

Upon making a reservation, many properties will assign a confirmation number and may follow up in writing. Ask the property to note the rate, length of stay and special requests they agreed to accommodate in the confirmation. If this is not possible, call in advance to re-confirm.

Room rates listed in this guide are subject to change without notice. Clarify your rate when the reservation is made. If you have a certificate or group rate, check for any special conditions or limitations.

If you have a preference, need or special request that makes a considerable impact on your stay (bringing a pet, requiring a rollaway bed, etc.), talk to the property about it when you make your reservation to assure your needs can be met.

On the Cover: Located on the shores of beautiful Trout Lake, in the heart of Wisconsin's stunning Northwoods, Red Crown Lodge is a destination for retreats and events of all types. With a rich history that dates back to 1922 when it was founded by Standard Oil, Red Crown is unique in that it only hosts one group at a time. This allows guests private and uninterrupted use of all the grounds and facilities as well as the complete attention of the staff.

Milwaukee

Discover why Milwaukee makes one great, urban-easy getaway! Brewery tours, the Harley-Davidson Museum and professional sports meet farm-to-fork restaurants and family attractions like Discovery World and Milwaukee County Zoo for year-round fun for all. Stroll along the RiverWalk, linking the Historic Third Ward with its colorful shops, nightlife and Milwaukee Public Market, to Old World Third Street, celebrating the city's German heritage. The new 381-room hotel at Potawatomi Hotel & Casino adds to gaming fun, and the stunning "wings" of the Milwaukee Art Museum, along with Summerfest and lakeside festivals, welcome all for Milwaukee's own brand of fun and entertainment.
