CASE STUDY 1

JBCC EDITION 6.2 | WHEN DOES JURISDICTION END?

- A contractor submits a Notice of Non-acceptance.
- 11 disputed items become 12.
- 3 new claims appear during arbitration.
- Can the arbitrator hear them?
- Should they excluded?
- Has the contractor lost its right to claim?
- Should they be excluded?

Join the discussion as we examine one of the most practical challenges encountered in construction arbitration.

Would your argument succeed?

CASE STUDY 2

GCC 2015 | A TIME-BARRED ADJUDICATION?

- A Notice of Adjudication is submitted 3 months late.
- The adjudication proceeds.
- Nobody raises an objection.
- The dispute then moves to arbitration .

- Can the Employer still challenge jurisdiction?
- Has the defence been waived?
- Must the arbitration be abandoned?

Explore the impact of procedural compliance, jurisdictional objections and contractual rights under GCC 2015.
