Grace and Peace be unto you, Beloved, from God our Father and His Son, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ!

As we enter this blessed Advent Season of 2026, our hearts are filled with anticipation, gratitude, and renewed hope as we remember the first coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Advent is a sacred season of preparation, reflection, and expectation. It invites us to pause amid the busyness of life, turn our hearts toward God, and remember the extraordinary gift of love revealed to the world through the birth of Jesus.

During this season, the Church reflects upon four foundational themes that anchor our faith and draw our attention to the true meaning of Christmas: Hope, Peace, Joy, and Love. Over the next four weeks, we will intentionally embrace these themes through our devotions, worship, prayer, fellowship, and study of the Word of God. Each theme offers us an opportunity to deepen our relationship with Christ, strengthen our faith, and become more intentional in how we live out the Gospel in our homes, communities, and throughout the world.

This Advent Season, I encourage us to approach these weeks with hearts that are open, spirits that are expectant, and faith that is alive with possibility. Regardless of our age, cultural background, life experiences, or present circumstances, we are united by one powerful truth: Jesus Christ has come for the salvation of all! His coming reminds us that God's love knows no boundaries, His grace extends to every generation, and His invitation to abundant life is offered to all people.

As a multigenerational and multicultural congregation, we have a beautiful opportunity and a sacred responsibility to embody the hope of Christ in a world that is often searching for light in the midst of darkness. We are called not simply to celebrate the birth of Jesus, but to carry His message beyond the walls of the Church. We are called to reach our families, neighbors, co-workers, friends, and those who have yet to experience the transforming love of God. Therefore, I invite you to share this virtual Advent devotional with others. Let it become a witness of encouragement, an instrument of connection, and an invitation for someone to encounter the good news of the Gospel.

As we reflect upon the first Advent, let us also look forward with joyful expectation to the second coming of our Lord. The first coming of Christ brought us redemption, proclaimed the promise of justice, and empowered us through the presence and work of the Holy Spirit to live as witnesses of God's Kingdom. His second Advent will usher in the fullness of restoration, renewal, and reigning grace throughout all the earth. What a glorious promise we have! We do not journey through this season merely remembering what God has done; we journey with confidence in what God has promised to do.

My prayer is that throughout these four weeks, our faith will be strengthened, our hope renewed, our peace deepened, our joy restored, and our love expanded. May we become a congregation whose lives reflect the very Christ we celebrate—welcoming the stranger, encouraging the weary, uplifting the overlooked, advocating for justice, loving our neighbors, and sharing the good news with boldness and compassion.

Beloved, let us enter this Advent Season with elation, expectation, and unwavering confidence in the promises of God! The light of Christ still shines, the hope of the Gospel is still alive, and the good news of Jesus Christ is still changing lives. There is room for everyone in God's redemptive story, and there is still work for the Church to do.

May this Advent be more than a season we observe. May it become a movement of faith, a testimony of hope, and a renewed commitment to the mission of Christ.

COME, LORD JESUS!

May the grace, peace, hope, joy, and everlasting love of God be with you and your families throughout this blessed Advent Season and always.

With love, faith, and joyful expectation,

Blessings and Merry Christmas!

Bishop and Mrs. Parnell M. Lovelace, Jr., PhD, DMin.

WEEK ONE

THE ADVENT OF

HOPE

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT • NOVEMBER 29

Hope Has Come. Hope Is Alive. Hope Is Coming.

Hope is more than wishful thinking; it is the confident expectation that God is faithful to His Word. Throughout Scripture, God's people waited for the promised Messiah. Today, we celebrate that the promise has been fulfilled in Jesus Christ. As we begin Advent, we are reminded that darkness does not have the final word. Christ, the Light of the World, has come!

NOV 29

SUNDAY · NOVEMBER 29

REJOICING IN HOPE

> Scripture: Romans 15:13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Reflection: As we begin this Advent journey, consider the areas of your life where you need renewed hope. How can trusting God fill you with joy and peace, even before your circumstances change?

Be encouraged: Remember Christ is the hope of our salvation, His joy is our strength, and He is our Prince of Peace.

Reflective Prayer: God of hope, fill my heart with renewed expectation. Help me trust Your promises, walk in Your light, and overflow with hope through the power of Your Holy Spirit. Amen.

NOV 30

MONDAY · NOVEMBER 30

THE PROMISE

> Scripture: Isaiah 9:2 The people walking in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of deep darkness a light has dawned.

Reflection: Where do you see deep darkness in the world or in your own life? How does God's promise of a great light bring you comfort and confidence?

Be encouraged: Know that God's light shines in you and through you so that others might see Him.

Reflective Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for sending the Light into our darkness. When life seems uncertain, remind me that Your promises remain true and Your light will never be overcome. Amen.

DEC 1

TUESDAY · DECEMBER 1

PATIENT WAITING

> Scripture: Psalm 130:5–6 But I trust in your unfailing love; my heart rejoices in your salvation. I will sing the Lord's praise, for he has been good to me.

Reflection: Waiting is not always easy. Think about a season when you had to wait on God. How did that experience develop your patience, strengthen your faith, or change your perspective?

Be encouraged. Sing to the Lord because He is good.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, teach me to wait with expectation rather than anxiety. Strengthen my faith when answers seem delayed, and help me trust Your perfect timing. Amen.

DEC 2

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 2

A ROOT OF HOPE

> Scripture: Isaiah 11:1–2 A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from his roots a Branch will bear fruit. The Spirit of the Lord will rest on him—the Spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the Spirit of counsel and of might, the Spirit of knowledge and fear of the Lord

Reflection: A shoot emerges from what appears to be a dead stump. Where in your life might God be preparing to bring new life, restoration, or opportunity from something that seems lost?

Be encouraged to look to the Holy Spirit for His wisdom, understanding, counsel, and guidance.

Reflective Prayer: Father, breathe new life into the places where hope has grown weak. Help me recognize Your hand at work, even when I cannot yet see the results. Amen.

DEC 3

THURSDAY · DECEMBER 3

THE DAYS ARE COMING

> Scripture: Jeremiah 33:14–15 'The days are coming,' declares the LORD, 'when I will fulfill the good promise I made to the people of Israel and Judah. In those days and at that time I will make a righteous Branch sprout from David's line; he will do what is just and right in the land.'

Reflection: God promised to fulfill His righteous promises. What promise found in Scripture are you holding onto today? How does remembering God's faithfulness strengthen your expectation?

Be encouraged in the promises in the Word of God. He never fails.

Reflective Prayer: Faithful God, thank You that Your Word never fails. Help me stand firmly on Your promises and remain confident that You will accomplish everything You have spoken. Amen.

DEC 4

FRIDAY · DECEMBER 4

HOPE DOES NOT DISAPPOINT

> Scripture: Romans 5:5 And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

Reflection: God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. How does knowing that you are deeply loved by God anchor your hope when life becomes difficult?

Be encouraged in knowing God removes the stains of shame, and marks your heart with His love.

Reflective Prayer: Loving Father, thank You for loving me beyond measure. Let Your love silence my fears, strengthen my heart, and remind me that my hope in You will never disappoint. Amen.

5

SATURDAY · DECEMBER 5

GUARDING YOUR HEART

> Scripture: 1 Peter 1:13 Therefore, with minds that are alert and fully sober, set your hope on the grace to be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed at his coming.

Reflection: Peter encourages believers to prepare their minds for action and set their hope fully on God's grace. What distractions, fears, or unhealthy influences do you need to set aside to focus on Christ?

Be encouraged that all of God's power, ability, and presence is with you. That's grace.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, help me guard my heart and discipline my thoughts. Remove whatever distracts me from You, and keep my hope firmly established in the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

WEEK TWO

THE ADVENT OF

PEACE

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT • DECEMBER 6

Peace Has Come. Peace Is Alive. Peace Is Coming.

The world often defines peace as the absence of conflict, trouble, or uncertainty. But the peace of God is much greater. Through Jesus Christ, we have peace with God and access to a peace that can sustain us even in life's most difficult circumstances. This Advent, let us welcome the Prince of Peace into every area of our lives.

DEC 6

SUNDAY · DECEMBER 6

THE PRINCE OF PEACE

> Scripture: Isaiah 9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Reflection: Jesus is identified as the Prince of Peace. In what areas of your life do you most need His peaceful rule? What would it mean to surrender those concerns to Him?

Be encouraged in your relationship with God through the Prince of Peace.

Reflective Prayer: Prince of Peace, reign in my heart and in my home. Quiet my fears, settle my anxious thoughts, and help me experience the peace that only You can give. Amen.

DEC 7

MONDAY · DECEMBER 7

PREPARING THE WAY

> Scripture: Mark 1:3 A voice of one calling in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.'

Reflection: John the Baptist called people to prepare the way of the Lord. What internal or relational clutter might you need to clear away to make room for God's peace?

Be encouraged that His peace is made available in His presence.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, prepare my heart for Your presence. Remove bitterness, pride, and resentment, and help me walk in humility and obedience. Amen.

DEC 8

TUESDAY · DECEMBER 8

A PATH OF PEACE

> Scripture: Luke 1:78–79 because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the path of peace.

Reflection: God promises to guide our feet into the path of peace. Are your daily decisions leading you toward peace or increasing anxiety? What change might God be inviting you to make?

Be encourage to know that God has forged the pathway ahead of you.

Reflective Prayer: Father, direct my steps today. Lead me away from confusion and toward Your truth. May my words, choices, and actions reflect Your peace. Amen.

DEC 9

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 9

NOT AS THE WORLD GIVES

> Scripture: John 14:27 "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid."

Reflection: Jesus offers peace unlike anything the world can provide. How can you depend on His presence and promises rather than allowing difficult circumstances to determine your peace?

Be encouraged that God's peace intervenes between your thoughts and your feelings. Be at peace.

Reflective Prayer: Jesus, thank You for giving me a peace the world cannot take away. Help me trust You through every challenge and remain steadfast in Your presence. Amen.

DEC 10

THURSDAY · DECEMBER 10

THE GUARDED HEART

> Scripture: Philippians 4:6–7 Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Reflection: God's Word encourages us to turn our worries into prayers. Identify three concerns weighing on your heart. How can you intentionally surrender each one to God?

Be encouraged to trust in God's process. "He works all things together for good."

Reflective Prayer: Heavenly Father, I bring my worries and burdens before You. Replace my anxiety with trust, and guard my heart and mind through the peace of Christ. Amen.

DEC 11

FRIDAY · DECEMBER 11

MAKING PEACE

> Scripture: Matthew 5:9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

Reflection: Jesus calls peacemakers blessed. Is there a strained or broken relationship in your life where you can take a step toward forgiveness or understanding?

Be encouraged that God's grace make peace a possibility.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Give me the courage to forgive, the humility to seek reconciliation, and the wisdom to speak words that bring healing. Amen.

12

SATURDAY · DECEMBER 12

THE GOD OF PEACE

> Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 5:23 "May God himself, the God of peace, sanctify you through and through. May your whole spirit, soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Reflection: Paul reminds us that God desires to sanctify us completely. Where do you need God's peace to bring wholeness to your spirit, soul, relationships, or daily life?

Be encouraged in the process as God is making you holy and acceptable unto Himself.

Reflective Prayer: God of peace, continue Your transforming work within me. Make me whole, strengthen my faith, and help me live each day in the fullness of Your grace. Amen.

WEEK THREE

THE ADVENT OF JOY

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT • DECEMBER 13

Joy Has Come. Joy Is Alive. Joy Is Coming.

The joy of Advent is rooted in the good news that Jesus Christ has come into the world. The angel announced great joy for all people because the Savior had been born. Christian joy is not dependent upon perfect circumstances. It flows from knowing Christ, experiencing His presence, and trusting His promises. Even in seasons of difficulty, our joy remains anchored in Him.

DEC 13

SUNDAY · DECEMBER 13

GOOD NEWS OF GREAT JOY

> Scripture: Luke 2:10–11 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord."

Reflection: The angel announced great joy for all people because the Savior had been born. How can you share the good news of Jesus or offer encouragement to someone who needs a reminder of God's goodness?

Be encouraged that God's joy is not dependent on the circumstance, but rather upon His presence in you.

Reflective Prayer: Lord Jesus, thank You for being the source of everlasting joy. Fill my heart with gratitude and help me share the good news of Your salvation with others. Amen.

DEC 14

MONDAY · DECEMBER 14

THE DESERT BLOSSOMS

> Scripture: Isaiah 35:1–2 The desert and the parched land will be glad; the wilderness will rejoice and blossom. Like the crocus, it will burst into bloom; it will rejoice greatly and shout for joy. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendor of Carmel and Sharon; they will see the glory of the LORD, the splendor of our God.

Reflection: God can bring beauty and new life to even the driest places. Where have you experienced unexpected joy during a difficult season? Where are you trusting God to bring restoration?

Be encouraged in the desert place or in the storm. Rejoice in His goodness.

Reflective Prayer: Father, bring life to the dry places in my heart. Restore what has been broken, renew my strength, and help me recognize the beauty of Your work in every season. Amen.

DEC 15

TUESDAY · DECEMBER 15

A SONG OF JOY

> Scripture: Luke 1:46–47 And Mary said: "My soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior"

Reflection: Mary's song magnified the Lord and rejoiced in God her Savior. What three specific blessings can you thank God for today? How might gratitude change the way you see your circumstances?

Be encouraged as you give God thanks for His touch, embrace, Word, and breath.

Reflective Prayer: Magnificent God, my soul rejoices in You. Open my eyes to Your goodness, fill my heart with gratitude, and let my life become a testimony of Your faithfulness. Amen.

DEC 16

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 16

WEEPING AND REJOICING

> Scripture: Psalm 126:5–6 Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy. Those who go out weeping, carrying seed to sow, will return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them.

Reflection: God's Word reminds us that those who sow in tears will reap with joy. What difficult experience are you trusting God to transform? How does His promise of restoration encourage you to persevere?

Be encouraged in knowing there is purpose in the process.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, meet me in every season of sorrow. Give me strength to keep trusting You, knowing that You see my tears and are able to bring joy from seasons of difficulty. Amen.

DEC 17

THURSDAY · DECEMBER 17

JOY MADE COMPLETE

> Scripture: John 15:11 "I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete."

Reflection: Jesus desires that His joy would remain in us and that our joy would be complete. What does it look like to prioritize the lasting joy found in Christ over temporary happiness?

Be encouraged that God doesn't give partial joy.

Reflective Prayer: Jesus, teach me to abide in You. Let Your joy become my strength, my perspective, and my testimony, regardless of what today brings. Amen.

DEC 18

FRIDAY · DECEMBER 18

LEAP FOR JOY

> Scripture: Luke 1:44 "As soon as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy."

Reflection: Elizabeth recognized the extraordinary work of God when the child in her womb leaped for joy at Mary's greeting. When have you experienced a moment when God's presence or promises stirred joy within you? How can you remain spiritually attentive to Him?

Be encouraged as God is working in your circumstances.

Reflective Prayer: Holy Spirit, awaken my heart to recognize Your presence. Restore the joy of my salvation and help me celebrate the wonderful things God is doing around me. Amen.

19

SATURDAY · DECEMBER 19

DIRECTIVES FOR JOY

> Scripture: 1 Thessalonians 5:16–18 Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Reflection: Rejoice always, pray continually, and give thanks in all circumstances. Which of these instructions do you most need to practice intentionally today?

Be encouraged to rejoice just because God loves it when you do.

Reflective Prayer: Father, teach me to rejoice, pray, and give thanks in every season. May my joy be rooted in Your unchanging goodness rather than my changing circumstances. Amen.

WEEK FOUR

THE ADVENT OF

LOVE

FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT • DECEMBER 20

Love Has Come. Love Is Alive. Love Is Coming.

At the heart of Christmas is the extraordinary love of God. Jesus Christ is the greatest expression of that love, demonstrating that God did not remain distant from humanity but came near to redeem us. As we approach Christmas, we are reminded that God's love is not merely something we receive; it is something we are called to demonstrate. Let us prepare our hearts to receive His love and extend it to others.

DEC 20

SUNDAY · DECEMBER 20

GOD SO LOVED

> Scripture: John 3:16 For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Reflection: God's love is active, sacrificial, and giving. How does the coming of Jesus demonstrate that God moves toward us rather than waiting for us to become perfect? How should that love change the way you live?

Be encouraged that God loves you as you are, yet too much to leave you as you are.

Reflective Prayer: Loving Father, thank You for loving the world so much that You gave Your Son. Help me never take Your gift of salvation for granted. Let Your love transform my heart and my life. Amen.

DEC 21

MONDAY · DECEMBER 21

LOVE MADE MANIFEST

> Scripture: 1 John 4:9 This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him.

Reflection: God demonstrated His love by sending His Son so that we might have life through Him. How can you give life, encouragement, support, or compassion to someone today as an expression of God's love?

Be encouraged as you receive God's love and reciprocate by loving others.

Reflective Prayer: Father, thank You for making Your love known through Jesus Christ. Help me reflect that same love through my generosity, kindness, compassion, and willingness to serve others. Amen.

22

TUESDAY · DECEMBER 22

THE GREAT COMMANDMENT

> Scripture: Mark 12:30–31 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these.

Reflection: Jesus teaches us to love God with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength, and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Who is the neighbor God has placed in your path today, particularly someone you find difficult to love?

Be encouraged as you express God's love outwardly.

Reflective Prayer: Lord, teach me to love You wholeheartedly and to love others sincerely. Give me a heart that extends grace, shows compassion, and honors You in every relationship. Amen.

23

WEDNESDAY · DECEMBER 23

ABIDING IN LOVE

> Scripture: John 15:9 "As the Father has loved me, so have I loved you. Now remain in my love.

Reflection: Jesus invites us to remain in His love just as He remains in the Father's love. What practical steps can you take to remain connected to Christ and allow His love to shape your thoughts, decisions, and relationships?

Be encouraged that God's love flows constantly to your and through you.

Reflective Prayer: Jesus, draw me closer to You. Help me abide in Your love, walk in Your truth, and demonstrate Your character in everything I do. Amen.

24

THURSDAY · DECEMBER 24

THE GREATEST OF THESE

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 13:13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Reflection: Faith, hope, and love remain, but the greatest of these is love. As we conclude our Advent journey and prepare to celebrate Christmas, how will you carry the hope, peace, joy, and love of Christ into your home, church, community, and the world?

Be encouraged that God's greatest love is here.

Reflective Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for the gift of Jesus Christ. As I celebrate His coming, let Your love overflow through my life. May I carry hope to the discouraged, peace to the troubled, joy to the weary, and love to everyone I encounter. In Jesus' name, Amen.

CLOSING ADVENT REFLECTION

CHRISTMAS EVE

December 24 — Hope Has Come, Hope Is Alive, Hope Is Coming!

Tonight, we stand at the threshold of Christmas, remembering the greatest gift ever given to humanity. The long-awaited Messiah has come! The promise of God has been fulfilled in Jesus Christ. His life, death, resurrection, and promised return give us a hope that cannot be extinguished.

Hope has come in the person of Jesus.
Hope is alive because Jesus lives.
Hope is coming because Jesus has promised to return!

As we celebrate Christmas, let us remember that the manger was not the end of the story. The child born in Bethlehem is the risen Savior, the King of kings, and the Lord of lords. His kingdom will have no end!

Scripture: Luke 2:10–11 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord.

Revelation 22:20 He who testifies to these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Reflective Prayer: Gracious and loving Father, thank You for the indescribable gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Thank You for the hope He brings, the peace He gives, the joy He restores, and the love He demonstrates. May the message of Advent live beyond this season and become evident in the way we worship, serve, forgive, and love. Keep our hearts steadfast as we await His glorious return. In the mighty name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and coming King. Amen!

HOPE HAS COME!
HOPE IS ALIVE!
HOPE IS COMING!

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, goodwill toward men!
