FROM THE PRESIDENT

FFCC Members and Fans,

We extend a warm welcome to all as we gather for our 2026 FFCC Championships! Since its inception in 1985, the FFCC has been dedicated to serving the vibrant marching and pageantry arts community in Florida. Our mission has been to foster both educational growth and competitive spirit among color guards, indoor percussion, and winds teams.

Although we are spread amongst locations and weekends this year, the talent and heart taking the floor remains Venues across the Orlando area will play host to an impressive lineup, featuring more than two hundred and thirty teams. Moreover, the FFCC will take the opportunity to honor graduates, honor society members, and scholarship recipients through various awards ceremonies scheduled throughout the weekend. It is indeed a time to recognize and celebrate the unwavering commitment and dedication of our members.

To all performers, let this celebration serve as a testament to your perseverance, camaraderie, and the countless sacrifices you have made. And to our cherished spectators, let us unite in raising our voices and applause in admiration of these young talents gracing the stage of our culminating events. They represent the beacon of hope for a promising future ahead.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you for joining us this weekend and contributing to the vibrancy of the occasion - because, without a doubt, YOU belong here.

Michael Higbe President, FFCC

SILENT COMMAND CLINICS

SHARPER SKILLS. STRONGER ENSEMBLES.

HALL OF FAME

CLASS OF 2026

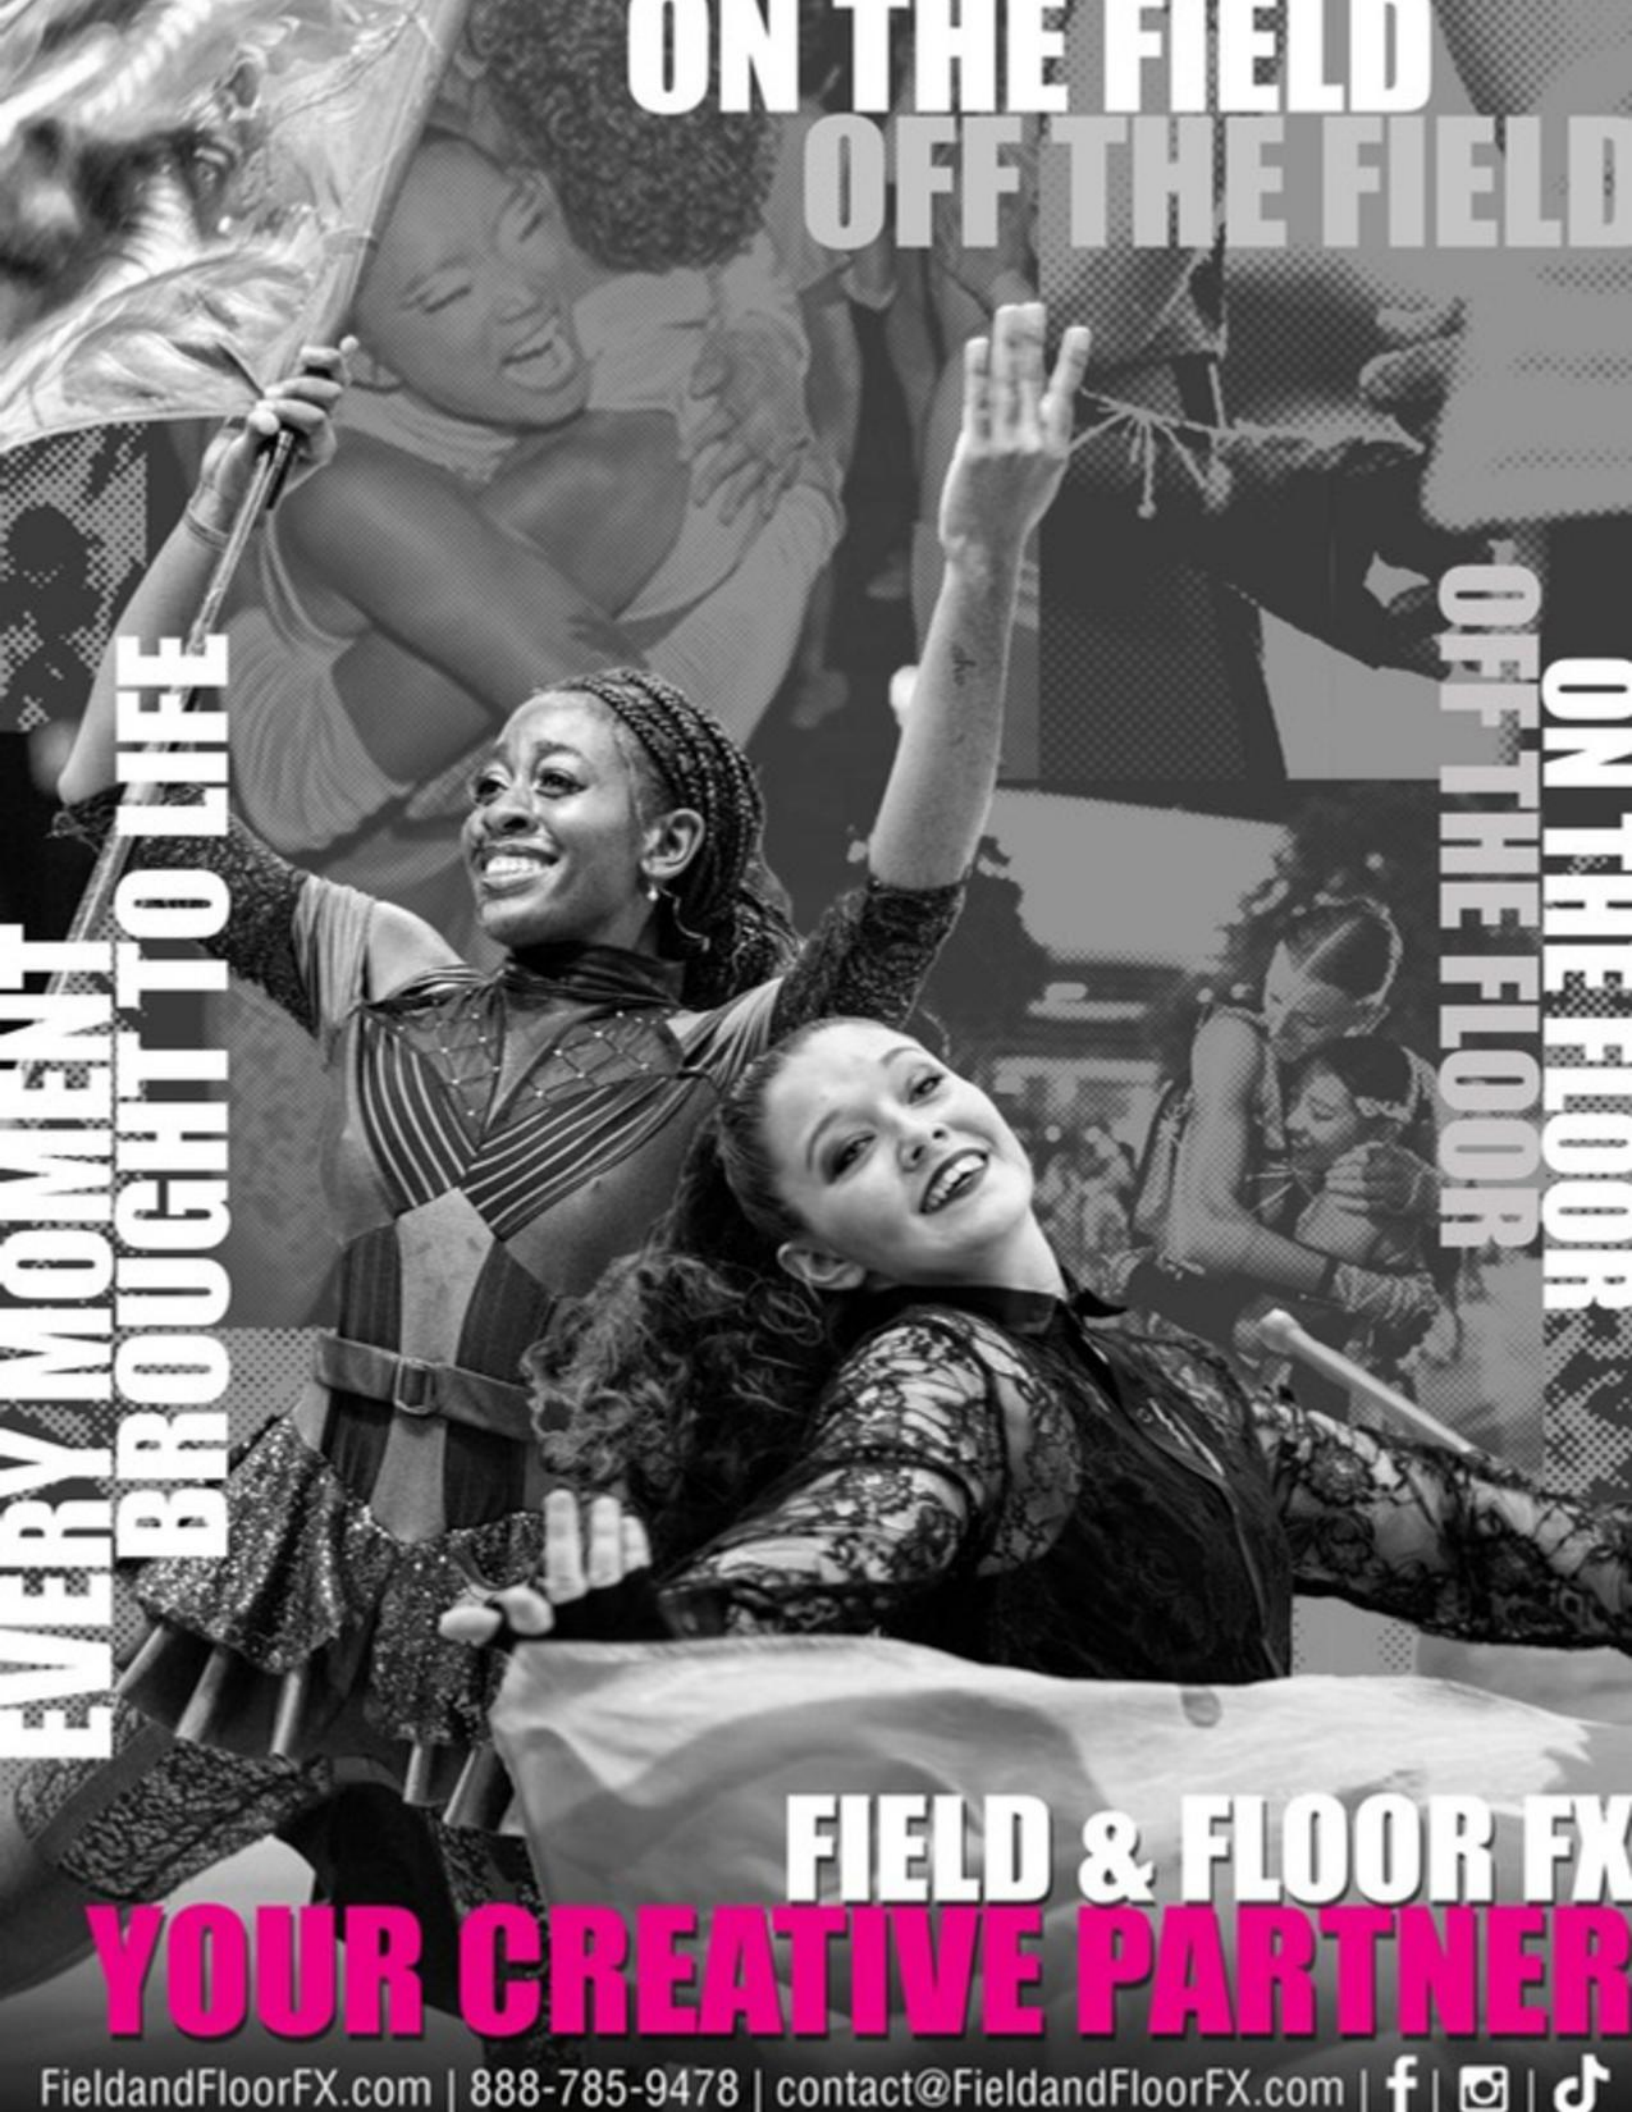

JED DAVIS

Jed Davis is a respected educator, mentor, and pioneer whose leadership has been instrumental in the growth and success of the FFCC Percussion Division. Long before winter percussion became part of the circuit, Jed was a guiding force in Florida percussion education, beginning with his work at Florida Wave Drum and Bugle Corps in the 1980s. Throughout his career, including sustained success with Stoneman Douglas High School and West Boca Raton High School, he has consistently modeled excellence, integrity, and student-centered instruction. Within the FFCC community, Jed is widely regarded as a trusted mentor to instructors, offering guidance that extends beyond performance to leadership, professionalism, and personal growth. His lasting impact on performers, educators, and the percussion activity makes him a deserving recipient for the FFCC Hall of Fame.

JAMIE ESCOBAR-DYER

Jamie Escobar-Dyer is a longtime educator, designer, and leader whose influence has helped shape the Florida Federation of Colorguards Circuit for decades. Through his work at the University of South Florida and Newsome High School, he set high standards for performance excellence, visual design, and student-centered instruction, mentoring hundreds of performers who have gone on to lead and teach within the circuit. As FFCC Education Director, Jamie transformed the circuit's educational mission, spearheading initiatives such as the FFCC Mentor Program, LEAPS Program, and FFCC Honor Society, which continue to promote leadership, equity, and excellence. His service on the FFCC Board of Directors further reflects a legacy of thoughtful leadership, innovation, and unwavering commitment to the growth of the FFCC community.

REGIONAL A DIVISIONS

The Knights Winterguard, under the direction of FFCC Hall of Fame member Michael James, were members of the FFCC from the late 90s through 2009, landing in WGI Independent A Class finals for the first time in 2002. The Knights went on to several Independent Open and Independent World finals appearances throughout their existence.

In 1987, Lake Howell HS 'Imagination', under the direction of Hall-of-Famers Michele Dershimer and Jon Kersten became the first FFCC colorguard to be a WGI World Championships finalist, placing sixth in Scholastic Class A.

In 1989, Lake Gibson HS 'Illusion', under the direction of FFCC founder and Hall-of-Famer Roanna Combs, became the FFCC's first Scholastic Open Class finalist, placing 15th in what was the highest Scholastic Class at the time.

One of the original founding members of the FFCC. The team was started under the direction of Martha Stark and Linda Moorehouse, and based from Gainesville High School. Center Stage was known for high energy, crowd-pleasing shows. The members were fierce competitors with a strong sense of sportsmanship. They enjoyed many years with the FFCC as one of its longest continuous members.

HUMANITARIAN AWARD

Carlos Bautista-Babb

Carlos is an educator, designer, and advocate whose humanitarian leadership has advanced equity and opportunity within the FFCC. As founder of the FFCC Access Scholarship in 2020, he expanded access for performers of color and supported meaningful inclusion efforts. Through mentorship, artistic leadership, and sustained volunteerism, Carlos has helped build lasting pathways for growth and representation, reflecting the spirit of the FFCC Susan Taylor Humanitarian Award.

Theresa Vasquez

Theresa is a devoted educator and mentor whose decades of service have strengthened connection and support across the FFCC community. Through leadership in the FFCC Mentor Program, show hosting, and outreach to developing programs, she has guided educators and created opportunities for collaboration. Her steadfast commitment to students and instructors reflects the values of the FFCC Susan Taylor Humanitarian Award.

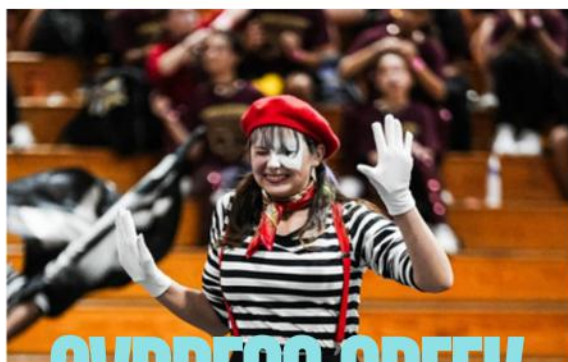

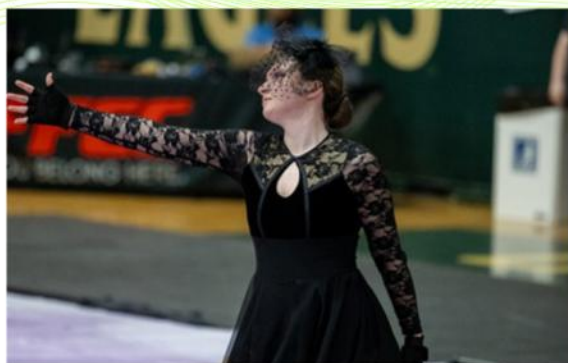

2025 Recipient: Trevor Cox

The FFCC Susan Taylor Humanitarian Award honors individuals in the winter guard, winter percussion, and winds activities who have significantly shaped the Organization through selfless giving, volunteerism, and leadership. Named after the late Susan Taylor, a dedicated FFCC Board Member, this award celebrates those who work tirelessly behind the scenes to uphold the standards and vision of our community.

SCHOLASTIC AAA DIVISIONS

The Beyond Colorguard, under the direction of FFCC Hall-of-Famers Michele Dershimer and Jon Kersten, was originally an outgrowth of the Lake Howell HS 'Imagination' colorguard and included among its membership many current and former FFCC directors, including Adam Sage, Stephen Porter, Shawn McCaig, and Kevin Griner. In 1994 they were the WGI Independent Class A Bronze Medalist.

The Coast One Winterguard, based out of St. Augustine High School under the direction of FFCC Hall-of-Famer Jeff Dodd, was the FFCC's premier Scholastic Colorguard, earning the WGI Scholastic Open Class Silver Medal in 1995, and then being a Scholastic World Class Finalist from 1996-2004 when the guard was disbanded.

Anastasia Winterguard, based out of Orange Park High School, was the brain child of Chris Esworthy, and under the instruction of Mike Higbe and Mary Kelley had a 20 year history with the FFCC. Under the direction of Bert Creswell, they were a seven time WGI finalist and the Scholastic Class A silver medalist in 1996.

Paradigm was an independent guard out of Lake City. An 18 year member of the FFCC, the guard started in Novice class. Progressing through the years, Paradigm was a 10 time FFCC Class champion, a WGI Silver Medalist in A Class, a WGI Bronze Medalist in Open Class, and reached as high as 7th in the Independent World Class. Relocating to Daytona Beach in 2014, the guard ceased operations following the 2017 season.

MIKE PALAU MEMORIAL CONTEST STAFF SERVICE AWARD

Mike Palau, a beloved FFCC staff member, passed away before the 2024 season. Known for his infectious spirit and dedication to performers, he made everyone feel special, especially as an enthusiastic announcer and performer-focused Contest Director. His absence is deeply felt. To honor his impact, the FFCC created the Mike Palau Staff Service Award, recognizing a staff member who embodies his commitment and positive influence.

2025 Recipient: Christina Torrez

2026 FINALISTS

Hikari Nitta

Hikari is a contest director and member of our media team. She demonstrates exceptional dedication and professionalism, creating organized, positive experiences at every event she contest directs. She leads with preparation and a proactive mindset, supporting staff and stepping in wherever needed to keep shows running smoothly. Whether coordinating operations or assisting teammates, her teamwork, reliability, and commitment to excellence make her an invaluable part of the FFCC team.

Matt Tighe

Matt is a member of our tech team, and is a steady and dependable force whose behind-the-scenes efforts keep show-day operations running efficiently. He anticipates needs, manages technical challenges, and supports staff with calm, solution-focused problem solving. Through initiative, collaboration, and attention to detail, Matt strengthens systems and creates a reliable foundation that enhances the experience for performers, judges, and staff.

SCHOLASTIC AA DIVISIONS

The Kersten Division

Jon & Cathy Kersten helped to establish standards and practices in the early days of the FFCC, serving on the board of directors on a number of occasions over the years. Jon, seeing the need for further judge training, founded the Florida Federation of Judges Association in 1986 to help build competent judging pools for local shows. Jon & Cathy also founded the Florida Marching Band Championships.

HARLOW

The Harlow Division

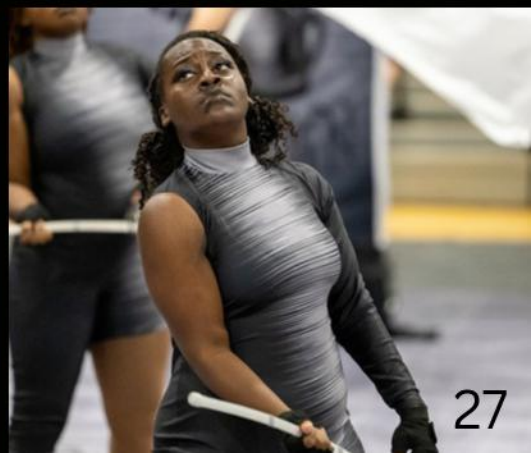

John Harlow was instrumental in the founding of the Florida Federation of Colorguards as one of its first Board members. He and Roanna Combs crafted the first articles of policy and procedure in 1985 that are still the basis for this organization over thirty years later. This Division is named in honor of his work and dedication.

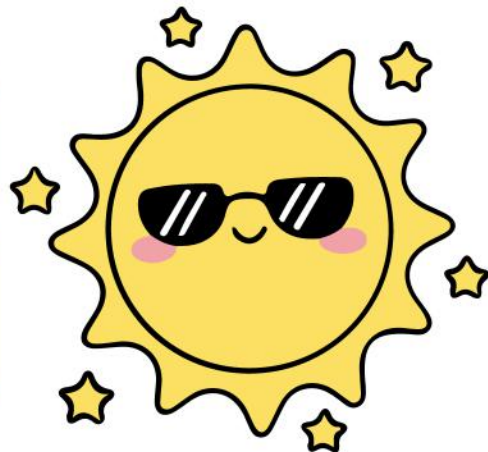

The Wimberley Division

Cheryl Wimberley served as president of the Florida Federation of Colorguard Circuits (FFCC) during its formative years, where her visionary leadership and innovative approach helped lay the foundation for the modern era of the organization. Known across the United States and internationally for her elite coaching, Cheryl played a significant role in bringing national recognition to the FFCC.

Her work with the Shaktai Performance Company was groundbreaking, leading them to become one of the first independent teams in the circuit to medal in the Independent A division of Winter Guard International (WGI) and eventually reach World Class finalist status.

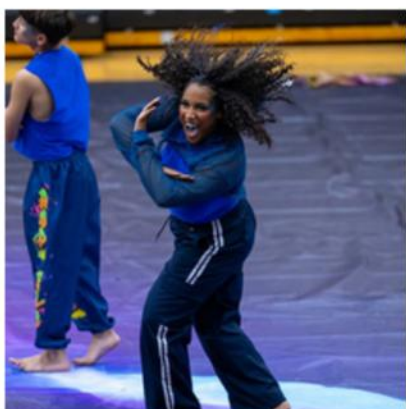

SUNNY AWARDS

Last year we brought back our old school Superlatives for our 40th Anniversary, and now they're here to stay as the FFCC Sunnies! Our Media Team nominated teams in each category and they faced off on our Instagram story during the last weekend of the season in a bracket contest! Thank you to everyone who voted, and remember, it's just for fun, so don't be sad if your team wasn't nominated this time- there's plenty of love to go around in the FFCC!

SCHOLASTIC A CLASS COLORGUARD

UCF

SCHOLASTIC A CLASS DIVISIONS

The Company Division

The Company colorguard, under the direction of FFCC Hall of Famers, Adam Sage and Michael James, made a meteoric rise through the WGI ranks that remains unmatched to this day. They were the WGI Independent Class A and Open Class Gold Medalists in 1995 and 1996, their first two years of existence and were World Class finalists from 1997 to 1999, with their highest finish being 5th place in 1997.

The Shaktai Division

The Shaktai Performance Company, under the direction of Ron Comfort, first became a WGI World Championships finalist in 1991, and were the 1993 WGI Independent Class A Bronze Medalist. They were a WGI Independent World Class Finalist five times, with their highest finish being 5th place in 1999.

The Northeast Independent Division

The Northeast Independent Winterguard was a member of the FFCC from the early 2000's through 2010. During that time, NEI quickly established a national presence, making finals at WGI in Independent Open in 2001 & 2002, and then becoming an Independent World finalist each year from 2003-2010. NEI was under the direction of FFCC Hall of Fame members Jill Moser & Robby DuFresne.

KEVIN PAULUS MEMORIAL

SPORTSMANSHIP

Kevin Paulus, a founding FFCC director, prioritized performance over competition, inspiring the FFCC's "performers first" philosophy. After his early death, the FFCC created the Kevin Paulus Memorial Sportsmanship Award, honoring teams that exemplify exceptional sportsmanship, defined as ethical, fair play, and graciousness. Nominees should consistently demonstrate selflessness, community, and the competitive spirit, going beyond standard sportsmanship.

MARTHA STARK MEMORIAL

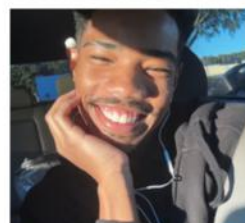

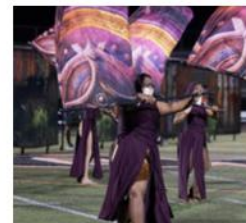

Martha Stark, band director at Gainesville HS, was influential in creating and developing the policies and character of the FFCC. She was an inspiration to all who were fortunate to meet her. Her bands at Gainesville High School were continually superior-rated at FBA Festivals, and the Centerstage Color Guard became one of the premier members of the FFCC. She touched thousands of students with her unique brand of caring and support that made those students strive for the highest levels of excellence. In 1995, after a courageous battle with cancer, we lost Martha. In her honor, the FFCC Board of Directors renamed the existing scholarship fund "The Martha Stark Memorial Scholarship Program." The Program is funded through private donations and sales of FFCC merchandise.

ACCESS SCHOLARSHIP

The Access Program was created in 2020 in hopes of bridging opportunities for performers of color within the marching arts community. The main goal of the committee is to help create visibility for performers within the circuit, in hopes of encouraging young performers to continue within the marching arts in various roles such as being a technician, director, choreographer, designer, or even circuit staff and leadership. This led to the creation of the Access Scholarship which seeks to help performers of color be better prepared to financially support their indoor season. The FFCC continually strives to be a place that is welcoming to all regardless of race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, gender identity, beliefs, and backgrounds.

BRANDON FLORIO MEMORIAL

On December 3, 2024, The FFCC was saddened to learn of the passing of Brandon Florio after a long fight with cancer. Brandon was a performer in the FFCC since high school, performing with several Volusia County schools, and later with Orlando Visual and Pegasus, as well as the Boston Crusaders Drum Corps. Brandon worked on the staff of a number of FFCC teams, most recently with Seabreeze HS and Pegasus. Brandon's infectious spirit and passion for our activity carried on after his passing. Following Brandon's wishes, Pegasus Winterguard held a Spin Clinic following the 2025 Premiere.

2025 Recipient:
Melissa Grabowski,
Tampa Independent
