LEGACY

REFINED ARTISTRY

A Collection Inspired By The Art Of Preserving Beauty

2026

LIMITED EDITION

Peonies, painted in gold.

SOME OBJECTS ARE OWNED.
OTHERS ARE INHERITED.

In every generation, there are objects that outlive their purpose.

A silver box passed from grandmother to granddaughter.
A handwritten letter preserved between the pages of a book.
A porcelain tea set brought out only when the occasion feels worthy.

They endure not because they are useful.
They endure because they mean something.
LEGACY was conceived from this idea.

A collection of crafted with refined artistry tableware that celebrates the enduring relationship between craftsmanship, memory, and the rituals of gathering.

Each design within the collection draws from a different visual heritage—ornamental architecture, botanical archives, antique illustrations and decorative arts that have quietly shaped interiors for centuries.

The result is a collection that feels familiar yet contemporary.

Rooted in history.
Designed for modern living.

Not created for everyday consumption, but for meaningful occasions.

For tables that tell stories.
For hosts who understand that hospitality is an art.
For those who know that luxury is rarely about excess.

IT IS ABOUT INTENTION.
LEGACY BY VOLA

Designed to stay. Crafted to be remembered.

CELESTIAL LOTUS

Bloom of the Heavens. Touched by Gold.

Across every civilisation that has ever told a story, the Tree of Life has been there.

In many of the world's oldest traditions, the lotus is more than a flower. A symbol of awakening, of beauty rising untouched from murky water, of purity that asks for nothing but light. A single lotus bloom in ivory and blush, tipped in warm coral, rests upon a ground of deep, swirling jade green. Brushed through with subtle gold flecks that catch the light like the last shimmer of dusk on still water.

Stillness and bloom. Vastness and wonder.

A piece that feels less painted than discovered, as if pulled from a dream of gardens beneath the stars.

STILLNESS AND WONDER,
HELD IN ONE PIECE.

Crafted in fine porcelain and adorned with gold-flecked detailing, Celestial Lotus transforms everyday dining into an experience of quiet, luminous wonder.
