

IN LOVING MEMORY

of

A BEAUTIFUL
SOUL
gone too soon, but never forgotten.

FOREVER IN OUR hearts.

QUANTANQNA D.
BROWN
"TANA"

SUNRISE
8.26.1985

SUNSET
8.12.2026

SATURDAY, AUGUST 29, 2026

TRAVELERS REST EVANGELISTIC MINISTRY
5975 N. 40th St., Milwaukee, WI 53209

VISITATION
12:00 PM

FUNERAL SERVICE
1:00 PM

ORDER OF SERVICE

PROCESSIONAL

Immediate Family, Pastor & Clergy

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Old Testament & New Testament

Clergy

PRAYER

Pastor Jewett

POETRY

“Until We Meet Again, Mom”

Jeszaria Sartin • Terrance Ross Jr. • Terrion Ross • Te’yana Ross

SOLO

Lois Cowser

READING OF OBITUARY/POETRY

Laysha Brown

CONDOLENCES

Lady Jewett

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

Family & Friends

5–7 Speakers | 2 Minutes Each

MUSICAL SELECTION

Travelers Rest Choir

EULOGY

Pastor Jewett

FINAL VIEWING

Family & Friends

RECESSIONAL

Clergy, Family & Pallbearers

THE Life OF QUANTANQNA "TANA" BROWN

Quantanqna "Tana" Brown was born on August 26, 1985, in Jackson, Mississippi, to Tomouthia Nelson and James Shaw. Shortly after her birth, Tana moved to Milwaukee, Wisconsin, on September 1, 1985, where she was raised and built a life filled with family, love, and many cherished memories.

At an early age, Tana was baptized at Soliah Lutheran Church. She attended Marshall High School, graduating in 2004. She continued her education at Bryant & Stratton College, where she earned her degree in Medical Assisting in 2006.

In 2005, Tana became a mother to her first daughter, Jes Zaria Sartin. She then met Terrance Ross. The two later married on July 7, 2007, and from their union came three beautiful children: Terrance Ross Jr., Terrion Ross, and Te' yana Ross. Though their marriage later came to an end, Tana embraced a new chapter of her life, continuing to grow, enjoy life, and create beautiful memories with her family and those she loved. Above all, Tana was a devoted mother, and her four children were the heart of her life. The love she had for them will live on forever.

Tana was preceded in death by her great-grandmothers, Tomouthia Brown and Ruthie Freeman; grandmothers, Vera Brown (Robert Dorsey) and Tanya Shaw; aunts, Relna Brown and Vivian Brown; and her only uncle, Robert Brown.

Tana leaves to cherish her loving memory her four children, Jes Zaria Sartin, Terrance Ross Jr., Terrion Ross, and Te' yana Ross; her parents, Tomouthia (Troy) Nelson and James (Margie) Shaw; her siblings, Quentin (Desiree) Nelson, Jasmine (Leon) Smith, Tanya Shaw, James R. Shaw; Gregory Shaw; Taniesha Russell, Deontay Duncan, and Tiffany Shaw; James "LJ" Shaw Jr.; her nieces, Danasia, Alanna, and Alyssa Nelson; along with a host of aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews, godchildren, extended family members, and friends who loved her dearly.

Tana's life will forever be remembered through the love she gave, the memories she created, and the many lives she touched along the way. Although her time with us was far too short, the moments shared with her will remain close to our hearts. Her unforgettable laugh could fill a room and bring joy to those around her. Her love, strength, and beautiful spirit will be deeply missed, but her memory will continue to live on through her children, her family, and everyone who had the blessing of knowing and loving her.

Until We Meet Again, Mom

Mom, you were the sweetest soul.
A love so gentle, warm, and true.
You gave your heart so endlessly,
And everything you did, you did with love.

Your smile could brighten any room,
Your kindness touched us all.
You were our comfort, our safe place,
The one we could always call.

Now there's a void where you once stood,
And the emptiness hurts more than words can say.
It hurts all of us, your children,
In ways that grow heavier every day.

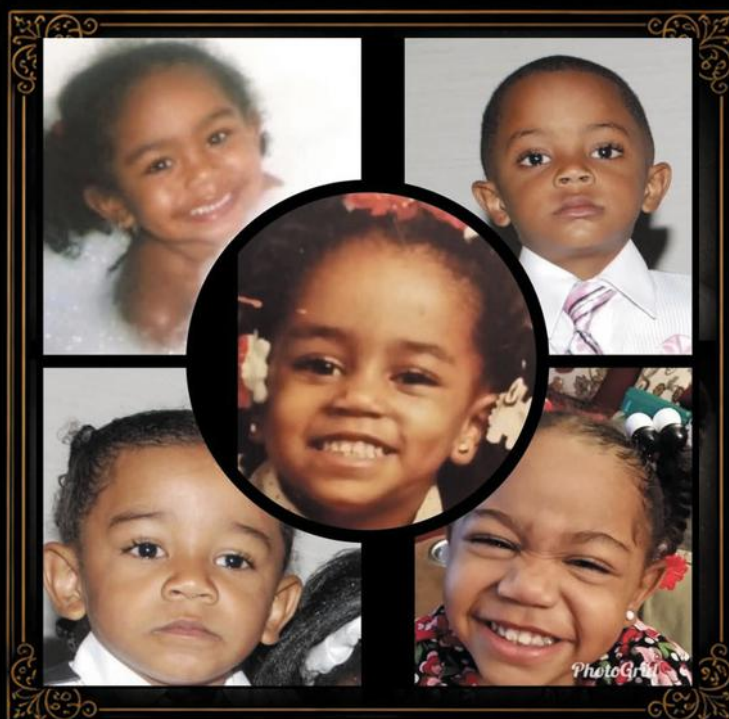

We miss your voice, your hugs, your laugh,
The little things we took for granted.
We miss the love you gave so freely,
And wish we could have one more moment.

Mom, we love you more than words could ever show,
And though our hearts are broken, we'll carry you near.
Your love will live inside each of us,
Through every smile, every memory, every tear.

We'll hold onto the lessons you taught us,
And the beautiful love you left behind.
You may no longer be here beside us,
But you will never leave our hearts or minds.

Until that beautiful day comes
When we meet beyond this life,
We'll keep loving you, keep remembering you,
And keep you with us through all of life.

So rest peacefully, my sweet Mom,
You've given us more love than we could ever repay.
We miss you dearly, we love you forever,
And we can't wait until we see you again someday.

Until we meet again, Mom.
We love you forever. ❤️
YOUR ANGELS

18 of Us

There were 18 of us,
but cousins was only a name.
Raised together under one roof,
we were siblings just the same.

We laughed together, cried together,
fussed and made up too.
We shared a childhood, shared a family,
and made memories that carried us through.

Tana was one of our protectors,
one who helped show us the way.
Her love became part of our story,
and that will never fade away.

Now one of the 18 has gained her wings,
and nothing feels quite the same.
There's an empty space within our circle,
but forever a place for her name.

We'll hold her babies close,
and surround her mama with love.
And when we're missing our sister-cousin, we'll look for her above.

We started as 18,
and 18 we'll always be.
Because death may change what we can see,
but it can't erase our family.

So fly high, Tana,
until we meet again.
Our circle may feel broken,
but our love will never end.

The second of the 18,
now watching from above,
you'll forever be our sister-cousin, forever wrapped in love.

We started as 18,
and 18 we'll always remain.
Until our circle meets again,
we'll forever carry your name.

Written by Laysha

THE Life OF QUANTANQNA "TANA" BROWN

A Letter From Tana to Her Family

My Dear Family,

Please don't worry about me.

I'm safe.

I'm with the Lord. ♥

I'm surrounded by peace, love, and light, and I want you to know that my love for each of you is still as strong as ever.

I know your hearts are hurting, but don't let sadness keep you from living. Laugh for me.
Love harder for me. Take care of one another for me, and cherish every moment.

Whenever you look toward the sky, know that I'm still with you in every memory, every smile, and every moment of love.

Until we meet again,
I love you all forever.

Love Always,
-Super Star- Tana

Acknowledgment

The family of Quantañgia D. Brown would like to express our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has shown us love, kindness, prayers, and support during this difficult time.

Your calls, messages, visits, flowers, cards, donations, and every thoughtful gesture have brought comfort to our hearts and reminded us that we are not alone in our grief.

As we celebrate Tana's life and cherish the beautiful memories she leaves behind, we are deeply grateful for each of you who has stood beside our family.

May God bless you and keep you for every act of love and kindness you have shown us.

With heartfelt appreciation,
The Family of Quantañgia D. Brown

Forever loved. Forever missed.
Forever in our hearts.

PALLBEARERS

Terrance Ross Jr.
Terrion Ross
Quentin Nelson
Terrence Ross Sr.
Jes Sartin
Xavier Brown

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

James Shaw Sr.
Troy Nelson
Tray Brown
Amir Hampton

Repast will be held at

Prime Social

7225 N 76th st Milwaukee Wi 53223

