

Homegoing Celebration

Darryl Jerome Jameel Miller

Sunrise

November 10th, 1962

Sunset

November 5th, 2025

Judkins Colonial Home
Plainfield New Jersey
November 16th, 2025
at 2:30pm

Order of Service

Processional

Music Prelude

Opening Prayer

Reverend Kahlil Carmichael MDIV

Greetings and Welcome

Reverend Carmichael MDIV

Scripture Reading

Obituary Reading

Reflections

Eulogy

Reverend Kahlil Carmichael MDIV

Hymn

Amazing Grace

Benediction

Reverend Kahlil Carmichael MDIV

Recessional

Reflection Of Life

Darryl Miller was born on November 10, 1962, in Newark, New Jersey to the late Jerome Carter and Marzetta Miller. Darryl grew up in both Plainfield and Newark, New Jersey. He received his degree in Cosmetology and became a very successful licensed barber and business owner. He also pursued a degree in culinary arts due to his passion for cooking. Darryl peacefully transitioned on November 5, 2025, in Richmond, Virginia.

Darryl was the youngest of five siblings, Michael Miller, Leon Miller, Missy Miller and the late Earl Graham. He was preceded in death by his loving parents, Jerome Carter, Marzetta Miller, and his step father Leon Miller, as well as his brother, Earl Graham.

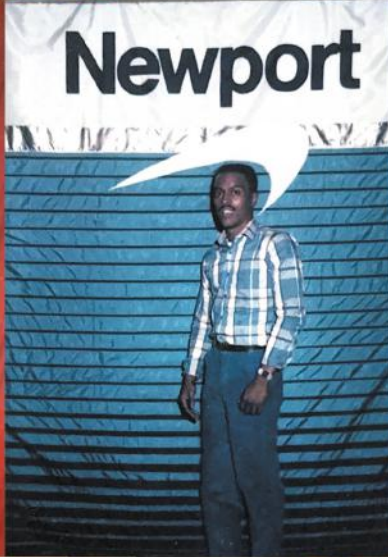

Darryl was confident, outspoken and passionate. His passion drove him to follow in the footsteps of his father and his grandfather. Darryl proudly carried on the family legacy of barbering. With dedication, passion, and skill, he opened his own barbershop, Darryl's For Hair, in Linden, New Jersey. What began as a business quickly became a cornerstone of the community—a place filled with laughter, conversation, and connection. He was a mentor of young men and women giving them life advice while also providing them with a trade and a platform to become successful. His impact in Linden extended far beyond his business; he built relationships that lasted a lifetime and inspired everyone who crossed his path. Among those most deeply touched by his life is his beloved son and best friend, Darryl Miller, who shared not only his father's name but also his drive, determination, and heart. He will continue to carry on his father's legacy.

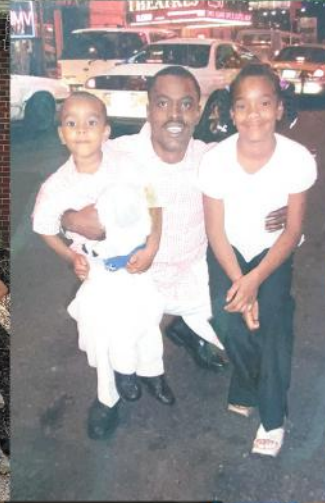

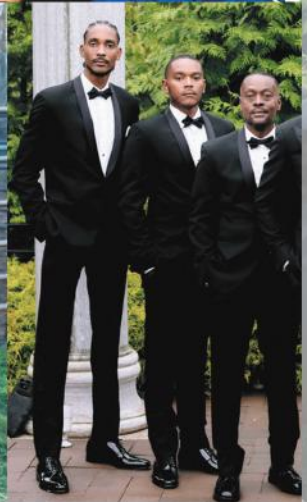

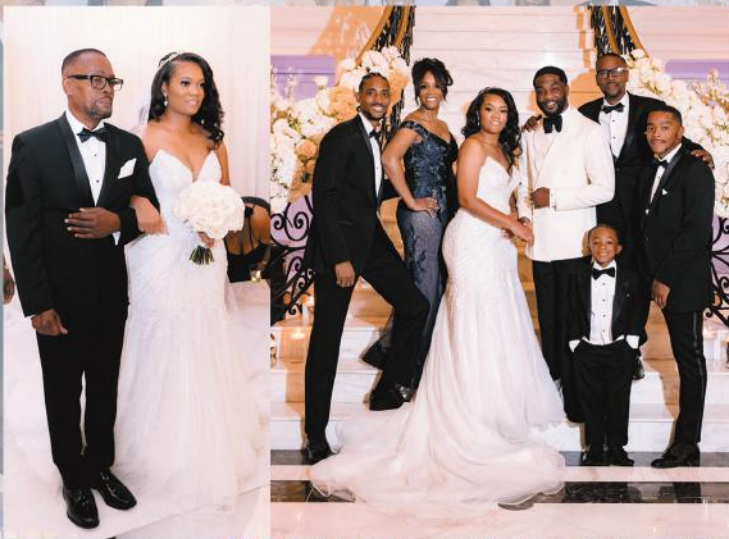

Darryl loved music, cars, motorcycles, and his dogs, finding peace and freedom in the things that reflected his vibrant personality. He was also a devoted Chicago Bulls fan, with a deep admiration for Michael Jordan that never faded. He lived life loudly, passionately, and unapologetically. He had a commanding voice, a generous heart, and an energy that filled every room he entered.

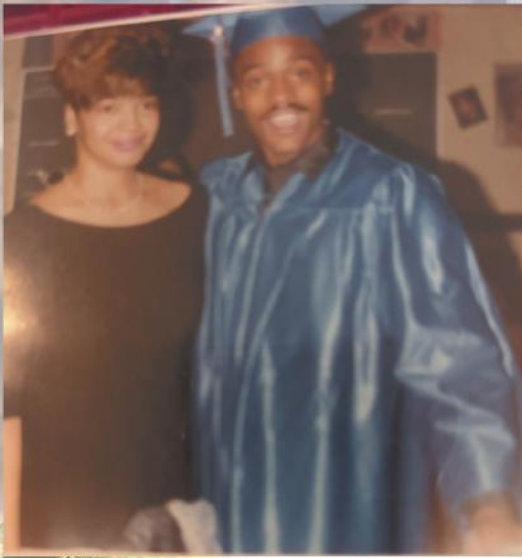

He will be remembered as a man of strength, purpose, and authenticity—a leader in his family and in his community. Darryl leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and connection that will live on through his children, grandchildren, and all those blessed to have known him.

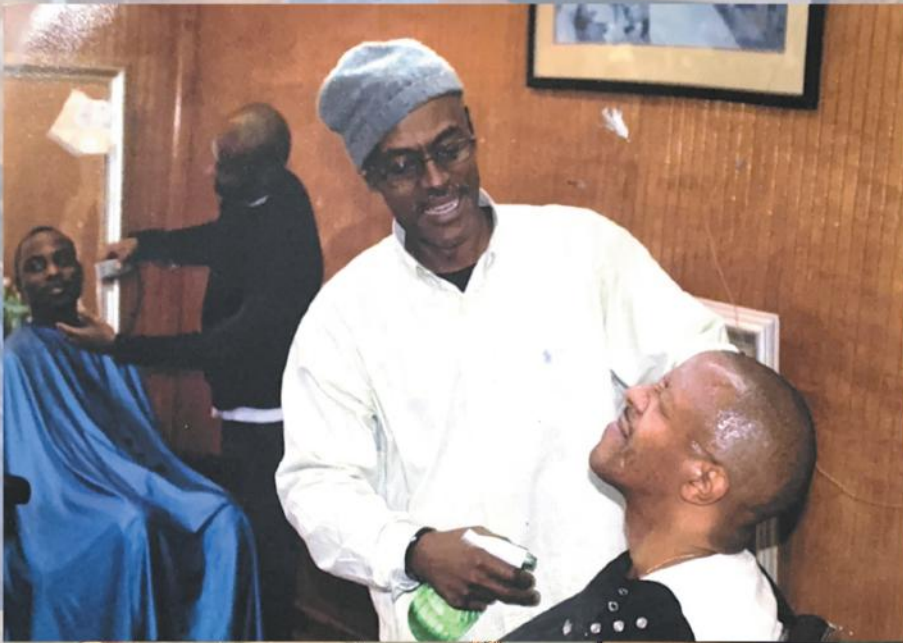

He was one of a kind.

Darryl leaves to cherish precious memories to his sons Darryl Miller, Martese Street, and his daughter Jasmine Payne, son-in-law Quentin Payne and his two beautiful grandchildren Ethan and Jada Payne. Also, leaves precious memories to his step children Al'Tereek Stembridge, LaShonte White and the late Latoya Stembridge and grandchildren Na'Kaii Stembridge, LaNaija McDaniel and Tierra Campbell. He leaves to cherish his memory a host of nieces, nephews, relatives, and friends.

If You Could See Me Now

If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear.
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here.
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face. I've touched my Savior's hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promised Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets.
I've touched the walls of jasper, dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion; someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.
So, please, don't cry! We will meet again someday!

Judkins Colonial Home
Plainfield New Jersey

November 16th, 2025 at 2:30pm