ABOUT US

Pure Foxnuts / Makhana Premium Quality

THE PS FOODS is a trusted manufacturer, exporter, and supplier of premium Foxnuts (Makhana). We offer Raw Makhana, Popped Makhana, and custom flavored variants all 100% natural, no preservatives, and export quality.

Our journey is driven by a passion for quality, innovation, and customer satisfaction. We carefully source our makhana from trusted growers and suppliers to ensure that every batch meets our strict quality standards.

From sourcing and processing to packaging and delivery, we maintain high standards at every stage of our operations. Our modern processing and hygienic packaging practices help preserve the freshness, crunch, taste, and nutritional value of makhana. We offer a wide range of products to meet the diverse requirements of retailers, wholesalers, distributors, food businesses, and international buyers.

Our product range includes premium Raw Makhana, crispy Popped Makhana, and a variety of customized flavored makhana options. We also understand that every customer and business has unique requirements,

OUR PRODUCTS

Raw Makhana

Our Raw Makhana is sourced directly from the pristine ponds of Bihar, India — the world's largest producer of premium foxnuts. Each seed is hand-harvested, sun-dried, and carefully graded to ensure uniform size, crisp texture, and superior nutritional value.

Rich in protein, calcium, magnesium, and antioxidants, raw makhana is the perfect guilt-free snack base. It is 100% natural, gluten-free, and contains no added preservatives — making it ideal for health-conscious consumers, food manufacturers, and bulk buyers worldwide.
