SUMMIT COUNTY CLASSICS

Some spots are more than just restaurants — they're legacy institutions. One of those is the iconic Akron Family Restaurant, serving hearty portions of favorites like Nashville hot chicken and waffles, Hungarian sausage and some killer cones.

Belgrade Gardens, the first chicken dinner operation in Barberton, still dishes out its famous "djuvece" (hot sauce), fried chicken, coleslaw and fried potatoes.

Gasoline Alley stacks its legendary sandwiches high — don't miss the Corn Beefus Gigantus or the Spare Parts sandwich packed with corned beef, turkey and Swiss on grilled rye.

The Lockview, a welcoming local tavern, elevates the usual grilled cheese with 16 gourmet varieties, including the #5 — a goat cheese, mushroom and caramelized onion option.

Swensons Drive-In Restaurant, an Akron icon since 1934, is a foodie must. The famous Galley Boy double burger, with its signature sweet-and-savory sauces, is worth the hype.

MODERN-CASUAL & FINER FARE

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, AKRON!

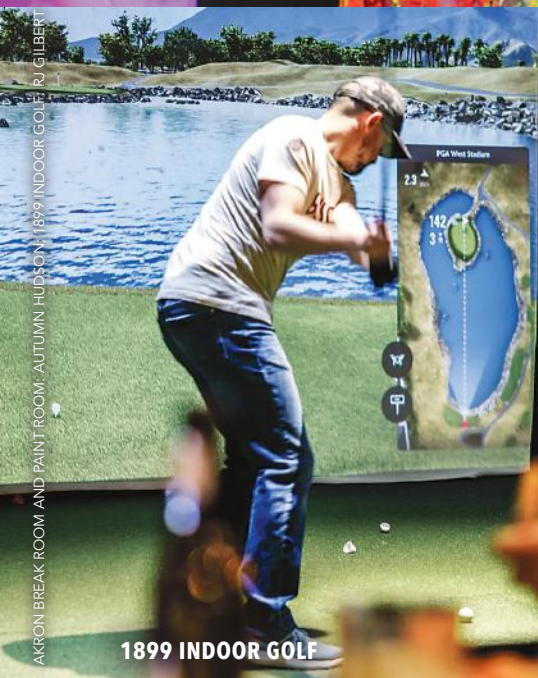

As you're planning your perfect adventure, be on the lookout for ways to help Akron celebrate its bicentennial. That's right — 2025 is the city's 200th birthday. To highlight this momentous occasion, mark your calendar for the Akron Bicentennial Celebration taking place the first week of July. This multiday festival, located in downtown Akron, will feature a parade, food, music and more. Also be on the lookout for special events happening on Dec. 6 — Akron's actual birthday. On that day in 1825, General Simon Perkins filed the plot of Akron at the courthouse in Ravenna.

With a desire to provide programming that would be open and accessible to the public and inclusive and reflective of Akron, the Bicentennial Commission also will offer a series of events taking place throughout the year, including monthly activities to be held in each of Akron's 24 neighborhoods.

Looking for more ways to blast into the past? The Akron History Center officially opened in April and features 3,000 square feet of exhibits, industry, historic artifacts and pieces from the past. Visitors will learn about Akron's founding — from the area's early Indigenous people and the Western Reserve to the history around the Ohio & Erie Canal, Goodyear and the Soap Box Derby.
