MEET OUR GUESTS

De Kleine Wijn Koöp, led by winemaker Wynand Grobler and his wife Anya, operates as a two-person family business from their Tulbagh cellar.

Wynand's goal is hands-on winemaking, producing small batches from prestigious grapes and select vineyards in Stellenbosch, Tulbagh, Swartland, Walker Bay, Franschhoek, Piekenierskloof, and Paarl.

GINSMITH

Ginsmith is a micro distillery in the Groot Winterhoek Mountains near Tulbagh.

We distill gins in a copper pot still using handpicked indigenous botanicals from our farm, Tygerkloof, and pure mountain spring water. Our smooth, balanced gins have earned multiple international gold medals.

DieKlipHuis is a boutique wine and olive farm in the scenic Tulbagh Valley.

Though not certified, our farming practices are organic. Our clay and rock soils are ideal for grape and olive cultivation. Enjoy our award-winning olive oil, crafted in the enchanting Tulbagh Valley. We produce only 4000 bottles of Pinotage and Shiraz annually, with wines fermented in French oak barrels.

Meadery crafts artisanal meads inspired by Africa's heritage and beauty, blending ancient traditions with modern innovation.

Escape the ordinary with a Meadery tasting experience, exploring the rich history and flavors of mead. Made from the finest organic honey, free from artificial additives or preservatives.

DID YOU KNOW?

Tulbagh, the fourth oldest town in South Africa

Discovered in 1658 by Pieter Potter and settled in 1699 by 14 farmers, the town began developing from 1743. Tulbagh was the last stop for trekkers from the Cape of Good Hope before entering the wild interior.

Church Street boasts the largest collection of Cape Dutch, Edwardian, and Victorian heritage sites in South Africa, all restored after the 1969 earthquake.

During the 1860s diamond rush, Tulbagh thrived. However, the construction of Michell's Pass and the railway bypassing the town turned it into a rural backwater, preserving its historic charm.

With five museums (all open during this weekend) detailing its rich history, Tulbagh attracts those tracing their ancestry, particularly in the graveyard of De Oudekerk (museum church), preserved in its original form.

TRADITIONAL MALVA PUDDING

Pudding Ingredients:

1 cup (200g) sugar
2 large eggs
1 tablespoon apricot jam
1 1/4 cups (150g) all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
A pinch of salt
2 tablespoons butter (melted)
1 teaspoon vinegar
1/2 cup (125ml) milk

Sauce Ingredients:

1 cup (250ml) cream
6.5 tablespoons (100g) butter
1/2 cup (100g) sugar
1/2 cup (125ml) hot water

Instructions:

Preheat the oven to 350°F (180°C).

Beat the sugar and eggs until fluffy. Add the apric

Sift the flour, baking soda, and salt together. Melt the butter and add the vinegar. Add the dry ingredients and butter mixture to the egg mixture, alternating with the milk. Mix well. Pour the batter into a greased baking dish and bake for 45 minutes until golden brown.

While the pudding is baking, prepare the sauce by heating the cream, butter, sugar, and hot water together until the butter is melted and the sugar is dissolved. Pour the sauce over the hot pudding as soon as it comes out of the oven. Let it soak in for a few minutes before serving. Enjoy warm with custard, cream or ice cream.

A TULBAGH CHRISTMAS TALE

Once upon a time in the charming town of Tulbagh, the annual Christmas in Winter festival was eagerly anticipated by all. The town was bustling with excitement as Church Street transformed into a sparkling wonderland, adorned with twinkling lights and festive decorations.

Among the townsfolk was a young girl named Lily, who loved everything about Christmas. Her favorite part of the festival was the Farmer's Electric Light Parade, which lit up the night with its dazzling display. This year, Lily had a special wish—to make this festival the best one yet for everyone in Tulbagh.

Lily's father, Mr. van der Merwe, was a winemaker. He invited visitors to his vineyard for wine tastings and cellar tours, offering a taste of Tulbagh's finest. Meanwhile, Mrs. van der Merwe prepared traditional Christmas meals at their cozy restaurant, filling the air with the delicious aroma of festive treats.

One evening, as Lily helped her mother prepare for the festival, she found an old, dusty box tucked away in the attic. Inside, she discovered a beautiful, antique star. Her grandmother had once told her that this star had magical powers to bring joy and unity to the town.

With great care, Lily placed the star atop the Christmas tree in Church street. As the sun set and the stars began to twinkle in the sky, a warm, radiant glow emanated from the star, casting a magical light over Tulbagh.

People gathered around, mesmerized by the star's glow. Suddenly, the town was filled with the sound of laughter, music, and the jingling of bells. The Kidz Zone buzzed with excitement as children enjoyed pony rides, face painting, and tractor trips. Visitors marveled at the heritage sites on Church Street, all illuminated by the magical star.

As the Farmer's Electric Light Parade commenced, Lily noticed something extraordinary. The star's light seemed to bring out the best in everyone. Neighbours who rarely spoke were now sharing stories and laughter. The festive spirit had truly united the town.

From that day on, the Tulbagh Christmas in Winter festival became a beacon of joy, unity, and magical memories for everyone who visited.
