When kids are facing medical challenges, the FIRST THING you should ask is:

"IS THERE A CHILD LIFE SPECIALIST"?

Hello! I'm here to guide you through what can sometimes be a very stressful experience.

I can also help you navigate some of the really difficult questions you might be having...

"What does this MEAN for us?"

"Why did this HAPPEN?"

"How do we COPE with this?"

and not to mention:

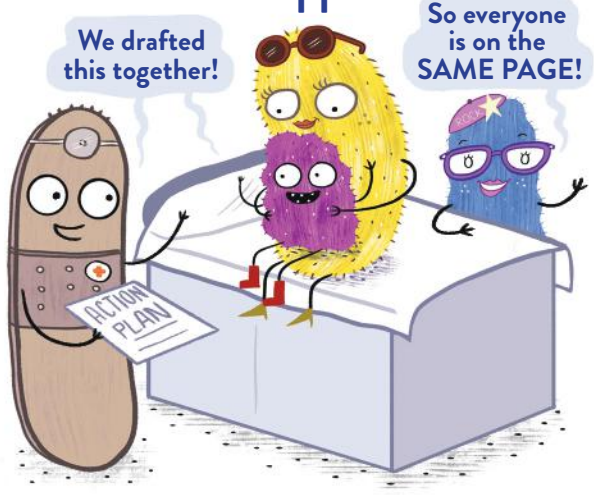

"How will this experience impact our lives LONG TERM?"

Child Life Specialists receive highly specialized education and training, & have extensive experience with helping everyone feel more comfortable and in control.

I AM

I provide procedural prep and support.

I support siblings & families.

I offer evidence based therapeutic activities, do prep, and help process emotions through medical play.

Basically, things go MUCH MORE SMOOTHLY FOR EVERYONE when I am part of the team.

I unfortunately can't "fix" this.

But I can make this easier.

Outcomes aren't always what we hope.

But you DON'T have to face these challenges alone.

Child Life is a GAME CHANGING & ESSENTIAL part of your team.
