The Pomegranate Collection

2025

This Autumn, Volga Linen introduces The Pomegranate Collection — a new selection of printed and plain linens inspired by the rich symbolism and enduring beauty of the pomegranate.

Drawing inspiration from an original 17th-century woodcut block print in Volga's archive, the Pomegranate weaves a quiet dialogue between past and present, honouring three decades of Volga's printmaking tradition.

Our first entirely hand-drawn print, Pomegranate, is a small-scale design that embodies natural abundance and timeless craftsmanship. The pomegranate has long symbolised fertility, prosperity, and renewal — its many seeds representing life's continual cycle of creation and rebirth.

Offered in two colourways, the design draws on the pomegranate's ancient symbolism: the rich Marsala tone reflects dawn and new light, while the warm golden tones of Tawny Gold evoke the glow of renewal — a tribute to the winter solstice and the promise of light's return.
