Volume 3 of The Stars Trilogy

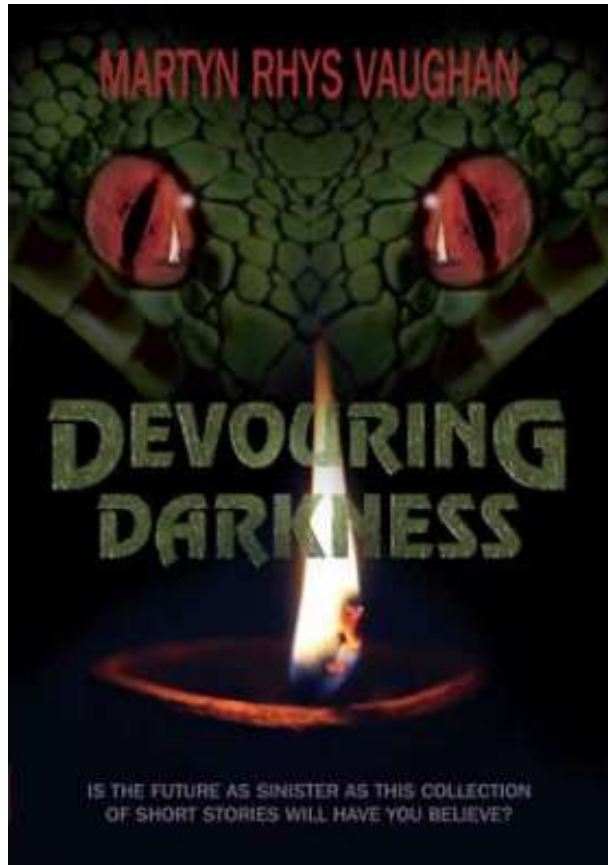

Culmination of Stars completes the trilogy of SciFi novels by Martyn Rhys Vaughan. The other two are 'Doom of Stars' and 'Resolution of Stars'.

When the Destroyer burst into the inner Solar system, humankind was faced with imminent extinction. Some tried to escape by burrowing deep underground; some by fleeing into a virtual world: both groups hoping to return to normality after the firestorms had passed. But others saw that salvation lay only in attempting an epic journey across over four lightyears of terrible darkness to rebuild human civilisation around an alien sun.

Five lightsail starships were launched with that hope.

This is the saga of the greatest of them all – the mighty MAGELLAN.
