The Senior Class of 1985
Proudly Dedicates This Yearbook
to Mr. Bruce D. Canade
with all of our respect and gratitude

“...that which we are, we are,
One equal temper of heroic hearts,
Make weak by time and fate, but strong in will
To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield.”

from “ULYSSES”
by Alfred, Lord Tennyson

HEADMASTER'S MESSAGE

DR. JOEL C. MONELL

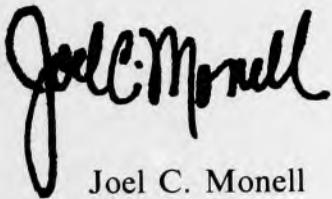

To The Class of 1985

This book will serve as a constant reminder of the variety of experiences you have had at Phoenix Country Day School. It is an important milestone in your life cycle. Treasure it.

Mr. Schweikher, the College Counselor, has called your class "ambitious, adventurous, and flexible" in terms of its college applications. I trust that these qualities along with those of intellectual curiosity and perseverance have been nurtured at P.C.D.S. and will remain with you throughout your lives.

Rollo May said that "the most effective way to ensure the value of the future is to confront the present courageously and constructively." I think you have done this and I wish you the best in whatever future you pursue.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Joel C. Monell". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial 'J'.

Joel C. Monell
Headmaster

“Waiting to GET OUT!”

“LOVE them cheese crisps.”

“That REAL fruit taste.”

“Where’s my mommie?”

“We frosh stick together..”

"I should have had a V-8!"

"Eenie-meenie-minnie-moe."

"Bond. James Bond."

Tres chique

"Chuck-Chuck-Chuckwagon!"

"Can I have your autograph?"

The happy Buddah

"Partners in Crime."

"How many fingers?"

"Eddie does it like this-"

"Oink - Oink"

"Can you give me a lift?"

"Would YOU want to be seen with them either?"

"Who laid a stinky?"

"Can I open my eyes yet?"

"Times like these were made for Tasters Choice ..."

"It's casual"

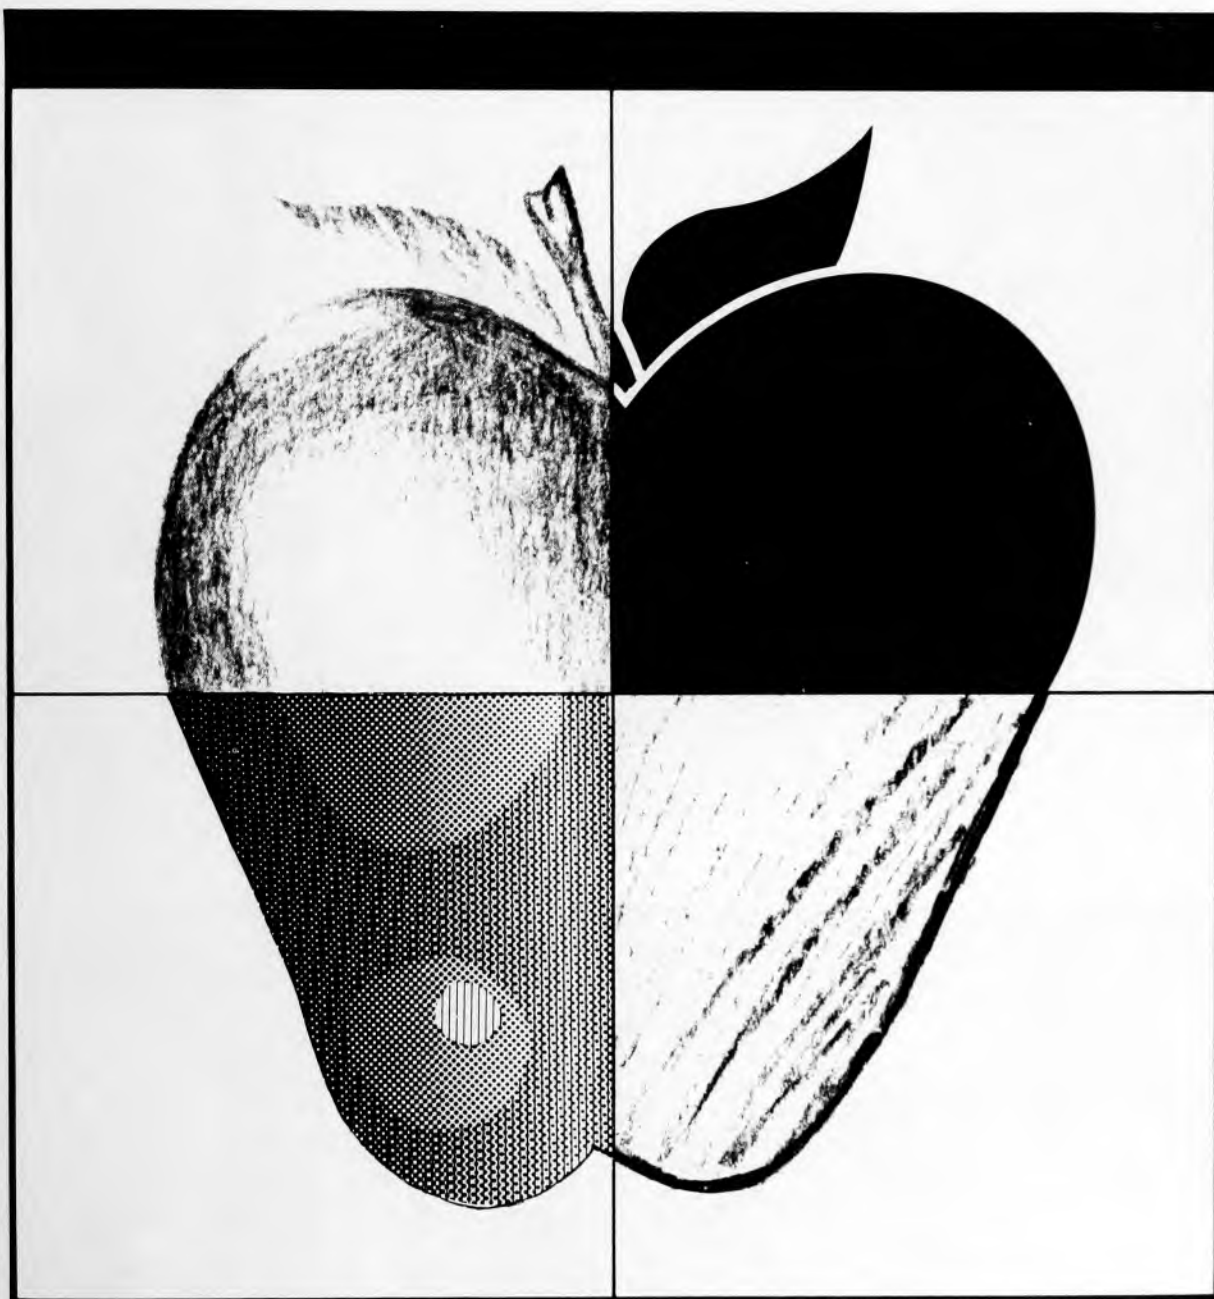

"Mrs. Olsen, eat your heart out!"

"Almost ... Seniors!"

"Zippidy Doodah!"

There is no pain you are receding,
distant ships won't cover the horizon,
you are only coming through in waves,
your lips move but I can't hear what you say.
When I was a child I caught a fleeting glimpse

I turned to look but it was gone.
I cannot put my finger on it now,
the child is grown, the dream is gone.
I have become comfortably numb.

You must understand that peace is an internal matter. It has to be a self-discipline for an individual or for an entire civilization. It must come from within. If you set up an outside power to enforce peace, this outside power will grow stronger and stronger. It has no alternative. The inevitable outcome will be an explosion, cataclysmic and chaotic. That is the way of our universe. When you create paired opposites, one will overwhelm the other unless they are in delicate balance.

So endeth this chronicle. It being strictly a history of a boy, it must stop here; the story could not go much further without becoming the history of a man. When one writes a novel about grown people, he knows exactly where to stop—that is, with a marriage; but when he writes of juveniles, he must stop where he best can.

NOTHING GOLD CAN STAY

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold,
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour
Then leaf subsides to leaf
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes to day,
Nothing gold can stay.

Desert Places

Snow falling and night falling fast oh fast
In a field I looked into going past
And the ground almost covered smooth in snow
But a few weeds and stubble showing last
The wood around it have it - it is theirs
All animals are smothered in their lairs
I am too absent spirited to count;
The loneliness includes me unawares
And lonely as it is that loneliness
Will be more lonely ere it will be less
A blanker whiteness of benighted snow
With no expression, nothing to express
They cannot scare me with their empty spaces
Between stars - on stars where no human race is
I have it in me so much nearer home
To scare myself with my own desert places

Robert Frost

Vacillation

My fiftieth year had come and gone
I sat, a solitary man
In a crowded London shop
An open booth and empty cup
On the marble-top
While on the shop and street I gazed
My body of a sudden blaze;
And twenty minutes more or less
It seemed, so great my happiness,
That I was blessed and could be blessed

OVERALL RECORD 9-3-1

The Varsity association football team recently concluded it's season, compiling an overall record of 10 victories, 3 defeats, and 1 draw. Defending it's State Championship title from last year, the team finished with a record of 8 wins and 2 defeats in the league, giving it second place in the league and a place against Judson in the championship final.

The final proved to be a close and exciting game which ended in a 3-2 victory and a second State Championship in two years for the PCDS team. Chuck Bain was the team's leading scorer, and valuable performances were turned in by Seniors Peter Cove, John Snead, John Morey, Henry Sargent, Robert Portnoy, and John Marcarelli who was the MVP in the final. The championship was a great way for the Seniors to finish their soccer careers at PCDS, and though they will be missed next season, its reassuring to see the talent of this year's 9th, 10th, and 11th graders, which will be so valuable to next year's team. Congratulations!

The 1984-85 Eagle basketball season was a tremendous success. For the first time in 5 years the PCDS basketball team went to the AIAA State Tournament. Led by All-State Center Cliff Smith the Eagles finished the regular season with a 9-7 record. Injuries hampered the Eagles but along with Smith, seniors Rob Portnoy, Henry Sargent, and junior Jim Purdy were instrumental in the Eagles achievements. The future is exciting with the promise of a gymnasium for PCDS basketball. Congratulations to first year Coach Walter Rock and the team for an outstanding season.

The Eagle Junior Varsity Basketball Team gained valuable experience for the future as they hustled their way through a ten game schedule. Although winning only one game, the team showed a lot of improvement and determination. Their efforts will be beneficial to the Eagle Varsity in the future. A special thank you to Coach Duane Wilson who volunteered his time so we could have a Junior Varsity program.

The Girls' Basketball Team went through a challenging season. The Eagles were led by seniors Lauren Upshaw, Jenny Schoeffler, and Sally Miller. Highlight of the year was a big overtime win over rival Judson. Next year's returning players will use this year's experience to bring improvement to the Girls' Basketball program. A special thank you goes to Coach Tom Cove for his time and effort in working with the team.

STUDENT SENATE

This year's Senate was probably the most active Senate P.C.D.S. had had in a while. This was due to the addition of an extra representative from each class, much work on their part, and a generally more active student body. Events such as the ski trip and others got students involved in fun and excitement while things like sponsoring a deprived child and a community service group gave the Senate a chance to give others some help. In material terms, the Senate provided the Upper School with many new items, and did its best to do the most for the school in general.

which I hope will last. Pete: starting center-half on U.S. World Cup team of the future; two dates to Cotillion '83 (I'm still sorry about that); your excellent leadership especially on and off the soccer field; thanks for your major contribution to our state soccer titles; the ability to erase summer of '84 from memory (pearl diving, etc.); Trivial Pursuit ("the light was yellow then turned green!?!?"); a friendship that will endure. Wex: Swensen's & Arby's trash cans; knocking everything off my book shelves; more laughs than I can remember; we missed you this year, bud!; thanks for an unreturnable favor. Jim: a year's supply of BK chicken; a free pass to Tommy's for the summer; 40% discount on all Guess clothing in the valley; recording contract with the record company of your choice. J.O.S.: a conversation via a Panasonic walkman; freshman and sophomore friendship; thanks for helping me get interested in music. Moe: energy problems (spin, - - - -!) reconciliation and friendship after hostility after friendship; a Gucci bow tie; an unlimited guest-house gala. KEW: a good next season; a high five. "Fr": a Dallas victory in Super Bowl XXIV. Greg: real knees; free tobacco for life. Rob: that movie this summer. Jim P: the 1985 Slurpe Football Coin set. Lisa B: Leading the U.S. to victory in 1988 Whitman Cup; your own volvo turbo. Kirsty: a raise at camp; good times with Allie & Chris. Margie: an ear for the beginning of senior year. Sally M: our Child Psych. discussions; an Al-lesse wardrobe. Jen: thanks for helping me open up back in the Great Pumpkin days. Carey: the Fair; a Pink Floyd midnight movie;

Ambresino's Italian food. Laura: a good listener for probs. with Christina & Jeff; Shakespeare on the T.V. at school; a fool-proof method note-passing for future English classes; a month's supply of chewing gum (payable on request); perfect chemistry in 1984; our wonderful friendship (in spite of separate ways). Dena: our relationship; memories to last forever. The P.C.D.S. Faculty: a recording of the song "Nobody does it Better"; thanks for being the wonderful people and instructors that you are. All of the above and anyone I said hello to in the last 4 years: my best wishes for the years ahead. Mom & Dad: YOU'RE THE BEST!

I, Lainie Rosenbaum, being of ever changing moods, leave the following to; Audrey: A Park Avenue Apt. Hawaii, a backpack, a fake I.D., SEAN, Climbing Palm Trees, T.P'ing a hotel, Trivial Pursuit, I refuse to stand near the two of you, exercises, besides the Pointe and my car, a trip to Florida, Scottsdale not Phoenix, and the ability to act like you know what is going on. To Tina: J.S. M.M. and STCH, lepracy groupies, and sane American class (yes, there is such a thing). To Jennie: Cosmopolitan, 4th period talks, Security Council, Making a fool out of myself, new tennis shoes, flourescent clothing straight out of Seventeen, and your name in lights. To Walter: Coquetts and Termagants, manners, my bad moods, GQ poses, children's songs, a phone call just to bother you, and lunch money. To Psuedo-intellect: a real personality. To Laura and Sally: thank-you notes and St. Wke's. To Laurie: Thrust and friction, a trip to France, and tons of college men. To Todd: Mine and Laurie's notes and Change-sone. To Ellie: Malibro and good luck in the next three years. To Cindy: diet cokes, a good friendship, and thanks for everything. To Mr. Canade: A shared respect for literature and a thanks for all your help. To Mr. Schweikher: My A- and B+, a dinner at the Orangeriel now try to collect! My anxiety, parents who try and predict SAT scores, the Bill Cosby Show, Magazine articles, and a thank you for all your advice and help. To Mr. Stokes: My U.S. achievement score (after all, it's a result of your teaching.) a rouse, films, films, and more films, my success in the future, decisions about classes and colleges, lots of respect, and a thank you for being my advisor and a friend. To all my teachers: a thank you for all your help during the past two years. To all my friends: a thank you for a great two years and good luck in the future. To Stevie: a big hug, Samchael, a basketball scholarship to North Carolina, and good luck and lots of fun in the next three years, and lastly, to Mom and Dad: thank you for your love, patience, and understanding. I love you!

I, Jennie Schoeffler, forever cynical (or so I hear, Schweik), leave to the following: To Dave and Pete: numerous amounts of funky clothes, even more spacious seats, and luck for the future. To Kyle: a girl from Connecticut, many blushes, the real story, the ability to finish what you say, confidence. To Tina S: Jennifer, ability to stay standing up for more than 5 min., another exciting St. Luke's, less up front, and great senior year, lots of Luv. To Lainie: 6 in.

heels, Berkeley men, sweats, less worry lines, your beautiful smile, indecent modeling pictures, and keep in touch! To Audrey: 4 yrs. at PCDS, your blond hair, a certain Arab sheik, dreams, a wonderfully wide jaw, believe me, and lots of love. To Jim R: a macho stick BMW, a good friendship, more confidence. To John M: 10 yrs, your short curls, David Mason, a safer roof on your 'clubhouse', lots of luv. To Apichai: a gorgeous car, Michael Jackson's clothes, E.L., and many visits to NYU. To Natalie: What can I say? I love you, sis. To Chris Newell: letters, a lot of distance, misunderstandings, my white shirt, chemistry and un petit morceau do mon coeur. To Sally G: Men at Work, a certain evening in your room, Jamie, Shelton forever, he's raping my friend, Nosh, Oh- your birthday champagne, late nights, a certain camping trip of yours, Pronto's, you chicken, many visits to me at NYU, and all my love. To Laura D: Art exploration, Kinks, lunch w/Doug who?, many nights spent talking, a date w/ R.P., J.R., C.S., J.S., remember? El Torito parking lots, many strawberry margaritas, P.Y.T., rhinestone, an open invitation to visit me any time. You better, I love you. To Cliff: 12 yrs. old girls, Poltergeist, my Polo bikini, longer shorts around everyone but me, going Dutch, painless champagne, prom night, the golf course- those damn sprinklers, Burger King, a wider knowledge of dirty words, Tracy, your little lap sitter, blonds, a pink cummerbund, your room, an older woman, many regrets on my part, I owe you a greeting, Tammy's experience (kidding), my beautiful pink rose, shorter goodbyes, a certain night at Laura's house, you promised to let me meet Larry, and love forever. To Carey: Skate World, Eric Hagstrom's party, Greg and Todd, cute scale, bubble butt (Ha!), Rod Stewart, Jimmy, long hair, Madison Square Gardens, a nite when your car was towed, are those real diamonds? 2 old punkers, many free drinks, an intelligent guy, who's impulsive? Billy Idol concert, pigouts before dance, are we really hostile? NYU, population of Grenwich Village, an introduction to a certain wealthy next door neighbor, and lots more years ahead, but not too many! To Ms. E: Thanx and much love. To Mr. Wilson: long talks, your disgusting tobacco, lots of love and keep in touch! To Mr. Schweikher: love, hate, less sarcastic, cynical 17 yrs old, shorter papers, a duller tongue, interesting talks, ability to cut ties w/ the 60's, Mr. Stokes, cause he keeps you young, wild parties, many threatened visits from me, the ability to give A's w/out gritting your teeth, and lots of respect, believe it or not. To Mr. Stokes: you saucy devil, a nasty wit, wonderfully dry humour, which you use will on the invincible Schweik, Tres debonair, my 'brilliantly flawed masterpiece', my thanks for twisting you know who's arm, 300 Tina Simonds, respect, and lots of love.

I, Paul Schmitt being of sound body, but in desperate need of a brain transplant, hereby leave the following: To Scott: I leave a foam rubber body for his rabbit. To Mark: An arcade full of his favorite video games and one quarter. To Lauren: The data for her Bio-Ecology report and Lauren Land. To Mr. Quick:

All other Bio-Ecology material not left to Lauren. To Dan: Seat belts for his car and a more convenient parking spot. To Mr. Singer: The Do It Yourself Repair Guide for the VAX. To Mr. Raymond: The right to do whatever he wants to do to people who come to his class with a calculator. To Apichai: Anything and everything having to do with M. Jackson. To Kirsty: A one minute shopping spree for David Bowie albums. To Hershel: The fond memories of Spanish. To El Senor: Two straight "A" spanish students to compensate for me. To Seroke: The state of California. To Drew: His paper route. To Vaughn: Trigonometry with Mr. Wolpert. To Eric: The answer to all of his questions on the movie DUNE. To Mr. Canade: What is left of my Norton Anthology of American Literature (Vol. 1 and 2). To Mr. Stokes: An essay test in full detail and political cartoons. To Mr. Schweikher: Next year's seniors' college applications. To Mr. Toll: A deck of tarot cards, with all but one card missing. To one of last year's seniors going by the title "Captain": A Court Marshal. To Gail: All of his favorite rock groups. To J.D.: The Monk to climb in the moonlight. To Miss E.: A Rome Smash, the trivial knowledge that I learned in her classes (Name of the sail the Moslems invented, what side Hitler parted his hair, the drug addict in Hitler's Cabinet, etc . . .), and a thank you.

I, Audrey Siegel, before I forget, will the following to the following, To: Tina: Townhouses, H.T., camping, a carwash, California, J.F., carrots, the "ditch", airports, Silver Bowl, cruises ing, baby colours, 2 parking lots, rumcake, chinese food, papadam, Israel (1 day), connect the dots, long nails, an envelope full of instructions, 14 and a half, flat champagne, and Americans-may you understand us one day. Henry: A full gas tank, your keys, my watch, the family initiation, in one ear out the other (O.K., sure), horse back riding, a cure for procrastination, Hawaii, a less confusing family, CAMPING, a HELLO each morning, health food, spelling, unlimited supply of sleep and rays. Walter: Officer Martin, driving lessons, another comedy routine, 3 way lines, pretty nannys, trip to Mexico, a permanent shave, credit card, a suntan, candle rituals, some manners, and finally unphraseables. Jennie S: The big apple, men, bangs, a sheik, and many good laughs. Lisa S: Lunch, an on time present, the perfect guy, many good jokes and a terrific senior year. Schweik: A thought- and a lot of questions. To my teachers: Thanks! To anyone I might have forgotten: oops, I'm sorry.

I, Cliff Smith, leave the following worldly possessions to the following friends: To Rob: Your own hotel, nights of Trivial Pursuit, "Nice Le-Mans man", peace pro, nerf basketball, baseball, the ability to be unorganized, a date with Priscilla Presley, 12 and counting, Tommy's, a new dance step, a strong lasting friendship, good luck in college. To Pete: (Pee Wee) an extra Ginches, camping trips and granola, any Porsche you want, nights of Trivial Pursuit, off-road excursions, Opps!! MacDonald's, Midnight Star and Bruce Springsteen, early mornings of donuts and coffee, you own crutches, lots of money, 7-11 Metro, Prince (at least one half of the tape), Maintalin, a strong friendship and good luck in college. To Margie: The Pointer Sisters, volleyball, another trip to Europe, a little less paranoia, a good listening ear, special and memorable times together, a car telephone, sorry about all the ups and downs, your own cow to milk, a new Saab, long phone conversations, four years of fun, good luck forever, I will always care. Much love. To Jim: A sex god in his own mind, a V.W., Tommy's, thanks for all the laughs, tour around the world as Van Halen's water boy, a beautiful girlfriend, good luck in the future. To Jennie: late evening picnics, 27 is too old, champagne, a dry golf course, Jr. Prom, "I don't know any 'Dutch' restaurants", your first bra, and much love. To Lisa B: A standard Honda, can of tennis balls, Advanced Math. To Laura and Sally G: A life's supply of TAB, weekends at Scripts, The Time, good luck. To Wendy B: Kissing lights, teeth marks in my jeans, a driver's license, and a can of soda. To Mr. Raymond: 6:30 early mornings, chocolate covered biscuits, control of one class, thanks for all your help and kindness. To Mr. Wilson: 1000 bad jokes, 1 good joke, my first camping trip, thanks for the math and physics help. To my family: Thanks for all your love and support, I love you.

I, John Snead, being of creative but misunderstood mind, and stocky, overworked body, hereby do leave, but before I do there are a few things I have to say. Unfortunately, to do justice to everyone would require many pages, so I'll just keep it short and let you figure it out. HEATHER: I give you everything you already have and will have; music and poetry; "sailing"; materialism; skiing; my moods; Joshua Scott and whoever she'll be; supernatural connection; have we met before? Costa Rica?; cal.; NY; eventual life=sharing; moonlight stripes in a darkroom; A lot, A lot, A lot . . . ! "I'll be seein' ya later, sexy." Remember what eyes say. JILL: Oh, crud, let' see, you get band trips (freshman yr); sailing; skiing (your form sucks); "conservative"; "Gook Fing Gook!" - Flash; "Do you like your life?" - B. Joel; My stupidity, pretend and real; Fight back sometimes; BEST FRIENDS- need I say more . . . read the other yrbks. Dave: I could have you an anatomical word that says it all, but no; Band-trips; red bow ties; soccer ("Am I better?"); skiing; Private talks; lunches; social menaces; you're Mr. Emotional (in a good way), but you try way to hard (at everything); Slave to Dave; My friend. Margret: Hey sis; you'll be missed, French (who's in front of us), Yuk! Boating; confused relationships; Pete; In the beginning, fighting over french fry trays. Am I annoying? Get what you want from life. A very good friend. John, The Gavcho; Gucci meantime . . . ; Sportsmans; Berkley Boy; Cal.; Phil; Cast Parties (oops, sorry), Beatuiful Pippin, Hah! Party Hardy, Bud. PETE: Soccer (on your left, Petrovich); Margaret, you do the evens, I'll do the odds; Hitting you with a mug; Frsh Civ; photo not on my page; Mr. Emotion, jk (I saw you cry- Ha! Ha!); Band Polyester; Catch you on the rebound. CLIFF: Mr. Nice Guy; helping each other with problems; B-ball; have a good one, you deserve it. NATALIE: Talks; understanding; crushes; my love. BRIAN: Saxxy; math; Sioux Med-man; I can't write sax parts? Festival? 2 hrs. practice will do. KAINÉ: my best little friend, Dino, Mr. Cool shape up, Uncu Johnny. Willie, Thanx. To anyone left out we still have our memories.

I, Scott Spangler, do hereby leave the following (maybe): To Eje: A pack of Marlboros to put out on someone else. To Paul: A brand new shoelace and his very own F-15. To Dan: A quarter to call someone who cares. To Jim: Some money to pay for the dent in Eric's car. To Jeff: A certificate for a Sears lesson in how to drive safely. To Fogie: A brand new Ronald Mcdonald doll and a Ferrari of his own. To Hershel: The Ram and his own calling card. To Beth: A pair of normal shoes with normal shoe-laces and Pochahontis. To Gail: Machine language class and a new Hoover vacuum cleaner with a folding handle. To Eddie: The Scooby Dooby Doo and Incredible Hulk hour and the entire country of Canada. To my brother and friends: 7-11 and all the games of wallball they want. To John: The word "lump." And to anyone who cares: my memoirs.

I, Carey Sweet, being here now but not for much longer, leave the following to JS: Too much to say, sneaking around parking lots, regrettable grad parties, dirty old men, free drinks and propositions, frigid come-ons, body bags, warm champagne (arg), never getting caught, hostility, disdain, New York punkers, may she get fatter, and remember: I like you even though you're not Jewish! To AM: Money when you're drunk, love of Foedora and the Phi Sig Frat. To EP, your apartment, you now know what, rubber food and m . . . s, leather, and the death of the child in the park. To BW, the Devilhouse, Donny O'Brien's Volare, wolves on the beach, and waterbeds. To the rest: You've been many, you've been cheap, and I forgot you when you left the room. To PF: Good times but the sweetest revenge. To WD: As is Feyd-Rautha to the Baron know I am with you, power greed money lust. To CCS: My confidence, my love and my car (we'll be richer than he). Finally, to la grande tete avec les petits jambes, Hitler is dead. You can only hope for respect if you realize that rules, not people, are meant to be broken. And so I go. It's not really a will unless you've died, is it?

I, Lauren Upshaw, leave to Kimmie: Political classes, an open mind, and thanks for everything. To Rob P: Conversations in the park with gelatos. To Margie: Men, postcards, and sticky buns and brew. To Sally: The lyrics to Peter Tosh's "Brand New Second Hand." To Lisa: Trips to Tucson.

I, Tina Walters, being of basically British mind, do leave to the following natives: Audrey: A lonely Genie, a special star, Hayden, the Titch, A.A.A., flying eyes, a spare key, Cal- (one day), the moonlight and a palm tree, all the left over space- Thanxs for beaucoup d'advice and who know, maybe one day you will catch up!! Henri: "RELAX!" A sixth grade date, Jan. 7th, THE P.C.D.S. party (one day), the beach, a hut in Hawaii, aggressiveness, a swim in Nov., The Beach Boys, Simon and Garf., an over-active mind, new skis, Europe- one day, short hair, another HAT!! Frustration, and thanxs for the Unmentionables!! Wendy (Booky): Arcadia, bikes and bushes, N.A.U. at Central and 3rd., the perfect one, a brand new spare car, future (USC) parties, your own champagne, and the will to believe in yourself!! Walt: Shleimy, Conv '83, The Monestary, some good advice, the Go-Go's, the right choice, a piano waterbed, a maid, a masseuse, Jerimiah, the navy/Penn. Good Luck!! Lainie: A 6 footer over 21, a well made dress, and a productive future!! Donna: Plots, an unforgettable card, the perfect dress, your own car, Peter Pan, and the perfect date. Thanxs for being there! Good Luck at U of A. Traci: To A.S.U. dancing, eyeshadow, Coronado, the Navy, Salt Lake City, Dan the Doorman. Lori: Chapparal, one party (maybe another), Hans, David Bowie, Devil H., Coronado, and a date next year! Jill: 2 weeks I shall never forget, Good Luck in Occidental!! Lisa S: A moral talk every morning, and a good last year!! Kirsty: One a week and a never ending vacation at Sunrise!! Sally M: The abuse of Frustration and good luck in the future!! My Bro: A solution to you identity crisis!! and James Dean, the Mustang, and two more years of fun at Arcadia!! Michelle: English, my hair, and a career, MISS YOU!! My Parents: An independent girl, the right place to live, Made in Portugal, Thanxs for being patient!! Madame A: An "F" in hand writing, and France someday! BYE! To anyone left out: SORRY! Good luck to all of you, I'm going to miss you!!

I, Margie Woods, leave the following: PC: hay shooter . . . Barney Rubble toes, cold feet, Aspen! Saabi, Malcolm. "What's your name?" Sedona breakfast club, coffee, Lionel Richie, PDA, bad movies, soccer, Tufts! My wonderful puns?! Sailing, San Diego, a cow and ALL my love! xxx Miney. KW: Cruising, Jonie, wooly bazzing, a job at P.M., Vince P'aaah'squali, love you! MC: notes, rendezvous, hugs and lots of love! KH: dr.- - - -, Tahiti woman, Uncle Julius. EL: BIRDS!! LB: Blanket man, running shoes, tennis, ralph (kiwi). JOSS: she's got a Mercedes Benz . . . FLASH GORDON look alike, a little sister, rides home (glad I'm still alive- jk!) Have fun next year! TS: our lyrics, "closet classics" a great senior year! WB: Socky mooshy chicken!! Hugs and mud bogs. CLS: Milk, milk, milk a cow! An expanded vocab, great times and a great friendship, good luck at college!, keep in touch. SM: Bahuna, Espana, "Sometimes the most beautiful thing . . . The most innocent thing . . . and many of our dreams pass us by . . ." GREAT memories!! have fun at Rollins! "Sara" LU: Sticky buns and b- - -. MS. E: Thanks for everything! MY FAMILY: You're the most wonderful people. I love you very much!! SG: South Phoenix, driving my car, soccer, lets learn how to change a tire?? Have a great year next year! BAHUNA: Sarah, you're the poet in my heart, never change- and don't you ever stop but now its gone, it doesn't matter- what for? but when you build your house then CALL ME.
