NOVEMBER, 1922.

Editorial.

Since the signing of the Treaty in December, 1921, almost another year has passed, and our country still finds itself in a state of war and turmoil. It had been hoped that the end of fighting had at last come to our troubled island, but Ireland's malignant destiny ruled otherwise. On a certain June morning Dublin awoke to the sound of artillery; and ever since the dismal events of the days preceding the Truce have been re-enacted.

And what a loss our city has sustained in the destruction of the Four Courts, with its store of priceless documents, and in the devastation—for the second time within six years—of one of Europe's noblest thoroughfares! However, if peace is to be gained, it will be won, not by dwelling on the events of the past, but by each doing his best to bring about the happier era which, we cannot doubt, awaits in the near future our sorely tried country.

The unsettled state of the city caused the abandonment, to our great disappointment, of our annual Athletic Sports. We were also compelled, for the same reason, to forego our Swimming Gala, the various events of which had to be held on Club days. Next year it is to be hoped that more peaceful conditions will prevail, and that both these events can be held as usual.

The Intermediate Examinations—postponed a week on account of the Parliamentary elections, and terminating under singularly trying conditions—were held as usual in June. The School results were very satisfactory, the percentage of passes being quite up to the usual standard.

In the Senior Grade A. H. Hillis won first place in French, and obtained an Exhibition of £20 in the Modern Literary Group, as well as a £4 prize for French Composition (the only one given); in the Middle Grade D. B. W. Good and W. S. Glover obtained Exhibitions of £15 each, the former in Classics and the latter in Mathematics; while in the Junior Grade H. G. Yates obtained a £3 prize in Classics. A list of those who passed, with their marks, will be found further on.

Our Cricket season this year could hardly be called a successful one. The Senior Team lost to Wesley College and Mountjoy School in the first round of the Cup, and the Juniors were knocked out by Masonic School. There is no need to despair, however, for the future of cricket in High School; the material is there in plenty, and with training we should have no difficulty in raising two good Cup teams next year.

The High School Dramatic Society opened very auspiciously on May 9th, when "Julius Cæsar" was presented at the Parochial Hall, Belgrave Square. The actors acquitted themselves admirably, and the play was thoroughly enjoyed by a large and appreciative audience. A fuller account is to be found elsewhere in this number. The performance was a financial success, and £5 were given from the proceeds to the Children's Hospital, Harcourt Street.

School Notes.

The School re-opened after the Summer Vacation on Friday, September 1st.

During the holidays the Front Hall, the Arts Room, and several of the classrooms were re-decorated.

Several changes in our staff have taken place since last term. Mr. Wyon, our Senior Modern Language Master, having resigned, his place has been taken by Mr. H. R.

Chillingworth, M.A., T.C.D.; Mr. H. L. Doak, M.A., T.C.D., is a valuable addition in the Middle and Junior School; and owing to the increase in the number of boys this term, Mr. J. M. Clarke has come to strengthen the Mathematical side.

The Handball Tournament was held this year for the second time. An addition was made this year in the shape of a Doubles Tournament. The School Championship was won by H. E. P. Anderson, who defeated H. Williams in the final. In the Doubles, H. E. P. Anderson and E. A. Connolly defeated M. Bell and H. Williams in the final.

The School is indebted to Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rogers, who are giving an annual prize in memory of their son, H. J. P. Rogers, who died on November 1st, 1918. Jack Rogers came to the School in August, 1913, and won the First of the Second Class School Scholarships in 1915, which he thus held for three years. The prize is therefore given to the boy who wins the first place among the Second Class scholars. The value is £3 a year, and is held by the same boy for three years. It was awarded for the first time this year, and will be competed for again in June, 1925. It so happened this year that two boys were equal for the first of the Second Class Scholarships and therefore for this prize—T. B. Eason and H. A. E. Egan—but as Eason resigned his claim to the Scholarship and to the prize, the prize, as well as the First of the Second Class Scholarships, went to Egan.

We greatly regret to record the death on June 27th of Herbert William Bell, of Form IIIB. He was just over sixteen years of age, and had been at the School for five years. We offer to his mother and father and family our sincerest sympathy.

We congratulate J. C. Hopkins on winning the 440 Yards Swimming Championship of Ireland. After that it is hardly necessary to say that he has again won the School Swimming Championship.

We have some other good swimmers in the School; among others D. B. W. Good, who has to his credit that he saved a lady from drowning this summer at Portrush—a splendid honour.

While we are talking of swimming, we may mention for the benefit of boys and parents that the Leinster Branch of the Irish Swimming Association has this year been awarding certificates to schoolboys for proficiency in swimming, and that the High School won more certificates than any other school. More boys must keep this up next year.

Notes on Old Boys.

One of our old boys, J. V. Bateman (1913-15), who is a Professor at Saskatoon, was home this summer, and added to his swimming records by winning the 220 Yards Championship of Ireland.

Congratulations to R. E. Maguire (1914-20) and to E. J. Weinberger (1919-21) on their Trinity Scholarships. Maguire has added to our long record of First Places in Classical Scholarships. He has also been awarded a "Kitchener Memorial Scholarship" of £120 a year for two years and a half, and is this season playing centre three-quarter on Trinity First Fifteen.

Sir W. I. de Courcey Wheeler (1894-96), Surgeon to the Lord Lieutenant, has been elected President of the Royal College of Physicians.

E. S. Duggan (1901-09) has been appointed Secretary to the Captain of the Royal Atlantic Fleet.

R. J. Charters (1910-15) has been ordained to the curacy of Ballymoney, Co. Antrim.

We regret to announce the deaths in the spring of two old boys of the School, R. B. Falkiner (1879-83), of Laurus tinus, Dundrum, who died on May 7th, and W. E. Vereker (1871-75), of 31 Wellington Place, who died on May 18th.

WEDDINGS.

DANIEL (1901-9) and BULTEEL—June 7, 1922, at Stoke Damerel Church, Devonport, by the Rev. Chancellor S. G. Ponsonby, M.A., Flight Lieutenant H. M. Daniel, R.A.F., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel, 28 Palmerston Road, to Margaret Anna, youngest daughter of the late Mr. Percy Bulteel, Plymouth.

THORNTON (1909-14) and WARRINER—July 22, 1922, at St. Augustine's Church, Penarth, S. Wales, by the Rev. H. C. Morton, M.A., Alfred S. E. Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton, 40 Raymond Street, Dublin, to Alice Emily, daughter of the late Thomas Warriner, Cork.

TUITE (1906-09) and WILSON—August 7, 1922, at St. Ann's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. J. H. Alcock, Captain Thomas Mark Hardress Stratford Tuite, M.C., J.P., Cloone, Gowna, Co. Cavan, eldest son of the late Major Robert Stratford Tuite, J.P., of Granard, Co. Longford, to Ethel Mary, youngest daughter of the late Thomas Wilson, Esq., J.P., of Edgeworthstown, Co. Longford, and Mrs. Wilson.

High School Dramatic Society.

On May 9th the High School Dramatic Society gave a performance of "Julius Cæsar" at the Parochial Hall, Belgrave Square, and those of the audience who came prepared for an ordinary school display found themselves very agreeably disappointed. The performance as a whole may challenge comparison with any amateur production, and indeed some professionals might envy the clear enunciation and correct phrasing shown by many of the actors.

The first honours must go to D. B. W. Good for his powerful and restrained acting of the difficult part of Mark Antony. E. R. Mav gained great applause for his graceful and pleasing rendering of Brutus, while E. T. Tuckey gave an almost too sympathetic study of Cassius, investing the dying scene in particular with much dignity and pathos. W. H. Jolley was an excellent Casca, doing the "blunt fellow" to perfection. He also acted well as Pindarus. G. S. Sloan had the thankless task of doing three small parts, in all of which he acquitted himself well. W. S. Coomber showed himself equally at home in high and low life, acting successfully first as Julius Cæsar, later as servant to Brutus. In acting Calpurnia E. W. Felton was only following the usage of Shakespeare's own day, and proved fully equal to the part. The actors supported one another well, and the scene of the stabbing of Cæsar, so easily turned to a burlesque, was done simply and effectively. The small, but important, part of Octavius Cæsar was taken by V. J. Fielding, who also acted Flavius, and other parts were filled by W. F. Williamson, V. S. Ballagh, G. L. Clarendon, P. J. Hennessy, and C. W. Gibbs.

H. Williams was an excellent stage manager, and Miss L. Stevens was responsible for the "making up." The thanks of both actors and audience are due to Mr. Hand, who coached the former in their parts, and thus contributed largely to the enjoyment of the latter; and also to Mr. Doak, who gave invaluable assistance in the dressing room and at rehearsals.

The Dramatic Society has begun well, and we wish it a long life and a successful one.

Football Notes.

The following officers have been elected for the coming season:—

Captain—V. S. BALLAGH.

Vice-Captain—E. R. C. MAY.

Hon. Secretary—E. J. MONTGOMERY.

The Selection Committee consists of the above, with Messrs. Watson, Butler, Evans, and Dillon.

Our prospects for the coming season are most promising, in spite of the fact that only five of last year's First XV. remain with us. Indeed we should not be surprised if, at the end of the season, we were to see the Clockroom adorned with at least one of the Cups.

In former years, training has always been second in regard to practices. Let this not be the case this year. Some boys in the High School think that they have no need of training; we hope that they will discard this idea with all possible speed. We cannot expect to have either a Senior or Junior Cup Team unless all boys who play Rugby turn out regularly at the Square.

It is an idea with some players that once they are picked for the First XV. they are "fixtures" there; also that once dropped from a team they can never get on that team again, and therefore need not turn out to any further practices. The former idea is extremely conceited, and the latter is entirely wrong.

As our forwards are our strong point this season, a little advice to them will not be out of place here. They should remember always to combine together and to work as a pack. Individual play is absolutely useless when there are fifteen opponents to check it. No doubt it is pretty to watch, but, generally speaking, it rarely succeeds.

In regard to our Junior teams, what applies to the Senior team applies equally to them, or more so. The chances for the younger boys are innumerable, and as far as keenness goes the "under 13" has shown more interest than many members of the Junior Cup Team. We hope a time will come, in the near future, when those Juniors to whom this refers will realise it before it is too late.

Gymnastics.

The annual Gymnastic Display took place in the Swedish Gymnasium on Friday, June 23rd. The following programme was gone through—

1. Swedish Free Standing Gymnastics (Juniors).
2. Swedish Böm (Seniors).
3. Rope Climbing (Juniors).
4. Swedish Free Standing Gymnastics (Seniors).
5. Vaulting Box (Seniors).
6. Jumping (Juniors and Seniors).

The Silver Medals for 1922 were distributed by Mrs. Thompson to the following:—

Form V.—W. H. Jolley. (Hon. Mention: E. T. Tuckey, D. B. W. Good).

IV. Up.—H. E. P. Anderson, W. H. Squires. (Hon. Mention: E. A. Connolly).

IV. Lr.—V. E. Maxwell, J. C. Hopkins.

III. A.—P. Begley, G. W. Whiteside. (Hon. Mention: R. W. Reynolds, F. W. H. Flewett, J. A. W. McKee, D. M. Mitchell).

III. B.—P. T. Ellis. (Hon. Mention: C. A. T. Darling, W. H. L. Waddell, A. F. Smith).

III. C. Up.—H. A. E. Egan. (Hon. Mention: K. N. Douglas, S. C. Flewett).

III. C. Lr.—F. H. Ballagh. (Hon. Mention: H. F. C. Darling).

II.—P. Ewen. (Hon. Mention: R. L. Bryson, G. F. Mitchell).

I. A. & B.—W. E. M. Anderson. (Hon. Mention: J. Begley).

A special medal was presented by Miss Hitchins to M. W. Dalton for jumping.

The display, in which 85 boys took part, ended with the singing of "God Save the King."

Swimming Notes.

The past season was most successful for the High School Swimming Club, in as much as we won the Senior Schools' Squadron Championship last September at Blackrock Baths, when our team—McGarrigle, R. P. (Captain), Hopkins, J. C.; Good, D. B.; May, E.—showed to great advantage before a large and interested crowd of spectators.

In regard to our Swimming Gala, we need not say how disappointed we were at being unable to hold it, owing to the disturbed state of the city at that time. However, the various events were run off on Club days, and we now take the opportunity of thanking those masters who helped in the judging of these events.

Our water polo team this year was a new venture, and we hope that in the future all members will master the rudiments of this fine sport, so that they will have at least a small chance of putting up something like a fight for the cup which we missed rather badly this season. However, better luck next time.

The following is the list of winners:—

Under 13—Ewen, H. (1); Bryson, R. (2); Mason, T. (3).

Under 15—Smith, P. (1); Craig, R. K. (2); Ewen, H. (3).

Under 16—Good (1); Hopkins (2); Connolly (3).

Senior Championship—Hopkins (1); Good (2).

Senior Handicap—Hopkins (1); McGarrigle (2); Bardon (3).

Diving—Hopkins (1); May (2); Burchill (3).

Cricket Notes.

Both our Senior and Junior teams this year were decidedly below last year's standard; the Senior Team winning two out of nine matches played against other schools, and the Junior Team three out of six, which, though better than the Senior results, was by no means good.

In the Senior Team our failure was mainly due to lack of really good bowlers, and to bad fielding. The first of these was our misfortune; the second was due to laziness and lack of enthusiasm. It is not possible for everyone to be a bowler, but there is no reason why every member of the team should not field well and keenly.

The Junior Team also suffered from slack fielding, and it is to be hoped that there will be a great improvement in this respect in both teams next year.

Livy on Football.

At the third hour from the Pillar of Nelson, we arrived at that place which the natives call the Square. For having four sides, it is surrounded by high buildings, and within there is an open space, suited by nature to gladiatorial combats. Moreover, at one end a stationary camp has been placed on rising ground, from whence a long and wide view can be obtained. The Scholarii, therefore, who inhabit this place, issuing forth from this camp, each man being light-armed, took up their position facing this camp. For the portents being unfavourable, since a denarius, having been thrown into the air with great force, fell down in an unfavourable position, it had been decided by the Hospitales—which tribe dwells not many miles away from that place—in what direction they should fight.

When the men on both sides had been exhorted, a great shout having been raised, the battle began. For the light-armed skirmishers on both sides rushing forward, began to strive violently, as to which side should obtain the ball. For in those lands they do not fight with swords or javelins, or other instruments of war; but with hands and feet they contend for a ball, like to an egg in shape, which, having obtained, they may place behind the enemy's lines.

Our men, therefore, seizing the ball from the enemy, gave it to the light-armed auxiliaries in the rear, who began to run with all speed towards the enemy's fortifications. But the skirmishers of the enemy, rushing up and seizing their foes by the waists—to each one man—threw them violently to the ground. Then, indeed, there ensued a terrible struggle; for the skirmishers of the Scholarii, coming up suddenly from behind, caused great slaughter and trepidation, so that many of the Hospitales, lying on the ground covered with blood, scarcely had strength to regain their feet having once fallen.

Then, indeed, the trumpet was sounded, and a testudo began to be formed by the skirmishers of both sides, into which the ball having been placed, issued forth on the side nearest our men, who were the stronger in the infantry engagement. And the general himself, seizing the ball, rushed headlong through the midst of the enemy; and a certain one of the auxiliaries, receiving the ball from his hands—for he was now almost exhausted—placed it behind the enemy's lines. Then, indeed, a shout arose, that our men were being victorious.

Then, a rest having been given to the soldiers, the battle began again more fiercely. But the Hospitales were not able to break through our lines, being now wearied by the previous engagement. The battle was long and doubtful, but at last, our men being victorious, a signal was given on the trumpet, that they should retreat to the camp. A shout, therefore, having been raised, the soldiers of both sides were refreshed with much food and with that drink which the natives call tea. And then they departed, each man to his own home.

All are agreed that in this conflict our men were victorious; but as to the numbers engaged, authorities vary widely. I for my part believe that there were fighting as many as fifteen men on each side.

UP-HILL.

(Latine Redditum).

Does the road wind up-hill all the way?

Yes, to the very end.

Will the day's journey take the whole long day?

From morn to night, my friend.

But is there for the night a resting place?

A roof for when the slow dark hours begin.

May not the darkness hide it from my face?

You cannot miss that inn.

Shall I meet other wayfarers at night?

Those who have gone before.

Then must I knock, or call when just in sight?

They will not keep you standing at that door.

Shall I find comfort, travel-sore and weak?

Of labour you will find the sum.

Will there be beds for me and all who seek?

Yes, beds for all who come.

C. G. ROSSETTI.

An via in adversas rupes sine fine laborat?
Ardua et assurgens it via: fine caret.
Per totumne diem callem nitentur iniquum?
Solis ab exortu solis ad interitum.

Estne locus languens corpus qua nocte reponam?
Nigritiae tardans cum subit hora, domus.
Celabunt tenebrae deceptum errore viarum?
Ista taberna oculos non fefellisse potest.

Inveniamne alios illuc de nocte vagantes?
Quicumque ad limen praeteriere prius.
Pulsabone fores praesens an voce ciebo?
Quid petis? ipsa patet ianua; nulla mora est.

Labenti fessoque via recreare licebit?
Illic omne tuum conficietur opus.
Suppetet et mihi lectus et unicuique petentum?
Nulli deficiet dulcis et alta quies.
