MISSION STATEMENT

To inspire each student to approach learning with curiosity and creativity, pursue excellence in all endeavors, and act with integrity - so each can make our community and world a better place.

Dear Chesapeake Academy Community,

Each fall I get to write the easiest letter of the year. There is no persuading in it and no asking, only thanks. This one covers 2025-2026, a year when your generosity helped carry Chesapeake Academy from a season of transition into a clear sense of where we are going.

I am so grateful to share the 2025-2026 Gratitude Report with you. Last year, trustees, faculty and staff, parents, alumni, grandparents, and friends of the school contributed $628,976 to the Bell Tower Annual Giving Fund and special projects. Those gifts reach every student, every day. They keep tuition within reach for our families, provide financial assistance for our students, and cover the extras that make school feel special, from new library books to one-of-a-kind experiences beyond the classroom.

Your generosity also made it possible for us to invest in:

- Ongoing Campus Improvements: We gave our Lower and Middle School bathrooms a facelift and replaced HVAC units in Academy Hall and in the Wiley Early Childhood Center.
- Our faculty: Faculty are the heart of CA, and gifts to the annual auction support our efforts to attract and retain excellent teachers.
- Our endowment: Gifts to our endowment strengthen the foundation that will support Chesapeake Academy students for generations to come.

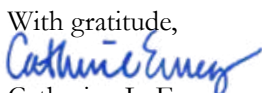

Just as importantly, your support gave us the stability to plan for the future with care. Last spring, after months of conversations with families, faculty, alumni, and trustees, our Board approved the 2026-2031 Strategic Plan. It rests on three pillars: Teaching & Learning, Community Connections, and Sustaining Our Future. At its heart is an idea that has always been true: our location is one of our greatest teachers. We are a small school with a huge classroom, and the rivers, marshes, and history of the Northern Neck belong at the center of how our students learn.

That work is already underway. This fall, Place-Based Learning Director Richard Moncure is teaching an outdoor classroom course to every grade, with our teachers learning right alongside him. Marshall Novak, in our Dean of Students role, is helping us care for students more intentionally, and our school-wide theme, "Cultivate What's Ours," is inviting students of every age to think about who they are and where they come from. I suspect our students will come home a little muddier this year, which is exactly how it should be.

Our oyster roast and auction were wonderful successes, thanks to our wonderful crew of volunteers who give their time and talent year after year. Chesapeake Academy is lucky to have them, and I am lucky to work alongside them.

Our third pillar, Sustaining Our Future, is really a promise that the school you love will be here for the children who come next. Your gifts are how we keep that promise. Thank you for all you do to give our Ospreys their wings.

With gratitude,

 Catherine L. Emery
 Head of School

Ways of Giving

Bell Tower Annual Giving Fund

Annual Fund gifts support the operations of the school and are the backbone of our fundraising efforts. Your support of the Bell Tower Annual Giving Fund helps offset the costs of instruction that distinguish Chesapeake Academy from other schools.

These tax-deductible, unrestricted gifts are applied to the operating budget and support facilities maintenance, student programs, financial assistance, and a countless number of other needs not covered by tuition income.

Restricted Gifts

A restricted gift is a donation that you designate for a specific purpose at Chesapeake Academy. Unlike annual fund gifts, restricted gifts allow you to align your giving with the programs, projects, or initiatives that matter most to you.

When you make a restricted gift, CA honors your intentions by ensuring that your contribution is used only for the area you designate.

Endowment

Endowment funds are invested and provide annual support for the future of Chesapeake Academy. Gifts to the endowment are invested and grow in value and provide a source of income without ever using the principle of the gift. The endowment decreases the dependence on tuition income and acts as a buffer to unforeseen, but necessary, non-budgeted needs.

Planned Gifts (Faye Society)

Planned giving can be as sophisticated as establishing a charitable gift annuity which would provide you with an income for life or as simple as naming Chesapeake Academy as a beneficiary in your will. To learn more about the many ways you can arrange a planned gift to Chesapeake Academy, please contact Catherine L. Emery (clemery@chesapeakeacademy.org) or Jane M. Allen (jallen@chesapeakeacademy.org).

Gifts-in-Kind

Not reflected in the numbers above are the many gifts-in-kind that we receive each year and upon which we depend. While it's difficult to quantify the total dollar value of these donations, we certainly could not operate without them.

Tribute and Memorial Gifts

Honor a family member, favorite teacher, celebrate a special occasion, or memorialize a loved family member or friend by giving a gift to Chesapeake Academy. At times of great joy and sorrow, the Academy can benefit by your generous contributions.

Matching Gifts

Many companies offer matching gifts programs to encourage employees' support of nonprofit and charitable organizations. Employers will match their employees' contributions. Information and specific requirements are available through your company's human resources department.

Special Fundraising Events

In addition to annual fund giving, Chesapeake Academy relies on the income from two major fundraising events to help raise the 20% of the annual operating budget not covered by tuition. October's Community Oyster Roast and May's Auction depend on numerous volunteers to make them successful.

To recognize invaluable contributions to the long-term growth of Chesapeake Academy through bequests and other planned gifts, The Faye Society was established by the Board of Trustees in the Spring of 2001 in memory of Captain and Mrs. James Faye, who named Chesapeake Academy as a beneficiary of their estate in 1987. Their foresight and generosity had a tremendous impact on the Academy's fiscal stability and future, as well as on generations of families. Membership in the Faye Society recognizes patrons of Chesapeake Academy whose philanthropy extends beyond life, and we sincerely thank everyone who has made, and will make, a lasting and powerful impact on Chesapeake Academy by remembering us with these gifts.
