PASTORAL LETTER

Woodside Cottage
Colton
ULVERSTON
LA12 8HE

June 2019

Dear Friends

We sing this lovely song in our services across the Benefice

*“Brother, sister, let me serve you,
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.”*

Most of us have very little difficulty with the first two lines, serving those around us with acts of kindness and thoughtfulness comes easily; but what about the last two lines?

What set me off on this train of thought was something that I observed on the bendy-bus being driven out to the plane at Manchester Airport a fortnight ago. We were crammed in like sardines and by the time I was on the bus it was standing room only. I wasn't the last person to board though, a severely disabled gentleman managed to climb aboard as we were about to pull away. A mum immediately prompted her son to stand up and offer his seat to the said gentleman, who refused the offer. The lad didn't sit down again in the seat that had been declined but continued to stand as we lurched about across the tarmac. Where was that gentleman's grace? The grace to let the lad be his servant too?

My observation is that most of us really struggle with the concept of allowing others to serve us. I expect that most of us have come across someone struggling with a heavy suitcase at the station, or a young mum trying to juggle the folding of a buggy, while holding the shopping and the baby. Our offer of assistance is met with, "Don't worry, I'll manage, thank you". The rebuff makes us feel a bit useless and there comes a point where we stop bothering to offer help.

So if you are offered assistance it is gracious to say "Thank you" and explain how you can be helped.

Grace in action!

However, there is another aspect of grace that we should all take into account and that is the willingness to be fair and to forgive. This quality is so essential where the impact of our behaviour is often felt by so many others. Intransigence, insistence on our own way, lack of regard for the feelings of others – these are not gracious behaviours at all and do nothing but spoil the harmony of our society.

At the end of many meetings Christians pray St Paul's prayer that he wrote at the very end of his second letter to the Corinthians

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all,

And that is my prayer for you all.

With blessings in abundance

Your sister in Christ

Joanna

SETTING UP A BENEFICE PASTORAL TEAM

We count ourselves as extremely blessed to have people in all of the churches in the Benefice who look out for people who need help or a visit in their local communities, who may or may not, be churchgoers. However, as we are in a rural area, which is spread over many miles and with numerous hamlets and villages, it is difficult to ensure that everybody who may welcome a visit from the church either in their home or hospital is covered.

The idea of having a pastoral team is to ensure that there is a team in place to cover visiting when no one else is available and also to ensure that people are able to have a communion at home if they are no longer able to travel to church. The team has a stock of get well, thinking of you, and deepest sympathy cards to send from the church and also plan to ensure grieving families receive a follow up card after a funeral takes place in any of the churches to let people know that the families are being prayed for and there are people available to visit, if anyone would find this helpful.

A number of people have been asked to be the “eyes and ears for their particular community” to let the team or Vicar know if there are any pastoral situations which the team could assist with. It is hoped that in time a follow up card for baptisms will be organised together with coming together events for baptism families to help demonstrate God’s love at work in the community.

If you are interested in joining the team or have any ideas about developing the work of the team, particularly to reduce loneliness and rural isolation, please contact Barbara Watson (Head of Pastoral Care Team) T: 01229 861 638

COLTON CHRONICLES

Our Easter services were both a sadness and a joy but above all conducted with a wondrous faith. Revd. Ian Swift led us beautifully through an hour of meditation on Good Friday with some sad but meaningful readings and appropriate prayers. Those of us who attended felt the melancholy of the occasion but were refreshed in faith.

And what joy on Easter Sunday as the Revd. Joanna Henson lifted our spirits with a stirring and uplifting service which began with the lighting of a Paschal Candle, an event at Colton not known as far as any of us can remember; may this be a start for future Easter Sundays. A full church is always welcome and the fact that so many took Holy Communion reminds us that, despite the views of non-believers, our faith is still alive and well.

“A heartfelt and loving thank you to both Joanna and Ian.”

Whilst on the happy road of thanks once again we are indebted to those wonderful and talented ladies who so beautifully decorated our church. The amazing thing is that they actually work their wonders in almost silence!

Sadly, we have to report the deaths of Pam and Alistair McIver earlier this year. Both Pam & Alistair were zealous workers for our church for many years, Alistair being a Church warden. May they rest in peace

Apologies: For having to cancel the Service on 19 May due to the absence of our willing workers who are few in number but work incredibly hard to make sure everything is in order for our services week in week out but understandably cannot always be present. Volunteers would be welcome.

"I do loathe explanations." Sir James Barrie

Church Fête: Will take place a week earlier this year on Saturday 20 July. Donations of tombola prizes and books would be gratefully appreciated! Tombola prizes can be left with Margaret Sanders at Thurston View, Colton and books for Pam Priestley can be left at the church.

Cakes, scones and other edible goodies for both the teas and the cake stall would be most welcome on the morning of the fete at the school room, along with any plants for the plant stall.

PARISH NEWS

Litter: It is a constant source of amazement in this parish of ours that so many give up their time and efforts in voluntary works in order to maintain the beauty of the environment, in their many ways. Latterly a gang, mainly from Bouth, donned protective clothing, bore the brunt of storm Hannah and litter picked the local highways with smooth efficiency. We thank them and all the others for their selfless endeavours. And they are grateful to our Parish Council who provided the protective clothing and the 'pickers'.

A Stroll?: On the evening of May Day a gaggle of weary walkers came in to the White Hart congratulating themselves on a successful afternoon stroll but eventually the truth came out – it was more of a pub crawl round the local hostelrys. There was a touch of disagreement on the length of their ‘stroll’, so to put the matter to rest a visit to an O S map confirms that it was approximately 9 miles.

Birthdays: One Roger Perry, in June, will have managed to reach his three score years and ten now safely berthed in Bouth after a career of enjoying sailing the seven seas as an Executive Officer in the Royal Fleet Auxiliary, but he cannot hold a candle to the wonderful Jean Prickett, who also in June, will be celebrating her 98th. Birthday. Congratulations Jean & Roger!

Rusland Horizons: We are planning to celebrate three years of running interesting heritage and conservation projects under Heritage Lottery Funding. We also want to mark the beginning of a new chapter for Rusland Horizons so come and join the fun as we would love to see you at our events :-

Hidden Heritage Guide Walk: Thursday 6 June 10:30am – 2:30pm Haverthwaite Heights. Join the Lake District National Park Ranger on a walk to learn about the exciting and interesting hidden heritage of the area. Tea and cake provided.

Woodlands and Wildlife of the Rusland Valley: also Thursday 6 June 6:00pm. – 9:00pm Outback Hall, Backbarrow. Find out more about our local woodlands and wildlife and what has been discovered over the last three years, followed by an open discussion. Hot Supper & refreshments provided.

Woodland Crafts and Tales: Saturday 8 June 10:00am – 5:00pm Stott Park Bobbin Mill. Join us for a day of heritage craft demonstrations and have a go in the workshops. Music, Fun and Food for all the family.

For further information and to book visit our web site www.ruslandhorizons.org and go to ‘What’s on Page’.

Bouth Village Hall: The Development committee are looking for suggestions, ideas and views on how to move forward in order that the Hall can meet the modern needs of our community. If anybody has any observations, suggestions or opinions to meet these need please let this editor know (details on the inside front cover page) and I will pass them on.

Spring Show: The Rusland Spring Show was its usual success but this year was special. Twenty-Six ago Elsie and Gordon Wilkinson had a vision to hold a Spring Show in the valley as a community event and also to raise funds for the Parish Room.

This year four generations of the Wilkinson family won trophies or prizes. Gordon now 89 won the trophy for the best in show, his daughter Anne won the Home Produce trophy, his granddaughter Nicola won the Best Art trophy and Elsie Tickle also won a few prizes.

BOUTH WOMENS INSTITUTE

The meeting in May was a Group meeting held in the Greenodd Village Hall where Institutions from Egton-cum-Newland, Hawkshead & Newgate, Rusland, Sparkbridge, Lowick & Blawith. Also in attendance was the Federation chairwoman Karen Hanks who gave a short welcoming speech.

The speaker was Alison O'Neill, the Bare Foot Shepherdess which was, perhaps, the reason for the high male attendance. She was born and bred on the Howgills above the market town of Sedburgh.

Alison told us how she had acquired Shacklebank Hill Farm and became a farmer, shepherdess and mother then diversified to a Hill Walker Guide and now a fashion designer and writer.

Our next meeting is the Annual Outing on Wednesday 12 June when we will visit the 'Boat Museum', Bowness followed by dinner at the Boathouse Restaurant. The arrangements are that you make your own way to the museum in the afternoon and meet at the restaurant 5:30 - 6:00pm.

Punctuation: An English Professor wrote the words “A woman without her man is nothing” on the chalkboard and asked his students to punctuate it correctly.

All the MALES in the class wrote: “A woman, without her man, is nothing.”

All the FEMALES wrote; “A woman: without her, a man is nothing.”

Old and New

Long have poets vaunted, in their lays,
 Old times, old loves, old friendships, old wine,
 Why should the old monopolise all praise?
 Then let the new claim mine.

When the old creeds are threadbare, worn through,
 And all too narrow for the broadening soul,
 Give me the fine, firm texture of the new,
 Fair, beautiful and whole.

Ella Wheeler Wilcox
