2 Episodes

Maja faces the challenges of preserving her small-town practice amidst corporate pressures, while Julia's arrival brings unexpected teamwork, mystery, and life-saving missions.

Episode 1

On her way to work, vet Maja hits a dog and arrives late to meet Julia, a new colleague from the clinic group. With the practice up for sale, the two vets must find common ground.

As they treat the injured dog, signs of abuse emerge, and they race to uncover the truth. A strong team begins to form but will Julia choose Maja's small practice over the corporate world?

Episode 2

On Dirk Rothe's farm, Julia delivers a calf just in time but when another cow dies, she and Maja suspect a rare cattle disease. Working with Dirk and his daughter Lisa, they race to contain the outbreak.

With Dirk overwhelmed and Lisa planning to leave for med school, the future of the farm is at stake. Can Maja and Julia save the animals and the farm?
