DIARY OF A BOY IN EXILE

A True WWII Survival Story of a Polish Boy's Exile in Soviet Kazakhstan

Rio Goldhammer

Lwów, 1940. When Soviet soldiers drag sixteen-year-old Roman Bader's father away, his world collapses. Days later, he and his mother are forced onto a cattle car — destination unknown. What awaits them is the frozen Kazakh steppe, forced labor, and years of grinding uncertainty. Based on Roman's original journal entries, this extraordinary memoir chronicles one boy's perseverance through exile, hunger, and loss — and the remarkable humanity he preserved against all odds.

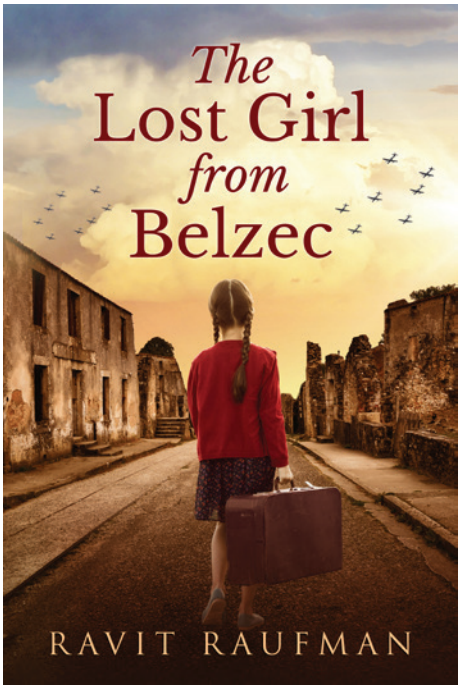

THE GIRL FROM THE ABBEY

A Heart-Wrenching WW2 Historical Fiction Novel Based on the True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

David Shalem

Warsaw, 1941. When Hannah's mother smuggles her out of the ghetto and into a Christian abbey, her final plea is clear: never forget who you are. Hidden behind a new name and a false identity, Hannah clings to one remaining thread — Mark, her only connection to the life she lost. When he vanishes, she must choose between safety and the darkness beyond the abbey walls. Based on a true story, a gripping coming-of-age novel of identity, love, and survival.

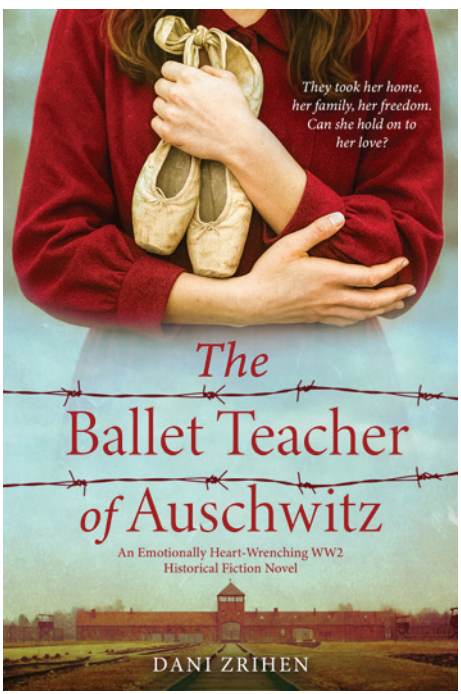

THE LOST GIRL FROM BELZEC

A WW2 Historical Novel,
Based on a True Story of a
Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Ravit Raufman

When little Ruthie and her mother are taken to Belzec extermination camp in the midst of World War II, Ruthie's mother knows that her daughter's life is in grave danger. Desperate, she will do anything to save her from the terrible fate that awaits her, even at the cost of her own life. But she will have to act fast if she wants to give her daughter a chance of survival.

THE BALLET TEACHER OF AUSCHWITZ

An Emotionally Heart-Wrenching
WW2 Historical Fiction Novel

Dani Zrihen

In 1941 Lodz Ghetto, nineteen-year-old Jewish ballerina Eleonore Kantor loses everything when Nazis murder her mother, leaving her with only handmade ballet slippers—a final gift symbolizing hope. Determined to find light in darkness, she joins the resistance and opens a secret ballet studio for children. When she meets resistance fighter Matias and his niece Greta, she discovers love amid horror. But after a failed operation sends her to Auschwitz, Eleonore faces the ultimate test of survival in a place where joy seems impossible. Reunited with Greta, she must protect the child while clinging to hope and her dancing spirit.

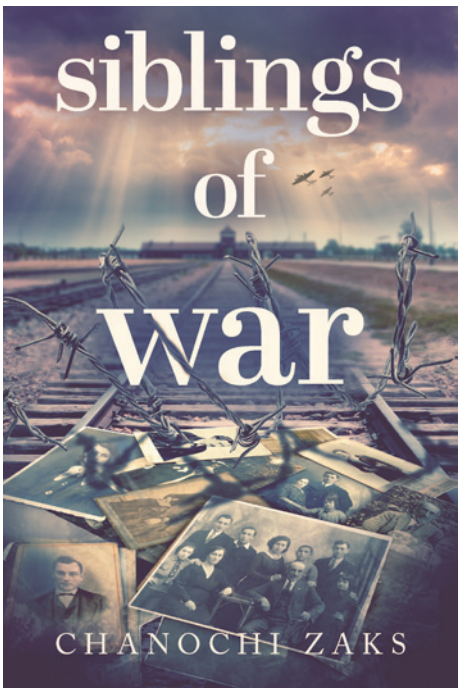

THE KEEPER OF LOST DAUGHTERS

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Veronica Leigh

In 1941 Krakow, childless Lidia Sobieska discovers an abandoned baby on her doorstep with a desperate letter begging her to save the child from the Nazis. She names the baby Sophie and creates a new family by also adopting Eva, a thirteen-year-old Jewish girl escaping the ghetto. For years, Lidia risks everything to protect their hidden identities during the war's darkest moments. But in 1946, a knock on her door changes everything when Adam Altman arrives, claiming to be Sophie's biological father and demanding his daughter back. Now Lidia must fight to keep the family she's built through love, sacrifice, and unimaginable courage.

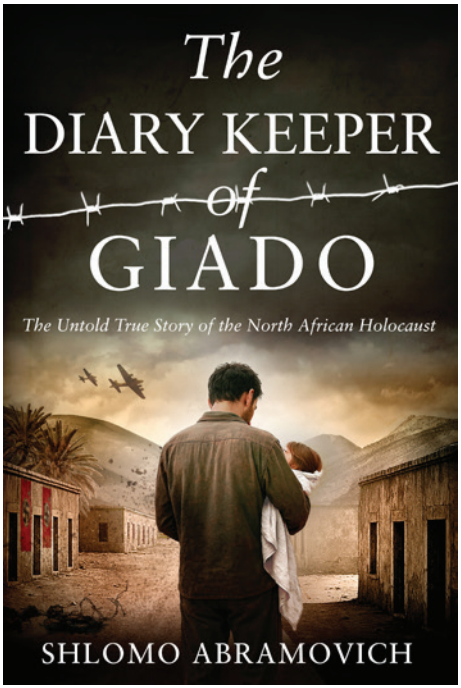

SIBLINGS OF WAR

A Captivating Family Survival WW2 Novel, Based on a True Story

Chanochi Zaks

September, 1939. The Zaks siblings leave their quiet Polish hometown, on the run from the Nazis. But their escape does not go unhindered; and as they are captured by invading German forces, their father's last command echoes in their minds: "Whatever you do, never, ever leave any one of your siblings behind."

Reunions and tragedies follow as the Zaks siblings witness the horrors of Auschwitz, Buchenwald, and Bergen-Belsen, with only each other to protect them from the greatest evils man has ever known.

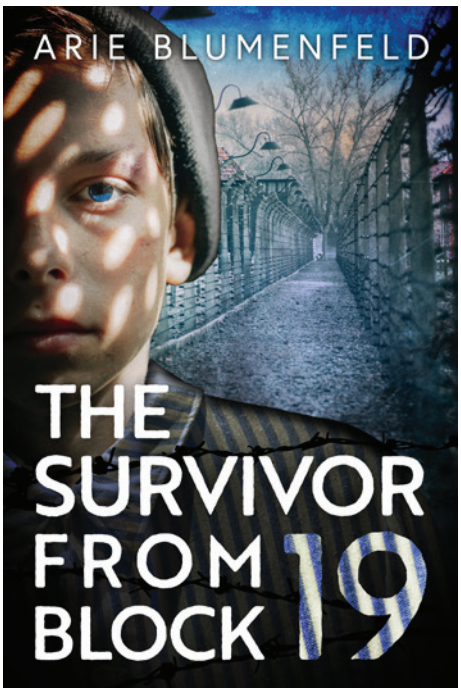

THE DIARY KEEPER OF GIADO

The Untold True Story of the North African Holocaust

Shlomo Abramovich

In 1942, twenty-year-old Yosef Dadush was deported from Benghazi with 2,600 other Libyan Jews to the Giado concentration camp in the desert. Risking execution, he secretly documented their brutal reality on hidden scraps of paper—starvation, disease, death, and unimaginable suffering. His diary reveals the forgotten Holocaust of North African Jews, a devastating chapter often overshadowed by European events. After four years of painstaking work deciphering Yosef's deteriorated writings, this powerful testament exposes how a thriving community endured unspeakable horrors while clinging to faith and hope, ensuring their untold story would finally be heard.

THE SURVIVOR FROM BLOCK 19

A Gripping and Emotional World War II Historical Novel, Based on a Holocaust Survivor's True Story

Arie Blumenfeld

Samuel is only sixteen when he enters the gates of Auschwitz-Birkenau. Forced deep inside the camp, he is marched past the smoking crematoriums, toward his future, toward his fate. Toward Block 19.

Block 19 will test his bravery and endurance in ways he could never have imagined. Even if he survives, will he ever heal from the deep scars of such darkness?

ESCAPING BUDAPEST

A WW2 Historical Novel,
Based on a True Story

Eitan Posner Halevy

When a drunken neighbor brings the ruthless Arrow Cross gendarme straight to their front door, the Levy family realizes their days in the city they once called home are numbered.

To increase their chances of survival, the stronghearted Miriam Levy and her husband Istvan decide to split from their daughter, Magda. While Istvan finds shelter at the Swiss Embassy, Miriam is caught by a Hungarian mob, and Magda fights with all she has to save her new husband's life.

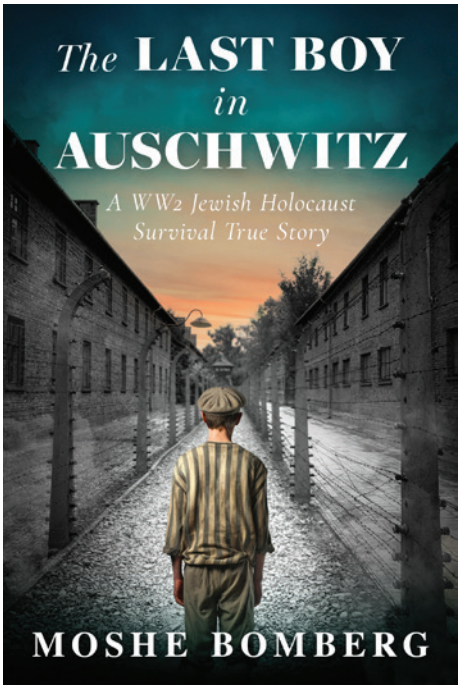

THE SECRET ORPHAN SISTERS

A WWII historical fiction novel
Based on a true story

Rivka Kan Tor

Based on a remarkable true story, this gripping World War II narrative follows two Jewish sisters torn from their family in 1944 Czechoslovakia and sent to Auschwitz. When Hilda sees a chance to escape, she makes a split-second decision that lands them in the German countryside—where survival means concealing their identities as Jewish refugees. With Auschwitz numbers branded on their arms and no papers, the sisters must pose as German orphans while living in constant fear of discovery. A powerful testament to sisterly bonds and extraordinary courage in humanity's darkest hour.

THE LAST BOY IN AUSCHWITZ

A WW2 Jewish Holocaust Survival True Story

Moshe (Mjetek) Bomberg

Moshe and his family flee their hometown of Warsaw in a desperate bid for survival as Nazi forces advance on the city. But when Moshe and his brother find themselves on a train bound for Auschwitz, they know their chances of getting through the war are better together. Until a devastating accident leads the brothers to confront an impossible choice – stay together and perish, or part ways for the smallest chance to survive.

THE SECRET JEWISH SISTERS

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on the True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Tikva Rager

As the Nazi Party rises to power, sisters Rita and Suzie are sent to live in a small abbey outside Antwerp under the guise of two Christian orphans. But before he leaves, their father entrusts Rita with a task that will forever change her life…

Rita is left in charge not only of her sister – but of the secret of their Jewish identities. While Suzie is quick to embrace the abbey's Christian upbringing, Rita remains haunted by the secret that could spell only heartbreak and pain for them both.

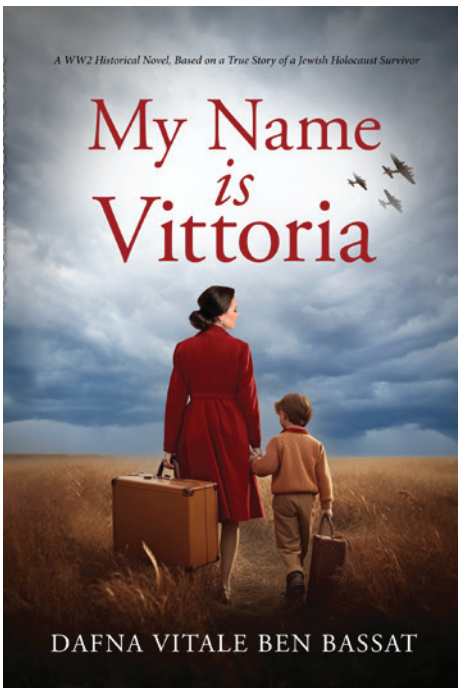

UNDERNEATH A CHANGING SKY

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story

Yaron Reshef

When Syma decides to leave home and embark on an adventure in a strange land, she cannot imagine what will be. Daily life in Palestine is far from comfortable and the reality of living the Zionist dream while embarking on a love affair is agonizing. She chooses to leave everything behind and sails back home, to Poland. But when WWII breaks out and the situation in Europe goes from bad to worse, Syma will have to reevaluate her decisions.

MY NAME IS VITTORIA

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Dafna Vitale Ben Bassat

Vittoria Vitale was born into a noble Jewish family in the north of Italy in the very same year that Mussolini met his Jewish lover. With the onset of World War II, she is forced to gather her family and flee the country, making critical and life-changing decisions as she goes. Her life is quickly carried away by a swirl of atrocities, decisions, farewells and remorse that will scar Vittoria and her family forever.

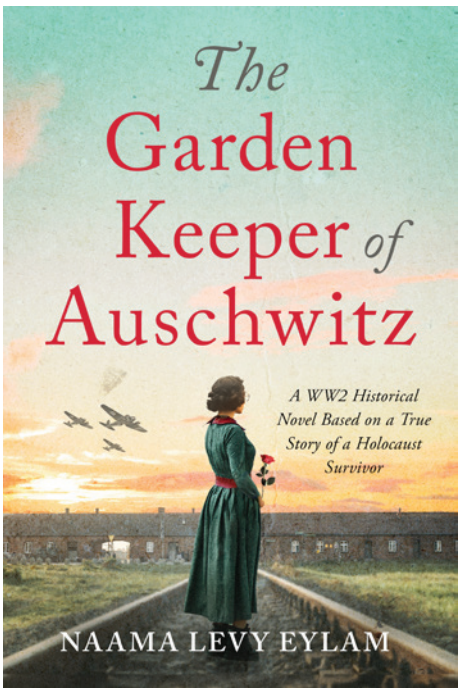

EVERYTHING SHE LEFT BEHIND

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Naama Levy Eylam

In 1945 Austria, 19-year-old Klara and her family are banished to the harsh conditions of a Nazi labor camp. Strong-willed and resilient, Klara refuses to give up hope and does everything in her power to survive. Years later, the delivery of a mysterious letter sets into motion an unexpected series of events in the life of Alice, Klara's granddaughter. She embarks on a journey in pursuit of secrets from the past, secrets which when uncovered, might just help her decide her own path in life.

THE GARDEN KEEPER OF AUSCHWITZ

A WW2 Historical Novel Based on a True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Naama Levy Eylam

In 1942, Livia is torn from her village in Slovakia and sent to Auschwitz. After losing everything she cares for, she is about to abandon all hope of surviving. But after a year of torment, Livia is given a lifeline when she is sent to work at the camp's farms to tend to their tropical flower gardens. With the threat of death looming over her, the delicate flowers are Livia's only hope of survival. Determined to do anything she can to return home, she must face the question: Is there anyone out there waiting for her?

THE AUSCHWITZ PHOTOGRAPH

A WWII Historical Fiction Novel

Julie Tulba

Samuel Weiss and Max von Hofmannsthal were best friends until the cruel antisemitism of Nazi Germany seeped into Berlin and tore their friendship apart. As Max rises in the ranks of the Nazi SS, Sam and his Jewish family struggle to survive the concentration camps, praying for the war to end.

And when Max and Sam's paths cross once again among the bleak barracks of Auschwitz-Birkenau, their fates will intertwine in ways neither of them could ever have expected.

THE WOMEN OF JERSEY ISLAND

A WW2 Historical Fiction Novel

Rachael Dymski

When the Nazis first set foot on her island home, 16-year-old Marcy comes to realize that nothing will ever be the same. Fueled by the disappearance of the man she loves and in defiance of her mother, Violet, she joins forces with fellow islander Louisa to aid Jersey's secret resistance.

But as the war drags on, the three women's loyalties will be put to the test. Can they put their past behind them to fight together for a future? Or will the secrets they harbor lead them to commit the greatest betrayal?

BOYS OF COURAGE

A WW2 Historical Novel,
Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Amos Blas

Kadish is barely more than a boy when war breaks out. Forced to grow up fast, he takes it upon himself to provide for his family in the ghetto – his helpless parents and younger cousin Robbie.

Until one night, Kadish disappears.

Years later, Robbie is now an old man. He's never known what happened to his hero after that terrifying day – until a phone call startles him in the middle of the night.

A stunning revelation unravels an incredible story that has waited decades to be told.

THE LIGHTMAKER OF AUSCHWITZ

A WW2 Historical Page-Turner, Based on the True Story of a Holocaust Survivor

Naphtali Brezniak

When Moshe steps off the train at Auschwitz, everything changes.

Knowing he must avoid being assigned to Auschwitz's manual labor detail if he wants to survive, Moshe gives away the very last of his possessions in return for a job as an electrician.

His new position affords him liberties few others are granted, but with opportunity comes danger. And Moshe's quest to bring light to Auschwitz, all while struggling every day to survive, might prove to be an impossible quest.

Ehud Peled

Against the backdrop of Mount Carmel in 1982, a fateful love triangle between two brothers and one woman spirals into a decades-long web of deception. When shy Uri wins Batya's heart over his charismatic brother David, no one suspects the devastating pact made between David and Batya just before the brothers deploy to the Lebanon War. Twenty years later, Dina has grown up honoring her "two fathers"—David who raised her, and Uri, the fallen war hero. Until one shocking discovery threatens to unravel everything she believed about her family. Masterfully weaving between past and present, Peled delivers a haunting exploration of loyalty, forbidden desire, and the devastating ripple effects of choices made in moments of desperation.

THE THING ABOUT JANET

A Novel

Ehud Peled

When Janet and Johnny's worlds collide in a chance coffee shop encounter, neither expects the magnetic pull that follows. Their dance of attraction is complicated by "the thing"—Janet's mysterious past that keeps her pushing Johnny away just as they begin to connect. With sharp wit and tender insight, Peled crafts an unforgettable romance where timing is everything and patience becomes an act of love. As Janet battles the demons she's kept hidden and Johnny navigates the delicate balance between persistence and understanding, readers will find themselves utterly captivated by this contemporary love story that proves some connections are worth fighting for.

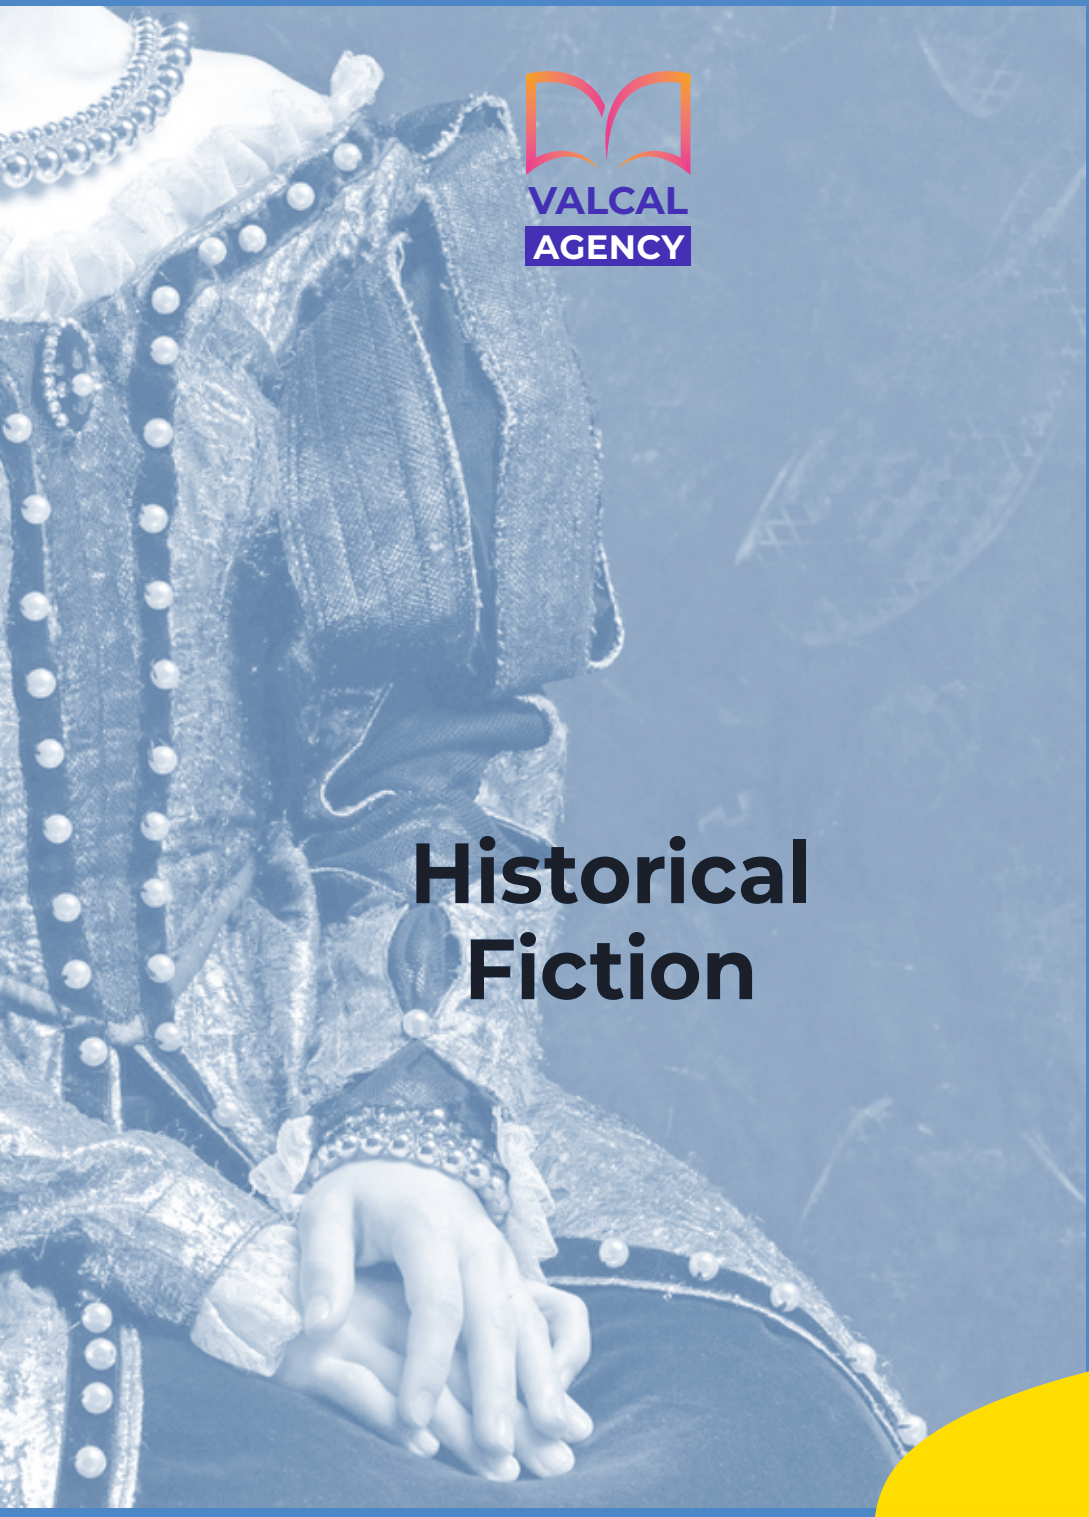

BLIND LOVE

An Impossible Second Chance Romantic Drama

Ehud Peled

Yair, a young Israeli soldier, is left physically and emotionally broken after an explosion destroys his legs and eyesight. Isolated in his beachside apartment, he resigns to his misery until he meets Leila, an Israeli Christian Arab. Initially distrustful, Yair soon discovers that Leila offers not pity, but compassion. Both wounded by their pasts— Yair by war and Leila by a violent marriage—they form an unlikely bond. As Leila's past resurfaces, they must face a life-changing decision that will shape their futures forever.

THE BOY WHO WAS LEFT BEHIND

A Gripping Jewish Fiction Novel

Sharon Glass-Ivri

Poland, 1942. As deportations empty the ghetto, Rosa makes an impossible choice — entrusting her baby to her closest friend, hoping to reclaim him after the war. Seventy years later, retired Dudek discovers a hidden photograph that unravels everything he thought he knew. In Israel, a young couple traces their own families' vanished infants across two very different histories. As their searches converge, a truth shaped by sacrifice and silence finally surfaces. A multigenerational saga spanning the Holocaust and the Yemenite Children Affair.

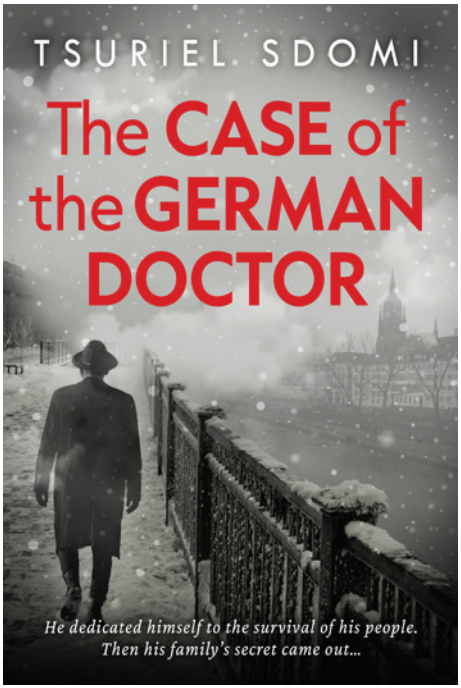

THE GROUND WE STAND UPON

A Compelling Historical Fiction Novel, based on a True Story

Uri Zoref

It is 1932. Fifteen-year-old Meir Cohen arrives in Eretz Israel dreaming of building an agricultural community, as Nazi Germany's shadow falls across Europe. When he meets the equally passionate Eitan Wallach, a bond forms — one built on brotherhood, purpose, and an almost utopian vision. But over thirty years of struggle, from the wheat fields of the Sea of Galilee to the streets of Jerusalem, both men will discover that every dream exacts its own price.

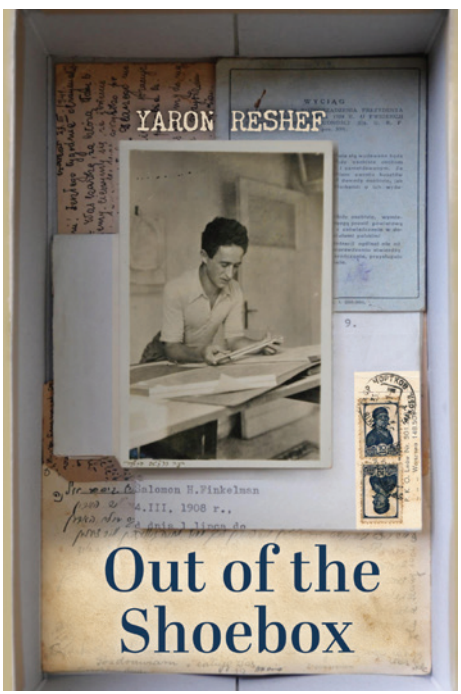

THE CASE OF THE GERMAN DOCTOR

A Historical Novel,
Based on a True Story

Tsuriel Sdomi

When William decided to pursue a career as a doctor, he believed he was doing all in his power to help his people survive. But what begins with a shameful family secret coming to light forces William to confront not only his family's past but his own. William's case threads together one tragic character after another: A Jewish prosecutor; a fragile woman with a shocking story of betrayal; an ambitious attorney who struggles with morality; and William himself, who faces the dire consequences of his relentless attempts at redemption.

Yaron Reshef

When an unexpected phone call leads him to a dusty shoebox full of old letters, everything Yaron has ever known about his family is called into question.

From an abandoned lot and forgotten bank account to people he never knew but who were an integral part of his legacy, past and present intertwine as his search hurls him all the way back to World War II and its shocking consequences, on a quest to solve a decades-old puzzle.

Leah Moyes

The Berlin Girl Saga

The Berlin Girl Saga follows Ella Kühn, a young woman whose life is shattered when the Berlin Wall separates her from her loved ones.

In The Berlin Girl's Choice, she faces the impossible: escape for love or stay for a newfound friendship.

The Berlin Girl's Promise sees Ella wrestling with loyalty, hope, and the uncertainty of her love's fate.

In The Berlin Girl's Resistance, years of longing and courage culminate in a daring fight against oppression, where old loves are tested, promises challenged, and the dream of freedom drives a bold resistance.

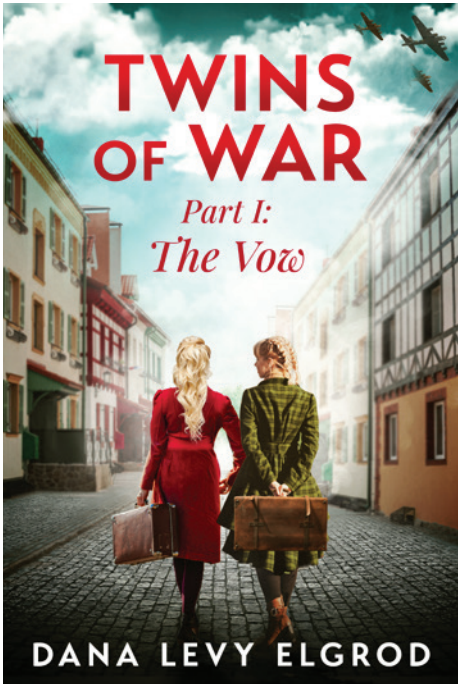

THE BERLIN RUNAWAY

A Historical Fiction Novel

Leah Moyes

On the night of August 13, as the Berlin Wall is being erected, Anton, a 17-year-old boy, escapes East Berlin for freedom in the West. Yet, knowing he left behind Ella, the girl he cares for most, he cannot stop until he finds a way to save her, too. From the bestselling author of The Berlin Girl trilogy, The Berlin Runaway presents the series' narrative from Anton's perspective and is a gripping and heart-wrenching story of love, loyalty, and courage during an unimaginable time in history.

TWINS OF WAR

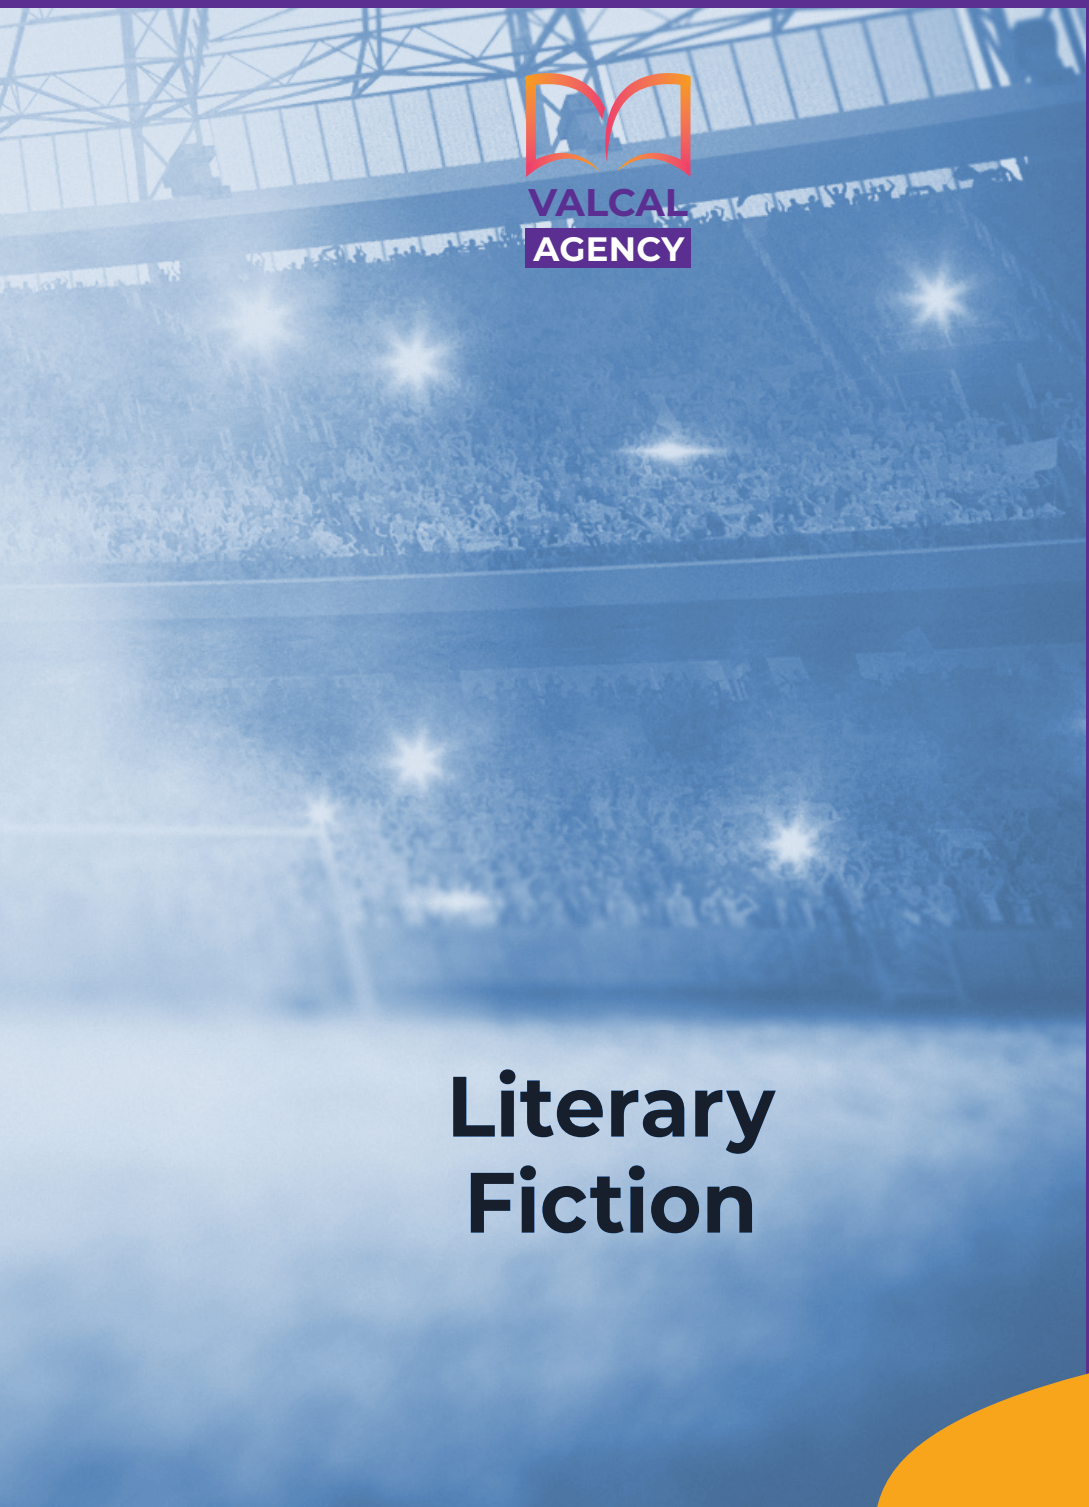

The Vow (Sisters of Treblinka Book 1)

Dana Levy Elgrod

Ania and Michalina are as different as two twins can be. While Ania revels in the gilded life of high society Warsaw, Michalina yearns for more.

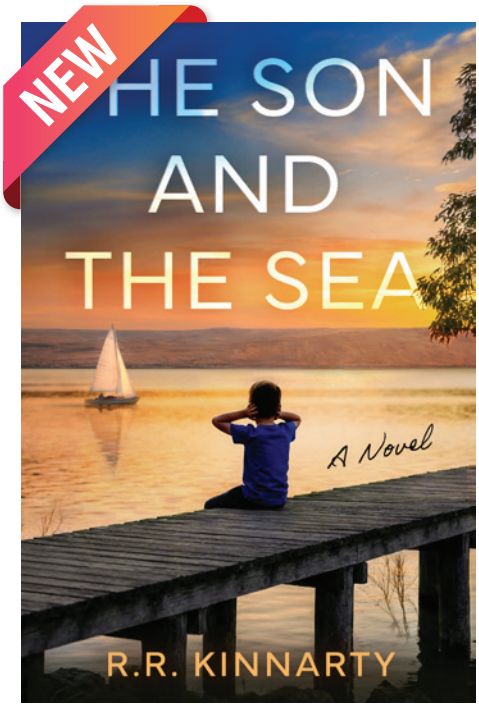

When World War II threatens to overturn their lives, the sisters' bond is put to the test. Separated in the chaos, Ania vows to keep Anton, Michalina's beloved, safe. Little does she know, Anton has made the same promise about her. With no end in sight, it's only a matter of time before Anton and Ania's loyalty to their loved ones, and to themselves, will face the ultimate trial.

THE SON AND THE SEA

A Novel

R.R. Kinnarty

Elon "Solly" Solomon built a life far from home — a Hollywood career, a house in LA, a daughter he adores. But when a sudden death pulls him back to the quiet shores of the Sea of Galilee, old journals surface memories of a wild childhood and a painful family secret he has spent a lifetime avoiding. The deeper he digs, the greater the risk to everything he has carefully built. A tender, resonant novel about homecoming, buried truth, and the bonds we can't outrun.

BECAUSE I'M ALREADY DEAD

Short Stories About Love,
War and Other Stupidities

Willi Lichtensohn

A shell-shocked soldier. A pensioner reckoning with who he's become. A Hassidic woman living a double life. A robber chasing love. An avenger of old crimes. In this uncompromising collection, Willi Lichtensohn cuts beneath the surface of ordinary life to expose desire, violence, faith, and the quiet moments where everything fractures. Shifting between refined and raw, these stories confront religion, history, and human nature without comfort or easy answers — leaving every reader, and every character, permanently marked.

BACK TO THE TREE OF LIFE

A Novel

Ehud Peled

Born into a small Hebrew community preserving ancient traditions, Bat-El grows up on sacred stories — the Garden of Eden, the Tree of Life — that she dismisses as myth. Then raiders destroy everything she knows, and she is forced into captivity in an enemy prince's household. When her mother falls gravely ill, Bat-El embarks on an extraordinary journey across unknown lands to find the Tree of Life itself. A biblical historical novel about faith, survival, and the courage to pursue the impossible.

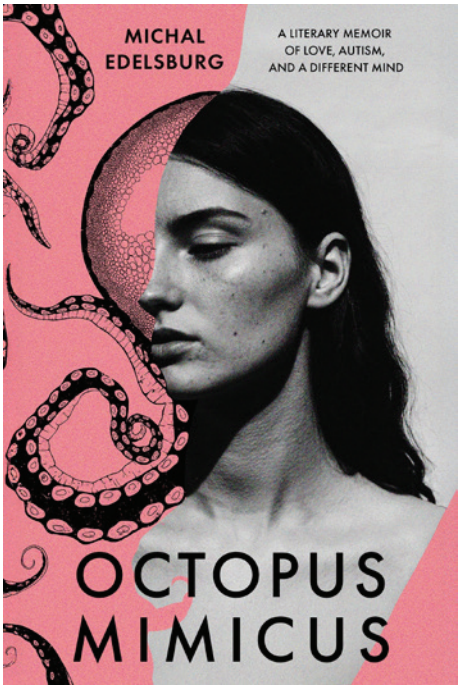

WHAT HE LEFT BEHIND

A Jewish Family Saga

Rivka Tenenbaum-Precel

Bank executive Avia Levy has everything, until husband Sebastian dies suddenly at fifty-five. Seeking a fresh start, she relocates to New York to fulfill their shared dream. But settling Sebastian's affairs reveals shocking news: he gambled away their entire life savings. Her cautious husband would never take such risks — what was worth losing everything? Determined to uncover the truth, Avia digs into Sebastian's past, becoming entangled in family secrets and the closed Hasidic dynasty he fled. A poignant portrayal of marriage's intricacies, spanning decades of pain, love, redemption, and one woman's journey through grief.

OCTOPUS MIMICUS

A Literary Memoir of Love, Autism, and a Different Mind

Michal Halali-Edelsburg

She looked like everyone else. Sounded like them. Moved through the world like them. But for decades, Michal Edelsburg lived as a walking dissonance — inexplicably intricate on the inside, invisible on the outside. Diagnosed with autism at fifty-seven, she finally had a name for a lifetime of hiding in plain sight. Unapologetically raw and razor-sharp, Octopus Mimicus dismantles taboos around neurodivergence while exploring family, sexuality, love, and womanhood with humor, candor, and a beautifully unclassifiable voice.

THE RIVER GIRL AND THE CORMORANT

A Novel

Liora Barash

In the misty mountains of rural China, where cormorant fishermen cast ancient shadows on the Li River, Li-Ming's dreams are caged in the prison of tradition. Though forbidden from the riverbank—a man's domain—she yearns for more than her destined life of servitude. When motherhood awakens a fierce determination within her, Li-Ming vows that her daughter will know the freedom she never tasted. After a devastating loss forces her to take up the fisherman's pole herself, she enters a battle of wills with her husband's defiant cormorant—the embodiment of the very traditions she's fighting. A spellbinding journey of rebellion,-sacrifice, and a mother's unstoppable love.

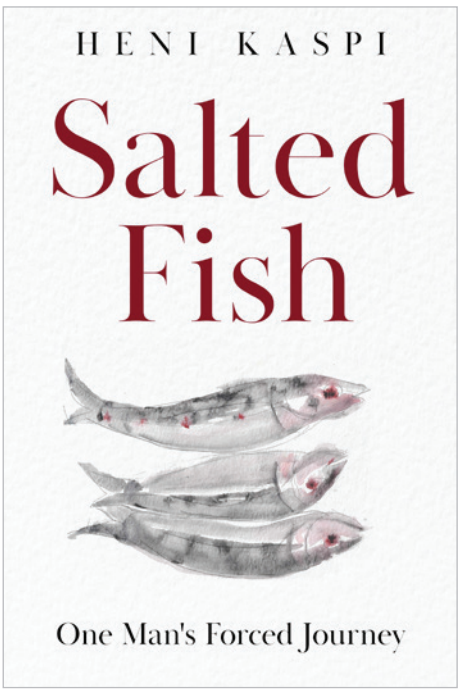

I WANT TO REBEL BUT I HAVE TO GET UP EARLY TOMORROW

Stories From a Life Against the System

Menashe Hershtik

A C-suite executive questions her incompetent peers until reaching a deadly conclusion. A convicted felon struggles to reconnect with society after 2,910 days in prison. A small-town boy confronts harsh urban realities. In fourteen provocative stories, Hershtik explores society's eternal conflict between conformity and rebellion. His characters wrestle with their desperate need for approval while despising the controlling systems surrounding them. This debut collection reveals the extraordinary within the mundane and exposes the absurdity of everyday life, creating a two-way mirror between author and reader that illuminates missed opportunities, questionable decisions, and the defining choices that shape our existence.

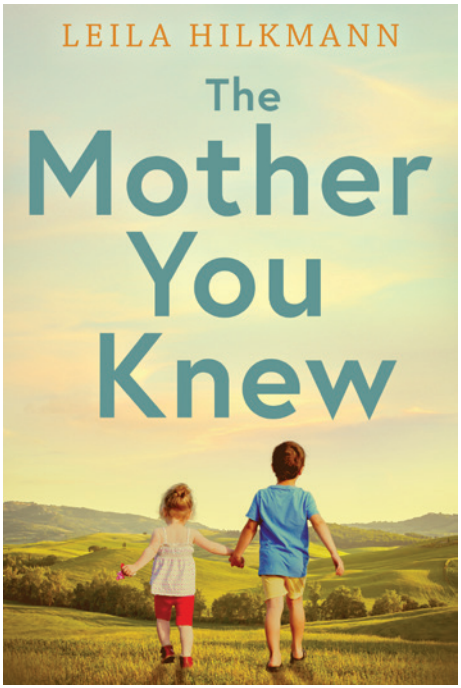

SALTED FISH

A Novel

Heni Kaspi

Oren Illouz has built a comfortable life in Australia—running a successful bistro and maintaining safe distance from his past mistakes. But a late-night phone call forces him back home to Israel, where financial debts await and his father is dying. Surrounded by familiar scents of old cafés and memories of what might have been, Oren takes a job at a local tavern while avoiding his family. Yet settling debts involves more than money—it means confronting the choices that drove him away and facing the parents he's spent years avoiding. As he navigates this reluctant homecoming, Oren must decide what home truly means and whether some relationships can still be salvaged.

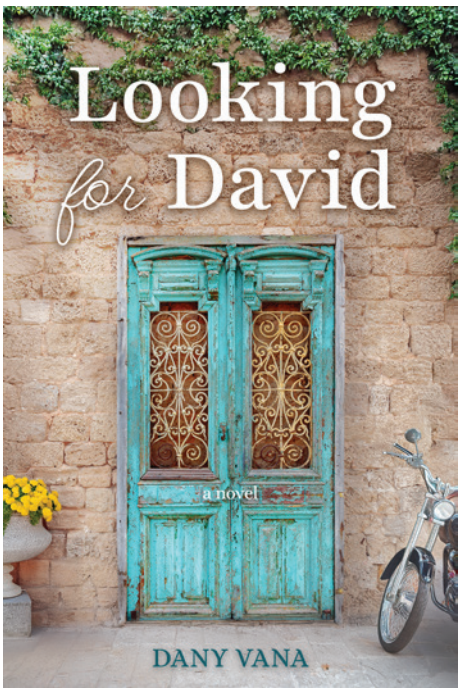

THE MOTHER YOU KNEW

A Novel Based on a True Story

Leila Hilkmann

Tara's life is shattered when she reaches the airport to pick up both her children from a visit with their father in America and realizes that only her daughter returned. In her effort to free her son, Tara is thrust into the American legal system. She races against time while embarking on a perilous journey that involves sidestepping her mentally disturbed sister who goes out of her way to block Tara from seeing her son. Mesmerizing and heart wrenching in its sincerity, this page turner evokes emotion and compassion as it spans over European landscapes and some of America's most prestigious locations. Based on a true story.

LOOKING FOR DAVID

A Novel

Dany Vana

Against Jerusalem's ancient backdrop, two lost souls find unexpected redemption in each other. Forty-year-old tour guide Mickey Cohen—drowning depression in alcohol and dead-end routines—reluctantly agrees to guide awkward, bullied teenager David on a bar mitzvah tour of the Holy City. What begins as just another job transforms when Mickey recognizes in David's struggles a reflection of his own unfulfilled life. As they navigate Jerusalem's historic streets and David's coming-of-age bucket list, their unlikely friendship becomes a lifeline for both. Meanwhile, David's chaperone Nicole harbors a devastating secret threatening their fragile bond. Vana's poignant debut celebrates second chances and the transformative power of being truly seen.

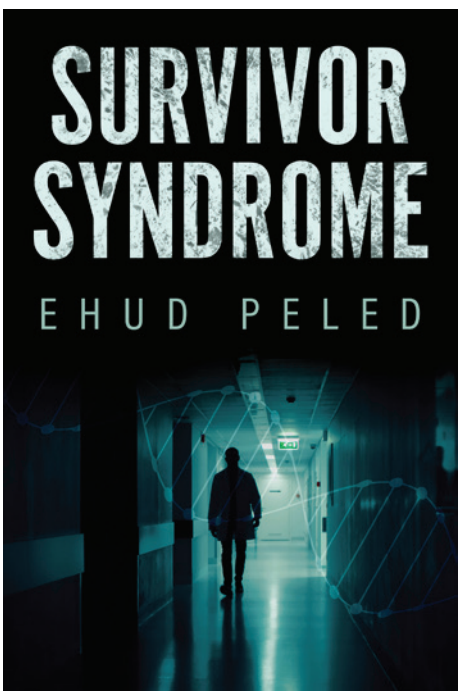

THE GIRL THAT WAS LEFT BEHIND

A Gripping, Emotional Historical Fiction Novel

Tamar Ohrenstein

After her parents' tragic death in 1970 Tel Aviv, Mati Netaim discovers a hidden photograph—a stranger holding a baby with her distinctive blue eyes. The inscription shatters her world: "I entrust into your care my most precious... Do not tell her anything." With only an unfamiliar surname as her guide, Mati journeys across Europe from Paris to post-war Germany, determined to uncover her true origins. As she pieces together her mysterious past, she confronts devastating wartime secrets that transform her understanding of family, sacrifice, and identity—revealing why some truths were meant to remain buried.

SURVIVOR SYNDROME

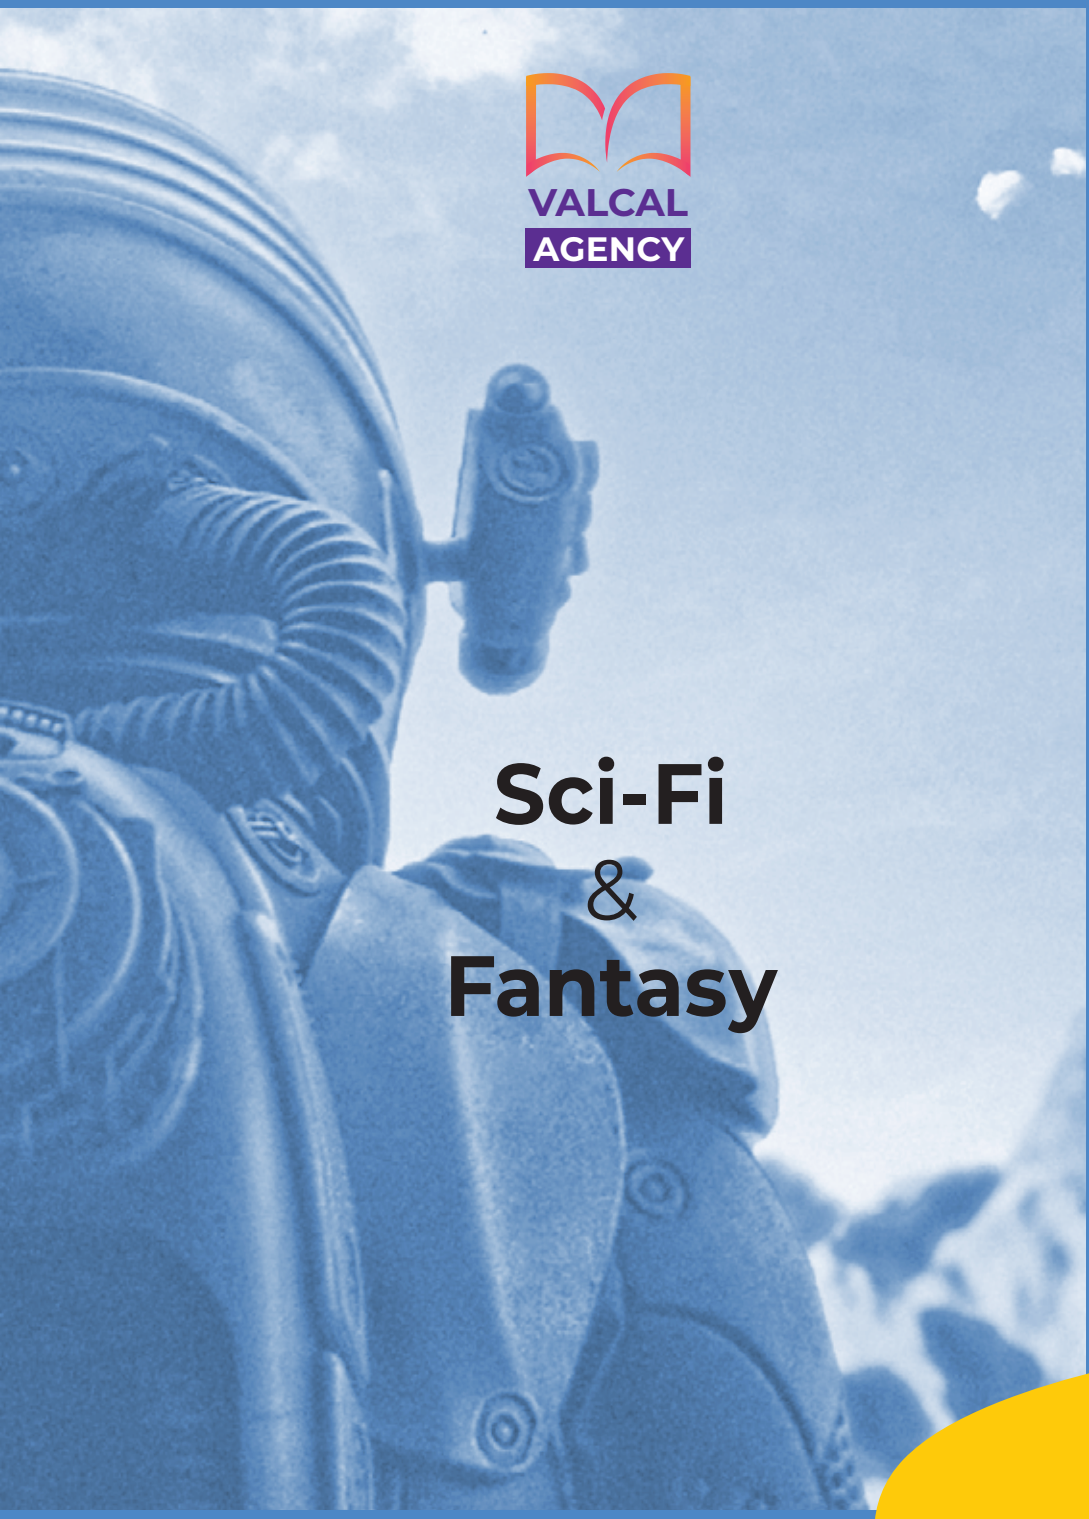

The Evolution Messiah

Ehud Peled

Eran and Rivka's perfect romance is interrupted when a dead body is found early one morning. While young detective Eran grasps for leads on the anonymous body, it's Rivka's life that will change forever.

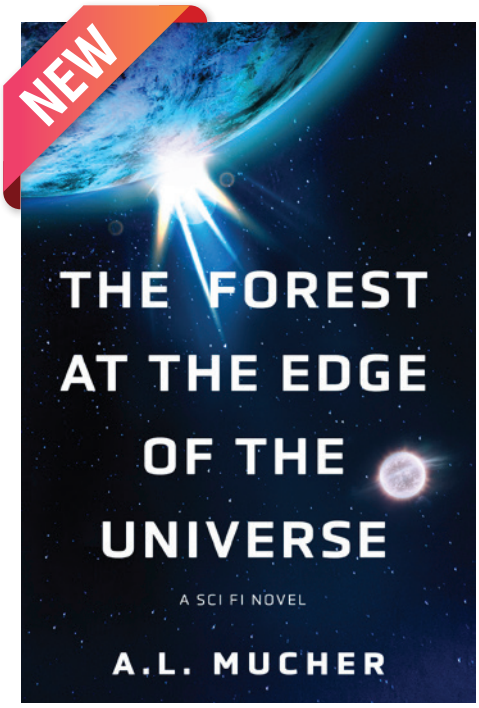

As the case unravels, a story unfolds – a tale of impossible odds, tragedy, and an emerging threat posed by the investigation's only lead – a medical research facility secretly producing anti biological weaponry. Eran must solve the mystery of the case and the killer's identity – before time runs out. But can he live with the answer he finds?

THE SHAPE OF STILLNESS

How a Rare Neurological Disorder Helped Me Realign My Life

Elaine Ben-Yaacov

When clinical social worker Elaine Ben-Yaacov was struck by rare neurological Ramsay Hunt syndrome, the left side of her face went numb and paralyzed — and for eight months, she could barely walk or sit upright. Suddenly thrust from caregiver to patient, she discovered that identity need not rest on usefulness alone. Part memoir, part practical guide, The Shape of Stillness chronicles her remarkable recovery through physical, emotional, and mental dedication, offering hard-won insights on self-compassion, healing, and the profound connection between body and mind.

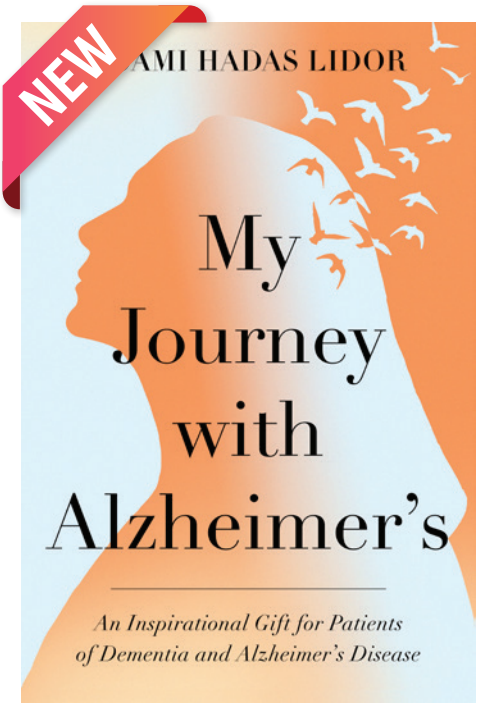

NEW GUARD, NO GUARD

How Israel Built the World's Most Advanced Military by Dismantling Its Own Ground Forces

Brig. Gen. Guy Hazoot

Over thirty years, the IDF quietly split in two: a glamorous, technologically advanced elite — and an eroded, neglected ground force that left Israel exposed on October 7th. Brigadier General Guy Hazoot, who fought on every Israeli front across a 34-year career, traces the decisions, doctrines, and leadership failures that drove this fracture. A firsthand, unflinching strategic reckoning with how Israel's most celebrated military institution became its most dangerous vulnerability.

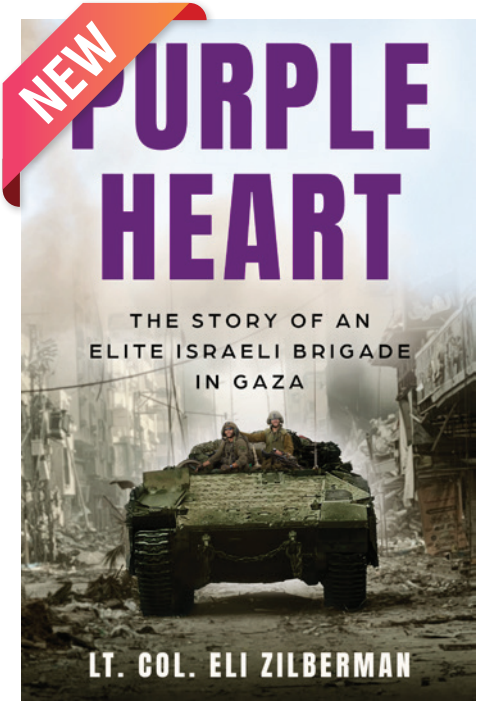

MY JOURNEY WITH ALZHEIMER'S

An Inspirational Gift for Patients of Dementia and Alzheimer's Disease

Naomi Hadas Lidor

When Naomi Hadas Lidor, educator, therapist, mental health expert, was diagnosed with Alzheimer's, she understood with clinical precision exactly what she stood to lose. Before the disease could take her, she wrote herself down. Weaving personal stories with raw emotional honesty, she reconciles her identity as a caregiver with her new reality as a patient. Neither farewell nor surrender, this courageous memoir is an outstretched hand — for patients, families, and anyone who has ever faced the slow unraveling of a loved one.

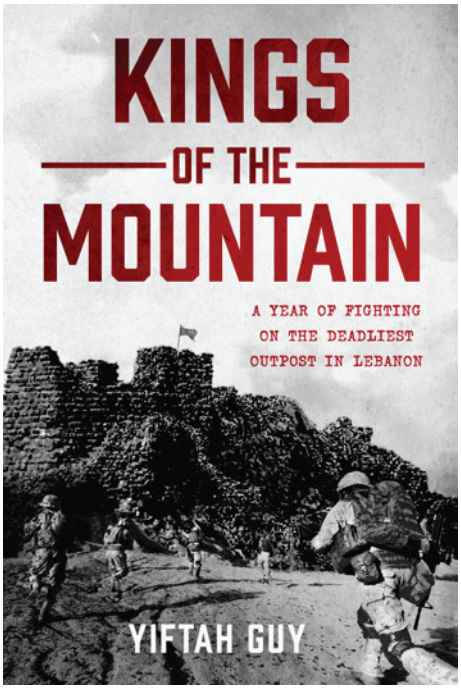

PURPLE HEART

The Story of an Elite Israeli Brigade in Gaza

Eli Zilberman

On the morning of October 7th, Lieutenant Colonel Eli Zilberman received a call from a fellow officer: "I'm under fire, come quick." Hours later he was pulling wounded civilians from the Nova festival. Days later, his Givati Brigade was deep inside Gaza. Written from the brigade's command unit, Purple Heart chronicles the heroism, agonizing decisions, and emotional toll of Israel's most consequential war — and the story of a generation mistakenly dismissed as soft, who fought with extraordinary resolve.

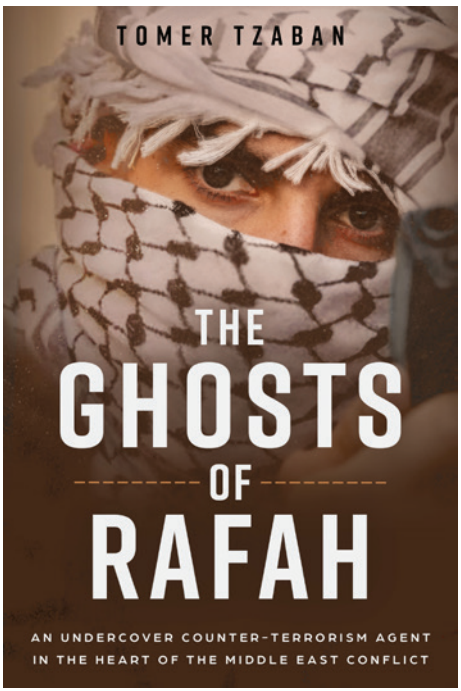

KINGS OF THE MOUNTAIN

A Year of Fighting on the Deadliest Outpost in Lebanon

Yiftah Guy

In 1997, Lt. Colonel Yiftah Guy took command of the Beaufort Battalion — the IDF's deadliest outpost in Lebanon, cursed by the highest casualty count on the front and the only barrier between Hezbollah and Israeli civilians two miles away. In this honest, unflinching memoir, Guy chronicles a year of ambushes, impossible choices, and the crushing weight of command. A story of blood, brotherhood, and what war truly costs the men who fight it.

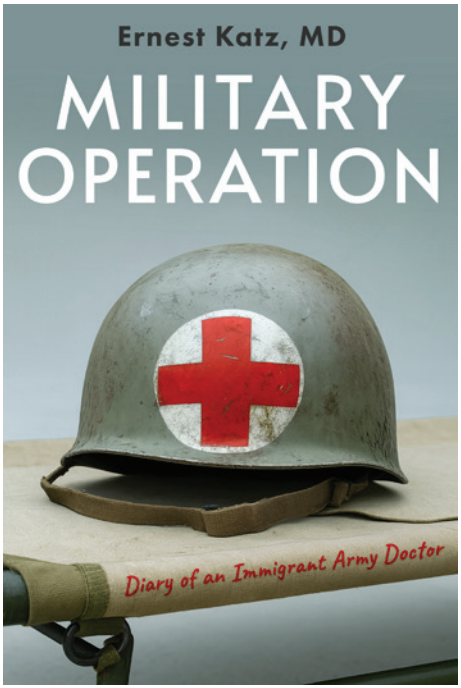

THE GHOSTS OF RAFAH

An Undercover Counter-Terrorism Agent in the Heart of the Middle East Conflict

Tomer Tzaban

During the First Intifada, the IDF's secretive Samson unit operated deep inside the Gaza Strip; fluent in its language, dressed in its clothes, invisible to its enemies. Their mission: infiltrate the terrorist network, gather intelligence, make arrests, and vanish. Tomer Tzaban, one of the unit's first operators, now breaks his silence. From identity switches to heart-pounding chases through Rafah's kasbahs, this is a rare firsthand account of Israel's most covert urban warfare operations.

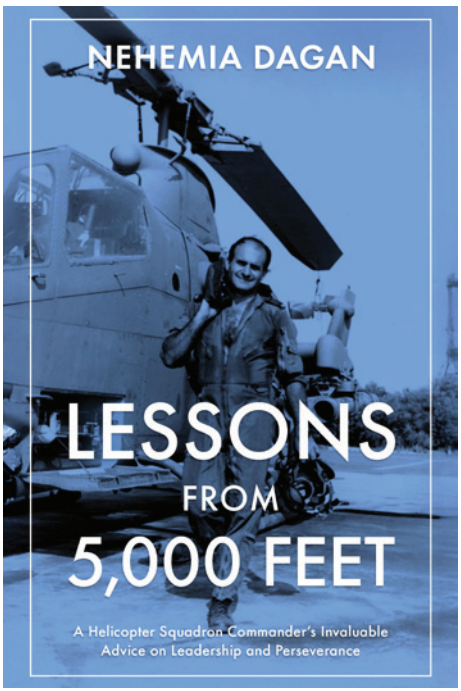

MILITARY OPERATION

Diary of an Immigrant Army Doctor

Ernest Katz

A decorated surgeon and Medical Doctor leaves the Soviet Union, arrives in Israel with no job and no money, and promptly gets conscripted into the IDF. What happens next, he holds nothing back. In this candid, often darkly comic memoir, Dr. Ernest Katz recounts his real-life experiences as a medical officer in the IDF's infantry brigades — navigating the collision of immigrant life, military culture, and frontline medicine with grit, honesty, and an unforgettable voice.

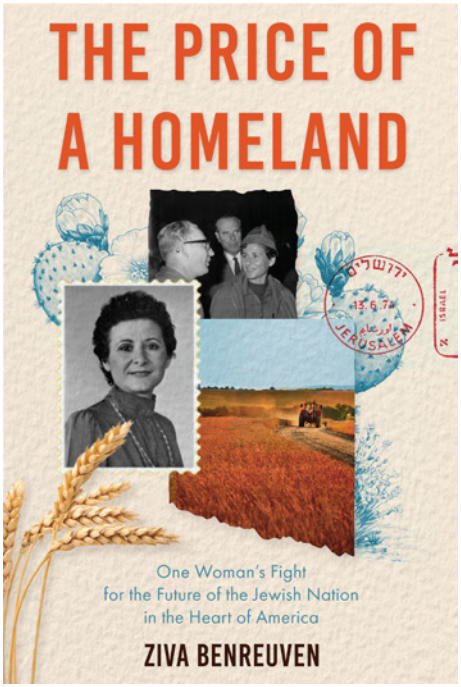

LESSONS FROM 5,000 FEET

A Helicopter Squadron Commander's Invaluable Advice on Leadership and Perseverance

Nehemia Dagan

Air Force pilots share daily "near-hits", close calls and survival lessons—so younger pilots can learn what it takes to stay alive. In missions where every moment counts, each insight is priceless. Retired Brigadier General Nehemia Dagan draws from 38 years and hundreds of combat missions to reveal leadership forged under fire. Across 120 gripping chapters, he exposes top-secret operations and behind-the-scenes challenges, showing how authentic leadership drives success in combat, business, and life. His core belief: victories belong to the team, not the commander.

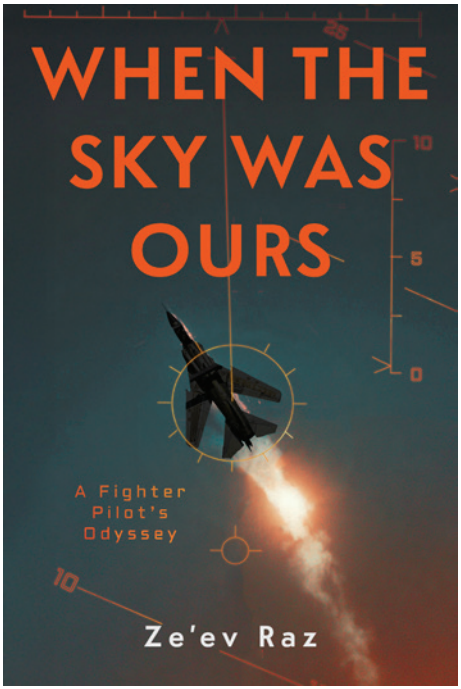

THE PRICE OF A HOMELAND

One Woman's Fight for the Future of the Jewish Nation in the Heart of America

Ziva Benreuven

When news of the Yom Kippur War interrupts services in Rochester, 1973, Israeli-born Ziva Benreuven watches her homeland face extinction from across the ocean. This powerful memoir traces her journey from a child hiding during the 1939 Arab revolt to a determined fundraiser mobilizing American Jewish communities in Israel's darkest hour. Born sixteen years before independence, Benreuven's life mirrors her nation's path— both defined by struggle and unwavering resilience. With intimate storytelling, she examines the complex relationship between diaspora Jews and Israel while revealing the personal sacrifices behind securing the Jewish homeland's future.

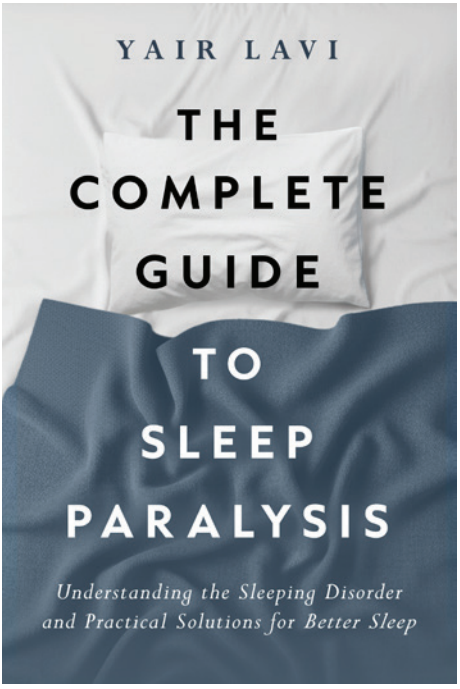

WHEN THE SKY WAS OURS

A Fighter Pilot's Odyssey

Ze'ev Raz

Enter the cockpit of decorated IAF Colonel Ze'ev Raz, commander of Operation Opera—the legendary 1981 airstrike that destroyed Iraq's nuclear reactor. From TOPGUN training with U.S. Navy elite to commanding Israel's most daring missions, this gripping memoir transcends typical military narratives. Like a modern-day Saint-Exupéry, Raz weaves combat experiences with profound philosophical reflections on memory, identity, and heroism's human cost. Spanning decades of Middle Eastern conflict and aerial warfare evolution, this literary military memoir offers exclusive insider access to history-shaping operations with universal emotional resonance.

SHE WASN'T DAMAGED

Poems of Survival

Hagit Vardi

In She Wasn't Damaged, poet Hagit Vardi offers a profound exploration of survival and healing through her raw and authentic poetry. This collection serves as a roadmap for women confronting their experience of abuse.

Vardi's work moves through introspection, helplessness, anger, and justice, emphasizing that the shame of abuse belongs to the abuser, not the survivor. Celebrated for its minimalist style, this work resonates with both seasoned poetry readers and newcomers, making it a significant contribution to the genre.

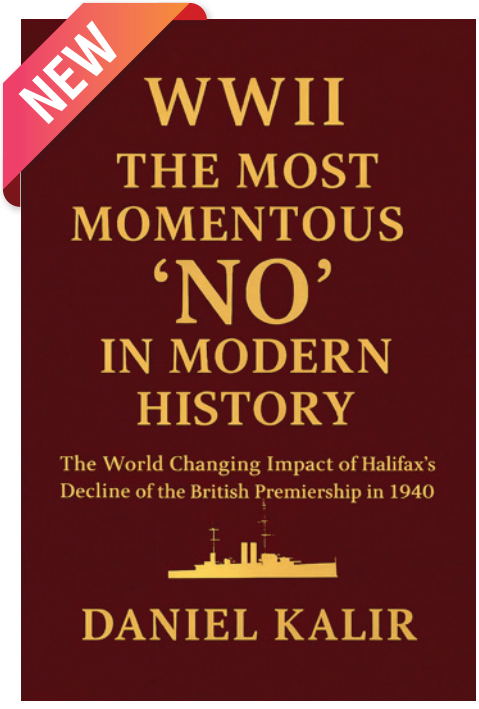

IT WAS NEVER ABOUT TERRITORY

Israel, Islam, and What Really Stands in the Way of Peace in the Middle East

Yehuda Yemini

The world frames the Israeli-Palestinian conflict as a territorial dispute between two peoples. Dr. Yehuda Yemini argues it never was. Drawing on twenty years of research and hundreds of interviews with Muslims across East Jerusalem and the West Bank, this political psychologist examines the religious beliefs, theological frameworks, and historical memory that Western and Israeli analyses consistently overlook. A provocative, rigorously grounded work that reframes the conflict's origins — and challenges every assumption underlying modern peace initiatives.

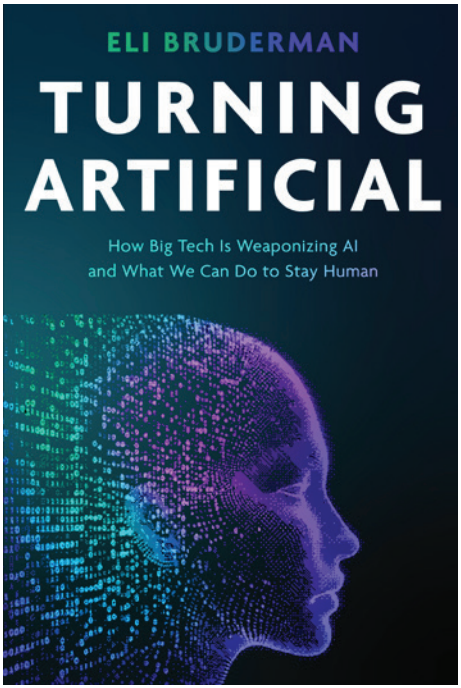

WWII THE MOST MOMENTOUS 'NO' IN MODERN HISTORY

The World Changing Impact of Halifax's Decline of the British Premiership in 1940

Daniel Kalir

On May 10, 1940, Lord Halifax declined the British premiership — and unknowingly saved the world. Using AI-assisted probability modelling and rigorous historical analysis, Daniel Kalir examines what would have followed had Halifax said yes: an 80% chance of Soviet defeat, Nazi dominance across Europe, no D-Day, no State of Israel, no NATO, no Cold War. A meticulous, provocative work of alternate history revealing Halifax's quiet refusal as arguably the most consequential decision of the modern era.

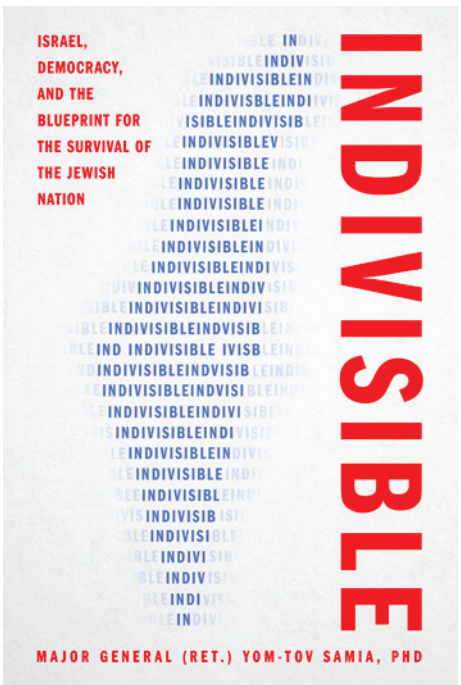

TURNING ARTIFICIAL

How Big Tech Is Weaponizing AI and What We Can Do to Stay Human

Eli Bruderman

Where does human intelligence end and artificial intelligence begin? AI has quietly embedded itself in our lives, shaping how we think, feel, and perceive reality. Philosophy professor and Israel Museum chief curator Eli Bruderman exposes how Big Tech giants—Apple, Amazon, Meta, Google, and Microsoft—deploy AI not just to optimize behavior, but to rewrite human consciousness itself. Drawing on Hegelian philosophy and modern psychology, this urgent investigation reveals how AI manipulates self-worth, exploits recognition needs, and builds mental dependencies. A warning to reclaim humanity before it's too late.

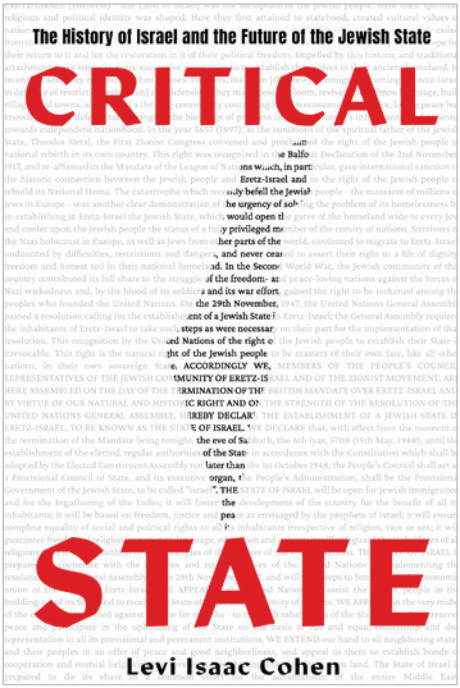

INDIVISIBLE

Israel, Democracy, and the Blueprint for the Survival of the Jewish Nation

Yom-Tov Samia

The greatest threat to Israel, argues Major General Yom-Tov Samia, is not Hamas, Iran, or Hezbollah — it is the Israeli people's own internal fragmentation. Drawing on nearly thirty years of military command and extensive academic research, Samia presents thirteen cardinal values and seven iron principles essential to Israel's survival as a unified democratic state. From education reform to religious-state relations and the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, this is an urgent, authoritative blueprint for a nation at a crossroads.

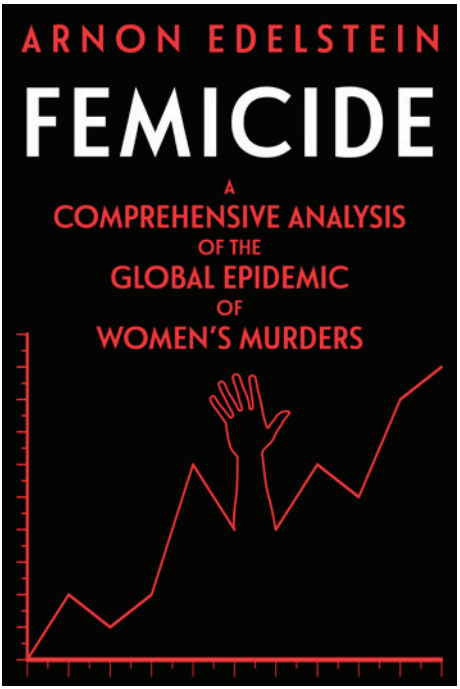

CRITICAL STATE

The History of Israel and the Future of the Jewish State

Levi Isaac Cohen

How did Israel transform from a promised refuge of justice and equality into a divided nation facing constitutional crisis? As Israel enters its third consecutive year at war, attorney and social activist Levi Isaac Cohen traces historical turning points that led to this existential crossroads. From 19th-century Zionism to Rabin's assassination, West Bank occupation, and October 7th, this analysis examines social, judicial, and economic prejudices that have eroded Israel's democratic foundations. Cohen reveals how religious extremism gained political power and explores challenges threatening the Jewish state's future.

THE CONFIDENT KID PLAYBOOK

Raising Resilient and Successful Children in a Competitive World

Marjie Hadad

Confidence and resilience aren't innate — they're skills that can be taught. Crisis and leadership communications expert Marjie Hadad brings her professional toolkit home, showing parents and educators how to apply proven communications methodologies to raise children who advocate for themselves, navigate pressure, and become independent, capable adults. Practical, immediately actionable, and grounded in decades of real-world experience, this playbook gives adults the strategies to help children find their voice — and go the distance.

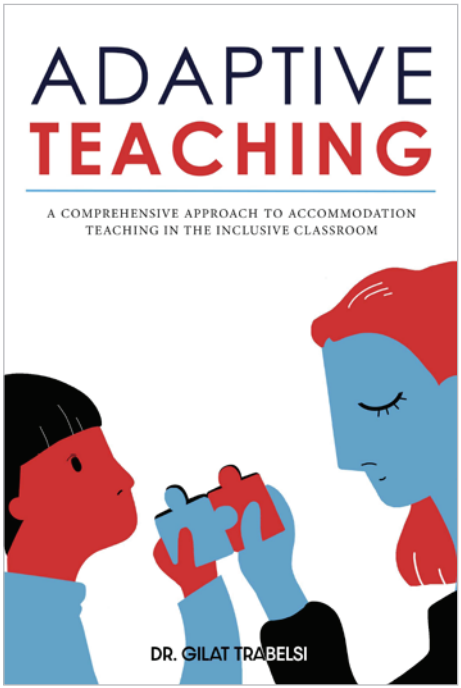

THE EMPOWERED CHILD

Parenting Principles for Raising Independent, Confident, Resilient & Happy Kids

Michal Gez

How can we teach our children to live life to the fullest? Life and business coach Michal Gez offers parents the principles every adult wishes they had learned early on. Using her breakthrough "Become You" method based on positive psychology and CBT, this practical guide helps children develop resilient spirit, learn self-love, live authentically, express emotions freely, and trust their intuition. Rather than learning from hardships and setbacks, children can gain these life-affirming beliefs from the start. Empowered children become the confident, independent adults we dream they'll be.

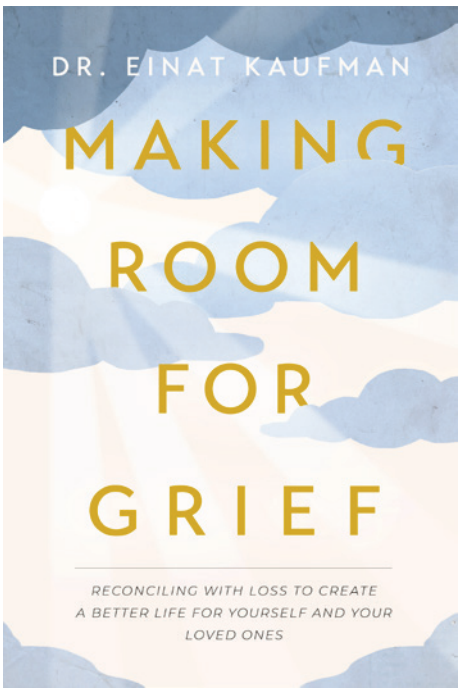

ADAPTIVE TEACHING

A Comprehensive Approach to Accommodation Teaching in the Inclusive Classroom

Gilat Trabelsi

Adaptive teaching does not endeavor to "fix" anything, because no one is broken. Its purpose is to accommodate education so that it is suited to all students, in light of goals, needs, and characters. This book offers a new, realistic approach to inclusive education. It includes both theory and practical tools, to teach educators how to adapt their strategies and approaches, their methods and means to the needs and singularity of each of their students.

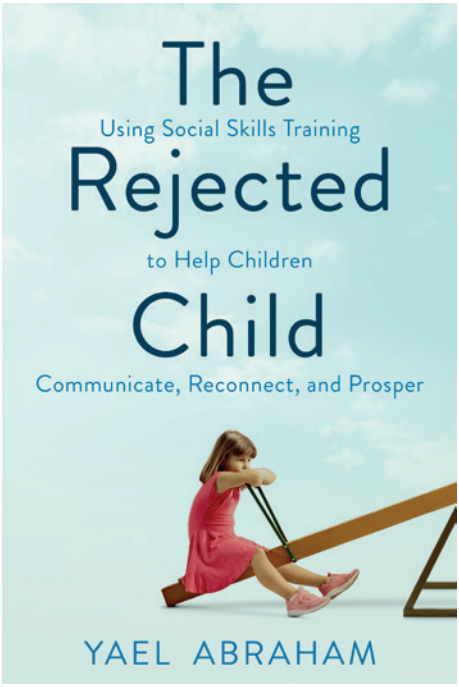

MAKING ROOM FOR GRIEF

Reconciling With Loss to Create a Better Life for Yourself and Your Loved Ones

Dr. Einat Kaufman

There is nothing wrong with how we grieve, and what we grieve for. Renowned psychotherapist and trauma specialist Dr. Einat Kaufman thought she understood loss—until personal tragedy upended her world. Drawing on twenty years of experience and real clinical cases, she explores the full spectrum of grief: expected and sudden, public and invisible, personal and collective. This compassionate guide examines how society shapes our mourning, why there's no "right way" to grieve, and offers practical tools for healing. Without preaching or guilt—just truth, empathy, and clarity.

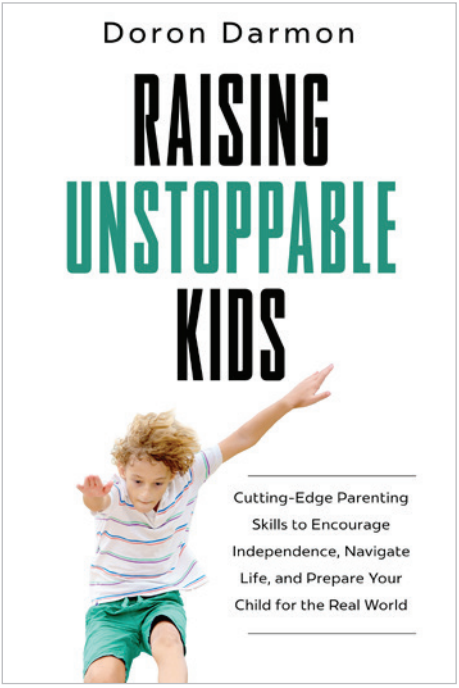

THE REJECTED CHILD

Using Social Skills Training to Help Children Communicate, Reconnect, and Prosper

Yael Abraham

The desire to be part of a group is a crucial part of a child's healthy development. However, an increasing number of children face the painful and overwhelming experience of being socially isolated which, if left unattended, can have a lasting impact well into adulthood.

Complete with training protocols and step-by-step guidelines, this pioneering book is an optimistic beacon for parents and professionals. It is written to provide you with the right practical tools to resolve social rejection and build up your child to prosper and succeed.

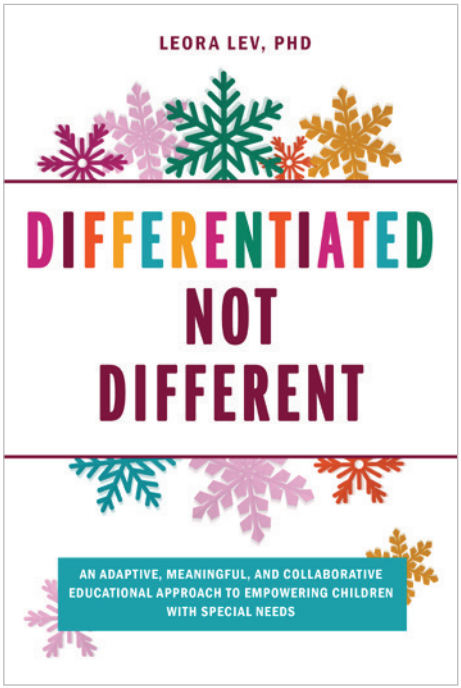

RAISING UNSTOPPABLE KIDS

DIFFERENTIATED NOT DIFFERENT

An Adaptive, Meaningful, and Collaborative Educational Approach to Empowering Children With Special Needs

Leora Lev PHD

Children with special needs are too often defined by their diagnosis rather than their potential. Drawing on thirty years in special education, Dr. Leora Lev developed the Adaptive, Meaningful, and Collaborative (AMC) model – a holistic framework that places emotional connection, curiosity, and intrinsic motivation at the center of learning. Designed for educators, therapists, and families, this practical guide shows how interdisciplinary teamwork and genuine child-centered thinking can transform outcomes for every learner.

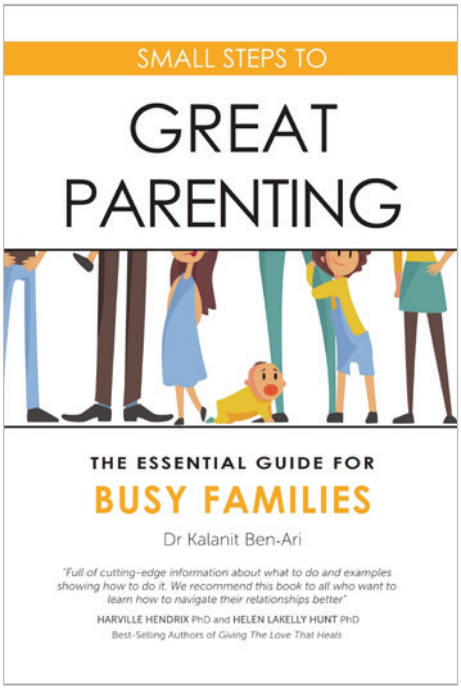

THE COMPLETE GUIDE TO CHILDREN'S DRAWINGS

Accessing Children's Emotional World through Their Artwork

Michal Wimmer

This useful book covers a wide range of subjects in children's lives as articulated in their drawings. It presents cases of children and adolescents coping with a variety of clinical issues and life challenges using interpretations of their drawings. Clinicians, educators and parents will find it helpful for understanding children's strengths and weaknesses and the reasons for their behaviors. It will also contribute to their ability to initiate fruitful emotional dialog, based on specific insights from their drawings.

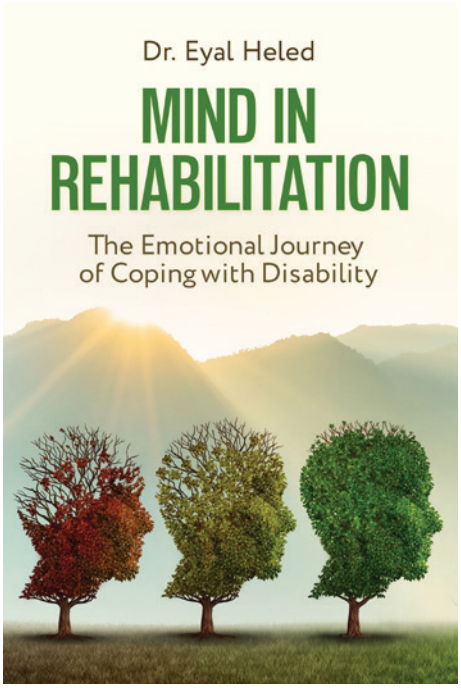

SMALL STEPS TO GREAT PARENTING

An Essential Guide for Busy Families

Kalanit Ben-Ari

Dr. Ben-Ari provides concise and proven parenting tips that can be used every day. Readers will learn how to look at issues through the lens of the parent-child connection rather than as a "child behavior problem" that needs to be controlled. With small yet highly effective tweaks, parents will learn to turn conflicts into opportunities for growth and connection, repair situations when things go wrong, and bring joy, calm, and balance to family relationships in our fastpaced world.

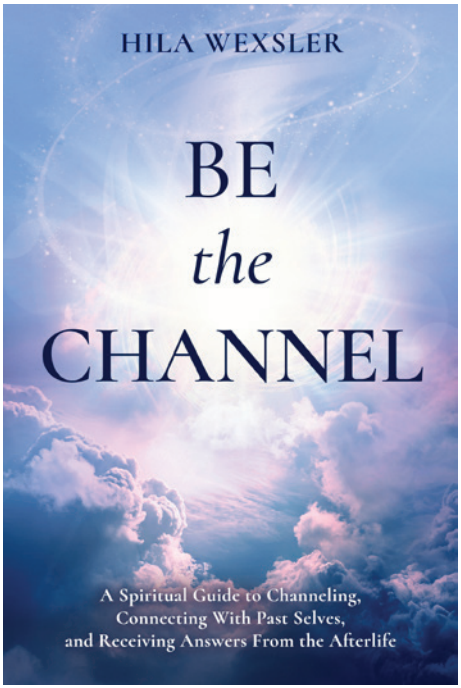

MIND IN REHABILITATION

The Emotional Journey of Coping with Disability

DR. Eyal Heled

THE BOY WHO JUMPED OFF THE TRAIN

A Children's World War II True Jewish Holocaust Survival Story

Malka Adler

The child-friendly, illustrated rendition of Malka Adler's acclaimed The Brothers of Auschwitz.

When Nazis barge into Itzhak's home one day and force him to separate from his entire family, he is left feeling scared and alone. With no one to talk to and no one to look after him, Itzhak knows that he will have to be strong – and very brave – to survive the war and be reunited with his family. But can he manage to do it on his own?

THE PHOTOGRAPHER'S SON

A WW2 Historical Novel, Based on a True Story of a Jewish Holocaust Survivor

Maya C. Klinger

A middle-grade true WWII story about a Jewish family of photographers, told from the perspective of Gavra, the five-year-old son. The journey, marked by struggles, dangers, and extraordinary events, reaches its pinnacle with a remarkable rescue by a Muslim family in Albania, demonstrating that genuine friendship and compassion can overcome hatred and transcend religious boundaries.

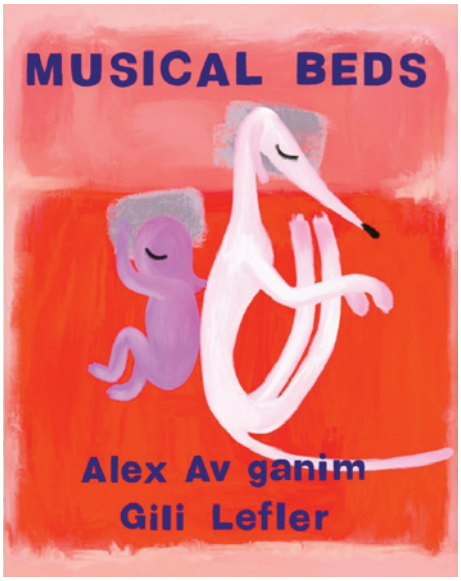

The Hebrew edition received the prestigious Yad Vashem Award and was listed as a recommended book by the Ministry of Education. The German edition, published by Suhrkamp Insel, was named 'Book of the Month' by the German Academy for Children's Literature in June 2025. The book serves as an age-appropriate introduction to the Holocaust.

THE SOUL BIRD

Michal Snunit

An international phenomenon that transcends age boundaries. This deceptively simple story explores the bird living inside us all, feeling everything we feel through drawers of emotions. Translated into 48+ languages with over 1.75 million copies sold in Europe alone. Winner of the 1993 World Prize for Best Children's Book in Geneva. Appeals to both children discovering their emotions and adults seeking philosophical insight. A timeless tale of self-awareness and emotional intelligence that has captivated readers worldwide for nearly four decades.

MUSICAL BEDS

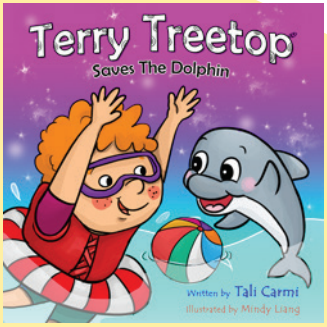

Alexander Av Ganim & Gili Lefler

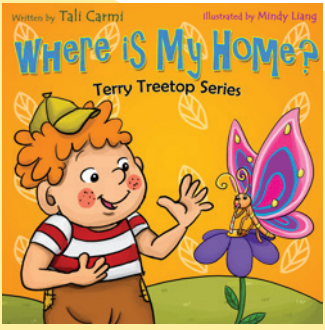

When darkness falls, the midnight migration begins! Five beds, one family, and the nightly shuffle every parent secretly recognizes unfolds in this charming picture book that transforms a universal family experience into a heartwarming adventure. With lyrical text and dreamy illustrations that blend Lefler's minimalist approach with Av Ganim's expressive style, readers follow each family member's journey as they drift from bed to bed throughout the night—a child seeking comfort, a parent falling asleep while reading "just one more story," and even the family dog finding new sleeping companions as the hours pass. Perfect for ages 3-7, this soothing bedtime tale celebrates the tender, often humorous moments of nighttime connection that bond families together, regardless of their configuration.
