2026 FALL GUIDE

Welcome

I want to welcome you to PCPC. We know there's a lot in this Fall Guide, but we hope it's more than a menu, more than a flood of information. We want to shepherd you toward being a healthy member or participant in the life of our church.

As you consider where the Lord is calling you to connect, abide, and extend, our hope is that you will:

- Join us regularly in corporate worship for all ages on Sundays at 8:00, (Chapel), 9:30 & 11:00 a.m. (Sanctuary). Pick up an Order of Worship and a Zest Quest for kids as you enter the Sanctuary.
- Participate in a ministry of our church that makes the big church smaller and helps you become more like Jesus (see the "Connect" and "Abide" sections in this guide).
- Find a way to serve the Lord inside or beyond the walls of the church (see the "Extend" section in this guide).

Some of our people get involved in more than one smaller community, and some find more than one way to serve. It is not our desire that you would do everything, but that the Lord would lead you to a few things that help you connect, abide, and extend. If you can only do one thing, we hope that you'll prioritize the joy of worshiping the Lord together on Sunday morning.

– Mark Davis, Senior Pastor

Connect to Christ AND ONE ANOTHER

In John 15, Jesus gives us a beautiful vision of a healthy group of believers. Drawing from the rich biblical imagery of God's people being like a vineyard, Jesus reveals Himself as "the true vine," the only one in whom true life is found (v. 1). And if we are connected to Jesus by faith, we are also immediately and intimately connected with every other believer as fellow branches (v. 5). Therefore, the most foundational thing we do is to be God's means to connect people to Christ and His Church personally.

At PCPC, we have a wide variety of ministries that are designed to help you connect to Christ together with other believers with whom you have something in common. If you are not already engaged in one of these ministries, we hope God will lead you into one this fall.

CHILDREN

kids@pcpc.org • pcpc.org/kids

We want to provide a safe, loving environment as we connect our youngest disciples to the love of God through Jesus Christ. Our hope is to partner with parents as they prepare their children for a lifetime of abiding in Christ and extending Him to others. We have a nursery for newborns 3 months through 3-year-olds (Lower Level), classes for preschoolers 3 years old through kindergarten (Level One), and classes for elementary-age kids 1st through 5th grade (Level Two).

SMCs meet on Sundays at 9:15 & 11:00 a.m.

Abide in Christ

The most repeated word in John 15 is, "abide." With this word Jesus gives us a promise leading towards a calling. To abide in Christ means to live with Him (promise) so that we would become like Him (calling). Or in doctrinal terms, from our union with Christ (justification) flows deliberate and fruitful communion with Christ (sanctification). For us as a church, this means we abide in Jesus through His Word, the sacraments, and prayer so that we may experience and extend His transforming presence in our lives.

At PCPC, we seek to develop resources to help believers abide in Christ individually, as families, and as a congregation. We hope you will make use of some of these materials, events, and ministries as you seek to abide in Christ and serve His Church.

Extend Christ

One of the great surprises of John 15 is that Jesus entrusts His mission as the vine to us as branches. Just as the Father appointed Him, so now Jesus has appointed us (vv. 15-16). This means extending His self-sacrificial love to one another (vv. 12-13, 17). And this means going out to proclaim that the Kingdom of God has come in Jesus Christ, and to pray that God would bear much fruit through us (vv. 15-16). For us as a church, this means the third and most far-reaching thing we do is to extend Christ.

EPHESIANS: WALK IN LOVE – SERMON SERIES

This fall, we will continue our study of the book of Ephesians, focusing on chapters 5 and 6. Together, we will explore how to "walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave Himself up for us" (Ephesians 5:2a). We'll learn what it means to put on the whole armor of God, standing firm "against the schemes of the devil" (Ephesians 6:11). We encourage your faithfulness to worship with us each week and to invite family and friends to join us. Each week's sermon will be posted on YouTube, podcast, and pcpc.org for you to share with others.

COMPANION COURSE ON PRAYER

The Companion: A Guide to Life with God is a brand new core curriculum resource for Christian Formation at PCPC. The Companion provides curated resources on six topics that are essential for every Christian: Prayer, the Bible, Doctrine, Renewal, Evangelism, and Generosity. The Companion Course on Prayer will be offered as a part of Midweek this fall (Sept. 16–Nov. 18). Senior Pastor Mark Davis will be co-teaching this with PCPC's Theologian in Residence Dr. Mark McDowell. The Companion Course on Prayer will guide you through the Lord's Prayer to strengthen both your theology and practice of prayer. See more about the Companion at companionguide.org and register (pcpc.org/events) ahead of time to participate in the Midweek Companion Course on Prayer.
