Your Advertising Is the Reason We're Here

By Anesa K. Chastain Jones - Advertising Insights with Anesa
Oklahoma's Choice Weekly

In many publications, advertising helps pay for the content. At Oklahoma's Choice Weekly, advertising is the content.

The auctions, businesses, services, classifieds, and special offers are what we bring together for readers to browse. Your ad is part of the reason to open the publication in the first place.

That matters when you're deciding where to spend your advertising dollars. You want a place where your business has a clear purpose and readers have a reason to look.

Give readers something to discover

People don't always know what's available until they see it.

An upcoming auction might have exactly the equipment someone needs. A local business might offer a service a reader assumed they'd have to drive out of town to find. A classified might connect an item sitting unused with someone who has been looking for it.

Putting those opportunities together makes browsing worthwhile. Someone may come looking at auctions and leave with the phone number for a contractor. They may notice a business they've driven past for years without realizing what it offers.

Your ad can start that connection.

Make your space count

The most useful ads answer the questions a potential customer is likely to have: What do you offer? Where are you? Why should they contact you? What should they do next?

Include the details that help someone act. If you're promoting an event, make the date and location easy to find. If you're advertising a service, explain what you can help with. If there's a deadline, don't bury it.

An attractive ad gets attention. Clear information gives that attention somewhere to go.

More ways to put your business in view

Oklahoma's Choice Weekly publishes digitally every week, with a print edition on the last Thursday of each month distributed across 14 Oklahoma counties.

Our weekly digital publication keeps fresh advertising opportunities in front of readers, while our monthly print edition gives them something they can pick up, browse, keep, and share.

We also promote advertisers through social media pushes, giving their messages additional opportunities to be seen between editions. Our new website, coming soon, will expand the ways readers can explore businesses, classifieds, and auctions.

Each of those efforts serves the same purpose: helping people discover what our advertisers have to offer.

At OCW, your advertising is central to what we do. You have something to sell, a service to provide, or an event people should know about. Our job is to help you get the word out.

What do you want more people to know about your business? Let's put it in our next edition. Contact Oklahoma's Choice Weekly for our rate card and help choosing an advertising option that fits your goals and budget. Need an ad designed? We can help with that, too.

Monster Meatball Sliders

These miniature monsters come armed with saucy meatballs, melted mozzarella teeth and olive eyes. Fortunately, they're much easier to defeat than they look.

Monster Meatball Sliders

Ingredients

- 12 cooked Italian meatballs
- 2 cups marinara sauce
- 12 slider rolls, split
- 6 slices mozzarella cheese
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- ½ teaspoon garlic powder
- ¼ teaspoon Italian seasoning

- 24 pimento-stuffed green olives
- 24 wooden toothpicks

OCW KITCHEN TIP

Add the olive eyes after baking so they remain upright and recognizable. Warn younger guests about the toothpicks before serving.

Directions

1. Preheat the oven to 375 °F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Combine the meatballs and marinara sauce in a saucepan. Heat over medium-low heat until the meatballs are hot.
3. Cut each mozzarella slice in half, then trim one edge into uneven points to resemble monster teeth.
4. Place the bottom halves of the slider rolls on the baking sheet. Add one meatball and a spoonful of sauce to each roll.
5. Position one piece of mozzarella over each meatball with the pointed edge facing outward. Add the top halves of the rolls.
6. Combine the melted butter, garlic powder and Italian seasoning. Brush over the tops of the rolls.
7. Bake for 8 to 10 minutes, or until the rolls are toasted and the cheese is melted.
8. Place one olive on each toothpick. Insert two olive-topped picks into every slider to create the eyes. Remove toothpicks before eating.

Recipe adapted from Little Monster Meatball Sliders by Mashed.

Makes: 12 sliders
Prep time: 15 minutes
Cook time: 20 minutes
Total time: 35 minutes

OCTOBER / BREAST CANCER AWARENESS MONTH

Every story matters.

For those in treatment. For those living beyond it.
For those living with metastatic breast cancer.
For the people we remember and the families beside them.

Awareness is a beginning. Action matters all year.

A pink ribbon can start a conversation. Let it lead to a screening appointment, a question about a change, or a practical offer of help. Breast cancer affects real people in our communities, and support should last beyond October.

01 / MAKE A SCREENING PLAN

Know when to go.

For women at average risk, the U.S. Preventive Services Task Force recommends a mammogram every two years from ages 40 through 74. Screening looks for cancer before symptoms appear. [1]

Your personal history, family history and other risk factors may call for a different plan. Ask your clinician when to begin, how often to screen and whether additional tests are appropriate. Discuss the benefits and possible downsides of screening. [1, 2]

Already noticed a change? Tell your clinician promptly. Do not wait for your next routine mammogram. [3]

02 / PAY ATTENTION TO CHANGES

Know your normal.

Contact a healthcare professional about a new or unusual breast change, including: [3]

- A lump in the breast or underarm; thickening or swelling.
- Skin dimpling, redness, irritation or flaking.
- A nipple that pulls inward, or discharge other than breast milk.
- A change in breast size or shape, or breast pain.

These changes can have causes other than cancer. Getting them checked is how you find out. Some breast cancers cause no symptoms. [3]

You do not have to do this alone.
Information. A ride. A meal. A listening ear. Support can take many forms.

03 / SHOW UP FOR SOMEONE

Make the offer specific.

Try “Can I bring dinner Tuesday?” or “Would a ride to your appointment help?” Listen without trying to fix every feeling. Follow their lead about visitors, updates and privacy. Keep checking in after the first rush of concern.

04 / TAKE THE NEXT STEP

Bring your questions.

Ask: When is my next mammogram due? Does my family history change my screening plan? What happens if a result needs follow-up? Write down your questions and make sure you know how and when you will receive results.

The month of October has been home to many historical events over the years. Here's a look at some that helped to shape the world in October 1926.

- Electrosurgery is performed for the first time on October 1 in Boston. Dr. Harvey Cushing performs the operation, during which he used an electrosurgical device to remove a mass from a patient's head.
- The first in-flight fire in airline history occurs aboard an Air Union airliner on October 2 in England. All seven people aboard are killed, and the plane crashes in Leigh, Kent.
- Father Charles Coughlin begins his weekly sermons broadcast on WJR in Detroit on October 3.
- Pennsylvania's blue laws are invoked in Pittsburgh on October 6. The laws, which were initially adopted in 1794, ban all Sunday sports in the city.
- On October 6, Babe Ruth of the New York Yankees becomes the first player to hit three homeruns in a World Series game. The feat would not be matched for 51 years, when another Yankee, Reggie Jackson, hits three homeruns against the Los Angeles Dodgers.
- Benito Mussolini declares himself the head of Italy's national militia on October 9. The declaration gives Mussolini personal command of all armed forces in Italy.
- Babe Ruth is caught trying to steal second base with two outs in the 10th inning of Game 7 of the World Series on October 10. Ruth's caught stealing occurs while Lou Gehrig is in the on-deck circle and is the final out of the Series, which is won by the St. Louis Cardinals.
- A notice in the Soviet newspaper Izvestia on October 11 announces that three men, including Leon Trotsky, would be placed on trial for being overly critical of the Communist Party at a recent party conference.
- Thieves use ladders to scale the wall of the CondŽ Museum in Chantilly, Oise, France, on October 12. The thieves ultimately escape with the CondŽ Diamond, which once belonged to 17th century general Louis, Grand CondŽ.

- On October 13, the United States Supreme Court rules that government directives to change clocks for daylight saving time are constitutional.
- In comments published in the Daily Express on October 13, British Labour Party MP Alfred Salter says that drunkenness is a frequent sight in the House of Commons.
- The A.A. Milne book Winnie-the-Pooh is published and released to the public in Great Britain and the United States on October 14.
- Thousands attend a ticker tape parade in New York City welcoming Queen Marie of Romania to the United States on October 18.
- Charles Edward Anderson Berry is born into a middle-class family in St. Louis on October 18. Berry would eventually come to be known as 'Chuck Berry' and become one of the pioneers of rock and roll.
- Architect Frank Lloyd Wright is arrested at a cottage in Wildhurst, Minnesota, on October 20. Wright, who was staying at the cottage with a Montenegrin woman, Olga Milanoff, who was not his wife, is arrested for adultery.
- The Sun Also Rises, Ernest Hemingway's first novel, is published on October 22.
- On October 24, illusionist Harry Houdini performs for the final time. After the performance, which Houdini delivered in spite of a 104 F fever, Houdini collapsed in his dressing room and was subsequently taken to the hospital.
- Pope Pius XI carries out the consecration of six Chinese bishops on October 28. The consecration marks the first time since the 17th century that Chinese Roman Catholics are elevated to the bishopric by the Vatican.
- Benito Mussolini survives the fourth attempt on his life in 12 months on October 31. Mussolini is shot at by 15-year-old anarchist Anteo Zamboni in Bologna, but the bullet fails to pierce his body. Police subsequently allow a mob to lynch Zamboni on the spot.
