UNIFORM LOOK BOOK

St Hilda's
ANGLICAN SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

FEEL PROUD IN YOUR UNIFORM

Girls, you all know how much I enjoy fashion. Every piece I put on, I wear with pride. How I present myself each day is important to me. And, I want you to feel this way about your school uniform.

I know, what you're thinking. "But Mrs Johnston, a school uniform is so boring."

But here is the thing. A uniform is so much more than something you put on each morning. Let me tell you why.

Wearing a uniform tells us something about your tribe. It tells the outside world that you are proud to be a St Hilda's student. It tells your community that you present yourself with pride. It shows your parents that you are grateful for their emotional (and financial) investment in you. And it shows respect to those who walked in your shoes before you, our Old Scholars, who are still passionately loyal to our School.

This Look Book will give you a few tips on how to make sure your uniform looks in top shape and ensures you're not caught out by any nasty uniform infringement conversations. We've also included a couple of uniform hacks to make it easier to keep your uniform looking good.

Let's work together to ensure our uniform standards continue to be upheld, instilling the pride we all share in our wonderful school.

Go Saints! I know you will make me proud.

MRS JOHNSTON'S TIPS

TIP 1
CLEANING YOUR BOATER

Did you know that you can clean your boater in the dishwasher? Place it on the top rack and run it through the glass cycle. You'll be surprised how it comes out looking like new.

TIP 2
KEEP THOSE SHOES SHIP-SHAPE!

It's always best to use a good quality brown shoe polish to keep your shoes looking great, however, for those times where you're on the run, a bit of moisturiser on some paper towel will also give them a little bit of extra shine!

TIP 3
HEM IT

The length of your skirt does matter. Check your skirt each term to make sure it reaches just above your knee. If it doesn't, it's time to take down the hem or go up a size.

TIP 4
CONNECTING YOUR BOATER AND YOUR HEAD

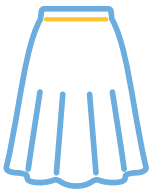

Did you know your boater is supposed to be worn on your head when you're travelling to and from school, including when you visit Gill Street Cafe? Not in your hands as a clutch, in your bag or thrown on the back seat of the car? That's including when you are dropped off and picked up from school.

TIP 5
REALISING THERE IS A BUTTON AT THE BOTTOM OF YOUR SHIRT

Did you know that there is a button and a buttonhole at the bottom of your school shirt? It's there for a reason. It reminds us that each morning they need to come together. Remember to glance down and check each morning, so that your shirt is not flapping in the breeze.

TIP 6 ROLLING YOUR SKIRT UP IS SO LAST YEAR

In Senior School, you will notice the trend of skirt rolling entering the uniform vocabulary. This is your moment to defy the trend and be independently you. Following the rolling trend is boring.

TIP 7 A SCARF IS NOT A REPLACEMENT FOR A TIE

In winter months, sometimes girls can confuse a scarf with a tie. They are two different pieces of uniform. The tie is compulsory, the scarf is optional (not a replacement). Remember your tie each day. It will save you a lot of time avoiding teachers who can see the missing tie from a distance!

TIP 8 ACCESSORISE!

Mrs Johnston loves her earrings. But she earned the right to wear them by sticking to the rules when she was at school.

WHAT'S PERMITTED?

- ✓ One small pair of gold or silver stud earrings in the lower lobe.
- ✓ Watches with brown, black, blue, white, gold or silver bands.
- ✓ School regulated ribbons, scrunchies or headbands.

WHAT'S NOT PERMITTED?

- × Necklaces
- × Hoop earrings, diamond earrings or dangly earrings
- × Piercings other than in the lower earlobe
- × Coloured scrunchies, elastics or ribbons
- × Nail polish, make-up, non-transparent blemish patches or false lashes
- × Tattoos
- × Hair dye
- × Wearable electronic devices

TIP 9 BLAZER RECOVERY

You're in a rush and you've scrunched your blazer into your school bag before you head home. Trouble is those creases are a curse. Pop it on a coat hangers and have a long, hot shower. Presto - wrinkles removed.

TIP 10 WE ARE HERE TO HELP

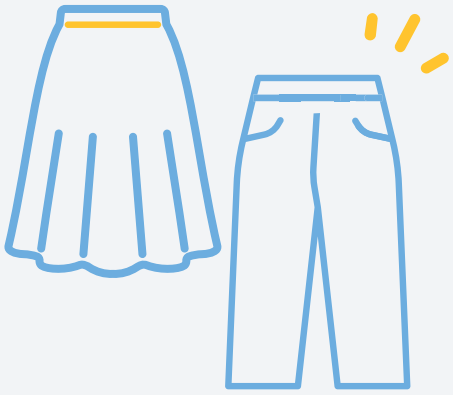

Ever had one of those days? Scrunchie has gone missing, there's only one brown shoe in your sports bag, your tie was left on the bus.

Rather than wait for a uniform infringement, come and see the Student Wellbeing Centre and they will help you fix that uniform challenge.
