Message from the Head

It has been so lovely to welcome the girls back to school after the half-term break. School is once again full of their wonderful energy, enthusiasm, and smiles as we kick off the second half of the Autumn Term.

Please do keep a close eye on the school diary over the coming weeks. This half term is always exceptionally busy with a wide array of activities, events, and performances leading up to the end of term, and we want to ensure you don't miss a thing.

Looking ahead to the festive season, it is time to begin collecting items for our annual Secret Santa Shop and the boxes are in the entrance lobbies. This is a fantastic opportunity to either recycle unwanted gifts or make the most of any "buy one, get one free" (BOGOF) offers you might spot!
All donated items must be new and unused. The girls love shopping for a wide range of family members, so gifts suitable for parents, grandparents, and siblings of all ages are very welcome.
We look forward to sharing a wonderful, busy, and festive few weeks ahead with your daughters.

I want to take this opportunity to wish a very happy Diwali to all our families celebrating at this time. May this festival of lights bring joy, peace, and prosperity to your homes! Have a great weekend everyone!

Message from the Head Girl

Hello everyone and welcome back. I'm sure this will be another amazing half term at Charlotte House, and I can't wait to see what we all accomplish. I hope you all had a nice holiday and are well rested.

Good luck to the students taking part in the General Knowledge Quiz next week, I'm sure you'll all do amazing!

This week I have some interesting facts based on bonfire night which was on Thursday.

1.Celebrating Bonfire Night was a legal requirement under an act of Parliament until the law was finally changed in 1959!
2.Fireworks and bonfires were banned during the First and Second World Wars because blackout laws were needed to stop enemy planes from spotting cities.
3. Still today, guards still search the cellars of the Houses of Parliament in case any gunpowder remains hidden.
4.Guy Fawks was actually not the main person involved in the plot, instead the person behind it all was a man named Robert Catesby who planned it!

Message from the Sports Captain

On Tuesday 3rd November Form IV competed in a 4 a side netball match against Reddiford School. You scored lots of goals and you all cheered each other on, I could hear you all from inside the school! I am very proud of you all, you all played an excellent match.

Aswell as this sports fixture, on Thursday 5th November Form V competed in a 7 a side netball match against Reddiford School. You showed resilience when times were tough.

Excellent work!
