MEET THE HOST

John Taiwo Ojiebun, popularly known by his stage name Bigjohnny Da Talkative, is a full-time entertainer, comedian, MC, content creator, and event producer.

He hails from Edo State, Nigeria, but was born and raised in Oyo State, Nigeria. In late 2023, Bigjohnny moved to the United Kingdom in search of a better life for himself and his family. Starting over in a foreign land, far from home, was not just a humble beginning; it was a tough and challenging journey. However, through exceptional hard work, resilience, and consistency, things gradually began to improve.

Since moving to the UK, he has met many amazing people who have supported his journey. He continued building his career as an MC and entertainer by hosting his friends' parties, supporting events, and appearing on comedy tours. Bigjohnny later launched the Olori Ebi content series on TikTok, which completely transformed the visibility and reach of his brand in the UK. The platform helped him connect with a wider audience and established him as a recognisable personality within Nigeria and the Nigerian diaspora community.

In July 2026, he produced and hosted Owambe Fest, his first major show in the United Kingdom. Inspired by the vibrant Nigerian party culture, Owambe Fest was created to give Nigerians and lovers of Nigerian culture an authentic experience filled with comedy, music, culture, and entertainment.

The successful debut of the event marked a significant milestone in his UK entertainment journey and further solidified his position as a rising event producer and cultural ambassador within the community.

Speaking about himself, Bigjohnny says, "I am someone who loves excellence. I am quite shy, actually, and my professional personality is totally different from who I am if you meet me on a random day." This passion for excellence continues to drive his work, shaping both his content and the experiences he creates for his audience.

THANK YOU MESSAGE TO ATTENDEES

"On behalf of the Owanmbe Fest team, I would like to sincerely thank everyone of you for coming out and being part of this unforgettable experience. Whether you travelled from near or far, your presence, energy, and support made this event a huge success.

Thank you for believing in the vision, embracing the culture, and bringing the vibrant Owambe spirit to life. Seeing so many people come together to celebrate, laugh, dance, and create memories is truly appreciated.

Your support means more than words can express, and we do not take it for granted. We hope you had an amazing experience and left with beautiful memories. This is only the beginning, and by God's grace, we look forward to bringing you an even bigger and better Owambe Fest in the future.

Thank you once again for your love, support, and attendance. We look forward to celebrating with you again soon."

Thank You to Our Vendors

"A big thank you to all our vendors for your support, partnership, and dedication to Owambe Fest. Your contribution played a vital role in making this event a success. We truly appreciate your trust, professionalism, and commitment, and we look forward to working with you again in the future."

MC CROWN

The MC Who Chose Brotherhood Over the Spotlight

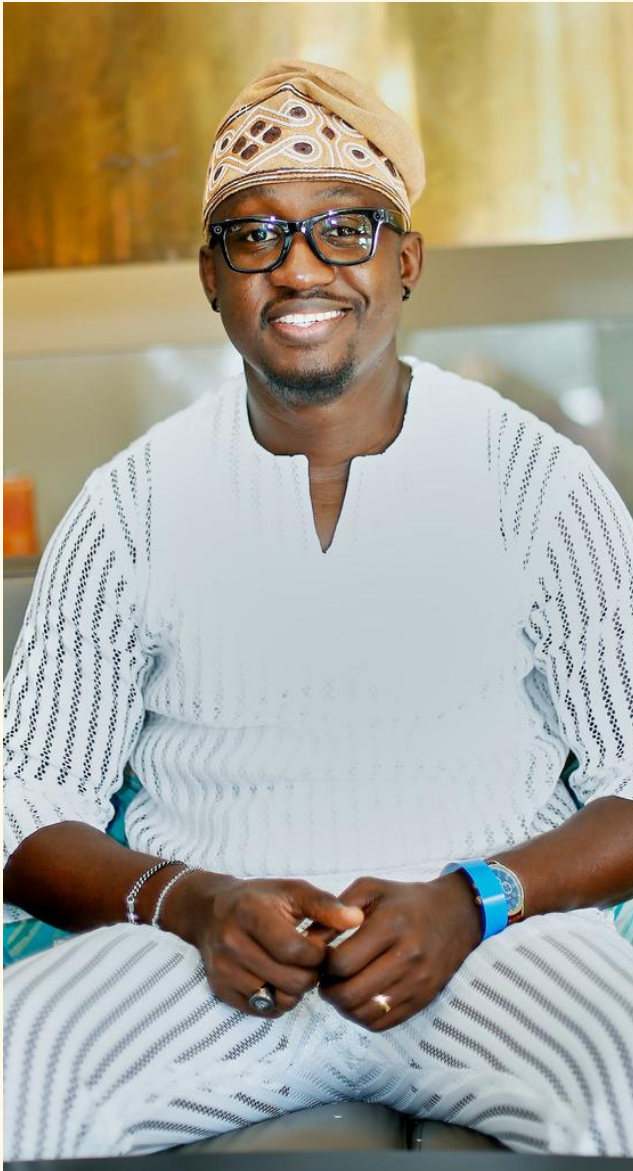

In the world of entertainment, it is one thing to grace the stage as a master of ceremonies, but it is another thing entirely to step back from the microphone and stand firmly beside a friend. This year at Owambe Fest, MC Crown made a remarkable choice that spoke volumes about his character.

Though invited to perform in his usual electrifying fashion, as the event drew closer, the reality of hosting a first-ever Owambe Fest in the UK began to set in. There was understandable tension around ensuring that every detail was perfectly executed, coupled with the uncertainty of guest turnout. Recognising the pressures facing the host, he chose to put performance aside. Instead, he declined the spotlight and stepped into the role of the host's PA for the day. It was a decision that surprised many, yet perfectly reflected the depth of their relationship and his unwavering commitment to the success of the event.

MC Crown possesses a special inbuilt ability to connect with people, inspire confidence, and bring positive energy wherever he goes; he proved that leadership is not always about being seen; it is often about serving.

His presence behind the scenes was just as impactful as any performance could have been, offering guidance, encouragement, and steadfast support throughout the festival.

His actions reminded everyone that true greatness is not measured by the number of times one takes the stage, but by the willingness to stand beside others and help them shine. In choosing service over recognition, he demonstrated humility, loyalty, and a special inbuilt gift for uplifting those around him.

At Owambe Fest, he may not have performed as the MC the audience expected, but he delivered something even more memorable a powerful example of friendship, selflessness, and genuine support. His contribution became one of the festival's most inspiring stories, proving that sometimes the most important role is not in front of the crowd, but beside the person leading it.

THE PHENOMENAL SEGE

The event was expertly anchored by this vibrant and energetic MC whose charisma kept the audience engaged throughout. With a commanding stage presence, infectious enthusiasm, and impressive dance moves, he effortlessly set the tone for the celebration. His ability to connect with guests, maintain the momentum of the program, and keep the atmosphere lively added an extra spark to the Owambe Fest experience.

There's a special magic on the red carpet when the guest's energy matches the host's. The conversation flows effortlessly, the smiles are genuine, and every moment feels natural and engaging. Oluwaseyi Omiyale hosted the red carpet; he created that connection that turns a standard interview into a memorable experience. When personalities align, confidence meets charisma, resulting in authentic interactions, lively exchanges, and unforgettable moments that captivate both the audience and the guests.

FAMILIES & RELATIONSHIPS

IYA IBEJI AND HER REFLECTIONS

Not just family; classic, industrious, and a shining example of unity and excellence.

Experiencing the richness of African traditions while far from home is a deeply meaningful moment that many traditionalists dream of witnessing.

Editor's note

One historical truth established at Owambe Fest was the undeniable presence of Bigjohnny's infectious laughter, a sound that echoed across the room and instantly brought people together. It was more than laughter; it was a reminder of the warmth, joy, and sense of belonging that defined the day.

What made the festival even more remarkable was seeing families, friends, and complete strangers connect as though they had known one another for years. In a place far from home, where experiencing culture in its purest, motherland-inspired form can sometimes feel like a luxury, Owambe Fest became a bridge bringing people back to familiar roots, cherished traditions, and precious memories.

For a few unforgettable hours, the venue was transformed into a home away from home, filled with music, vibrant colours, heartfelt reunions, and the unmistakable spirit of celebration. The atmosphere was a beautiful reminder that culture is not merely inherited; it is lived, shared, and celebrated together.

Perhaps the greatest testimony to the festival's success is that, long after the music faded and the last guests departed, conversations had already begun about the next one. Many attendees are already anticipating the next Owambe Fest, eager to relive the experience and create even more cherished memories. That anticipation speaks volumes not just about the event itself, but about the community it has helped to build.

And in nature, that is the true essence of Owambe Fest: not simply bringing people together, but making them feel like family.

couple festival

Owambe Fest rekindled more than tradition; it reignited romance. With elegance in every step and love shining in every glance, this couple made a breathtaking appearance that left hearts enchanted.

EBI IS THE AFRICAN GREATEST TRADITION

A happy woman beside a man can make him feel like he'll live a thousand years more. At Owambe Fest, this beautiful couple brought that saying to life. Rekindling the spark with every smile and glance, they lit up the celebration with their undeniable chemistry. Draped in elegance and bound by love, they made an unforgettable entrance beautifully blending culture, romance, and the timeless joy of togetherness.

A man who built his house with rhythms

DJ A-Tech may bring the rhythm to every celebration, but beyond the music and the applause, his greatest joy arrived with him at the Owambe Fest the soundtrack of his life, his family. In a world that knows him for the beats he creates, this moment reminds us that the sweetest harmony is found in the love and presence of those closest to him.

THE TWINS AND FASHION

Anyone can wear fashion, but it takes a true designer to bring her own vision to life. Gracefully dressed in her own creation, she stood as both the artist and the masterpiece, a perfect reflection of creativity, confidence, and style.

HIGHLIGHTS

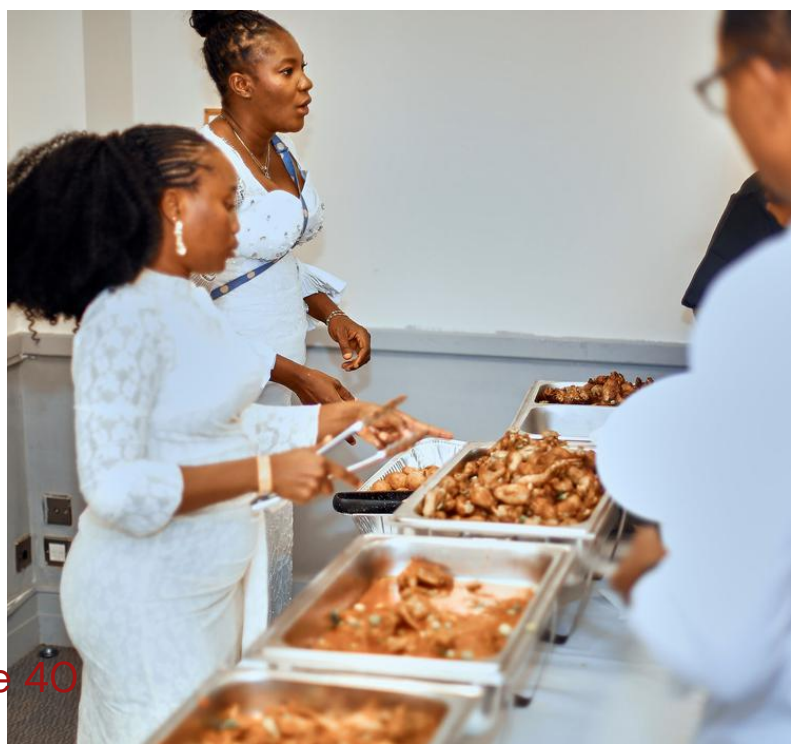

CUISINE

No Owambe celebration is complete without great food, and Owambe Fest delivered an authentic taste of Nigeria. Guests enjoyed a delicious variety of dishes, including the ever-popular Jollof Rice and Fried Rice, as well as traditional favourites such as Amala served with rich Gbegiri and Ewedu.

There was also Gari and Epa (groundnuts) for those who wanted a simple but nostalgic Nigerian snack. The diverse menu added to the cultural experience, giving attendees a true taste of home and making the celebration even more memorable.

The culinary experience was complemented by a selection of fresh fruits, offering guests a refreshing balance of flavours throughout the event.

Introduction

Welcome to "Whispers of the Heart: A Journal for Solace and Secrets."

Within these pages, you'll find a sanctuary for your thoughts, a haven for your emotions, and a canvas for your innermost reflections. This journal is more than just ink on paper; it's a treasured space where your secrets and musings can dance freely, unburdened by judgment or constraint.

In a world that often rushes by, I invite you to pause here, and explore the quiet corners of your mind, and to give voice to the thoughts that only you hold. This journal is a friend who will listen, a mirror that will reflect your essence.

Here, you're encouraged to be genuine, to dig deep into your soul, and to uncover the truths that may be hidden even from yourself. Let your words flow without inhibition, for this journal is a canvas for your emotions, your desires, and your vulnerabilities.

May these pages become a mirror to your growth, a canvas for your dreams, and a repository of your resilience. As you embark on this journey of self-discovery and reflection, remember that you are not alone. "Whispers of the Heart" is your companion, a silent witness to your thoughts and a sanctuary of solace.

With each stroke of your pen, you breathe life into your unspoken truths, turning them into a tapestry of wisdom and understanding. This journal is yours, a treasure chest for your secrets, a vessel for your dreams, and a vessel for your healing.

Embrace the solitude, embrace the whispers, and let your heart's song resonate within these pages.

With warmth and encouragement.
