DIWALI MAHOTSAV 2026 | BHARATIYA TEMPLE & BHARATIYA CULTURAL CENTER

May the light we share bring joy to every home.

President's message

Dear Devotees, Supporters, and Friends,

On behalf of the Bharatiya Temple and Cultural Center, I extend my warmest wishes to you and your family for a joyous, healthy, and prosperous Diwali. Diwali is one of the most cherished celebrations in our culture, symbolizing the eternal triumph of good over evil, light over darkness, and knowledge over ignorance. May this sacred Festival of Lights illuminate your lives with happiness, good health, peace, success, and spiritual fulfillment.

We cordially invite you, your family, and friends to join us in the Diwali Mahotsava celebrations at Bharatiya Temple from November 6 through November 15. These festivities provide a wonderful opportunity for our community to come together in devotion, fellowship, and celebration during this auspicious season. We will also present a special Diwali cultural evening on November 14 featuring "The Life Journey of Prabhu Ram - Mangal Swagat to Ayodhya", a musical Ramleela and dance production that beautifully captures the values of dharma, devotion, and victory.

For detailed schedules, sponsorship opportunities, and program information, please visit our website at www.b-temple.org.

This year has been especially significant for our organization. We proudly celebrated the Grand Opening and Inauguration of the Bharatiya Learning Center, marking a historic milestone in the growth and expansion of the Bharatiya Temple campus. The new facility includes twelve modern classrooms, a spacious cafeteria and dining hall, a Havan Mandapam/Open Pavilion, and expanded parking facilities, creating new opportunities for education, cultural enrichment, and community engagement for generations to come.

For more than twenty-five years, Bharatiya Temple and Cultural Center has served as a spiritual and cultural home for the diverse Indian community in our region. Together, we have built a vibrant institution where Hindu and Jain traditions flourish, cultural heritage is celebrated, and future generations remain connected to their roots. Through the continued growth of Bharatiya Vidyalaya, serving nearly 200 students, and the success of our Academic Enhancement Program, we remain committed to nurturing both spiritual and educational excellence.

The continued success of Bharatiya Temple is made possible through the unwavering support of our members, donors, sponsors, volunteers, and well-wishers. On behalf of the Board of Trustees, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to everyone who has contributed to the Learning Center project and to the countless volunteers who’s selfless seva strengthens our temple and uplifts our community throughout the year.

As we celebrate this sacred season, let us reaffirm our commitment to faith, family, service, and community.

May Goddess Mahalakshmi bless your home with abundance, happiness, good health, peace, and prosperity. May the divine light of Diwali guide us all toward a brighter and more harmonious future.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Nand Todi

The light we celebrate

Dhanteras

Dhanteras honours both prosperity and well-being. Lakshmi and Kubera are worshipped for abundance, while Dhanvantari, associated with Ayurveda, reminds devotees that health is a precious form of wealth. Cleaning homes, lighting lamps and making auspicious purchases express readiness to welcome blessings. The day encourages gratitude for what sustains the household and the thoughtful use of its resources.

Kali Chaudas

Also known as Naraka Chaturdashi or Chhoti Diwali in many regions, this observance recalls the defeat of Narakasura by Shri Krishna and the triumph of good over oppression. Early oil baths, cleansing and lamps mark purification and renewal. Regional traditions also honour Kali or Hanumanji. These practices invite devotees to overcome fear, harmful habits and the darkness of ignorance.

Maha Lakshmi Puja

On Diwali's new-moon night, families welcome Maha Lakshmi with lamps, rangoli, offerings and prayer. In many traditions, Shri Ganesha is worshipped for wisdom and auspicious beginnings. Chopda Pujan blesses account books as businesses begin a fresh cycle. The celebration also recalls Shri Rama, Sita and Lakshmana's return to Ayodhya in many communities, linking outward illumination with righteousness, hope and inner renewal.

Nutan Varsha & Bhai Dooj

Nutan Varsha marks the Gujarati New Year, beginning on Kartik Shukla Pratipada. Temple darshan, elders' blessings and greetings of "Nutan Varsha Abhinandan" renew relationships and express hope for the coming year. Bhai Dooj is a separate observance celebrating the bond between sisters and brothers. Family visits, shared meals and prayers for one another's well-being affirm affection and mutual care.

Annakut & Govardhan Puja

Annakut means "mountain of food": lovingly prepared vegetarian dishes are offered to God in gratitude for nourishment and abundance, then shared as prasad. Govardhan Puja recalls Shri Krishna lifting Govardhan Hill to shelter the people and cattle of Vraja from Indra's storm. The story teaches trust in divine protection and appreciation for the natural world that supports community life.

Gyan Pancham, Skanda Shashti & Chhath

Gyan Pancham is a Jain observance honouring sacred knowledge and scriptures through worship and study. Skanda Shashti honours Lord Murugan (Skanda), whose victory over Surapadma signifies the overcoming of ignorance and selfishness. Fasting, prayer and Soora Samharam recall this spiritual struggle. Chhath honours Surya Dev and Chhathi Maiya. Fasting and arghya offered to the setting and rising sun express gratitude for life and prayers for the family's well-being.

Traditions vary by region and family. For BTI observance dates and timings, see the 2026 program.

Diwali in the Jain tradition

BTI Jains

Diwali, commonly celebrated as the "Festival of Lights," holds profound spiritual importance in Jainism. For Jains, Diwali is not merely a festival of lights and festivity—it marks one of the most sacred events in their religious history: the attainment of moksha (liberation)by Lord Mahavira, the 24th and last Tirthankara.

Lord Mahavira's Nirvana

According to Jain tradition, on the new moon night of the Kartik month (October–November) in 527 BCE, Lord Mahavira attained nirvana at Pavapuri, in present-day Bihar. His liberation is considered a momentous event, symbolizing the soul's ultimate triumph over karma and the cycle of birth and death.

On that night, it is believed that the heavens lit up with countless divine lamps to commemorate this spiritually momentous occasion. Since then, Jains light diyas and lamps on Diwali to honor the spiritual radiance of Lord Mahavira's teachings, which continue to guide souls toward liberation.

Spiritual Practices During Diwali

For Jains, Diwali is a time of introspection, spiritual renewal, and devotion. The festival emphasizes inner light over external celebration.

Key observances include:

Fasting and Prayer: Many Jains observe fasts for two days, offer prayers, and engage in meditation to purify the soul and reflect on Mahavira's path.

Lighting of Lamps: Diyas symbolize the eternal light of knowledge, dispelling the darkness of ignorance and honoring Mahavira's enlightenment.

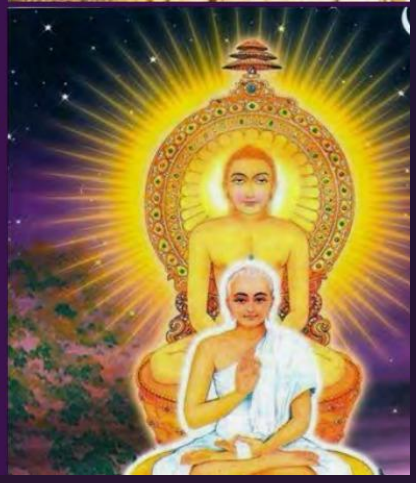

Scripture Recitation: Diwali also marks the day when Gautam Swami, Mahavira's chief disciple, attained keval gyan (omniscience). Jains read sacred texts such as the Kalpasutra and Uttaradhyayan Sutra, which contain Mahavira's final teachings.

Charity and Forgiveness: Acts of generosity, compassion, and forgiveness are emphasized, reflecting Jain values like ahimsa (non-violence), self-restraint, and detachment from material desires.

The Deeper Meaning

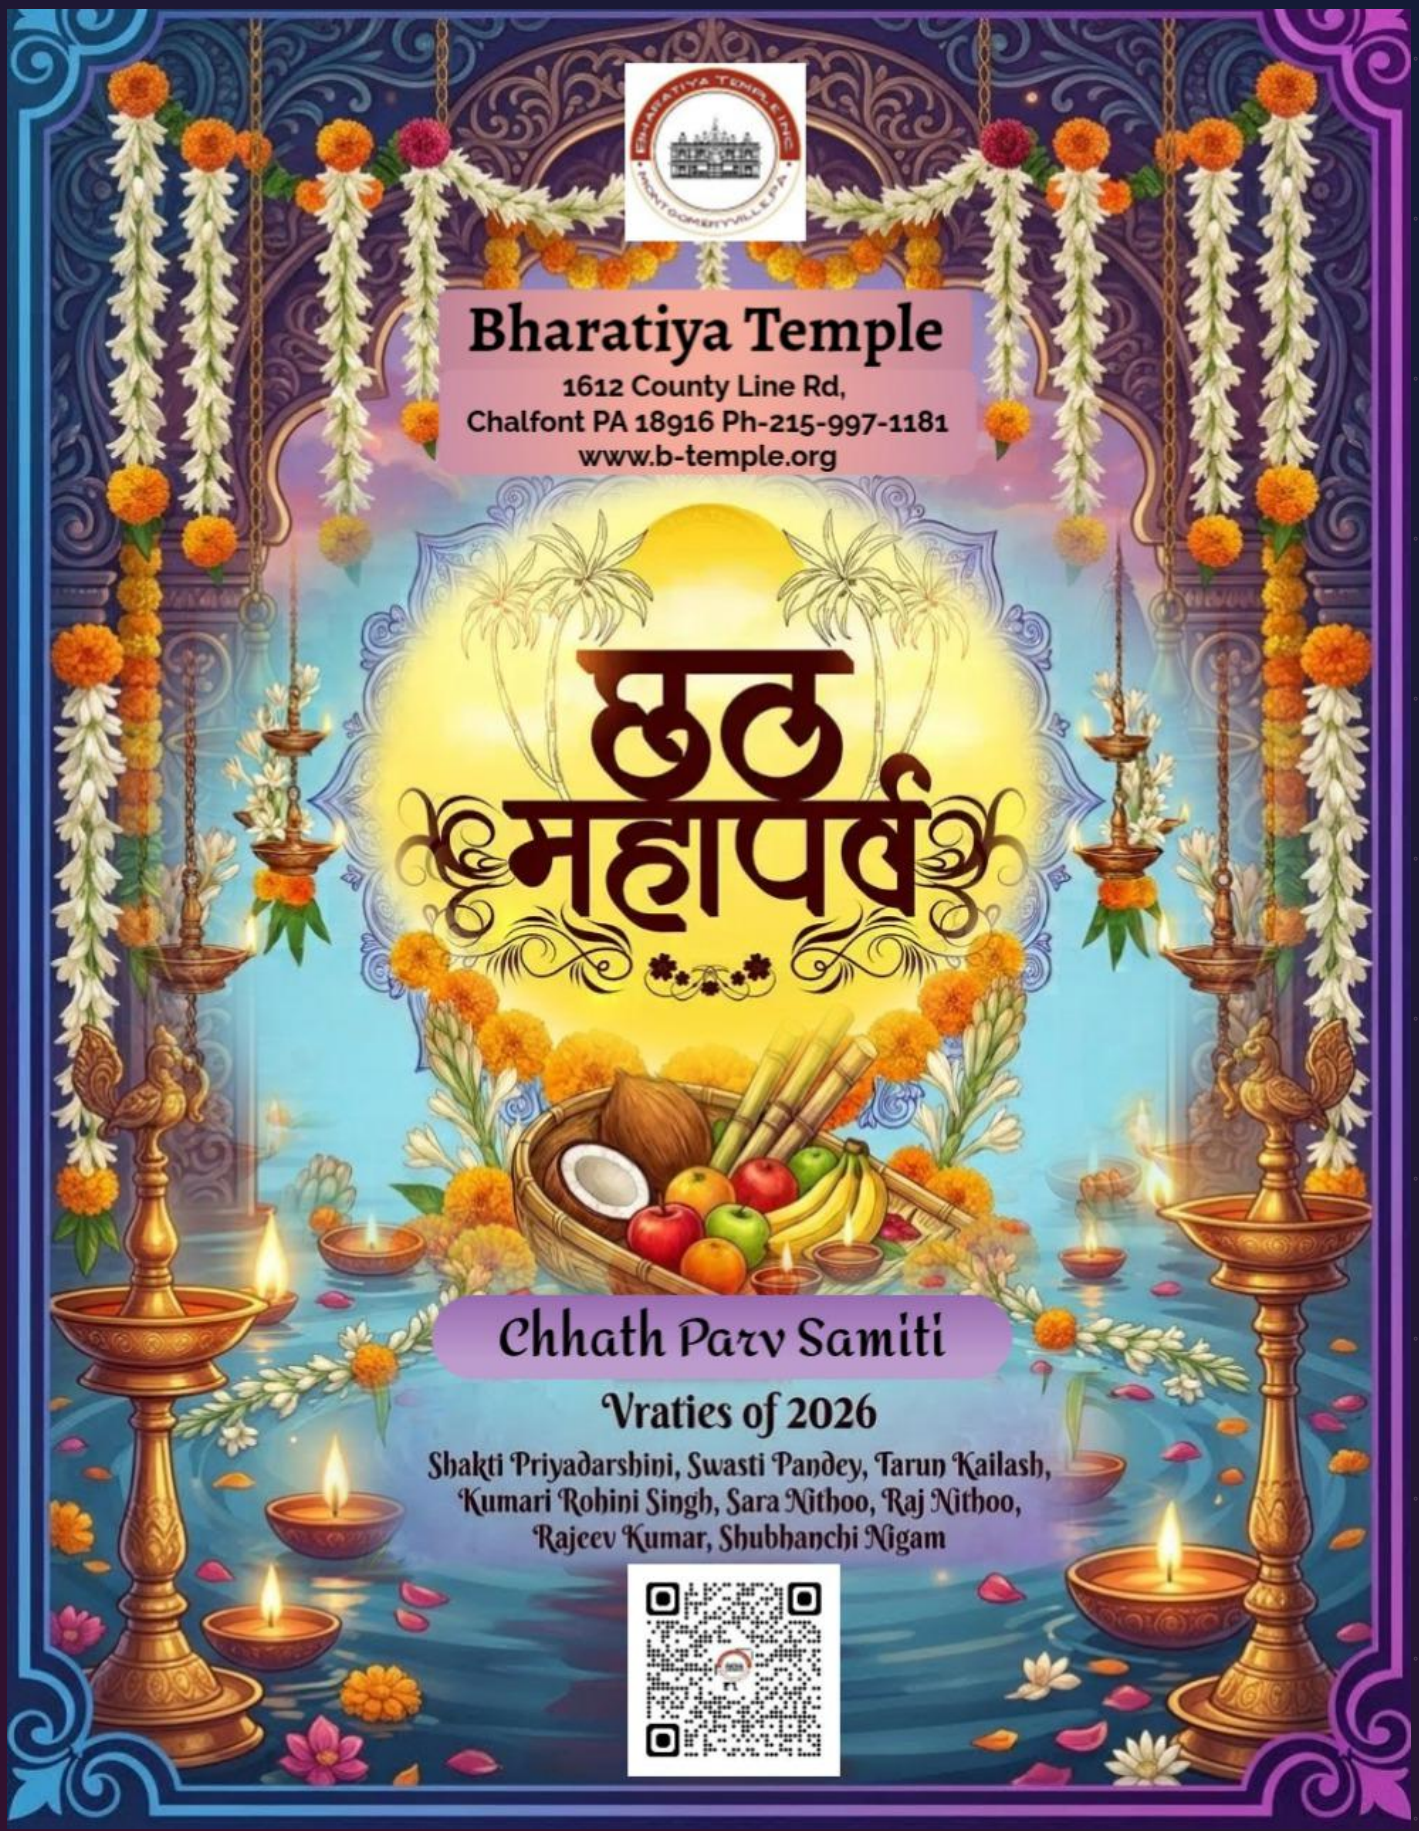

In Jainism, Diwali is not about external festivities—it is a solemn yet uplifting observance dedicated to inner transformation. Lighting lamps symbolizes igniting the inner flame of wisdom. The festival serves as a powerful reminder that the true goal of life is liberation (moksha)—freedom from the cycles of birth and death, achieved through right faith, right knowledge, and right conduct, known as the Three Jewels of Jainism.

Conclusion

Diwali in Jainism is a deeply spiritual occasion that commemorates the nirvana of Lord Mahavira. While homes may shine with the glow of lamps, the festival's true purpose is to illuminate the inner path of self-realization. It encourages Jains to transcend worldly attachments, cultivate compassion, and walk the path of liberation through self-discipline, non-violence, and enlightenment.

Bharatiya Vidyalaya

The 2026–27 academic session (August 2026 thru May 2027) has started with great enthusiasm among students, parents and volunteers. With 187 students already having registered, Bharatiya Vidyalaya continues to thrive as a vibrant center for spiritual, language, and cultural learning. Student sessions run from 9:30 am to 12:20 pm on Sundays. Following the main program, enrichment classes for Geeta chanting are held from 12:20 pm to 12:45 pm.

New beginnings at the Bharatiya Learning Center

Our Bharatiya Learning Center has proven to be an optimized learning environment. Classrooms are fully equipped with advanced noise-proof walls to minimize distractions alongside interactive smartboards that enhance student engagement. Teachers have reported improved focus and engagement.

A glimpse into a typical Sunday

The day begins at 9:30 am with a morning assembly where students and volunteers engage in yoga, prayers, and Bhagavad Geeta chanting. Occasionally, students deliver short talks on religion, culture, or language. At 10:00 am, students attend religion classes, Hindu or Jain, followed by language classes at 10:55 am. Occasionally, culture classes replace these religion and language sessions to provide a broader perspective on Indian heritage (e.g., festivals, arts, history). We are proud to offer seven Indian languages: Gujarati, Hindi, Kannada, Marathi, Sanskrit, Tamil, and Telugu. These are offered at various levels, based on proficiency. Students and parents participate in Aarati at 11:50 am.

While students are in class, parents have the opportunity to engage in their own learning and wellness. Options include a Bhagavad Geeta discussion group led by volunteers or a concurrent yoga and meditation session for quiet reflection.

Special programs & activities

Online Sanskrit program

3 children and 6 adult students attended the program's weekly Tuesday evening Zoom sessions. Volunteers provided comprehensive learning resource documents and class recordings for home review. Students built conversational skills by constructing and recording sentences with English meanings. Curriculum activities featured memorizing, writing, and reciting traditional shlokas and verses.

Summer program: July 6-10

Thirteen students attended the five-day in-person summer program held from July 6th to July 10th. Catering to participants from first grade through high school, dedicated volunteers guided a well-rounded curriculum combining traditional practices like yoga, shlokas, and prayers with engaging hands-on experiences. The week featured a vibrant mix of creative arts, storytelling, traditional dance, cooking, and outdoor sports, creating a memorable and enriching experience for all participants.

India Independence Day: August 15

Our community joyfully celebrated India’s Independence Day with enthusiastic student performances. Students showcased their talents through national song of the US and India and fashion show, reflecting universal unity. Families gathered in large numbers to honor the historic milestone together.

Open House: September 13

The Open House welcomed families for an overview of Vidyalaya’s spiritual, cultural, and language programs. Discussions covered Hindu and Jain traditions, student guidelines, and community engagement. A Q&A session allowed parents to connect and clarify expectations for the year ahead.

Families and students gather attentively in the assembly hall during the Open House orientation.

Vidyalaya in our community

PGF procession dance: September 14

Our students delivered a vibrant and energetic group dance performance during the PGF procession, adding a wonderful festive spirit to the celebration. Dressed in colorful traditional attire, the young performers danced gracefully amidst an enthusiastic gathering of families and community members.

Vidyalaya stall at PGF: September 19-20

Bharatiya Vidyalaya hosted a vibrant interactive stall during the Philadelphia Ganesh Festival. Students enthusiastically engaged visitors by sharing their learning experiences and answering community questions. Operating in rotating shifts, the booth provided a wonderful platform for cultural representation and meaningful connection.

Stay connected

Volunteers: Supported by over 60 dedicated teaching and non-teaching volunteers.

Senior Students: During 2026-27, 13 students in Grade 9 and above are gaining teaching experience.

Library Services: Offers a wide selection of books for children and adults to support home learning. The popular genres are mythology and children’s stories.

Our ethos

क्षणशः कणशश्चैव विद्यामर्थं च साधयेत् ।
क्षणे नष्टे कुतो विद्या कणे नष्टे कुतो धनम् ॥

One should acquire knowledge by utilizing every moment, and wealth by saving every single grain. Once a moment is lost, where is the knowledge? Once a grain is lost, where is the wealth?

Academic Enrichment Program

49 STUDENTS | 11-WEEK FALL SESSION | THURSDAY EVENINGS

The Academic Enrichment Program (AEP) helps students grow into confident, curious mathematical thinkers. Through small-group instruction and challenges beyond the school curriculum, students develop logical reasoning, perseverance and the ability to explore more than one path to a solution.

An enriching summer

Introduction to Cryptography: A five-week course at the Bharatiya Learning Center introduced students to secret codes, historical ciphers, encryption and online security. Hands-on puzzles connected mathematical logic with the protection of digital information.

AMC 10 practice: Dr. Raghunath Khetan led four interactive, 90-minute virtual sessions in July. Students tackled timed sets of 15 past AMC 10 problems and compared different solution strategies.

A strong start to Fall 2026

The 11-week fall session welcomed 49 students, up from 40 last fall. A two-stage placement assessment on September 3 helped organize learners into focused instructional groups suited to their needs.

Classes now meet on Thursday evenings at the Bharatiya Learning Center. Google Classroom supports weekly homework, PDF submissions and grading, while class-specific WhatsApp groups keep families informed. The fall calendar also included a family social and parent-teacher meeting, with pizza, chess, Rubik's cubes and board games.

Learning supported by our community

Our sincere thanks go to the temple management for its classrooms, facilities and logistical support; to parents for encouraging learning at home; and to our instructors and volunteers for their preparation, mentoring and care. We are especially grateful to Dr. Raghunath Khetan for his guidance, summer coaching and continued commitment to AEP.

Learning that lights the way

In 2026-2027, AEP students are building confidence with timed problem-solving and creative thinking through five mathematics competitions.

Exploring mathematics through competition

MOEMS: Five monthly contests for elementary and middle school students build logical reasoning and analytical thinking. The first round is scheduled for November 19.

MATHCOUNTS: For Grades 6-8, this national program emphasizes speed, accuracy and collaborative problem-solving.

AMC 8: A nationally recognized contest for Grade 8 and below, emphasizing creative mathematical problem-solving.

Pi Math Contest (PiMC): The Euler Division serves Grade 5 and below; the Fermat Division serves Grade 8 and below.

Gauss Mathematics Contest: Offered by the University of Waterloo, this contest encourages creative thinking, primarily for Grades 7 and 8.

For AEP families: Please submit the signed School Eligibility Letter confirming whether your child's school participates in these exams, so competition registrations can be finalized.

Happy Diwali

From the Bharatiya Vidyalaya & AEP families

To our friends, temple families and the entire BTI community: may the light of countless diyas fill every home with happiness, good health and peace. May this auspicious season inspire our children to learn with curiosity, grow with kindness and share their gifts with others.

With gratitude to our teachers, volunteers and families, we wish you a joyful Diwali and a bright, prosperous year ahead.

Diwali through young eyes

Happy Diwali from our young community

Sharing light, joy and togetherness.
Wishing every BTI family a bright and joyful Diwali.
