Dick Tibbits, D.Min.
Forgive to Live

Dick Tibbits is a native of upstate New York. He graduated with a doctoral degree in psychology from Yale Divinity School/Andover Newton campus and a M.Div. degree from Andrews University Theological Seminary. Dick is an ordained minister and a licensed professional mental health counselor.

During his career Dick has been a pastor and youth director in Southern New England as well as an adjunct facility member for doctoral students at Andrews University and Fuller Theological Seminary. He has served as a hospital administrator at Kettering Medical Center, Loma Linda Medical Center and Advent Health. Dick has conducted original research on forgiveness and heart disease which he has presented at The National Institutes of Health, Harvard University, The Mayo Clinic, Duke University, and Stanford University.

Dick's published research demonstrates how practicing forgiveness can reduce blood pressure, thus improving heart health. He has developed a unique cognitive/behavioral approach to teaching people how to forgive. While the principles used are derived from the Bible, they are presented in a way that anyone, faith based or not, can benefit from practicing forgiveness by releasing the hostility that can build up over time when anger and hurt are retained over time.

He is the author of "Forgive to Live" which is currently printed in twelve languages (English, Spanish, Korean, French, German, Russian, Ukraine, Braille, Persian, Turkish, Arabic and Kurdish). Dick is also a co-author of a newly released book "The Stress Recovery Effect."

INSIGHTFUL UNDERSTANDING OF THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY

"Seventh-day Adventist believe that Ellen G. White had the biblical gift of prophecy. They compare her with what the Scriptures say about prophets in both the Old and New Testaments. A strong basis for their conviction is what Paul said about spiritual gifts in Ephesians, 1 Corinthians, and Romans. The Adventist view of the gift was also influenced to some degree by how her gift functioned in practice." Understanding Ellen White, p.12

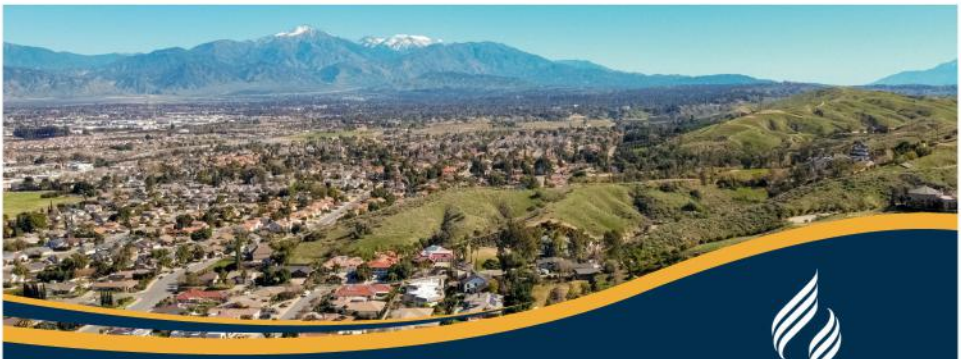

In general, prophets in the Old Testament represented God to people on earth (see Amos 3:7). He or she would receive instructions from God and in turn would pass that instruction to the people. (For two examples, see Exodus 4:14; 2 Chronicles 20:20). Prophets may have heard God's voice directly or God would give a vision or dream with the message (Numbers 12:6-8). How were people to know that someone consistently spoke or wrote from a genuine prophetic relationship with the true God? The authority of the true prophet in the Old Testament was confirmed by the quality and usefulness of the message (1 Samuel 3:19-21), by miracles (2 Kings 2:13-15), by the fulfillment of predictions (Jeremiah 28:9), by the consistency between their messages and the previous genuine revelations (Deuteronomy 13:1-5) and the the willingness to speak the message contrary to the desires of the listeners even to their own detriment (for example Jeremiah and Isaiah risked their lives to give unpopular messages from God).

Jesus said their would be prophets that God would send to His church to guide it (Luke 11:47-50). Paul mentioned the prophets as well in Ephesians 3:5.

Comparing Ellen White's ministry to these criteria for a prophet: There were times she spoke about future events but the primary emphasis was revealing God's viewpoint in specific situations and to provide warnings and encouragement for those she addressed. She often had to give unpopular messages and she bore the consequences of that. Like prophets of old, her life and ministry are spiritually useful to many as her messages are broad and consistent to previous revelation in Scripture. Understanding Ellen White, pp. 12-15

ADOPT A HOMEBOUND MEMBER
A VISITATION MINISTRY INITIATIVE

A simple but meaningful gesture, such as a visit, a phone call, or a chat, can make a difference, creating bonds of affection and continuous fellowship. We aim to support the emotional well-being of our members, seeking to fight their loneliness and minimize the effects of isolation and sadness.

"… thou art thy brother's keeper. Thou shouldest have a watchful care for thy brother, be interested for his welfare, and cherish a kind, loving spirit toward him. Press together, press together.'"
(Ellen G. White, 1T 113.3)

"The generous soul will be made rich,
And he who waters will also be watered himself."
(Proverbs 11:25; NKJV)

We invite you to join this vital ministry, and we pray that God will give us all a giving and loving spirit.
