NOTE

This work is still in progress. To know more about what happens next, you can check out my portfolio.

This project wouldn't have happened without the support of my family, my beloved cat Boogie (who recently passed away), and my friends Sonia, Akshada, Sayan, and others who helped me during MDP.

Lastly, I'd like to thank Satyam Sir (my mentor during this process) for his guidance, and Pranay and Avnish Sir for their valuable inputs.

BRAIN SOUP

They thought losing the internet would be the worst part. It wasn't.

Two screen-addicted siblings are forced to face real life when the internet suddenly breaks everywhere.

Bored and desperate, they head out to explore their weird little town... But something's off. People are strange. And nothing is what it seems.

A darkly funny story about boredom, curiosity, and what happens when you're forced to unplug.
