A hand is holding a cylindrical container, likely a food container or bottle. The container has a black lid with a white pattern of small 'C' shapes. The main body of the container is silver or light grey. A label on the container features a photograph of two lemons on a wooden surface. Below the photograph, the text 'Foodcontainer Porto C' and 'Conteneur alimentaire' is visible. The background is blurred, showing a kitchen setting with a wooden countertop and some green vegetables in the bottom left corner.
