Welcome to the Oshkosh Seniors Center

A Note From the Senior Services Manager

December, and the end of 2026, are here. It's been a great year, with well over 50,000 visits to the Oshkosh Seniors Center. Another record! The staff team and I have great things planned for 2027, so keep your eyes on The Current to see what comes next.

If you are looking for a way to make a direct, lasting impact on the future of the Oshkosh Seniors Center, I encourage you to make a gift to the Center. Sharing your time, resources, and involvement helps ensure we can continue providing the vital programs and services you rely on. Thank you for your support.

As January approaches, I also invite you to save the date: Wednesday, January 27, 2027, for the annual Winter Wellness Fair at the North facility. You'll be able to explore wonderful program partners and many great wellness opportunities.

See you by the River!

-Dan Braun

We wanted to say thank you for supporting the connection, wellbeing, and lifelong engagement for older adults in our community through the Oshkosh Seniors Center. Every day, our programs create opportunities to learn, socialize, stay active, and thrive. From physical therapy and nutrition assistance to creative workshops and education sessions, your support has created so many opportunities that turn into life-changing moments.

Jeff and Lori joined the Oshkosh Seniors Center this spring, hoping to find community, strength, and confidence in themselves (and each other). Lori says that "the programs that are offered are amazing. We are so glad we joined to meet new people and try different ways to stay active. My husband and I have bonded more and understand each other's strengths and abilities." Members like Jeff and Lori find that as they age, the little things matter most.

At times, aging can feel isolating and unstimulating. When coming to the Oshkosh Seniors Center, they find programs and opportunities made with them in mind. These programs are only possible with your support!

When you give the gift of community to the Friends of the Oshkosh Seniors Center, you are a champion for the wellness of seniors in our community and the resources that create the most change. Today, tomorrow, and for many years to come, you make a difference.
