BOOK BOYFRIENDS

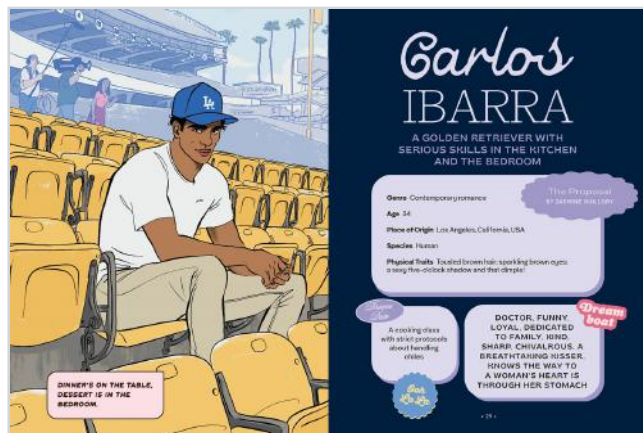

30 Fictional Men Who Are Better Than the Real Thing

BY NICHOLE PERKINS, ILLUSTRATED BY EMMA MUNGER

Spanning a sizzling range from romantasy kings to classic and contemporary heartthrobs who make our hearts race and our temperatures rise, this illustrated collection features thirty of the most swoon-worthy book boyfriends from across the literary canon who have ruined real men forever.

Delve into the epic world of book boyfriends with this cheeky illustrated compendium of literary hotties who feature in every book nerd's secret fantasy. From Mr. Darcy and Heathcliff to Xaden and Rhysand, feast your eyes on a buffet of sexy men, hot nerds, dashing faeries, slow-burn first crushes, rakish heartthrobs, brooding shadow daddies, sweet cinnamon rolls, dangerous dragon riders, and more.

With detailed analyses of their rock-hard abs and 100-watt smiles, their witty charm and smoldering stares, and their most quotable declarations of love, these irreverent and humorous profiles break down the reasons why these hunky heroes have captured our hearts and flooded our bookshelves.

Nichole Perkins is an author, poet, and podcaster who writes about the intersections of pop culture, race, sex, gender, and relationships. Her memoir Sometimes I Trip On How Happy We Could Be covers Black womanhood and sexuality, online message board communities, and the effects of pop culture on female desire.

CANCEL YOUR PLANS

Cozy Poems by Cats

BY FRANCESCO MARCIULIANO

Curl up with this purrrfectly cozy collection of poems written by cats, from the author of the beloved and bestselling I Could Pee on This series.

Cats will let you know when they want you to stay put and get comfortable. Whether it's with a deep purr, by making biscuits or dreaming contentedly in your lap, or by finding a way to sit on your head in bed, they have made their plans, which means you'll need to cancel yours.

Of all the feline love languages (slow blinks, being closely underfoot, knocking over mugs), one of the deepest is poetry. Ever observant, cat poets offer new classics in verse in this collection, such as "Our Space," "Snugglier," "I Shove My Head into Your Shoe," and "SO. MANY. PILLOWS." This lyrical combination of affection and cattitude is catnip for cozy readers and cat lovers alike.

FLAMINGO ESTATE PLEASURE PRINCIPLES

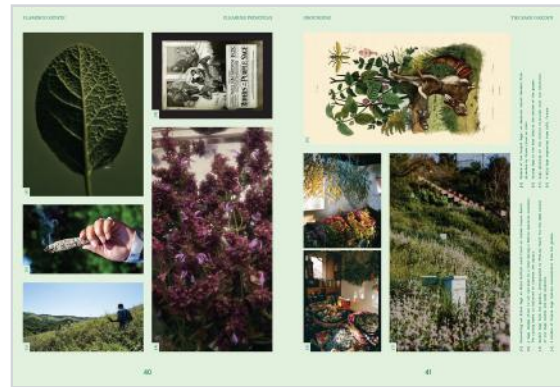

An Almanac from the Garden

BY RICHARD CHRISTIANSEN

An irresistible and alluring modern almanac from world-renowned Flamingo Estate, celebrated for its luxurious seasonal and sustainable produce and products. This is the must-have guide to enhancing life with nature's gifts all year long—through planting, harvesting, cooking, or finding wellbeing through natural remedies.

Equal parts field guide, art book, and love letter, this handbook shares stories, recipes, and gardening knowledge for every month of the year. Page after page, it offers practical wisdom and quiet inspiration for gardeners, nature lovers, and anyone looking to put their phone down, get their hands dirty, and find pleasure amidst the stresses of modern life.

Author Richard Christiansen, drawing from his own home and garden, guides us through the seasons—exploring the people, plants, and stories that shape our gardens. And invites us to fall back in love with nature in the most ordinary, sensual ways: through working, eating, and smelling what grows on our own hillside.

Australian-born gardener and entrepreneur Richard Christiansen is the founder of Flamingo Estate, a covetable Los Angeles-based brand that invites people to reconnect with the natural world through food, fragrance, and ritual, as featured in a wide range of outlets, including The New York Times, Architectural Digest, Food & Wine, Vogue, The Ellen DeGeneres Show, goop, Forbes, and many others.

JINKX & DELA: HOW THE QUEENS MADE CHRISTMAS

BY BENDELACREME, WITH JINKX MONSOON,
ILLUSTRATED BY ANIKA ORROCK

From RuPaul's Drag Race superstars Jinkx Monsoon and BenDeLaCreme comes a wild and wonderful illustrated holiday romp for festive adults!

Hailed by Entertainment Weekly as the "reigning queens of Christmas," Jinkx and DeLa have captured the zany fun and mid-century modernist/pop art aesthetic of The Jinkx & DeLa Holiday Show, their internationally acclaimed musical comedy, in a must-have holiday book. This charmingly irreverent celebration of the season follows the adventures of the two drag queens as they find themselves mysteriously trapped in a book—with only one way out: together!

Through quippy rhyming text and candy-colored illustrations, they slalom through the challenge of creating a winning Christmas story—dashing through double entendres and many costume changes along the way. Bright, bawdy, and heartwarming, this giftable book brings the subversive joy of the beloved queer holiday tradition into the homes of fans who can't make it to a tour stop or to anyone else who just wants to experience that very special Jinkx and DeLa cheer any time of year.

Jinkx Monsoon and BenDeLaCreme are two of the most beloved and successful alumni of the Drag Race franchise, and they continue to break new ground across the entertainment industry.

THE SECRETS OF THE SÉANCE SOCIETY

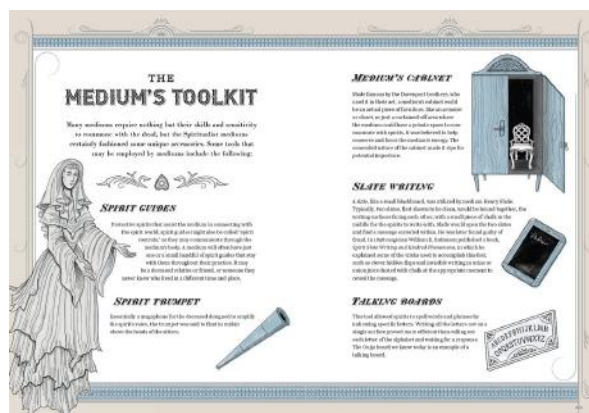

Illustrated True Stories of Talking to the Dead

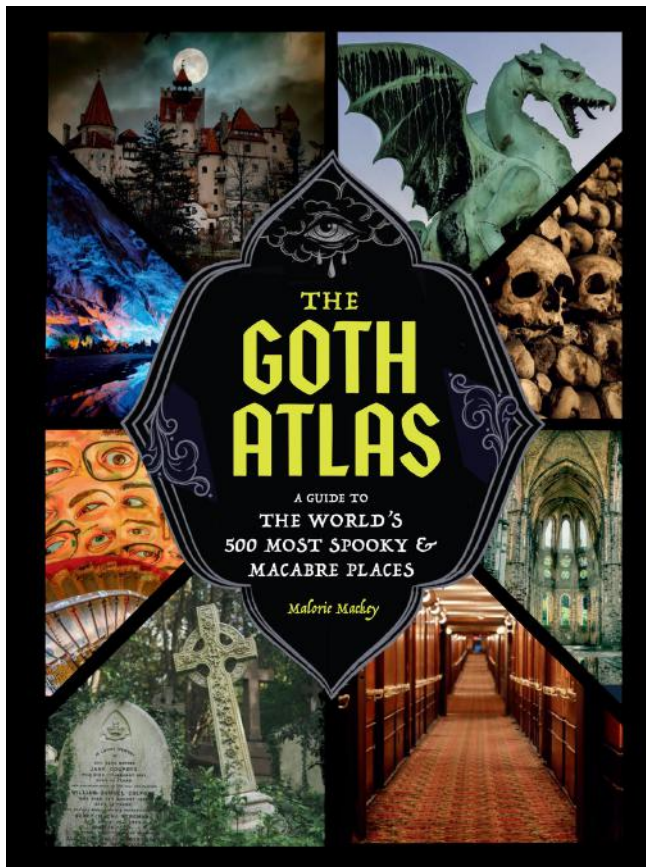

BY LISA PERRIN

A gorgeous and delightfully spooky compendium of famous (and infamous) spiritual mediums who communicate with the dead. Plus, it includes an entertaining and instructive medium's manual and usable Ouija board!

From the author-illustrator of the bestselling The League of Lady Poisoners, this lavishly illustrated treasury considers these haunting questions: What are spirits? Where can we find them? And how can we contact them? In answer, Lisa Perrin recounts, with respectful sincerity and a healthy dose of humor—complemented by clever Victorian-inspired portraits, icons, and lettering—the advent of Spiritualism in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.

The book spotlights the era's larger-than-life characters who, unlike many Spiritualist mediums who shared their gifts privately with clients, found their way onto stages and into newspaper headlines, and ultimately explores the deeper question of why the living world is endlessly trying to connect with the dead.

THE GOTH ATLAS

A Guide to the World's 500 Most Spooky and Macabre Places

BY MALORIE MACKEY

A brilliant visual guide to the most haunting, fascinating, and exquisitely macabre places around the world.

Find your travel inspiration from the dark worlds of ancient mythology, Victorian mourning traditions, gothic literature, and classic horror movies. Here, for the first time, is a glorious atlas curated to appeal to anyone mesmerized by humankind's ancient fascination with death, mystery, and the supernatural.

Organized by continent, this photo-rich travelogue offers guidance on 500 mysterious, uncanny, and gloriously goth destinations, both infamous and unexpected. Locations include:

- Ancient cities and castles, such as Caerphilly Castle in Wales and Himeji Castle in Japan, both famously populated by spirits
- Abandoned and haunted edifices, including Philadelphia's fortress-like Eastern State Penitentiary, where Al Capone was once incarcerated
- Museums and monuments celebrating global death rituals, such as the Museum of Anthropology's Room of 10,000 Ancient Skulls in Lima, Peru
- Eerie art installations, including Mexico City's disquieting Island of the Dolls
- And many more.

Malorie Mackey is a host, adventurer, professional explorer, and full-time writer-editor, with a focus on travel, adventure, the paranormal, and the macabre. She created and runs her own travel and adventure blog, MaloriesAdventures.com, where she showcases the world's most unusual locations. Malorie's work has helped bring her unique travel show, Weird World Adventures, on Amazon Prime to life.

MOCHITSUKI

60 Sweet and Savory Mochi Recipes

BY KRISTEN MORITA

PHOTOGRAPHS BY CHARITY BURGGRAAF

A joyful love letter to mochi—the delightfully chewy rice cakes that bounce between sweet and savory—conveyed through sparkling narrative and 60 irresistible recipes.

Explore the history, culture, and tradition of mochi and mochitsuki (community mochi-making events) in this visually rich cookbook. Author Kristen Morita, who shares recipes inspired by her heritage on her Mochi Mommy blog, invites us all to join her on a “warm, squishy, delicious journey” as she demonstrates mochi-making and the integral role of mochi in Japanese cuisine and expat communities from Hawai‘i to the mainland United States.

Learn how to make fresh, authentic mochi at home, and then use it as an ingredient in daifuku (small round mochi stuffed with sweet filling), Hawai‘i-style butter mochi, savory dishes, and American desserts with a little extra bounce, such as donuts, muffins, and brownies.

Kristen Morita, a fourth-generation Chinese Japanese American, learned to make mochi at a young age from her grandmother. She started her blog, Mochi Mommy, in 2019, where she shares recipes inspired by her heritage. She lives in Seattle with her family.

BRAISED, SIMMERED & STEWED

More than 115 Recipes for the Slow Cooker

BY ROBB WALSH
PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTONIS ACHILLEOS

A global celebration of the beloved slow cooker, this cookbook features 115+ recipes for busy people who love good food and want delicious and varied one-pot meals.

Take back your time in the kitchen but eat like a king. Robb Walsh, three-time James Beard Journalism award winner and author of the bestselling Legends of Texas Barbecue Cookbook, has turned his expertise to the slow cooker. In these pages, tough cuts of flavorful meat are braised to falling-off-the-bone perfection, beans simmer until fragrant and smoky, delicious enough to move from side dish to main course. Curries, chilis, congees, soups, sauces, stocks, and grains take on extra flavor, cooking low and slow with minimal input from the cook.

Are you ready to have standout dishes from Europe, Asia, and North and South America on your table with minimal effort? Braised, Simmered, and Stewed, seasoned with personal anecdotes and travelogue throughout, is your tour of slow-cooked meals that have stood the test of time, and an indispensable resource for your cookbook shelf.

Robb Walsh is a three-time James Beard Journalism Award winner and one of the founders of Foodways Texas. He was the restaurant critic at the Houston Press from 2000 to 2009 and has written for newspapers including the Washington Post and magazines including Gourmet, Food & Wine, Eating Well, and Saveur. Walsh's short films on folk foodways have been awarded laurels at several film festivals. He currently resides in County Clare, Ireland.

UKRAINE

Recipes and Stories from Kyiv to the Black Sea

BY ANNA VOLOSHYNA
PHOTOGRAPHS BY JASON PERRY

Experience the joy and resilience of Ukrainian cuisine in this visually rich, travelogue-style cookbook filled with 100 traditional and modern recipes that highlight the comforting dishes, distinctive flavors, and time-honored techniques that make this food so extraordinary.

Ukrainian chef Anna Voloshyna traveled across the diverse regions of her homeland—from the mountains to coastline, cities to grasslands, forests to wine country—collecting recipes, stories, and friendships to answer the question: What is Ukrainian cuisine? In these pages, she takes you along on this appetizing and fascinating journey.

Vivid and poignant storytelling transports you to the boisterous streets of Kyiv where food carts sell aromatic sausages to cool root cellars, a fixture in Ukrainian households, their walls stocked with jars of preserved and fermented deliciousness.

Anna Voloshyna, chef, food stylist, and writer, was born and raised in Southern Ukraine and later immigrated to Oakland, California, with her husband. She teaches cooking classes in the Bay Area and hosts pop-up dinners focusing on Ukrainian food.

THE BARTENDER'S LIBRARY

A Guide to Curating Spirits and Creating Cocktails—
From the Multnomah Whiskey Library

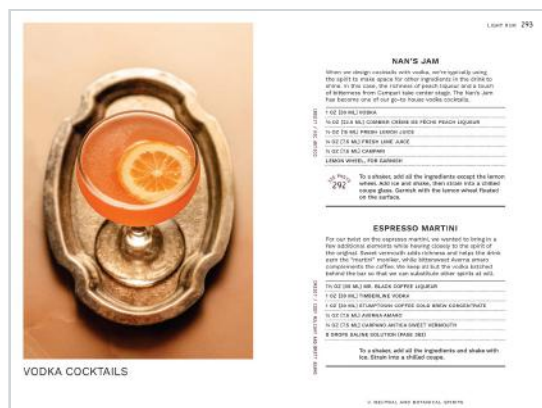

BY BRETT ADAMS AND JACOB GRIER

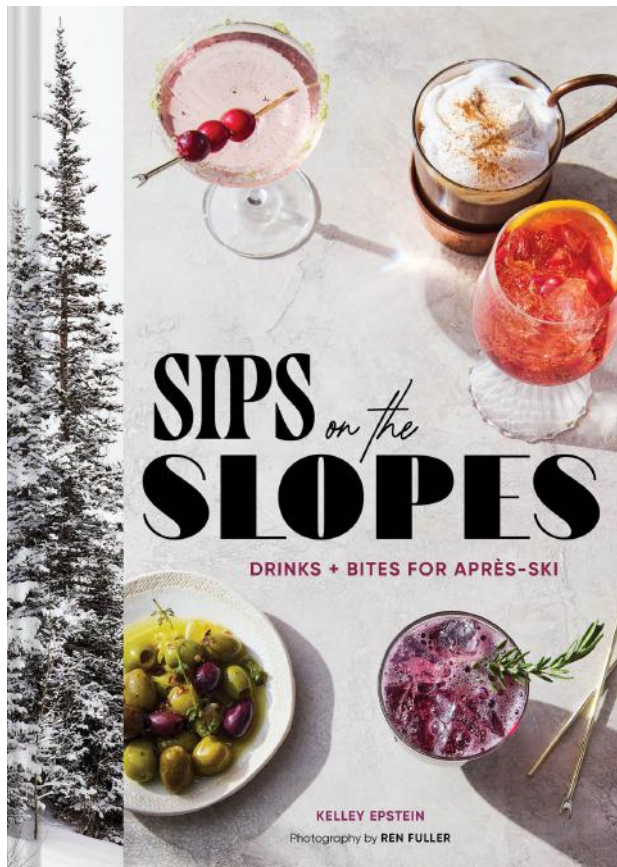

The ultimate guide to whiskey, brandy, rum, agave spirits, gin, vodka, and more—and how best to drink them. From Portland's Multnomah Whiskey Library spirits educators and authors of Raising the Bar.

Here is the ultimate guide to curating your spirits and building your home bar. Knowing the process of making spirits, from fermentation to distillation and manipulation, is key to understanding what goes into the bottle, how to select them, and what you're tasting. Seasoned bar professionals Brett Adams and Jacob Grier walk you through the fundamentals of spirits—from fermentation and distillation to cask aging—so you can pick bottles confidently and curate your collection.

The Bartender's Library is a comprehensive handbook and a tool for discovering what you like and how best to drink it, whether as a pour, a flight, or a cocktail. Included are:

- Guides to curating and collecting individual spirits
- Specific flights to help you explore categories and develop your palate
- Recipes for cocktails, including the Whiskey Library's signature old fashioned
- And much more.

SIPS ON THE SLOPES

Drinks + Bites for Après-Ski

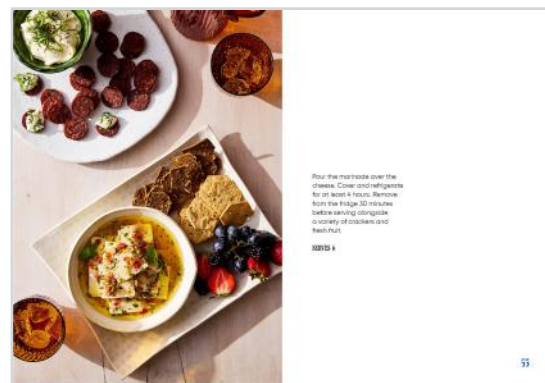

BY KELLEY EPSTEIN, PHOTOGRAPHS BY REN FULLER

A cozy cocktail book with 40 recipes for drinks and light bites perfect for an après-ski or winter cocktail hour.

Après-ski is about enjoying a drink with friends after a day in the snow. Whether you're hitting the slopes or cozied up by the fireplace, here are delicious drink recipes with and without alcohol, coded for easy reference: a green circle (mocktail), blue square (low-ABV), or black diamond (cocktail), with variations to customize each.

- Relax with a low-ABV Pomegranate Après-ol Spritz after skiing
- Whip up Tangerine Margaritas and S'more Runs Martinis to keep the party going
- Warm up with a Cognac Spiked Coffee or White Hot Chocolate
- Opt for a refreshing mocktail, like the Citrus Kombucha Fizz

Also included are easy recipes for salty and sweet snacks—such as Lemon Pepper Mixed Nuts, Parmesan Thyme Popcorn, and Snickers-Stuffed Dates—because no après-ski is complete without a bite to go with your drink. Gorgeous photography of mountain-town life will appeal to skiers, snowboarders, and snow lovers, making this a perfect holiday gift. Cheers!

Kelley Epstein is a personal chef based in Park City, Utah, and author of Après All Day. She's been cooking for local families, seasonal visitors, Sundance Film Festival-goers, and her two sons and husband for 20+ years. On her website, Mountain Mama Cooks, Kelley shares approachable, wide-ranging, and family-friendly recipes from her high altitude kitchen.

MARVEL THE COLOR OF MARVEL

More than 60 Years of Iconic Comics Art

BY MARVEL ENTERTAINMENT
INTRODUCTION BY DOUGLAS WOLK

A beautifully curated visual journey through Marvel Comics, this gorgeous book explores the essential role of color in graphic storytelling, from subtle mood shifts to bold, iconic moments.

Experience Marvel's dynamic storytelling in an eye-opening spectrum of color with this gallery of comics covers, pages, and panels. Featuring more than 300 images from across Marvel Comics' history, this book carefully and boldly assembles moments in which color accentuates a story beat, conveys emotion, draws the viewer into a moment, guides the eye, and more.

Sequenced from white through the full rainbow spectrum to black, the collection offers a unique visual celebration of how Marvel colorists use color—both individually and in combination—to shape meaning and mood. Whether it's the play of a costume hue, a subtle or sudden shift in environment, a burst of power, or a hint of menace, each selection makes clear the power of color in every Marvel Comics story.

THE LITTLE BOOK OF JAPANESE STILLNESS

Find Serenity Through the Practice of Seijaku

BY MIKI FUJITO

A beautifully illustrated guide to finding calm through Seijaku—the Japanese art of stillness and tranquility.

In a fast-paced world defined by constant distraction and digital noise, the Japanese philosophy of Seijaku offers a powerful antidote: intentional stillness.

In this charming guide, physician and wellness teacher Dr. Miki Fujito introduces readers to the art of cultivating tranquility amid the exhausting demands of modern life. Drawing on centuries of cultural wisdom, she distills essential Japanese concepts into practical, restorative practices for today.

Discover timeless principles such as:

- Ma: honoring the space between actions or objects
- Shikata ga nai: the practice of letting go
- Yutori: the understanding of spaciousness

Through gentle rituals, reflective prompts, and accessible guidance, this book offers tangible ways to reduce stress, reset perspective, and move through the world with greater clarity and grace.

Dr. Miki Fujito is a Japanese medical doctor, author of The Japanese Wellness Lab on Substack, and founder of Japan Retreat, an initiative dedicated to sharing Japan's quiet wisdom around health and longevity.

STORIES IN THE SEAMS

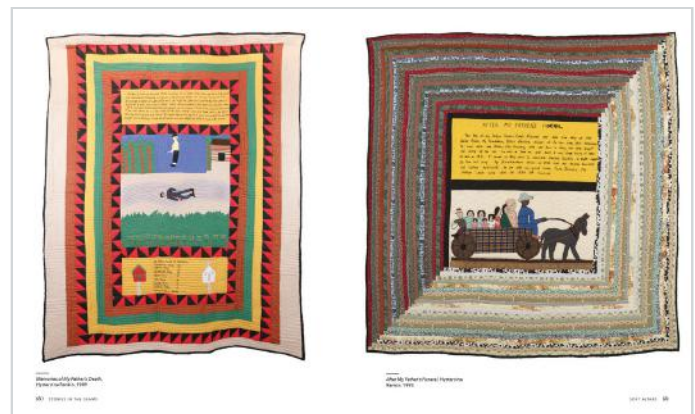

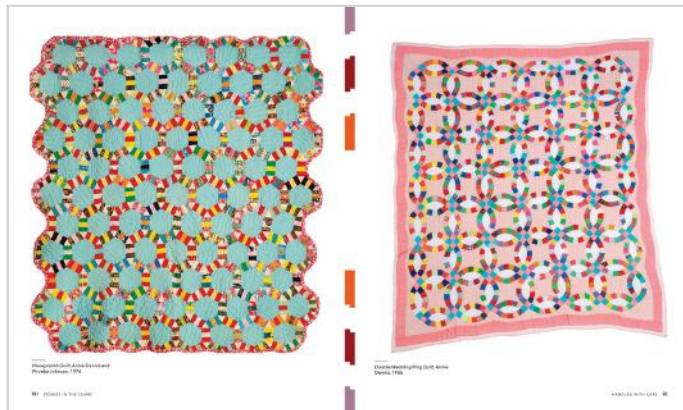

A People's History of Black Quilts and Their Makers

BY SHARBREON PLUMMER

A sweeping survey of Black quilting in America with stunning archival photographs of quilters and quilting bees, as well as full-page reproductions of both significant historical quilts and bold contemporary creations.

This compelling volume gives Black quilting traditions long-overdue attention, highlighting the artistry, innovation, and community solidarity of quilters from the 1700s through today. The deeply researched text of scholar and artist Dr. Sharbreon Plummer explores quilts as an archive of collective and personal memory, delves into methods of Black quilting—both distinctive and endlessly diverse—and demonstrates the power of quilts and quilting as medicine against grief and oppression.

Stories in the Seams celebrates the act of sewing in solitude or in community, as resistance or as rest.

Dr. Sharbreon Plummer is an internationally distributed writer, public scholar, curator, and interdisciplinary artist. She is the author of Diasporic Threads: Black Women, Fibre and Textiles and editor of Of Salt and Spirit: Black Quilts in the American South. She is based in New Orleans, Louisiana.

IT WILL BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN YOU COULD EVER IMAGINE

The Art of Susan O'Malley

BY CHRISTINA AMINI

The first career-spanning monograph of the healing and optimistic art of Susan O'Malley, presenting all her major works in photographs that burst with color and energy.

Deeply rooted in the San Francisco Bay Area throughout the early 2000s, Susan O'Malley engaged her community with unconventional artistic methods: personalized pep talks, site-specific art installations in strip malls, and billboards in bus shelters. Endlessly inventive and empathetic, O'Malley offered reminders that we are all connected and that everyday life holds profound meaning and beauty.

In this immersive book, O'Malley's major works are presented in vibrant, full color. To encompass her community-focused oeuvre, twenty-four of her collaborators and friends have contributed essays, including Janet Bishop, Chief Curator at SFMOMA, and the beloved illustrator Carissa Potter. This chorus of art luminaries guides you through O'Malley's extraordinary career.

Author and editor Christina Amini is the steward of the Estate of Susan O'Malley and a longtime collaborator of the artist. She oversees Susan's art legacy, with an interest in sharing O'Malley's work with a wide audience. She lives in Ross, California.

THE ENDURANCE PHOTOGRAPHS

A Definitive Visual Record of Shackleton's Expedition

BY THE ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY
FOREWORD BY ALEXANDRA SHACKLETON

Experience Sir Ernest Shackleton's fascinating and harrowing journey as never before. This deluxe art book presents the first high-quality prints of all surviving photographs from the 1914 polar expedition, one of the most epic survival stories of all time.

Crew photographer Frank Hurley not only captured the entire adventure and subsequent survival but also carried his equipment throughout the astonishing two-year ordeal. Digitally mastered from the original glass-plate and celluloid negatives, Hurley's photographs have never been collected together at full definition—until now. Incredible moments from the expedition include:

- The launch from South Georgia in 1914.
- The ship being slowly crushed by the ice.
- The crew's dramatic journey by foot and by lifeboat across 1,000 miles of treacherous waters.
- Camping on ice floes that could break up or capsize at any moment.
- And finally, the successful rescue of all twenty-eight men.

Fifty of the best captures are shown in jaw-dropping full-page reproductions alongside images of the negatives themselves.

BACK TO THE PRESENT

50 Years of Free Expression with Franklin Furnace

EDITED BY MARTHA WILSON

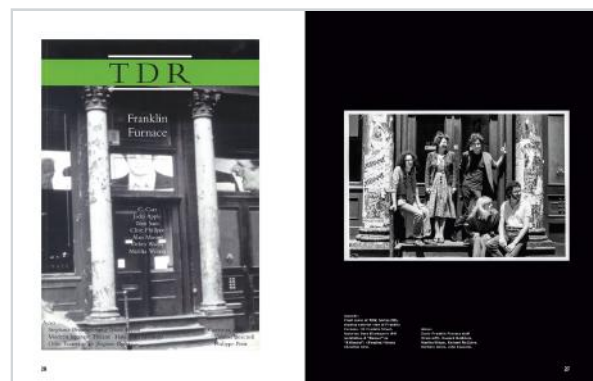

FOREWORD BY ARUNA D'SOUZA

A 50th-anniversary celebration of the legendary arts institution Franklin Furnace. This visually rich volume captures five decades of boundary-breaking art and the ongoing fight to defend creative freedom.

In 1976, at a time when experimental art struggled to find institutional support, artist Martha Wilson founded Franklin Furnace Archive, Inc. in downtown Manhattan. What began as an artist-run space devoted to serving emerging artists and their overlooked work quickly became one of the most vital platforms for avant-garde art in the United States.

As Franklin Furnace celebrates its fiftieth year, this landmark volume traces its extraordinary impact—from the gritty energy of the downtown '70s art scene through the culture wars of the '80s and '90s and into today's renewed debates around censorship, free speech, and artistic freedom.

Both an archive and a call to action, Back to the Present documents how artists challenged institutional norms, defended First Amendment rights, and insisted on the power of art as a tool for social change.

Martha Wilson is a pioneering feminist artist and gallery director who, over the past five decades, has created innovative photographic, performance, and video works. In 1976, she founded Franklin Furnace Archive, Inc. Martha holds a BA, Cum Laude, from Wilmington College and an MA in English Literature from Dalhousie University.

DIEU DONNÉ

Paper Making Art

BY SUSAN GOSIN

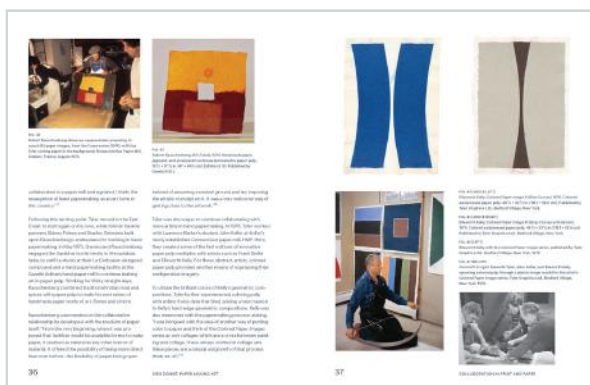

A richly illustrated exploration of the history and process of hand papermaking at non-profit studio Dieu Donn .

Dieu Donn , a New York City non-profit, pioneered the grassroots hand papermaking movement, part of the arts and crafts revival in the 1970s. For the past five decades, Dieu Donn  has led the revolution in hand papermaking by reinventing it as an art medium through collaborations with important contemporary artists. Written by Susan Gosin, cofounder of Dieu Donn , this is the first book to detail hand papermaking as an art form.

More than 450 vibrant images include:

- Photos of the studio and artists at work.
- Depictions of collaborations and techniques.
- Beautiful reproductions of such work as watermarks by William Kentridge, stencils by Greg Lignon, blowouts by Michele Oka Donor, wet pulp printing by Nari Ward, and many more.

Gosin brings together original research, her own first-hand accounts, interviews with pioneering artists involved in the reinvention of printmaking and hand papermaking, and guest essays from contemporary fine artists and practitioners.

Susan Gosin grew up as a member of five generations of commercial papermakers in Wisconsin. After receiving her MFA at The University of Wisconsin, Madison, she co-founded Dieu Donn  in New York City in 1976. She has been involved in the field of hand papermaking as an artist, educator, writer, lecturer and collaborator for 50 years. Presently, she serves as Co-Chair of Dieu Donn  Papermill and as President of Dieu Donn  Press.

FOLGER SHAKESPEARE LIBRARY

Renewal and Revitalization

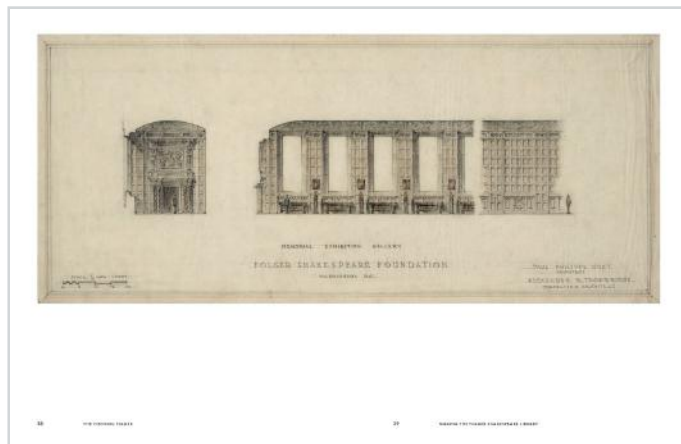

BY STEPHEN KIERAN AND HUWAYDA FAKHRY

The complete story behind the creation, renovation, and transformation of the world's foremost research library on the works, life, and times of William Shakespeare.

Explore the history of the Folger Shakespeare Library in this lushly illustrated volume, which traces the work of those who have built, supported, and reimagined the institution from its founding in 1932 to its renovation and reopening in 2024.

Originally designed by Philadelphia architect Paul Philippe Cret in consultation with collectors Henry and Emily Folger, the library is a significant cultural landmark in Washington, DC. In 2011, a new strategic plan was developed to transform the Folger, making it more accessible to a broader audience of visitors. This collection of essays, featuring archival and contemporary photography, explores the details of the transformative renovation.

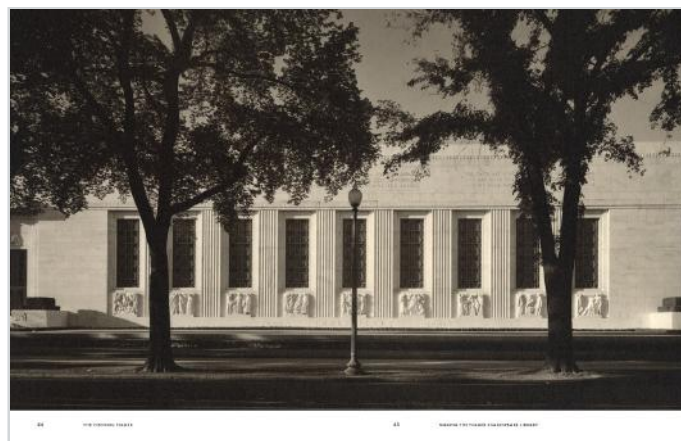

Delve into Philadelphia-based architecture firm KieranTimberlake's assessment of every detail of the original building, along with their design strategy and collaboration with prominent partners to bring the renovation to beautiful fruition.

Stephen Kieran, FAIA, is a founding partner of KieranTimberlake, an internationally acclaimed architecture practice based in Philadelphia. He is a practitioner and scholar whose work emphasizes research-driven design, digital innovation, and the integration of sustainability.

Huwayda Fakhry is the Business Strategy and Communications Director at KieranTimberlake in Philadelphia. With a background spanning business and architecture, she leads the firm's strategic initiatives and communications, aligning design culture with organizational vision.

GRAPHIC DESIGNERS AFTER GRAPHIC DESIGN

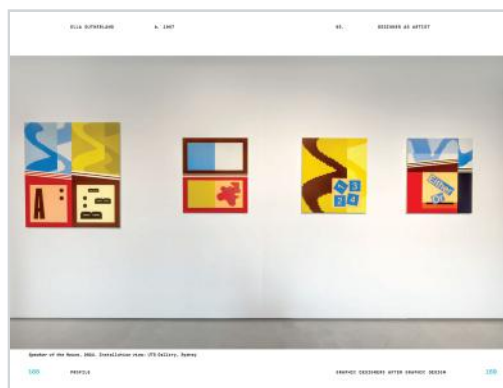

Designer as Publisher / Researcher / Change Maker / Performer / Artist

BY JARRETT FULLER, FOREWORD BY ELLEN LUPTON

A fascinating exploration of contemporary designers who are redefining what it means to be a graphic designer, offering a vibrant celebration and an inspirational reimagining of the medium for students, professionals, and educators in the field.

Drawing from his popular podcast Scratching the Surface, Jarrett Fuller profiles more than 20 graphic designers who have taken the skills acquired through education and on-the-job experience to create new types of practices, working outside traditional commercial contexts. Reimagine what graphic design can mean when viewed through the lens of publisher, programmer, activist, artist, and more. Each chapter features a series of short profiles, an in-depth interview, and a visual exploration of one designer's work.

Including both emerging and midcareer practitioners from around the world, Graphic Designers After Graphic Design showcases a wide variety of innovative creatives who have embraced graphic design's blurry edges.

Jarrett Fuller is a designer, writer, educator, editor, and podcaster. He is an assistant professor and director of undergraduate programs in graphic design at North Carolina State University, director of the design and editorial studio twenty-six, and host of the design podcast Scratching the Surface. He lives in Raleigh, NC.

Lessons for Young Artists

David
Gentleman

LESSONS FOR YOUNG ARTISTS

BY DAVID GENTLEMAN

A charming book of practical guidance and inspiring insight on living a creative life from David Gentleman, one of Britain's most beloved artists.

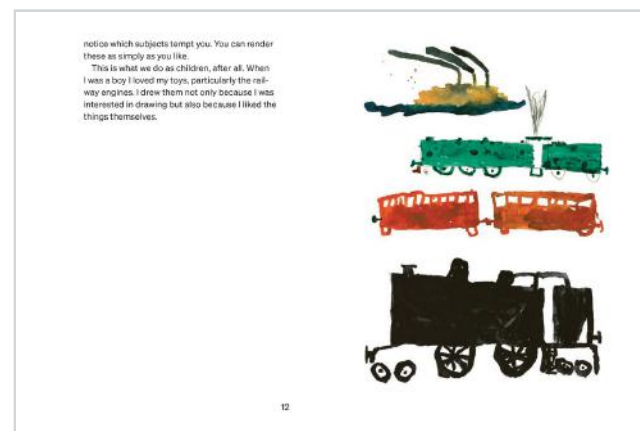

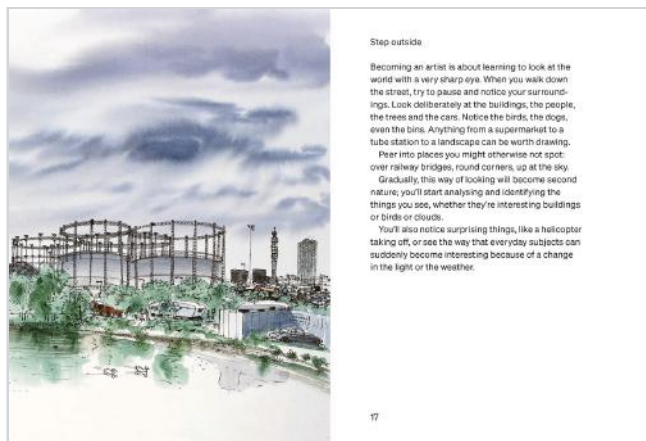

David Gentleman, now in his nineties, and renowned for his drawings, paintings, engravings, and prints, continues to inspire artists the world over. In Lessons for Young Artists, Gentleman shares the tools of his trade, the advice he lives by, and his remarkable commitment to making art every single day in a generous book of creative guidance and counsel.

Here are new ways to:

- Focus, notice the world, and cultivate your own style
- Evolve your work with techniques like playing with time and painting in bad weather
- Get the most out of mistakes and negative criticism
- Take a fresh perspective on your role as an archivist of modern life
- And much more.

Illustrated throughout with the artist's own sketches and paintings as examples and inspiration, this pocket-sized volume is a treasure to give or receive. In its pages, Gentleman's work and lessons remind us, above all, to return always to the simple delights of creativity.

David Gentleman is an English artist, illustrator, designer, and author. His latest book is My Town: An Artist's Life in London. Earlier books include David Gentleman's Britain and related books on London, the British coastline, Paris, India, and Italy. The platform-length mural on the underground at Charing Cross, enlarged from his wood engravings, is one of London's most familiar station designs. He has designed British postage stamps, coins, symbols, and anti-Iraq War placards and has held many exhibitions of watercolors, lithographs, and screen prints.

TINY T. REX AND THE LITTLEST STAR

A Tiny T. Rex Christmas Book

BY JONATHAN STUTZMAN, ILLUSTRATED BY JAY FLECK

Make Christmastime extra merry and bright with Tiny T. Rex and his friends—starring in a holiday picture book from New York Times–bestselling creators Jonathan Stutzman and Jay Fleck!

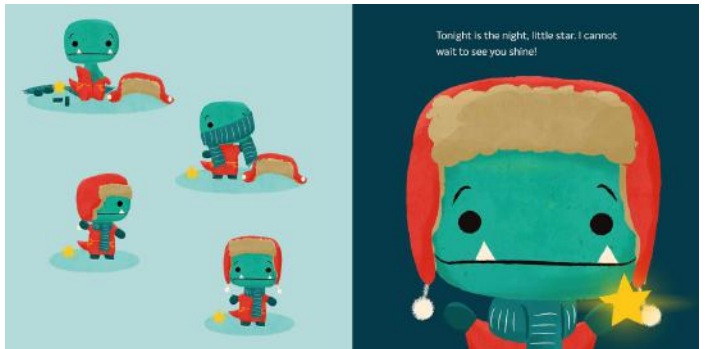

Tiny and his dinosaur community are celebrating the Festival of Stars: decorating every tree in town with shimmering stars on Christmas Eve. Tiny is determined to find the perfect tree for his star—but along the way, he keeps encountering friends who need a helping hand! As trees are claimed and Tiny's hopes of finding a special place for his star grow dim, he discovers an important truth: with kindness, generosity, and the support of friends, even the smallest stars—and dinos—can shine bright.

Filled with the humor and charm the series is loved for, Tiny T. Rex and the Littlest Star is the perfect holiday story about friendship, giving, and finding joy in helping others.

Jonathan Stutzman is an award-winning children's book author and filmmaker. His work for children includes the bestselling Tiny T. Rex series as well as Llama Destroys the World, illustrated by Heather Fox, Bear Is a Bear, illustrated by Dan Santat, and many others. He lives in Pennsylvania.

Jay Fleck is the author-illustrator of Crinkle, Crinkle, Little Car and the illustrator of a number of other children's books, including the bestselling Tiny T. Rex series. He resides in a suburb south of Chicago with his wife, two children, and loyal dog, Otis.

OUR STARRY STARRY NIGHT

BY JIMMY LIAO

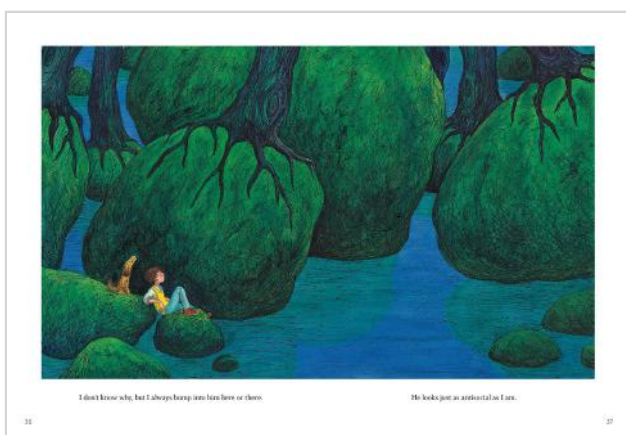

A luminous coming-of-age story about two lonely children who find solace in each other—by renowned international children's author Jimmy Liao.

Our Starry Starry Night is the story of two quiet souls who find each other when the world feels too big. She is an awkward girl struggling with troubles at home and school. He is the silent new neighbor who can only truly be himself when he is alone. Drawn together by feelings neither can name, the two form a fragile, fated friendship—one that offers comfort, escape, and a fleeting sense of wonder beneath a vast, star-filled sky.

In this breathtaking illustrated work, Jimmy Liao blends the intimacy of a picture book with the emotional depth of a graphic novel. Spare, poetic text pairs with illustrations that expand the story with eye-opening details and even deeper feelings, inviting readers to linger, reflect, and return again and again. The result is an immersive reading experience that speaks as powerfully to adults as it does to young people navigating their own inexpressible emotions.

Jimmy Liao is an international icon—one of the most renowned children's book authors in Taiwan and the broader Chinese-speaking world. He has been creating illustrated books for more than twenty years and has published over seventy different works to date.

YOU ARE A LIGHTHOUSE

A Father's Love Letter

BY BERNARD MENSAB, ILLUSTRATED BY TALIA SKYLES

A heartfelt and empowering poem from a Black father to his son, celebrating love, resilience, and a child's limitless potential—in a beautifully illustrated gift-ready hardcover edition.

In this affirming picture book, Bernard Mensah speaks directly to the experience of raising a child with care and intention. He acknowledges that every child will stumble, face challenges, and grow through difficult moments—but he emphasizes something even more important: they are never alone. They are supported, valued, and capable of rising again.

With warm, expressive illustrations by Talia Skyles that capture everyday moments of connection between parent and child, You Are a Lighthouse balances tenderness with strength. It is designed to be read again and again, and makes a meaningful gift for baby showers, birthdays, graduation, or a keepsake for milestones big and small.

BRUNO MUNARI'S ABC

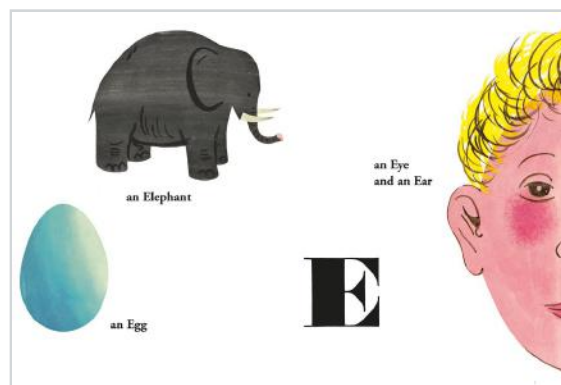

BY BRUNO MUNARI

First published in 1960, this iconic alphabet book by legendary designer Bruno Munari returns in a beautifully refreshed edition—ready to delight a new generation with its wit, ingenuity, and timeless design.

Bruno Munari—internationally celebrated artist, graphic designer, and innovator—brought a bold modern sensibility to children's publishing, transforming simple concepts into imaginative visual experiences.

In this inventive ABC book, the alphabet becomes an adventure filled with clever wordplay and whimsical details. Watch as tiny Fly frees itself from the page, lands on a Hat, hovers near the Ice Cream, and buzzes its way to a drowsy "Zzzz." Munari's visual humor invites readers to look closely, turn pages eagerly, and discover fresh details with every revisit.

Perfect for reading aloud, sharing in classrooms, or displaying on a coffee table, this is both an engaging introduction to letters and a masterclass in visual storytelling. For families, educators, design enthusiasts, and collectors, it's a joyful reminder that learning the alphabet can be playful, surprising, and artful all at once.

Bruno Munari was an internationally acclaimed artist, designer, and children's book creator. A contemporary of Leo Lionni, his books are inventive, graphically stunning, and stand the test of time.

SEVEN CURIOUS ANTS

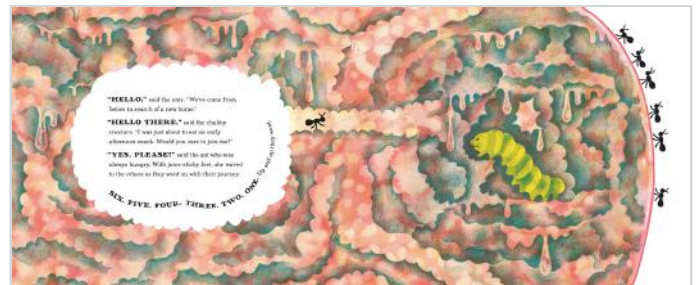

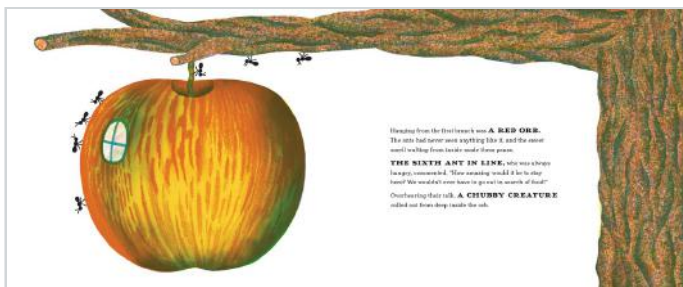

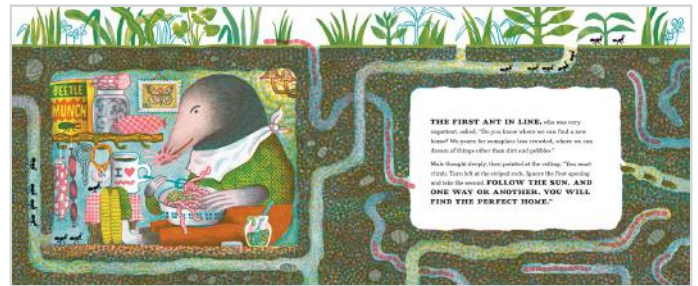

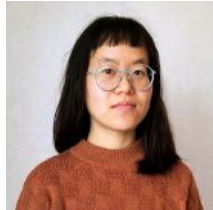

BY JOOHEE YOON

Classic meets modern in this dazzling illustrated storybook about friendship and home. By the artist whose debut picture book, The Tiger Who Would Be King, was named a New York Times/New York Public Library Best Illustrated Children's Book.

On the day the 200,501st ant is born in a crowded anthill, seven adventurous ants decide it's time to find a new home—one with more space and more light, less work and more play. Together they set off through the woods in search of the perfect spot. One by one, they each find a place that seems just right—but is it?

Drawing upon her skills as a printmaker, JooHee Yoon has created a classic adventure story—a tiny quest with big themes of friendship and home that will stand the test of time.

JooHee Yoon is an author, illustrator, and printmaker whose work has been featured in The New York Times, The Washington Post, New Yorker Magazine and Le Monde. Her first picture book, The Tiger Who Would Be King, was named one of the New York Times 10 Best Illustrated Children's Books. JooHee immigrated to the United States from South Korea when she was seven years old and has lived in fourteen different homes since then. After much searching, she finds herself settled in Providence, Rhode Island.

THERE'S A DRAGON IN THE WELL!

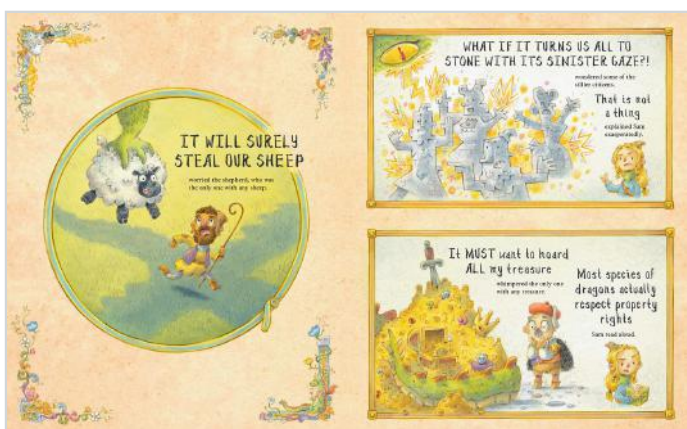

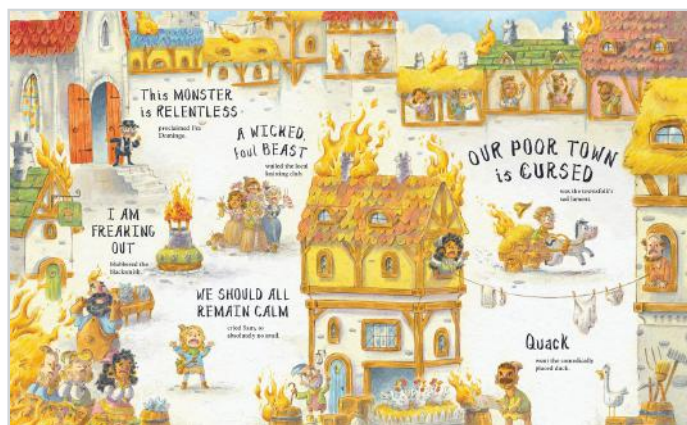

BY JAMES SERAFINO

Terror takes over the town when a harmless dragon moves into the well in this humorous picture book about overcoming preconceived ideas born out of fear.

A fire-breathing dragon is discovered in the well, and the townsfolk are quick to panic. "A wicked, foul BEAST," wails the local knitting club. "This MONSTER is relentless," proclaims the clergyman. "Our poor town is CURSED," goes up the sad lament.

But wait . . . is this dragon really as dangerous as they think?

Despite one child's insistence that the dragon is harmless—based on her encyclopedic dragon knowledge—fear quickly turns into something even bigger and scarier than a fiery beast hidden in the dark: an angry mob! Will the villagers be able to quiet their yelling, put down their pitchforks, and conquer their fear in time to realize that sometimes a dragon in a well might turn out to be a gift rather than a curse?

Sir James of Serafino has studied dragons for the past twenty years. He honed his skills as a young squire in the New City of York before pledging his sacred honor to the perilous profession of dragonology. He can be found living in a cottage with his witchy wife and goblin child in the hamlet of Hopewell, New Jerseyshire.

AROUND THE WHEEL OF THE YEAR

Celebrations for Every Season

BY PHOEBE WAHL AND DANICA BOYCE

Celebrate the turning of the seasons with this warm and magical read-aloud, where traditional nature festivals meet the everyday wonder of the year's changing cycle.

Dance around the maypole, share in the summer harvest, savor the tricks and treats of Halloween, and merrily welcome the winter solstice: Four richly illustrated poems highlight spring, summer, autumn, and winter through joyful traditions tied to the natural world.

In this fun and educational celebration of the seasons, award-winning author and artist Phoebe Wahl and folklore researcher and popular podcaster Danica Boyce invite young readers to experience traditional seasonal festivities inspired by Northern European customs such as Beltane and Yule.

A section of backmatter introduces the historical roots of these traditions and explains how they connect to the year's natural cycle.

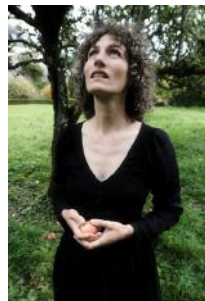

Families who celebrate seasonal holidays will enjoy discovering their origins, while curious readers will find new ways to notice and appreciate the world around them.

Each poem's rhythmic language and vivid illustrations capture the feeling of a different time of year—spring's blooming celebrations, summer's abundance, autumn's cozy gatherings, and winter's quiet magic.

Phoebe Wahl is an award-winning children's book author, illustrator, and surface designer. Her previous books include the Ezra Jack Keats Award winner Sonya's Chickens, Backyard Fairies, The Blue House, Little Witch Hazel, and the bestselling illustrated YA novel Phoebe's Diary. Phoebe lives in Bellingham, Washington.

Danica Boyce is a teacher and a writer on the topics of folklore and vernacular spirituality. She is the author of A Wreath of Winter: Meditations on Northern Folklore for the Nightside of the Year and Tomten: The Lore of the Christmas Gnome. She lives between northern England and southern Scotland.

BELONGING

BY KIMIMILA LOCKE AND TERESA DZIEGLEWICZ
ILLUSTRATED BY SHERIDAN EVE MACKNIGHT
TRANSLATED BY GRACE DRASKOVIC

Inspired by the author's real-life journeys, this Lakota-English bilingual picture book follows a mother and daughter on a road trip from Atlanta, Georgia, to Standing Rock in the Dakotas—celebrating family, culture, and the meaning of belonging every step of the way.

Strapped into a cramped car but eager for the journey ahead, a little girl and her mother embark on a cross-country road trip from Atlanta to Standing Rock. En route, they watch the sunrise from atop the Cahokia Mounds, pray at rivers, and swim in a prairie lake. Finally, mother and daughter arrive at Standing Rock in time for the Annual Wakpála Wačhípi (powwow).

Through their journey, this family lives in the teachings of Mitákuye Owás'ín (we are all related). They honor their connection with the Human Relatives, Plant and Animal Relatives, and Land and Water Ancestors. Whether with their Black family in Atlanta or their Lakota family in Standing Rock, this family belongs to more than one community and more than one place.

Kimimila Locke is an educator and activist from the Standing Rock Lakota Nation in South Dakota and Ahtna Dené Nation in Tazlina, Alaska.

Teresa Dzieglewicz is a Pushcart Prize-winning poet, educator, and lover of rivers and prairies.

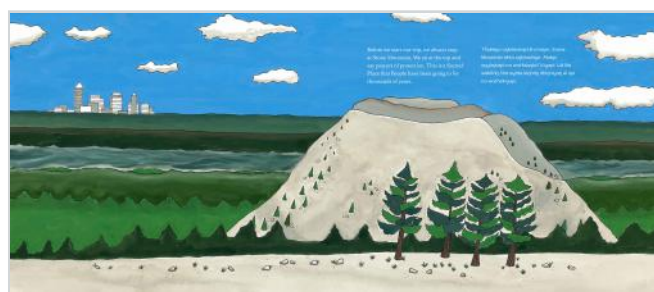

Sheridan MacKnight is an award-winning painter and jeweler whose work reflects a contemporary Native American perspective.

FIRE IN YOUR BELLY

BY REBECCA LAFOND, ILLUSTRATED BY ALY MCKNIGHT

A beautiful, poetic picture book about how the emotions we feel inside can connect us with our ancestors and give us courage for the future.

Late one night, a Cree girl's kookum (grandmother) tells her a bedtime story of how the world came to be. How long ago, embers fell from the sky and made all living things, big and small. And how, to this day, little pieces of the sky continue to live warm in our bellies.

With lyrical, flowing text and powerful watercolor illustrations, this uplifting story illuminates how that fire within connects us all from generation to generation and is fed with every emotion we experience: It glows from joy when we're picking fresh summer raspberries, hisses when emotions are a fierce storm, smolders with anger, and ignites when our bellies fill with laughter while splashing in puddles.

Page by page, the girl learns how to appreciate and feed the embers with laughter and love, and to release feelings when they build like thunder by letting tears stream down like cleansing rain. She learns that the fire is what makes us strong and gives us courage, even when we doubt ourselves.

A traditional Indigenous story to treasure, Fire in Your Belly shares the universal message that we are forever connected to the ancestors who passed down the fire generations ago—and that we each continue to carry it to brighten all that is, ever was, and will be.

RAINBOW TRUCK

BY COLLEEN PAEFF AND HINA ABIDI, ILLUSTRATED BY SAFFA KHAN

Take a ride through Pakistan in Rainbow Truck, an uplifting tale about a colorful truck that discovers all the wonderful things it can do. This strikingly illustrated picture book pays tribute to a favorite Pakistani tradition and art form.

Rainbow Truck is eager to learn her purpose as she travels through the shifting landscapes of Pakistan. As she is transformed from a rusted and worn truck to a Technicolor work of art, Rainbow Truck wonders what her new job will be: Could it be to carry cargo? Perhaps she is meant to provide shelter?

Along the road from Karachi to Lahore, Rainbow Truck exchanges tea bundles for warm wool, carries delicious treats, and meets new friends. But it isn't until her journey's end that she discovers that her most important job is bringing people together.

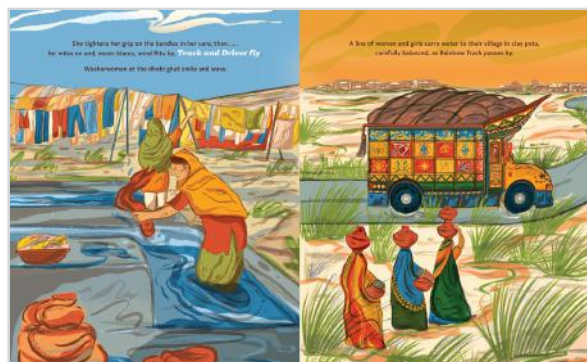

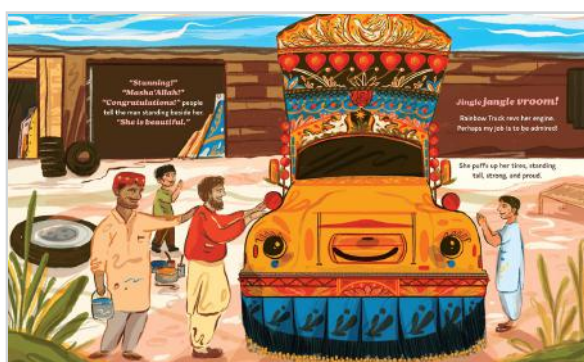

Colleen Paeff writes award-winning picture books from a book-lined office in an old pink house with a view of the Hollywood sign. A former preschool teacher and bookseller, she loves to see art in surprising places—on shoes, buildings, bodies, and, especially, on trucks. Colleen lives in Los Angeles, California.

Hina Abidi was thrilled and fascinated by the imposing, elaborately painted trucks she saw as a child growing up in Pakistan. Now, she visits Pakistan every year, traveling off the beaten path, meeting local people, and learning about their diverse artistic and cultural traditions. Hina lives in Los Angeles, California, surrounded by an assortment of rescued dogs and cats.

Saffa Khan is a visual artist born in Dera Ismail Khan, Pakistan, and based in Glasgow, Scotland. She teaches alternative methods of creative education, self-publishes printed matter, and is the illustrator of Like the Moon Loves the Sky.

OVER AND UNDER THE PARK

BY KATE MESSNER

ILLUSTRATED BY CHRISTOPHER SILAS NEAL

Celebrate the diversity and biodiversity of Central Park in this fascinating exploration of urban parks, from the New York Times bestselling author and award-winning illustrator of the beloved Over and Under series!

Part of the acclaimed nature book series that includes Over and Under the Pond, Over and Under the Coral Reef, and Over and Under the Snow, this volume follows four different families as they explore the four seasons of Central Park in New York City.

Over the park, children soar on swings while dragonflies hover and dart. Blackbirds trill octaves above a cellist's deeply moving melody. And under the park, where earthworms wiggle in the soil and tadpoles nibble on algae, there waits a whole population of painted turtles and woolly bear caterpillars, of fluffy raccoons and chipmunks whose cheeks are stuffed with seeds. Welcome each new season with a new sense of community—of families, friends, and wildlife—over and under the park.

A fun, vibrantly illustrated behind-the-scenes tour of the inner workings of a natural history museum and all the incredible people who work there!

Welcome to the Science and Natural History Museum! Here you'll see all kinds of cool things, from a whole Dunkleosteus skeleton to a tiny dwarf seahorse to a glimpse of the Andromeda Galaxy. You'll also meet all kinds of cool people—like volcanologists, paleontologists, squid biologists, and many more—who research fascinating questions so that they can answer yours.

But what do these people do all day at the science museum?

Well, there's only one way to find out! Join a field trip through the busy museum and find out about all the kinds of scientists who work there and each of their incredible fields.

THE FARAWAY FOREST: HESTER'S BIG DREAM

BY DEBBIE FONG, WITH COLORS BY KAYLA CATANZARO

Hester has just moved to the Faraway Forest. As a night owl, she loves to rise just as the sun sets, and she keeps herself busy all night with her hobbies: dancing, cooking, writing, and costume making. But Hester wonders if there are new friends to be made when the sun is out. Can she stay awake long enough to find out? Or will she discover there is more to the mysterious forest night than she imagines? Either way, Hester is definitely going to have an adventure!

For readers who love The Faraway Forest: Wally's Route or anyone new to this lively illustrated series, good feelings and great fun await in this delightful story.

"In this sweetly humorous, thoughtfully paced story world, Fong offers a gentle reminder that community is built on empathy and care. As inviting as a warm hug, this title delivers first-class appeal." —Booklist on Book 1

STELLA & MARIGOLD: PAST AND PRESENTS

Book 3

BY ANNIE BARROWS

ILLUSTRATED BY SOPHIE BLACKALL

The next adventure in the fun and funny early chapter book series about two small sisters with very big imaginations—from the beloved creators of the New York Times bestselling Ivy + Bean, Annie Barrows and Sophie Blackall.

There is the whole world, and in it, there's a city, and in that city, there's a house, and in that house lives a pair of sisters named Stella and Marigold. But the house is very old, so they are not the only children who have ever lived in it. One surprising day, they discover that there was another girl, maybe named Ziamara, who not only lived in their house, but wrote on the wall and left secret presents for Stella and Marigold. Inspired by this hero from the past, Stella and Marigold make great plans for the future.

With lots of adventure, a dynamic relationship, and colorful pictures, this series is perfect for emerging readers. This unlikely duo will have readers LOL-ing!

Annie Barrows is the New York Times bestselling author of many books for both children and adults, including the beloved Ivy + Bean series, which can also be seen on Netflix; The Best of Iggy series; the young adult novel Nothing; and the adult bestselling novel The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society. She lives in Northern California.

Sophie Blackall is an award-winning illustrator whose books are beloved around the world. Her previous books include If You Come to Earth, Ruby's Wish, and the Ivy + Bean series, as well as Hello Lighthouse and Finding Winnie: The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear, both of which were awarded the Caldecott Medal. She lives in New York.

THE STORY OF GUMLUCK AND THE PORTRAIT THIEF

Book 4

BY ADAM REX

The story of Gumluck continues! Dive into the artfully funny fourth installation in the critically acclaimed chapter book series from New York Times bestselling author Adam Rex.

The queen's portrait has been stolen from the museum. Who took it? The terrible troll? The prideful prince? The raiding raccoon? Gumluck the Wizard, his faithful friend Helvetica the Raven, her three clever chicks, and Butterscotch, the little ghost who haunts Gumluck's hair, are on the case.

Gumluck is a wonderful wizard, but sometimes he spoils his spells—like when he tries to make a painting but ends up making a monster by mistake!—and that spells trouble. Will Gumluck and his friends catch the thief? There's only one way to find out.

POETRY COMICS: FLIGHTS OF IMAGINATION

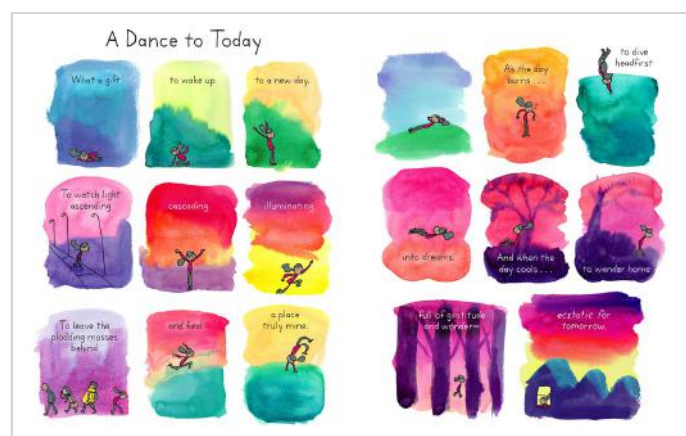

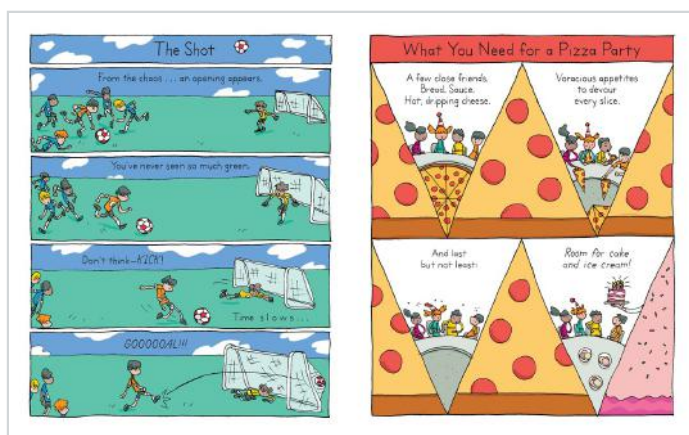

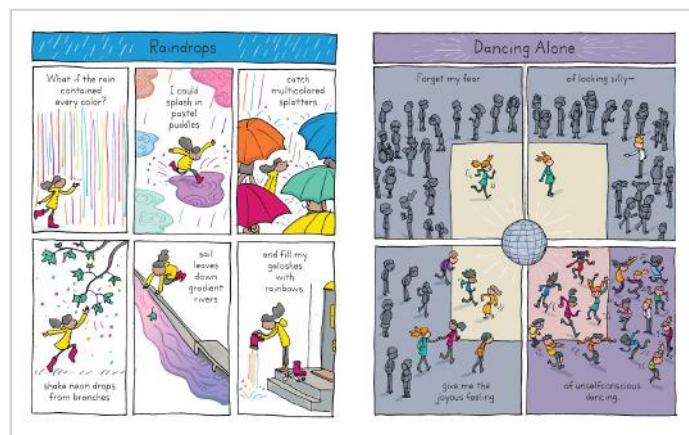

Poetry Comics II

BY GRANT SNIDER

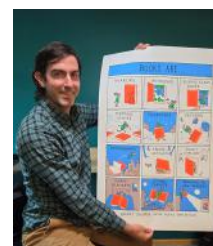

From Grant Snider, creator of the beloved webcomic Incidental Comics, comes the companion volume to his Eisner Award-nominated Poetry Comics—a playful and thought-provoking collection that blends poetry and comics to explore imagination, creativity, and the many ways we experience the world.

In Poetry Comics: Flights of Imagination, cartoonist and poet Grant Snider invites readers to see poetry in a whole new way—through the colorful panels of comics.

This inventive collection pairs short poems with expressive illustrations that capture moments of curiosity, creativity, and everyday wonder. Some poems are funny, some are thoughtful, and others explore feelings that are hard to put into words. Together, they create a playful journey through imagination, emotions, and the small discoveries that make up a day.

Grant Snider is the author of Poetry Comics, Nothing Ever Happens on a Gray Day, One Boy Watching, and What Color Is Night?, among other wonderful books. Grant lives in Wichita, Kansas, with his wife and kids.

EARTH IS A LIVING THING

Black Poets and the Natural World

BY NADINE PINEDE

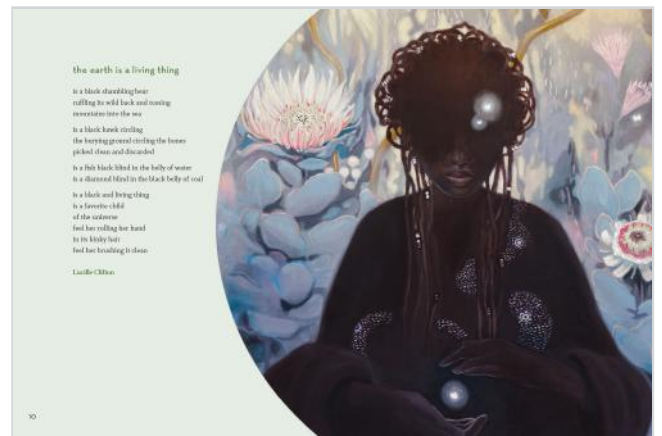

ILLUSTRATED BY LEILA ROSE FANNER

A vibrant, illustrated anthology of Black poets—from Langston Hughes and Nikki Giovanni to Amanda Gorman and Ross Gay—celebrating nature, joy, freedom, and belonging in the natural world.

Earth Is a Living Thing is an exciting and accessible poetry anthology created especially for teen and tween readers who are curious about the natural world and how, in the Black experience, nature has been and continues to be a space of injustice.

Bringing together a dynamic range of voices from across generations, this collection features classic and contemporary Black poets, including Lucille Clifton, Frank X Walker, Zetta Elliott, Jean Toomer, Carole Boston Weatherford, and Ibi Zoboi. Each poem offers a fresh perspective on the outdoors, illuminating the ways that nature can be a place of creativity, freedom, memory, and possibility.

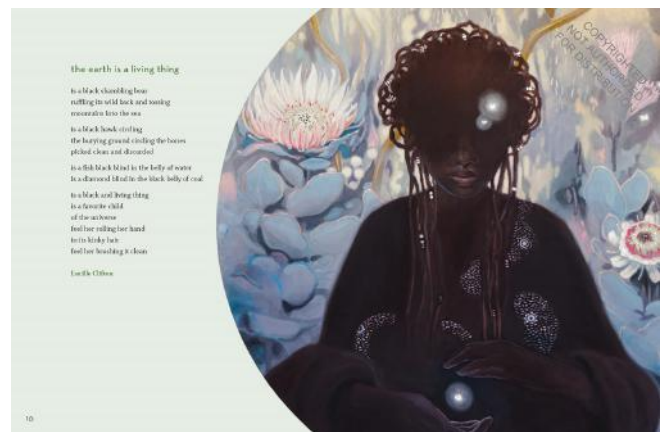

With vivid artwork by fine artist Leila Fanner, this is a visually striking and inviting collection for young readers and adults alike. The varied poetic styles and forms make it perfect for classroom study or independent reading. Helpful backmatter includes discussion questions and writing prompts that encourage readers to try their own hand at poetry.

SEEN AND UNSEEN

What Dorothea Lange, Toyo Miyatake, and Ansel Adams's Photographs Reveal About the Japanese American Incarceration

BY ELIZABETH PARTRIDGE
ILLUSTRATED BY LAUREN TAMAKI

Winner of the Robert F. Sibert Informational Book Medal
Winner of the BolognaRagazzi Award for Photography
Named a Best Book of the Year by Booklist, Kirkus Reviews,
School Library Journal, New York Public Library, Chicago
Public Library, and others.

This important work of nonfiction features powerful images of the Japanese American incarceration captured by three photographers—Dorothea Lange, Toyo Miyatake, and Ansel Adams—along with firsthand accounts of this grave moment in history.

Elizabeth Partridge is the acclaimed author of more than a dozen books for young readers, including biographies of Dorothea Lange, Woody Guthrie, and John Lennon. Her books have received many honors, including National Book Award finalist, Boston Globe–Horn Book Award, Los Angeles Times Book Prize, ALA Michael L. Printz Honor, and Jane Addams Children's Book Award.

Lauren Tamaki is a Canadian illustrator living in New York. Her clients include The New York Times, and The Wall Street Journal, and her work has been recognized by the Society of Illustrators, the Society for News Design, AI-AP, and the National Magazine Awards.

Three months after Japan attacked Pearl Harbor in 1941, US President Franklin D. Roosevelt ordered the incarceration of all Japanese and Japanese Americans living on the West Coast of the United States. Families, teachers, farm workers—all were ordered to leave behind their homes, their businesses, and everything they owned. Japanese and Japanese Americans were forced to live under hostile conditions in incarceration camps, their futures uncertain.

Three photographers set out to document life at Manzanar, an incarceration camp in the California desert:

FREE THROWS, FRIENDSHIP, AND OTHER THINGS WE FOULED UP

BY JENN BISHOP

Competitive basketball takes center court in this fast-paced sports book about two girls discovering the truth about themselves—and their families—against the backdrop of middle school and college hoops.

Cincinnati, Ohio, lives and dies by college basketball, with two elite Division I rivals separated by a mere three miles. Rory's dad has just become the coach at the University of Cincinnati, which means moving yet again—this time to her dad's hometown. Rory's life revolves around basketball; she's never had a close friend outside of it. Could this be a chance for a fresh start?

THE HOUSE IN POPLAR WOOD

BY K. E. ORMSBEE

A heartwarming and haunting story about two boys' desire to be free, one girl's desire to make a difference, and a family's desire to be together again.

For as long as the Vickery twins can remember, Poplar House has been divided into two parts: On the east side, Felix lives with his father and Death, and on the west side, Lee lives with his mother and Memory. And the brothers are only able to leave the house together on one night a year—Halloween. This is the Agreement, and it is permanent. They've learned that the hard way. But one Halloween, Gretchen Whipple smashes her way into their lives and offers them a deal: If the twins help her solve the murder of a local girl, she'll help them break the Agreement.

PENDLETON SALMON FALLS 1000-PIECE PUZZLE

BY PENDLETON WOOLEN MILLS

A 1,000-piece puzzle with an all-new, evocative, and colorful Pendleton design, from beloved heritage American brand Pendleton Woolen Mills.

In colors that evoke the Pacific Northwest, the Salmon Falls pattern on this puzzle showcases a leaping Chinook salmon returning to the stream where he hatched. Below him, the salmon life cycle unfolds, from eggs to fry to smolt to adult, with other stages between. The annual journey to reproduce is arduous, and fewer salmon make it each year due to environmental changes.

RICHARD NEUTRA NOTEBOOK

A lined journal

BY NEUTRA INSTITUTE

Find inspiration in this gorgeous, lined notebook featuring quotes and a short biography of mid-century architect Richard Neutra. The Richard Neutra Notebook celebrates this incredible architect by showcasing one of his acclaimed house designs, the Adolph Brown House from 1950, on the cover. Quotes from Richard Neutra scattered throughout, along with a brief biography, provide inspiration and encouragement for designers, architects, students, and travelers.

Starting in the early 1920s, Richard Neutra was one of the first modernist architects to move away from the architecture of adornment to focus on the needs of all kinds of people. He advocated for the use of new technology to make good design affordable and responsive to climate, as well as integrating nature and the landscape into the built environment.

HOW TO PLAY

Play as individuals or teams and correctly answer as many questions as possible. There are three ways to play depending on the level of expertise in the group: go 50/50 for the fan who's working through the back catalog; offer four multiple-choice answers to the fan who knows their stuff; and the ultimate super-fan who thinks they know it all only hears the question, no clues.

9 781797 237411

HOW TO PLAY

1. The host draws 18 cards—these stay the same for the whole game, so listen to what the other team says!
2. In rounds 1 and 2, teams go head-to-head to get as many answers as they can before the time runs out.
3. In round 3, there's no timer, but the clues are only one word. So, how many answers can you remember?

WHO IT'S FOR

Made to be played with Star Wars superfans. It's also the perfect way to kick off an epic movie marathon!
