'Tyndale 500': Celebrating the 500th Anniversary of the Tyndale Bible

EXHIBITION

1st September - 18th November 2026 | See website for times |  All welcome | Donations encouraged

As part of our centenary celebrations, we will mark 500 years since William Tyndale's English New Testament was first printed, with a fascinating exhibition. Tyndale 500 brings together the story of translation, the turbulent world of Tudor England, and the extraordinary technology of the early printing press.

At the heart of this exhibition will be a rare, original 1535 edition of Tyndale's English New Testament (on loan from the British Library) - a witness to the moment Scripture began to travel widely in the language of the people. First printed in 1526, it was a decisive moment in the story of English Christianity, public worship, and the English language itself. This exhibition focuses on translation and Tyndale's use of technology and will feature the display of a number of other notable Bibles and children's activities too.

Whether you're visiting as a pilgrim, a history-lover, a reader of Scripture, or simply curious, guests are welcome to view the exhibition during the Cathedral's normal opening hours (some entry restrictions may apply on certain days). There is no charge to visit, however as a charity, we rely on donations to support the costs and visitor generosity enables us to continue hosting important events like this in the future.

Exactly 100 years ago, Blackburn witnessed a theatrical phenomenon like no other. Step back in time to September 1926, when an astonishing cast of over 2,000 local people took to the stage in a massive, breathtaking production.

It was a soaring triumph that captivated the entire town, celebrating both the power of Christianity and the grit and determination of the people of Blackburn. But behind the grand spectacle lay a whirlwind of human drama and during this special interactive presentation, you'll discover:

The Behind-the-Scenes Battle: The legendary rivalry between the formidable director, Miss Ida Shaw, and the Reverend John Wallis. The Backstage Chaos: Hilarious, untold stories and mishaps from the frantic rehearsal weeks. Four Days of Glory: How sheer local determination turned a logistical mountain into a roaring, highly successful four-day triumph.

Presented as part of the Cathedral's centenary celebrations, this one-night-only event provides a unique opportunity to experience the laughter, rivalry, and community spirit that defined Blackburn a century ago. Don't miss this incredible journey into our town and Cathedral's vibrant history!

A Ceremony of Carols

CONCERT

Sat 19th Dec 2026 | 7pm |  | Book online

Combining two of the best-loved classical Christmas works of all time, this promises to be a very special concert.

The first half features 'La Nativité du Seigneur' by Olivier Messiaen - one of the 20th Century's most famous and colourful Christmas organ pieces - performed by Director of Music, John Robinson.

Following the interval, the Cathedral will come alive to Benjamin Britten's captivating masterpiece 'A Ceremony of Carols' which combines harp and the sensational voices of the junior Cathedral choristers.
