If you're interested in the history of Cains, then a heritage tour is a great idea. Our Guide will take you on a journey through time and give you a fascinating glimpse into the famous Cains story.

A SPACE FOR EVERY OCCASION

INSPIRED BY OUR FOUNDER

SPIKE ISLAND

Robert Cain was born on Spike Island, an island spanning 103 acres in Cork Harbour, County Cork, Ireland on 29th April 1826.

Taking your celebration underground below the brewery, the perfect space for a unique gathering. With mood lighting and some wonderful features, you'll be sure to wow your guests.

LIMEKILN LANE

In 1850 the natural foresight of Cain led him to start a small brewery in Limekiln Lane. From the start he was determined to work day and night to establish the business and adopted the adage for himself.

"If you would be well served you must serve yourself."

Positioned on the First Floor, this area can hold up to 25 people. Limekiln Lane Looks out over Stanhope Street and the bustling Cains Brewery Village. The perfect space for smaller gatherings, baby showers, birthday celebrations or family get togethers.

WILTON'S LOUNGE

After only three years, Robert Cain out grew Limekiln Lane and he moved the brewery to a larger place in Wilton Street. Over the next 5 years the output doubled and again growth required a change of premises. in 1858 cain moved to our current location

On the first floor, an area available to hire out, with the buzz and atmosphere of the main bar, can hold 140 guests. Our fabulous Cocktail bar is situated in this area. perfect for larger gatherings, baby showers, birthday parties or corporate gatherings.

ROBERT CAIN

TERRACOTTA LOUNGE

The Stanhope Street brewery was extended several times by Robert Cain but it was the works completed between 1900-1902 which he will forever be remembered for.

In 1902 Robert Cain completed the unique building, known by the locals as the Terracotta Palace. The man now known as the King of The Toxteths had build his final castle.

Based on the ground floor and suitable for a large groups of up to 50-60 people. The perfect space to celebrate birthdays, engagements, stag / hen celebrations.

THE LIBRARY

"If love was a book, ours would be a library..." Not only the story of Liverpool in a pint, but also the story of love. The library is home to the 'Shoemakers Arms' our personal tribute to Robert Cains wife, Ann Newall, the daughter of James Newall, a Liverpool shoemaker.

Positioned on the first floor overlooking The Courtyard. Plan your team meeting with a twist for up to 15 people. A unique setting for business talks and with your own personal tap in the room, its perfect for after meeting drinks.

PACEM AMO

THE BROCKETTS

Cain had 11 children, including five sons and six daughters. Two of his sons joined the British establishment. William Cain became a baronet while Charles Cains entered the House of Lords in 1933 at the first Baron Brocket.

Positioned on the first floor overlooking The Courtyard. Plan your team meeting with a twist for up to 12 people. A unique setting for business talks and with your own personal tap in the room, its perfect for after meeting drinks.

WHAT'S ON AT DOCTOR DUNCAN'S

JUST WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED

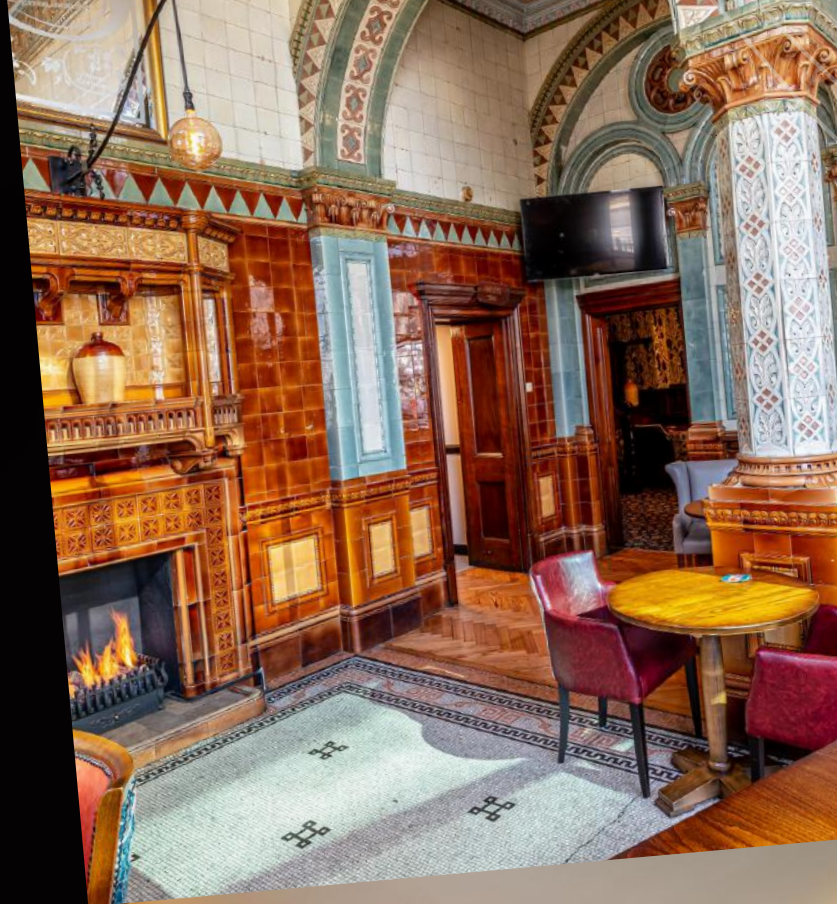

Away from Cains Brewery, sitting in the shadows of St George's Hall in Queen's Square. This beautiful venue is perfectly located a short stroll from Lime Street Station.

Doctor Duncan's is named after William Henry Duncan, the UK's first Medical Health Officer. Duncan was born and raised in Liverpool before attending Edinburgh University where he qualified as a medical doctor. After moving back to his hometown Doctor Duncan was appointed as Medical Health Officer on 1 st January 1847, the first of this type of Senior Government role in Britain. The pub, dating back to 1901, was built to house Pearl Insurance and is well known for its elaborately tiled interior. Now, in honour of its namesake, it houses an authentic Victorian pharmacy cabinet.

We have great spaces available to hire for any occasion. Our team can help create your perfect event and our onsite chefs can cater to all your needs.
