Thank You

I've been sitting with this for a while — what can I actually do to say thank you to the customers who've been with me since 2017?

We're coming up on our 10-year anniversary, and I wanted to do something special. For those who weren't able to join us in Thailand for the full JetLife experience, I put together something just for you — a mini Medellín, Colombia getaway. Just to say thank you for sticking with us this long.

It's four nights in Medellín over Memorial Day weekend — so you'll only need to take off maybe one day of work. You'll be staying at a luxury hotel in one of the safest, most beautiful parts of the city, and it includes a JetLife Party. There's also an optional boat party if you want to keep the energy going.

CRAZY RICH COLOMBIA

Welcome to Medellín

Your hotel sits in the heart of El Poblado — Medellín's safest, most upscale neighborhood, known for tree-lined streets, boutique shopping, and the city's best nightlife just steps away.

Getting around is easy — Uber runs throughout the city, with most rides in El Poblado averaging $3-8 USD.

Breakfast is included every morning of your stay.

Over four days, you'll kick things off with our Welcome to Colombia Party, dance the night away at our Boat Party, dive into an optional Afro-Colombian cultural experience, and close it all out with the JetLife Party — Colombia holds the second-largest African-descendant population in Latin America, right behind Brazil, with nearly 5 million people of African diaspora.

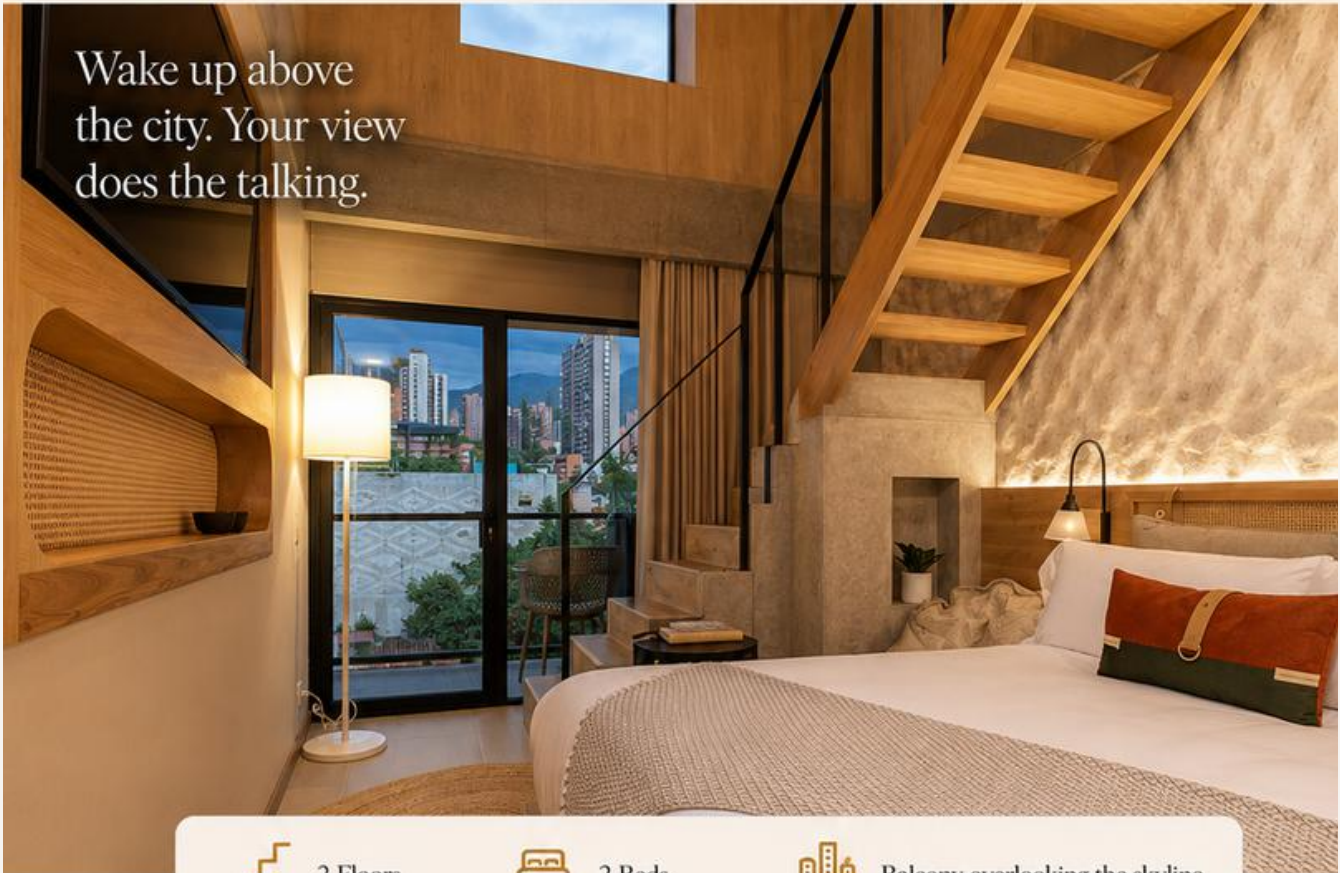

When the sun goes down, El Poblado comes alive — rooftop bars with skyline views, live music, and an energy that doesn't quit.
